2020-2021 CATALOG

This catalog was prepared on the basis of the information available at the time of publication. Therefore, specific statements, including fees, dates, course offerings, admissions requirements, financial aid practice and policies, graduation requirements, and other procedures or policies, may be subject to change without notice.

Each step of the educational process, from admission through graduation, requires continuing review and appropriate approval by college officials. The college, therefore, reserves the right to change the requirements contained in this bulletin, to determine whether a student has satisfactorily met the requirements for admission or graduation, and to reject any applicant for admission for any reason the college determines to be material to the applicant’s qualifications to pursue higher education.

Statement of Nondiscrimination and Affirmative Action

Pursuant to the philosophy of the Rhode Island Board of Education, Rhode Island College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, gender, religion, disability, age, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender identity or expression, marital, citizenship status or status as a special disabled veteran, recently separated veteran, Vietnam Era veteran, or any other veteran who served in active duty during a war or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized (except in those special circumstances permitted or mandated by law). This nondiscrimination policy encompasses the operation of the college’s educational programs and activities, including admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletic and other college-administered programs. It also encompasses the employment of college personnel and contracting by the college for goods and services. The college is committed to taking affirmative action to employ and advance in employment qualified women and members of minority groups identified in state and federal affirmative action laws and executive orders, persons with disabilities (including qualified special disabled veterans), and veterans of the Vietnam Era.

Inquiries concerning the college’s administration of the nondiscrimination laws should be addressed to the Director of Human Resources and Affirmative Action, Building 6, Rhode Island College, Providence, RI 02908-1996, tel. (401) 456-8218. Questions regarding provisions for students with disabilities should be directed to the Disability Services Center, Fogarty Life Science, Room 137, Rhode Island College, Providence, RI 02908-1996, tel. (401) 456-8061. Questions regarding provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) should be addressed to the ADA Coordinator, Building 6, Rhode Island College, Providence, RI 02908-1996, tel. (401) 456-8218. Persons using TTY/TDD devices may contact the above offices via the Rhode Island Relay Services by dialing 711. Reasonable accommodation may be provided upon request.

† Gender Neutral Restrooms

Single occupancy restrooms located throughout campus. These are assigned by gender but in practice often used irrespective of gender. Each unit is ADA compliant and provides a private, family friendly facility for occasions when the gender of a parent differs from that of a child or for when a caregiver must be an individual in need of assistance.

Capital letters on map designate parking areas. Some of these lots are restricted. See ric.edu/parking for more information.
CANCELLATION OF CLASSES

Classes will be held at Rhode Island College except in cases of emergency following consultation among appropriate college officials. Consideration regarding cancellation includes factors such as the college’s ability to clear parking lots and walkways, official state-issued advisories regarding vehicular travel, actions of other area higher education institutions and local school districts and the availability of public transportation.

If conditions warrant cancellation of classes, said classes may be canceled for the morning, afternoon or evening time periods, or for a combination of two or more of those specific time periods. Morning classes are defined as those beginning prior to noon; afternoon classes are defined as those beginning from noon through 3:59 p.m.; and evening classes are defined as those beginning from 4 p.m. through the remainder of the day. In consideration of the commuting time necessary for many students, faculty and staff, every effort shall be made to provide notification of cancellation at least three hours prior to the start of each time period.

Notification of Class Cancellation

1. The Rhode Island College website (www.ric.edu) will feature an announcement on the home page.
2. The announcement will also be featured on the college’s website at www.ric.edu/alert. This webpage will feature updates to any announcements and any details specific to segments of the college community, whether at the Mt. Pleasant campus or the RINEC campus.
3. The announcement will be featured on the college’s social media channels that may be accessed as follows: Facebook at facebook.com/rhodeislandcollege; and Twitter at twitter.com/RICNews.
4. A text message will be sent through RICalert (the Rhode Island College Emergency Notification System). RICalert text messages are sent to all cellphones and PDAs registered in the system. Students, faculty and staff may register for this service through MyRIC.
5. A campus-wide email notification will be sent to all faculty and staff as well as to the college email addresses of all students registered for that semester.
6. Local radio and television stations will broadcast cancellation announcements through the Rhode Island Broadcasters Association consortium. These announcements may be accessed directly from most major television and AM and FM radio stations in the area. Many broadcasters also post cancellation announcements on their websites.

Emergencies—Information for Students, Parents and the General Public

1. The college switchboard will remain staffed during the hours of 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. The college’s recorded information line will be available 24 hours a day at (401) 456-9500.
2. Provision will be made to meet the dining needs of residence hall students.
3. During emergencies, regardless of whether or not classes are canceled, other activities scheduled on campus may be canceled. Contact the sponsoring organization for information.
4. During any period of locally inclement weather that does not warrant college-wide cancellation of classes, a student unable to get to class shall be allowed, at the first opportunity, to make up any in-class examinations and to submit any assignments that require the student’s physical presence on the campus.

Emergencies—Information for Employees

In the event of cancellation of classes, nonteaching employees are still expected to report to work. Employees who are unable to report to work or to complete their work schedule due to adverse weather conditions may, with the approval of their supervisor, use personal leave, annual leave, salary-deferred pay or leave without pay to compensate for their absence. The use of sick-time is not allowable for this purpose.

Parking lots K (Student Union loop), D (south of Roberts Hall and ALEX AND ANI Hall) will be given priority for clearing during snow emergencies that result in class cancellation. This arrangement facilitates access to the dining center for resident students and provides a cleared parking area for nonteaching employees.

In extreme circumstances, when the governor officially orders a complete or partial shutdown of state services and/or orders the closure of state highways, the pay status of employees will be in accordance with the appropriate collective bargaining agreement or as agreed upon between the Rhode Island Board of Education and the unions representing the several bargaining units.
An Overview

Rhode Island College is located on a 180-acre campus in the Mount Pleasant section of Providence, a location that combines easy access to metropolitan area benefits and resources with a suburban, park-like atmosphere. Academic offerings are provided through the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development, the School of Business, the School of Nursing and the School of Social Work, as well as through the Offices of Continuing Education and Professional Studies and Graduate Studies. Rhode Island College is accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges and has also received accreditation for specific programs from the following agencies: Council on Social Work Education, National Association of Schools of Art and Design, National Association of Schools of Music and the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education.

Established in 1854 as the Rhode Island State Normal School, the college's goal was to provide teacher preparation to young people from Rhode Island. With the dedication of a new building in downtown Providence in 1898, the institution began a period of steady growth, evolving first into a formal teachers college, called the Rhode Island College of Education. In the 1958-59 academic year the institution moved to its current Mount Pleasant campus and, in 1960, was renamed Rhode Island College to reflect its new, comprehensive purpose within higher education.

