

The Institute For Addiction Recovery is located in the Forman Center, which is also known as the Admissions Building

From Mount Pleasant Ave. (East Campus)

From Fruit Hill (West Campus)

Drive up the hill and go straight through the stop light. Follow the curves in the road. You will see a yellow sign with arrows signifying a split where you could continue straight or turn left. Continue straight. Take a left onto Cole Rd. You will come to a split (directly in front of you, on top of the hill is the Forman Center). Bear left at the split. Go past the entrance to a small parking lot on the right and then take an immediate right. Drive up the hill and take your first right into the parking lot.

Once in the building

Go to the second floor (staircase is on your right, elevator is on your left). At the top of the stairs take a left for room 200 or a right for room 202. For room 202 go through the doorway and take an immediate right into room 201 (Institute For Portuguese and Lusophone World Studies). Room 202 will be on your right.
