

General Education for Students Admitted for Fall 2012 and Later

Category I: Students with fewer than 24 college credits* at time of admission

Group	Gen Ed program	Freshmen status [†]
Readmits	New	Yes
Previously non-matriculated at Rhode Island College	New	Yes
Coming from articulation schools	New	Yes
Coming from non-articulation schools	New	Yes
Coming from high school	New	Yes

Category II: Students with 24 or more college credits* at time of admission

Group	Gen Ed program	Freshmen status [†]
Readmits	Old—for 5 years	No
Previously non-matriculated at Rhode Island College	Old—for 5 years	No
Transfers from articulation schools – Enrolled there before Fall 2012	Old—for 5 years	No
Transfers from articulation schools – Started there Fall 2012 or later	New	No
Transfers from non-articulation schools	New	No

All students admitted for Fall 2017 and beyond are in the new program.

Additional questions should be forwarded to Dean Joan Dagle through your department chair. Please do not call the Records Office.

*EEP and AP credits do not count in determining the number of college credits.

Articulation schools are CCRI, URI, Bristol CC, and Quinebaug Valley CC only.

[†]Students with Freshman status are required to take FYS within the first year. Students admitted without Freshman status do not take FYS.

October 25, 2013