The college has undergone expansion in recent decades at both the undergraduate and the graduate levels and now serves approximately 8,500 students in courses and programs on and off campus.

Rhode Island College is the oldest of the three public institutions of higher education that operate under the aegis of the Postsecondary Council of the Rhode Island Board of Education. The 11-member board was created by the Rhode Island General Assembly in 2013 and replaced the Board of Regents for Elementary and Secondary Education and the Board of Governors for Higher Education.

Mission of the College

As a leading regional public college, Rhode Island College personalizes higher education of the finest quality for undergraduate and graduate students. We offer vibrant programs in arts, sciences, business, healthcare, technology and professional disciplines within a supportive, respectful and diverse community. Dedicated faculty engage students in learning, research and career attainment, and our innovative curricula and co-curricula foster intellectual curiosity and prepare an educated citizenry for responsible leadership.

GENERAL INFORMATION - UNDERGRADUATE

Admissions - Undergraduate

ADMISSIONS POLICY
The admissions policy at Rhode Island College is formulated by a committee of faculty, administrators and students. Generally, the most important factor in an admissions decision is the applicant's academic credentials. However, since the college recognizes the value of special backgrounds and experiences, it bases its final decision on the applicant's overall record. Additional factors considered include recommendations, academic potential, school and community activities, and—for certain applicants—standardized test scores. Students are selected without regard to race, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, gender, religion, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital status, citizenship, status as a special disabled veteran, recently separated veteran, Vietnam Era veteran or any other veteran who served in active duty. Applicants to Rhode Island College are expected to adhere to standards of academic honesty in completing the application process. By signing the application, the applicant attests that the information provided is complete and accurate to the best of the applicant's knowledge. The admissions office may withdraw an application or rescind the acceptance offered, if a violation of academic honesty is discovered.

FRESHMAN APPLICANTS

Admission Requirements - Undergraduate
To qualify for admission, freshman applicants must possess a diploma from an accredited secondary school or expect to receive one before enrolling at Rhode Island College. Applicants' secondary school programs must include at least 18 units of college preparatory academic subjects, with the following requirements:

- 4 units of college preparatory English.
- 3 units of mathematics, including algebra I, algebra II, and geometry. Students planning to enter education, nursing, management, mathematics or the sciences are encouraged to complete four years of mathematics.
- 2 units of history or social science. Students should study U.S. history and government and the social sciences, which might include anthropology, economics, geography, political science and sociology.
• 2 units of laboratory sciences. Students planning to enter a technical, scientific or health-related field are strongly encouraged to complete courses in biology, chemistry and physics.
• 2 units of the same foreign language. College-bound students are encouraged to complete three years of a foreign language.
• 5 units of diversified college preparatory courses. Appropriate courses may include additional units from the arts, mathematics, language, social sciences, science or other college preparatory electives offered by the high school.

Exceptions to some unit requirements may be allowed. Requests should be made in writing to the director of admissions.

An individual assessment will be made of each student participating in ESL study while attending secondary school. Such students are encouraged to submit documentation of their current level of proficiency in English. Also, their secondary schools are encouraged to provide such additional information as transcript annotations designating the college preparatory level for appropriate ESL sections, course descriptions and other indices of English proficiency sufficient to succeed in college.

Rhode Island College supports the efforts of secondary school officials and governing bodies to have their schools achieve regional accreditation status to provide reliable assurance of the quality of the educational preparation of applicants for admission.

Application Procedures
Rhode Island College is a member of the The Common Application Group. To be considered for admission, freshman applicants must submit the following materials to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by June 1 for fall semester enrollment or by November 15 for spring semester enrollment:

1. A completed application accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee. Students may apply online at www.commonapp.org.
2. Official high school transcript(s) and academic recommendations. The applicant must arrange to have these materials forwarded to the admissions office. Applicants may be required to submit senior midyear grades for review.
3. Scores on the Scholastic Assessment Test (SAT) of the College Entrance Examination Board or the ACT (including ACT with Writing Test). The applicant is fully responsible for arranging to take the test. Complete information is available from high school guidance offices or from the College Board, P.O. Box 592, Princeton, NJ 08540. Arrangements should be made at least five weeks prior to the desired examination date.

Students who reside in the United States but have secondary school (or equivalent) credentials from another country are not required to take the SAT. However, such students, if they have lived in the United States for less than five years, must have a minimum score of 79 on the Web-based version of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), 213 on the computer-based version or 550 on the paper-based version. The International English Language Testing System (IELTS) exam is accepted in lieu of the TOEFL. The minimum required score is 6.5. Scores on the SAT Subject Tests (formerly Achievement Tests) may be submitted for additional consideration. These scores are not a requirement. (See Proficiency and Advanced Placement.)

Interviews are encouraged and may be required of some applicants. Applications are considered on a rolling basis and are acted upon as soon as all materials are received.

Admissions staff are available to answer any questions a prospective student may have about admission or about the college, and inquiries are welcomed. Campus tours are scheduled regularly; appointments may be made online or through the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

TRANSFER APPLICANTS

Admission Requirements - Undergraduate Transfer
Rhode Island College accepts transfer applications. To be considered for transfer admission, a minimum of 24 credit hours in a diversified program of study is required. Transfer applicants for January admission must have completed 24 credit hours by September 1, prior to the January semester. Applicants for September admission must have completed 24 credit hours by June 1, prior to the September semester. Students must also meet grade point average requirements as follows: a minimum GPA of 2.00 with 24 or more earned college credits.

Application Procedures
Rhode Island College is a member of The Common Application group. To be considered for admission, transfer applicants must submit the following materials to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by June 1 for fall semester enrollment or by November 15 for spring semester enrollment:

1. A completed application accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee. Students may apply online at www.commonapp.org.
2. Official transcripts from all colleges attended, whether or not you expect or desire credit for such work. Final spring semester transcripts are due by July 1. Students who complete summer courses before matriculation at Rhode Island College must arrange to send official transcripts to the admissions office. Credit from other colleges or universities will not be evaluated or posted until official transcripts are received.
3. Official high school transcripts and scores on the SAT or the ACT (including ACT with Writing Test) of students who will have earned fewer than 24 college credits before entering degree candidacy at Rhode Island College. Transfer applicants with fewer than 24 college credits will be evaluated according to the standards used for freshman applicants. Those with more than 24 college credits will be evaluated primarily on their collegiate academic performance.

