

Early Childhood Educators

Rhode Island College Early Childhood Education Graduate Program Graduate Offerings - Fall 2009

ECED 502: Curriculum, Developmental Play, and Programs

Thursday, 4:00-6:50 PM Call number for registration purposes: 10549

Development and content of curriculum for early care and education through the primary grades is examined in terms of research, trends, play, inquiry, national standards, and program models.

ECED 503: Infants and Toddlers in Group Care

Tuesday, 4:00-6:50 PM Call number for registration purposes: 10552

Components of quality group care for infants and toddlers are analyzed. Topics include professional responsibilities, health and safety routines, appropriate materials and environments, and legal issues for child care providers.

ECED 509: Emergent Literacy: Infants through Grade Two

Wednesday, 4:00-6:50 PM Call number for registration purposes: 10550

Students learn how to help young children acquire an interest in reading and learn the necessary concepts concerning print and books.

ECED 662: Seminar in Early Childhood Education Research

Wednesday, 4:00-6:50 PM Call number for registration purposes: 10551

Students gain increased professional knowledge and competencies in finding, assessing, applying, and presenting data related to selected major topics in the field of early childhood education.

Register on-line at www.ric.edu

For information, please contact Dr. McGuire-Schwartz at MMcguire@ric.edu or (401) 456-8250