Spring 2010 Leadership Weekend Registration
Rhode Island College students are invited to submit applications for PATHWAYS TO LEADERSHIP: Rhode Island College Student Leadership Weekend scheduled for Friday, March 5 – Sunday, March 7. This off-campus program is geared for “up and coming” underclassmen who plan to be involved in student organizations or other campus leadership positions during the 2010-2011 academic year—and who have not previously attended a RIC Leadership Weekend. The featured presenter is Michael Miller, a nationally known, incredibly dynamic facilitator and the program will focus on understanding leadership styles, goal setting, appreciating differences and networking with other RIC students and leaders at Rhode Island College. All details can be found through the Student Activities Leadership Development Programs website at http://www.ric.edu/student_activities/leadership.php#section02. On Line Registration is available at http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/2010RICStudentLeadershipWeekend. The deadline to apply is Wednesday, February 10. Co-sponsored by Student Community Government and Student Union/Activities. BACK TO TOP

Rhode Island College Master Plan Charrette – Student Input Wanted!
RIC has hired a team of architects, planners, engineers and landscape architects to develop a 10-year facilities Master Plan for the college – and they are looking to start with YOUR THOUGHTS AND IDEAS! Students (and the campus community) are asked to stop by discussion tables set up in Donovan (main dining room, near the elevators) on Wednesday, February 3 from 9:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m., and Thursday, February 4 from 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m., to share your observations and vision for the college. Questions could include, “What kind of things would help make the Student Union a great place for RIC students?”, among others. Get involved and make your thoughts known. For more information, visit the Master Plan website at http://www.ric.edu/masterplan09/.

Community Supports Navigators
The Paul V. Sherlock Center on Disabilities at Rhode Island College, in collaboration with the Rhode Island Parent Information Network (RIPIN) and the advocacy organization PAL, is sponsoring a four-course program to recruit and train Community Supports Navigators. The program will prepare participants to assist youth with intellectual and developmental disabilities, their families and trusted allies in planning, designing and managing the supports necessary to live a full adult life in the community. Participants will be selected through an application and interview process. Courses will include Self-Determination: Supporting Life in the Community (April, 2010); Facilitating Person-Centered Planning (May, 2010); Self-Directed Community Supports (September, 2010); and Developing Meaningful Employment (October, 2010). Additionally, participants will be assigned to work with a family during a summer practicum. Individual coaching will be provided. Each course consists of four sessions. All classes will be held at the Sherlock Center on Wednesdays, 6:00 – 9:00 p.m. There is no charge.
To request an application, contact Claire Rosenbaum, Adult Supports Coordinator at the Sherlock Center. Call 401-456-4732 (direct line), 401-456-8773 (TDD) or e-mail crosenbaum@ric.edu. Applications are due by February 12. Space is limited.