Students who reside in the United States but have secondary school (or equivalent) credentials from another country are not required to take the SAT. However, such students, if they have lived in the United States for less than five years, must have a minimum score of 79 on the Web-based version of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), 213 on the computer-based version or 550 on the paper-based version. The International English Language Testing System (IELTS) exam is accepted in lieu of the TOEFL. The minimum required score is 6.5. Scores on the SAT Subject Tests (formerly Achievement Tests) may be submitted for additional consideration. These scores are not a requirement. (See Proficiency and Advanced Placement.)

Transfer Credit
Transfer credit is usually granted for courses completed at a regionally accredited college in which the student has achieved a minimum grade of C; however, Rhode Island College reserves the right of final judgment on... any such decision. At the discretion of the admissions office, college credit more than 10 years old may be accepted for transfer. The chair of the student’s major department will determine how the credit is to be applied in the student’s program of study. Students may be awarded a maximum of 75 transfer credits.
Students may request program credit for art courses taken at another institution by submitting a portfolio of work representing the courses for which credit is desired. The portfolio will be reviewed by a committee of studio art faculty to determine course credit transfer.
A minimum of 45 credit hours must be earned at Rhode Island College to fulfill degree requirements. Transfer students must also satisfy the College Mathematics Competency and all General Education requirements.

TRANSFER Applicants FROM THE UNIVERSITY
OF RHODE ISLAND AND THE COMMUNITY
COLLEGE OF RHODE ISLAND
According to the Rhode Island Board of Education’s “Policy for Articulation and Transfer,” all college credit earned in comparable courses at the University of Rhode Island and the Community College of Rhode Island with minimally acceptable grades is transferable to Rhode Island College. The “Transfer Guide” is available through the following

2+2 PROGRAM TRANSFER PLANS WITH THE COMMUNITY COLLEGE OF RHODE ISLAND
Rhode Island College has established a series of 2+2 Program Transfer Plans for Community College of Rhode Island students seeking the most efficient route to a bachelor’s degree. The first 14 plans developed are among the most popular transfer majors and are considered 2+2 plans for those students who enroll full-time. This enables students to complete two years at the Community College of Rhode, transfer as juniors to Rhode Island College, and graduate in two years, in most cases with a complimentary minor in addition to the major. Students will follow the same application procedure used for transfer applicants and are guaranteed admission with a minimum cumulative G.P.A. of 2.0. 2+2 Program Transfer Plans may be found at www.ric.edu/2plus2transfers/Pages/default.aspx.

JOINT ADMISSION PROGRAM WITH THE
COMMUNITY COLLEGE OF RHODE ISLAND
Rhode Island College and the Community College of Rhode Island
(CCRI) have established a Joint Admissions Program. To be guaranteed admission to Rhode Island College under the Joint Admission Program, the student must fulfill the following requirements:
1. Prior to completing 30 credits, enroll in the Joint Admission
Program at CCRI as a freshman by completing a Joint Admissions Agreement Form at CCRI.
2. Earn an associate degree in the prescribed program of study at CCRI within five years of initial matriculation at CCRI.
3. Have a minimum cumulative G.P.A. of 2.4.
4. Meet all nonacademic admissions requirements for Rhode Island College.

OTHER FORMS OF ADMISSION
Early Admission Program
Students with superior academic records may seek early admission to Rhode Island College and may begin study directly from their junior year in high school. Candidates for early admission must fulfill all regular admissions requirements and must have a personal interview. Application materials should be filed with the Office of Undergraduate Admissions during the spring semester of the junior year. Interested students must contact their high school principal or guidance counselor to make arrangements to complete high school diploma requirements.

International Student Admission
Rhode Island College is a member of The Common Application group and encourages applications from prospective international students whose command of English is sufficient for college study. Applicants must submit the following materials to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by June 1 for freshmen and June 1 for transfer students:

1. A completed application accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee. Students may apply online at www.commonapp.org.
2. Official records or certified copies of past academic work. A certified literal English translation and evaluation of the applicant’s educational records is required.
3. Scores on one of the following tests:
   • Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL): minimum score of 79 iBT.
   • Pearson Test of English: minimum score of 63.
   • International English Language Testing System (IELTS): minimum score of 6.5.
Students with strong academic records whose test scores are below the minimum required may be considered for conditional admission.
4. Once admitted, an affidavit of support detailing funds available for the educational program. All college health requirements must be met. In addition, students admitted to Rhode Island College for enrollment as F1 visa students are required to buy the basic medical insurance currently offered as an option to all Rhode Island College students.

International admission information packets are available from the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. International students should contact the international student advisor in the Office of Student Life for information concerning U.S. laws, regulations and employment practices.

Military Personnel and Veteran Admission Undergraduate Rhode Island College is a Servicemembers Opportunity College. U.S. military personnel and veterans are invited to contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions for information on undergraduate degrees.
The office will also assist those who think they lack the necessary prerequisites for degree candidacy. Those who are interested in nondegree coursework should contact the Office of Academic Support and Information Services.
Performance-Based Admission Program

Individuals who are at least 20 years old, who have been away from formal schooling for some time, who have little or no college credit and who lack some of the usual college entrance requirements may be considered for freshman admission through the Performance-Based Admission (PBA) Program.

Rhode Island College is a member of The Common Application group. Applicants must submit the following materials to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by June 1 for fall semester enrollment and November 15 for spring semester enrollment:

1. A completed application accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee. Students may apply online or download a copy of application materials at www.commonapp.org.

2. Official copies of high school transcripts.

3. Scores on the High School General Educational Development (GED) tests (if the candidate has not earned a traditional high school diploma).

4. An interview.

Each student who is accepted into Rhode Island College through the PBA Program will develop a special plan of study with the program advisor before the beginning of the first semester of classes. The plan of study will specify any special condition (e.g., remedial courses in mathematics or English-language courses), a schedule for ongoing consultation with an advisor and a specific six-course program, which will include the college writing course, three General Education Distribution courses and two other elective courses. Students must complete the six-course program with a minimum GPA of 2.0 to be allowed to continue their studies. Upon successful completion of the plan of study, students will be continued as degree candidates without condition.

Students who need remedial coursework in either of these disciplines will be permitted to take these courses as part of their programs, but credits earned will not count toward either the degree requirements or the six-course PBA Program plans.

Adult students whose primary language is not English may also be accepted into the college through this program and may be required to complete one or more English as a Second Language (ESL) courses before undertaking the regular six courses in the PBA Program. Before undertaking the six-course PBA Program, these students are expected to demonstrate a facility with the English language that is comparable to a score of 79 on the Web-based version of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), 213 on the computer-based version or 550 on the paper-based version; 960 on the English Language Proficiency Test (ELPT); or 6.5 on the International English Language Testing System (IELTS).

Students who do not make satisfactory progress will be dismissed from the college. Appeals of dismissal decisions can be made to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

Preparatory Enrollment Program

The Preparatory Enrollment Program (PEP) serves a select number of first-generation or low-income students who demonstrate the potential for academic success and persistence. Program services support the intellectual and social development of students by providing academic instruction and tutoring, faculty mentoring, a peer support network, workshops, learning communities and individual advising. PEP is a student-centered program characterized by an environment of diversity, cooperation and community.

Student support services begin during the spring and summer months, prior to freshman year. All students participate in a five-week Spring Pre-College Seminar Series led by Rhode Island College faculty, which exposes and engages students in college-level coursework. During the summer, students participate in a First Year Experience Seminar and attend individual advising meetings with their PEP advisor. Throughout freshman year, PEP students receive individualized support and guidance to ensure a successful personal and academic transition to college.

Students also have the opportunity to participate in study halls, learning communities, group workshops with campus offices and a peer mentoring program.

Prospective PEP applicants must complete the Common Application and indicate an interest in applying to PEP by February 1. The selection process involves a review of academic records, standardized test scores, a personal statement and letters of recommendation. Some students selected for final consideration may be invited to participate in a personal interview. In order to be considered for financial aid, applicants must also complete the FASFA and the Rhode Island College Financial Aid Application by March 1.

Project ExCEL (Excellence in College for English Learners)

Project ExCEL is an academic initiative at Rhode Island College aiming to expand college access for talented bilingual students. Because the process of acquisition of academic English for non-native speakers of English is complex and extends over several years, many highly capable, literate and academically talented advanced bilinguals often do not have all the mainstream English courses required for admission to a four-year college or university. In close partnership with high school and other counselors, Project ExCEL at Rhode Island College enrolls bright, accomplished bilinguals with established success in academic subjects and provides them the opportunity to pursue a degree at the college.

Admissions requirements:

- Successful completion of high school ESL courses.
- 3 units of mathematics.
- 2 units of laboratory science.
- 2 units of social science.
- 2 units of foreign language (may be waived if a student exhibits proficiency in multiple languages).
- 5 additional units of diversified study.

Additional requirements:

- Eligible candidates will generally rank in the top 10 percent of the graduating class or have a minimum GPA of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale.
- Interview.
- RIC ESL Placement Exam.
RIC Writing Placement Test.

Readmission
Undergraduate degree candidates with at least a 2.0 cumulative average who withdraw from Rhode Island College will be eligible to re-register without completing a formal application for readmission, unless they have taken courses at another institution during their absence or have course credit(s) 10 years old or older.

Rhode Island College is a member of The Common Application group. Undergraduate degree candidates who have been dismissed for academic reasons or who have withdrawn and taken courses at another institution, must submit a completed application accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Students may apply online at www.commonapp.org. Application deadlines are August 1 for fall semester enrollment and November 15 for spring semester enrollment. Students must have a minimum GPA of 2.0 for readmission to degree status.

Second Degree Applicants
Persons holding baccalaureate degrees from accredited institutions may apply to Rhode Island College for a second undergraduate degree. This assumes completion of all previous baccalaureate requirements, including General Education and a 2.0 cumulative GPA (higher for some programs).

Rhode Island College is a member of The Common Application group. Applicants for a second bachelor’s degree submit the following materials to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by June 1 for fall semester enrollment or by November 1 for spring semester enrollment:

1. A completed application accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee. Students may apply online at www.commonapp.org.

2. Official transcripts from all colleges attended. Transcripts must indicate that a baccalaureate degree was conferred and the date it was conferred.

Once the application and all credentials have been received, the admissions office will notify and instruct the candidate to schedule an appointment with the appropriate department chair(s) to determine the courses needed to meet requirements for the second degree. Candidates should be advised that certain programs, (e.g., art, teacher education, nursing and social work) have specialized requirements and admission standards that must be satisfied for acceptance into those programs.

Candidates for a second degree must successfully complete a minimum of 30 credit hours at Rhode Island College. Some programs, such as education, will require considerably more credit hours. Credit requirements for plans of study may be as high as 98 credit hours. At least 15 of the 30 hours must be taken in the department of the major or program. Course/credit proficiency, field experience, prior learning credit or transfer credit may not be counted toward this 30-credit-hour requirement.

EARLY ENROLLMENT PROGRAM
The Early Enrollment Program (EEP) is a concurrent enrollment program that provides high school students with the opportunity to take college-level courses in the familiar environment of their own high school. Upon completion of EEP courses, the credits and grades earned are posted on an official Rhode Island College transcript. EEP credits may also be transferred to other institutions of higher learning. The faculty and courses that are accepted into the program must meet National Alliance of Concurrent Enrollment Partnerships and Rhode Island College EEP standards. See www.ric.edu/leep/

PROFICIENCY AND ADVANCED PLACEMENT
Students may increase their opportunities to pursue advanced work or may earn credits toward graduation through proficiency and advanced placement. Such credit is substituted for specified courses and is usually gained through appropriate scores on the following examinations administered by the College Board: SAT Subject Tests in a modern foreign language; the AP Tests and the College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) tests. Further information is available from the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS
All full-time students and international students are required to meet immunization requirements mandated by the Rhode Island Department of Health. Students living on campus, participating in the athletic program or enrolled in the nursing program are also required to have a physical examination on file at Student Health Services. All health related information should be entered into the secure Medicat Patient Portal located on the right sidebar of MyRIC.

Note: Certain departments have additional health requirements for admission to their programs.

HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY
In some cases, Rhode Island College will accept a high school equivalency diploma in lieu of a regular diploma, if the applicant has achieved superior scores on the high school General Educational Development (GED) tests. All other admissions requirements must be fulfilled.

Registration - Undergraduate

REGISTRATION PROCEDURES
Degree Candidates
Each student is assigned a day and time to register, which can be found in the student’s MyRIC account. Information regarding course offerings is available online for all students prior to the registration period at www.ric.edu/recordsoffice/Pages/bulletin.aspx.

Incoming Freshmen
Information on freshman orientation is sent to incoming freshmen by the Office of Academic Support and Information Services. Orientation provides for academic advisement and course registration as well as an introduction to campus life.

Incoming Transfer, Readmit and Second Degree Students
Information on transfer orientation is sent to incoming transfer, readmit and second degree students by the Office of Academic Support and Information Services. Orientation provides for academic advisement and course registration as well as an introduction to campus life.
Nondegree Students
New and returning nondegree students register within two weeks of the start of classes. The beginning registration date is listed in the academic calendar which can be found at http://www.ric.edu/academics/Pages/Academic-Calendar.aspx. Those interested in taking undergraduate courses are advised to contact the Records Office.
A late fee of $10 is charged to those who do not complete registration during the designated periods.

PREREGISTRATION
Some departments conduct an early registration for their courses. This procedure is usually restricted to department majors and allows students to enroll before the registration period. Students should check with the departments in which they wish to take courses.

ADDING/DROPPING COURSES
Students may make adjustments to their schedule during the add/drop period within the first two weeks of classes in the fall and spring semesters. Students may both add and drop courses for the first 7 days without permission by logging into MyRIC. In the last 7 days, students may drop courses without permission; however, adding courses will need approval by the instructor and department chair. The add/drop dates are listed in the college's academic calendar found at http://www.ric.edu/academics/Pages/Academic-Calendar.aspx

INTERINSTITUTIONAL AGREEMENTS
Providence College
Students registered at Rhode Island College may take courses at Providence College if the courses are not offered at Rhode Island College. Students must have the written approval of the chair of the Providence College department involved as well as the permission of the appropriate department chair and instructor at Providence College.
In order to qualify for this exchange program, the student must be enrolled full time (taking 12 to 18 credit hours per semester). Rhode Island College will pay Providence College the Providence College tuition for each student enrolled in an approved course, provided the combined total of credit hours taken at Rhode Island College and Providence College does not exceed 18.
The student will, in turn, reimburse Rhode Island College for the difference in tuition costs at Providence College and Rhode Island College. Should the combined total of credit hours exceed 18, the student will be responsible for paying the entire Providence College charge for all credit hours over 18.
This agreement is a reciprocal one, allowing students from Providence College to have the same benefits.

Taking Courses Elsewhere
Degree students who wish to take a course elsewhere must file an approved Authorization of Credit form with the Records Office prior to registering for a course at another institution (including CCRI and URI). The form can be found at http://www.ric.edu/recordsoffice/documents/authorcreditform.pdf

University of Rhode Island/Community College of Rhode Island
Any student who has paid full-time fees at Rhode Island College may take a maximum of 7 credits during each of the fall and spring semesters at the University of Rhode Island (URI) or the Community College of Rhode Island (CCRI) or both without paying additional fees. The student must be enrolled for at least 5 credits at Rhode Island College, and the total number of credits taken at all institutions combined must be 18 or less. The forms required for this procedure can be found at http://www.ric.edu/recordsoffice/documents/InterInstitutionalStudyApplication.pdf. This agreement is a reciprocal one, allowing students at URI and CCRI to have the same benefits.

TRANSCRIPTS
Students may request unofficial or official transcripts by using the online request form found at http://www.ric.edu/recordsoffice/Pages/Transcripts.aspx
Telephone and fax requests will not be honored. Transcripts are free for alumni and former students.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT OF 1974
Rhode Island College maintains students' records to support its educational and service programs. Its policies and procedures governing the utilization and maintenance of such records are in accordance with state and federal laws. The FERPA policy can be found at www.ric.edu/recordsoffice/Pages/FERPA.aspx.
The college's Student Consent for Release of Information form can be found at http://www.ric.edu/recordsoffice/Documents/StudentConsenttoReleaseInformation.pdf

Fees - Undergraduate
The fees described in the following sections are projected for the 2020–2021 academic year. Because of rising costs, the Rhode Island Board of Education reserves the right to change fees without notice as conditions necessitate.
Students are required to pay all applicable fees in accordance with the billing due dates. Also, Rhode Island College offers an extended payment plan for students who wish to pay on a monthly basis. The cost of this service is approximately $35 dollars per semester. Details are available in the Office of the Bursar.
Students accepted into a second degree undergraduate program pay undergraduate fees.
Students are responsible for informing the college of their status in order to assess the aforementioned tuition and fee charges.

New Federal Law Compliance Required for VA Approved Schools
On December 31, 2018, the President signed into law the Veterans Benefits and Transition Act of 2018.
Beginning August 1, 2019, for any student using Ch. 33 Post 9/11 GI Bill or Ch. 31 Vocational Rehab benefits, even if the VA has not yet paid tuition and fees, Rhode Island College will not:
1. Prevent student from enrolling.
2. Assess a late penalty fee.
3. Require securing alternative or additional funding.
4. Deny access to any school resource (access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities) that are available to other students that have paid.

In addition, the statute allows for and RIC does require Ch. 33 and Ch. 31 students to take the following additional actions:

1. Submit a certificate of eligibility [or 1905] for entitlement to educational assistance no later than the first day of a course of education.
2. Submit a written request to use such entitlement.
3. Provide additional information necessary to the proper certification of enrollment.

Require additional payment or impose a fee for the amount that is the difference between the amount of the student’s financial obligation and the amount of the VA education benefit disbursement.

Textbooks, Supplies and Other Expenses
Students purchase their own textbooks and supplies. The cost of these materials is approximately $1,000 annually. Rhode Island College furnishes a stated maximum of special materials for certain technology education and fine arts courses. Students who use these materials in excess of the amount must meet the additional costs themselves.

Commuting students are responsible for the cost of transportation and meals, which can run from $1,200 to $1,750 annually. Students should also expect to pay up to $1,000 per year for clothing, entertainment and other personal expenses, depending on their style of living.

An optional plan for accident and sickness insurance is available to students at a nominal rate. Details may be obtained from College Health Services.

Transcript Fee
- $30

EXPLANATION OF FEES

The Application Fee is used to defray the costs of processing an application.

The Athletic Fee is used to support intramural, intercollegiate and recreation activities and programming.

The Applied Music Fee is used to cover 14 private 50-minute lessons, which comprise Music 270–288 and 370–388. The fee for Music 170–188 covers 14 private 30-minute lessons.

The Enrollment Fee applies to all incoming freshman, transfer, second degree and readmitted students at the time of their acceptance. This nonrefundable deposit will be applied toward tuition and/or fees.

The Fine Arts Fee is used to provide opportunities and activities in the fine and performing arts at Rhode Island College.

The Laboratory/Studio Art Fee is used to cover the costs of art and laboratory supplies provided by the college to students enrolled in specific courses.

The Late Payment Fee is a penalty for failing to make payment during the designated periods.

The Library Fee is used to cover the costs of purchasing books, periodicals and nonprint materials for the library.

The Nursing Testing Fee is used to cover the cost of the comprehensive testing and review package used to enhance the program.

The Orientation Fee is used to cover the costs of accommodations and other expenses for the orientation program.

The Recreation Fee is used to cover the debt service and utilities for the Recreation Center.

The Registration Fee is used to cover the costs associated with the registration process.
The School of Business Program Fee is used to provide educational opportunities and career activities for business students at Rhode Island College.

The School of Nursing Program Fee is used to enhance educational opportunities and career activities for nursing students at Rhode Island College.

The Technology Fee is used to cover the costs of purchasing equipment and software for student use on campus.

The Transcript Fee is a one-time fee charged to all students to cover all requests for official transcripts.

The Transportation Fee is used to fund the re-establishment of a discounted RIPTA fare program for students and parking improvements on campus.

The Tuition (General Fee) is used to cover the basic costs of educating a student and of running the college.

DETERMINATION OF RESIDENCY FOR TUITION PURPOSES

The determination of residency for tuition purposes is made by the director of admissions for new students and by the director of records for enrolled students.

When in-state residence status is in question, the student, if under 18 years of age, must present certification to the appropriate Rhode Island College official that the parents or legal guardians have resided in Rhode Island for at least 12 months. This certification must be verified by the clerk of the city or town in which legal residence is claimed.

If the student is over 18 and claims independent status, a notarized statement must be furnished, indicating residence in Rhode Island for at least one year. A notarized statement from the parents attesting to the fact that the student was not claimed for Internal Revenue Service (IRS) purposes for two years is required. This statement authorizes the college to verify the fact with the IRS.

For such students, time spent in Rhode Island while attending college usually may not be used to establish residence.

Contact either the Office of Undergraduate Admissions or the Records Office, as appropriate, for further information.

METROPOLITAN TUITION POLICY (MTP)

Beginning in the fall of 2019, the Board of Education approved the Northeast Neighbors tuition policy which states that residents of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont, Long Island, New York City Metro Area are eligible for a special tuition discount at Rhode Island College of the in-state tuition rate plus 50%.

NEW ENGLAND REGIONAL STUDENT PROGRAM

Rhode Island College participates in the Regional Student Program (RSP) administered by the New England Board of Higher Education (NEBHE). Through this program, New England residents who live outside of Rhode Island may enroll in specified curricula at Rhode Island College for in-state tuition rates plus 50 percent. The student’s program of study must be one not offered at an institution in the student’s home state, or Rhode Island College must be closer in traveling time to the student’s legal residence than an institution offering an approved RSP program in the home state.

Students must remain in the program for which they applied or may transfer only into another RSP program or else they will be charged out-of-state tuition fees as of the date of transfer. Each semester, RSP program students must also request a tuition waiver from the Records Office.

Those entering Rhode Island College through the RSP program must meet all the standards required for admission to the college and must be accepted into a degree-granting program.

Additional information may be obtained from the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, from the high school guidance counselor, or from the NEBHE website at www.nebhe.org/programs-overview/rsp-tuition-break/overview/.

RHODE ISLAND NATIONAL GUARD STATE TUITION EXEMPTION PROGRAM

Members of the Rhode Island National Guard who are in good standing may apply for tuition assistance through the State Tuition Exemption Program (STEP). This program applies to both undergraduate and graduate courses and will cover both tuition and mandatory fees for up to four courses within a 12-month period, but it is limited to one course each semester. Those wishing to apply for STEP should contact their Rhode Island National Guard commanders for details.

SENIOR CITIZEN WAIVER

All Rhode Island residents who are at least 60 years old are eligible to take courses at Rhode Island College without having to pay the regular tuition charges. However, the registration, recreation and other applicable laboratory/studio fees will be charged. In addition, the student must have fulfilled all academic prerequisites for the course, is limited to registering on the last day of registration on a space-available basis and is subject to a means test.

UNEMPLOYMENT WAIVER

Rhode Island General Law 28-4281 provides that any Rhode Island resident receiving unemployment benefits, including benefits earned in another state, is eligible for waiver of tuition for any course(s) taken at Rhode Island College. The law stipulates, however, that the waiver be granted on a space-available basis only and that each applicant be subject to a means test. Therefore, students who wish to register under the terms of waiver are limited to registering on the last day of registration. Students must obtain Form DET467 from the Department of Labor and Training and submit this completed form, certifying eligibility, at the time of registration. Any registration prior to the specified date each term will be ineligible for consideration for an unemployment waiver, and no retroactive use of the waiver is permitted. Mandatory fees that are not waived include lab fees, recreation fees and activity fees.

REFUND OF TUITION AND FEES

A full- or part-time student withdrawing from Rhode Island College either voluntarily or because of dismissal for disciplinary reasons will receive a refund of tuition and/or fees in accordance with the college policy in force for first-time students, including Title IV students and all other withdrawn students. Enrolled students are also subject to the college refund policy.
Full-time students who withdraw from a course are not eligible for a refund unless such withdrawal results in a change of status from full-time to part-time and this withdrawal is made during the approved Add/Drop Period.

REFUND OF ROOM AND BOARD FEES

Room Refunds

Withdrawal prior to the "contractually publicized" July 15 date will cancel all room charges minus the room reservation of $100. Otherwise, the room contract will remain binding on the student until the end of the academic year. However, proration of the charges may be made by the Office of Residential Life and Housing if the space created by the withdrawal is filled by a new resident.

A first semester freshman who withdraws from the college in their first semester will be released from the contract for the spring semester upon completion of proper withdrawal forms. All other students will need to submit an appeal letter for contract release consideration. In all cancellations, the room reservation deposit ($100) shall be forfeited.

Board Refunds

The board contract is binding upon the student until the end of the academic year during which the cancellation is effected (first semester, July 15 to December 31; second semester, January 1 to May 25). However, proration of the food-cost portion of the board contract will result in a refund based on the week of withdrawal.

REFUND FOR STUDENTS INVOLUNTARILY CALLED TO MILITARY SERVICE

The Rhode Island Board of Education has adopted as policy the following options for students who are involuntarily called to military service:

1. Total refund of tuition and course-related fees, including registration fee. Prorated refund for housing and dining fees. Or
2. No tuition refund but a grade of Incomplete awarded for courses in which the student is enrolled at the time of recall. Prorated refund for housing and dining fees.

INDEBTEDNESS TO THE COLLEGE

Failure to make full payment of tuition and fees or to resolve other debts to Rhode Island College—for example, unreturned athletic equipment, overdue short-term or emergency loans, delinquent or defaulted student loans (Federal Nursing and/or Federal Perkins Loans), unreturned library books, damage to college property, etc.—may result in the cancellation of registration for the following semester, withholding of academic grades, denial of registration until the payment is made and/or disenrollment. If requested, appropriate departments will provide the student with notice of the debt, the reason for the debt and a review. Students must fulfill all financial obligations to the college, including participation in loan exit counseling for borrowers under one or more of the several long-term loan programs in which the college participates (e.g., Federal Perkins Loans, Federal Direct Loans, PLUS and/or SLS loans), before receiving grades, a degree, transcripts or a diploma.

Financial Aid - Undergraduate

In order to assist students who are unable to meet the cost of financing a college education, the Office of Student Financial Aid administers an extensive program of scholarships, grants, loans and part-time employment opportunities. Demonstrated financial need is the primary factor used in the awarding of financial aid, although some scholarships are given each year in recognition of superior academic achievement or special talent. At Rhode Island College approximately 60 percent of full-time and part-time undergraduate degree students receive financial aid. Degree students are assigned a financial aid counselor who is listed at www.ric.edu/financialaid/Pages/Financial-Aid-Counselor.aspx.

ELIGIBILITY STANDARDS

Applicants should be aware that virtually all financial assistance awarded by Rhode Island College is limited to:

1. Students who have been accepted into a program that will lead to a degree.
2. Students who are U.S. citizens or eligible non-citizens.
3. Students who are enrolled at least half-time (for six credit hours), although limited Federal Pell Grants are available to students enrolled less than half time.
4. Students who are maintaining satisfactory academic progress (see Standards for Measuring Satisfactory Academic Progress for Undergraduate Financial Aid Recipients).

For financial aid purposes, enrollment levels are determined at the end of the Add Period (the first two weeks of each semester). Hence, those who are officially classified as non-matriculated students, visiting students, special students, non-matriculated graduate students, etc. at the end of the Add Period should anticipate that their awards will be canceled. Students whose enrollment at the end of the Add Period is less than full-time should expect that the amount of their award(s) may be reduced proportionately or canceled.

Students enrolled in a program designed to lead to a second baccalaureate degree or to the Rhode Island Teacher Education Program (RITE) are considered ineligible for virtually all grant/gift assistance provided by or through Rhode Island College. Second baccalaureate degree and RITE students may be considered for financial assistance in the form of a loan and/or work opportunities.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Any undergraduate student who desires financial aid from Rhode Island College must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at https://studentaid.ed.gov.

Preference for financial aid provided by the college is given to students who complete the financial aid application process in accordance with the following deadlines:

Incoming Freshmen (Fall Semester) and Continuing Upperclass Students

1. Application for admission with the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by March 1 (incoming freshmen only).
2. FAFSA on file at the processing center by February 1.

Readmitted Students and New Transfers (Fall Semester)

1. Acceptance for admission with the admissions office by June 1.
1. FAFSA on file at the processing center by November 15.

Applicants should fill out all forms completely and accurately in order to avoid delays in processing and possible loss of financial aid. Early submission of financial aid and admissions materials is strongly encouraged. Applicants are considered only after early applicants have been considered and if funds are available. Awards to applicants are made in the spring and summer. Awards to late applicants are normally not made until October/November or February/March.

Since awards are not automatically renewable, applicants must reapply each year.

Note: Rhode Island College reserves the right to require verification of income data submitted by any or all applicants for financial assistance. Awards to those who are asked for such verification will be made conditional upon receipt of the requested information/documentation. Forms of documentation or verification which may be requested include, but are not limited to, signed and dated photocopies of federal income tax returns, IRS Tax Return Transcripts and copies of authorization letters for untaxed income. Any discrepancy in reported figures may result in adjustment or cancellation of the financial aid award and may be reported to the federal government for further review and possible legal action.

All awards made by or through the college are conditional and are based upon information available to college officials at the time the award is made. All awards are, therefore, subject to change and/or cancellation should the college become aware of facts, conditions and/or circumstances which differ from those upon which the award(s) was (were) based. Similarly, all awards are contingent upon the receipt by the college of sufficient funding from state, federal or other funding sources and/or donors to cover award offers.

Eligible Non-citizenship Documentation: Applicants who are “eligible non-citizens” must provide appropriate documentation before awards can be made. (Please refer to FAFSA instructions for definition and required documents for U.S. immigration status.)

FINANCIAL AID PROGRAMS - UNDERGRADUATE

Federal Financial Aid Programs

Federal Direct Parental Loans for Undergraduate Students (PLUS)

Federal Direct PLUS Loans allow parents of dependent undergraduate students to borrow up to the full cost of college less other student aid. There is no need requirement for the PLUS loan, but the student must file a FAFSA and parents must pass a credit review in order to qualify for the loan. Repayment may be deferred for up to six months after the student is no longer enrolled at least half-time. However, interest does accrue on the loan and is capitalized into the loan principal before repayment begins. The interest rate on these loans is fixed at 5.30 percent. Federal Direct PLUS Loans have an origination fee of 4.2 percent.

Federal Pell Grants

Eligibility for a Federal Pell Grant is determined by the United States Department of Education, using a national formula. These grants range up to $6,345 annually. Actual awards vary according to the cost of attendance, the student’s enrollment status (full, three-quarter, half or less than half-time) and a family’s expected contribution.

Federal Direct Loans

Eligibility for a subsidized Federal Direct Loan is based on financial need as determined by the Office of Student Financial Aid using information from the FAFSA. Subsidized loans are interest-free during the student’s period of enrollment. Students have a six-month grace period after leaving school or dropping below half-time status before repayment begins, but interest will accrue during this period. Unsubsidized Direct Loans, which do not require financial need, have an interest charge during the in-school and grace periods.

Effective July 1, 2020, both subsidized and unsubsidized loans for undergraduate students have a fixed interest rate of 2.75 percent. Both loans also have a 1.06 percent origination fee. Subsidized loans are limited to undergraduate students. The unsubsidized loan interest rate for graduate students as of July 1, 2020 is 4.30 percent with a 1.06 origination fee.

Annual loan limits are as follows:

- $5,500 for freshmen, but only $3,500 can be subsidized.
- $6,500 for sophomores, but only $4,500 can be subsidized.
- $7,500 for upper-class undergraduates, but only $5,500 can be subsidized.
- $20,500 for graduate students.

Independent undergraduate students (as determined by the FAFSA) may be eligible for an additional unsubsidized loan of $4,000 in the freshman and sophomore years and $5,000 in the junior and senior years.

Aggregate loan limits are as follows:

- $31,000 for undergraduate dependent students, but no more than $23,000 can be subsidized.
- $57,500 for undergraduate independent students, but no more than $23,000 can be subsidized.
- $138,500 for graduate students.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants

Eligibility for a Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant is based on financial need as determined by the Office of Student Financial Aid, using information from the FAFSA. Awards range from $100 to $4,000 per year, depending on funding and student need. Priority for funding is given to students who are eligible to receive Federal Pell Grants.

Federal Work-Study Program

This is a part-time employment program based on financial need. A work-study award is paid biweekly at an hourly rate based on hours worked. Wage rates reflect both the level of responsibility and the experience of the student worker. Eligibility is determined by the Office of Student Financial Aid using information from the FAFSA. The Career Development Center helps students with work-study awards identify opportunities both on and off campus; however, Rhode Island College cannot guarantee that a student will secure a work-study position.

State Financial Aid Programs

RI Stay-the-Course Scholarship

The Stay-the-Course Scholarship at Rhode Island College is funded by an allocation from the Rhode Island State Higher Education Opportunity Grant program. The scholarship is awarded by the Office of Student Financial Aid to Rhode Island residents after completion of the freshman year at RIC. The scholarship is designed to increase our graduation rate. by enabling these students to continue full-time study in their second through sixth years at the college by reducing the need to work long hours off-campus. To qualify, a student must enter RIC at or during the freshman year, enroll full-time, be eligible for the federal Pell Grant and have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75. The scholarship will cover up to the difference between the standard cost of full tuition, registration fees, an allowance for books and the funds provided by the Pell Grant, Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant and merit-based scholarships. However, no scholarship will exceed need or 60 percent of a student's annual cost of attendance. Recipients must remain Pell-eligible, continue full-time enrollment and maintain a cumulative GPA of at least 2.75 for renewal in subsequent years. Renewal scholarships are subject to continued state funding, and students filing the FAFSA by our February 1 deadline will receive priority.

Other State Financial Aid Programs - Undergraduate
Guidelines for applying for state scholarship/grant programs vary, so students should inquire at the appropriate agency in their state of legal residence regarding application procedures. Names, addresses and telephone numbers of other state scholarship agencies are available upon request from the Office of Student Financial Aid.

Rhode Island College Need-Based Grants and Scholarships

RIC Scholars Program
This program provides scholarships of $2,500 to entering freshmen with exceptional financial need and academic promise. These awards require continuous, full-time enrollment and may be renewed for up to four years of study based on need and a cumulative G.P.A. of at least 2.5. Eligibility is determined by the Office of Student Financial Aid using information from a student's academic record and FAFSA.

Rhode Island College Grants
Rhode Island College grants ranging from $100 to $10,000 are awarded by the Office of Student Financial Aid to students with demonstrated financial need. All applicants are required to file the FAFSA. Award decisions depend on level of demonstrated financial need, year in school, academic record and date of application.

Rhode Island College Transfer Scholar Awards
These awards range from $2,500 to $5,000 and are based on academic achievement as well as financial need. To be considered, an entering transfer student must have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.25 as determined by the college Office of Undergraduate Admissions at the time of acceptance. Eligibility is determined by the Office of Student Financial Aid, using information from both the FAFSA and the Rhode Island College Financial Aid Application. Awards may be renewed for up to three years of study based on financial need and require continuous, full-time enrollment and maintenance of a cumulative G.P.A. of at least 3.0.

Financial Aid for Summer Sessions
In addition to filing the FAFSA as outlined above, students who desire financial assistance for summer sessions must submit a Rhode Island College Application for Financial Aid – Summer Sessions. This form is available from the Office of Student Financial Aid on or about February 1 each year. Summer session aid is contingent upon the availability of funds and normally consists of Pell Grants, Federal Direct Loans and Federal Work-Study. To be considered for Federal Work-Study for summer sessions, the FAFSA must be received at the federal processing center by March 1 and the Application for Financial Aid – Summer Sessions must be received in the Office of Student Financial Aid by April 1.

Talent Awards
Special Talent Awards were established to recognize and encourage students who have exceptional talent or skill in the visual and performing arts, areas of intercollegiate competition (other than athletics) or similar fields. Currently, Rhode Island College offers awards in the following areas: art, communication, dance, film studies, music and theatre. While the requirements for these awards vary by department, award competition is open to entering freshmen and transfer students. Awards range from $100 to $2,500. Applicants should contact the academic department or program advisor in their area of interest.

EMPLOYMENT PROGRAMS
The Career Development Center oversees the student employment hiring process and provides information on part-time employment both on and off campus during the academic year and the summer. One source of employment is the Federal Work-Study Program, which is based on financial need. However, student employment opportunities are also available for students who do not qualify for financial aid.

REFUND ADVANCE FOR BOOKS
Students may be eligible to receive an advance of their anticipated account refund toward eligible purchases at the Rhode Island College Bookstore and other places on campus if their financial aid award exceeds direct charges (e.g., tuition, fees, room and board). Applications must be submitted online using the student self-service section of MyRIC.

STANDARDS FOR MEASURING SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS FOR UNDERGRADUATE FINANCIAL AID RECIPIENTS
SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS STANDARDS POLICY AID ELIGIBILITY

Federal regulations require all institutions which administer Title IV student assistance programs to monitor the academic progress towards a degree or certificate of students applying for funds. All students who have completed a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and wish to be considered for Title IV federal aid such as federal Pell grants, Direct loans, and SEOG grants as well as other types of assistance must meet the criteria stated in the policy. Regulations require the financial aid policy to be at least as strict as the institutions’ academic standing policy and therefore these standards are subject to revision.

Your financial aid eligibility is based on the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) standards that the Rhode Island College’s Financial Aid Office is required by the U.S. Department of Education to establish, publish, and apply. The Financial Aid Office measures your academic performance and enforces SAP standards to ensure that you, as a financial aid recipient, progress toward graduation. If you fail to meet these standards, you become ineligible to receive financial aid until you meet all requirements.

Financial aid recipients will be reviewed for satisfactory progress at the end of the spring semester after grades are posted. A student who does not meet the satisfactory academic progress standards will be terminated from financial aid assistance. An aid-terminated student is ineligible for any further financial aid, including student loans, until satisfactory academic progress is re-established. Readmission to a program or removal from academic probation does not automatically constitute eligibility for federal aid.

STANDARDS OF MEASURING SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS AT RHODE ISLAND COLLEGE

1. Qualitative Component: Students must meet minimum cumulative G.P.A. requirements as more credits are attempted (see chart below).

2. Quantitative Component: The quantitative component requires you to complete your degree within a maximum timeframe. You are eligible to receive financial aid for a maximum timeframe of 150 percent of the published degree credits required to complete your program. Since an undergraduate degree program at Rhode Island College requires 120 degree credits, you are eligible for financial aid up to 180 attempted credits.
   a. The ratio between attempted and completed credits determines your credit completion ratio. Students are required to meet the completion ratio as outlined in the chart below.
   b. Incompletes, Withdrawals, ESL credits, remedial credits and Repeats all count toward completion percentage as attempted credits. “I” (Incomplete) grades are not considered passing grades.
   c. Transfer Credits are counted in the total number of attempted and earned credits.

3. Both components apply to multiple majors, or students who change majors.

APPEAL PROCESS
1. Students must complete the Appeal Form (www.ric.edu/financialaid/Pages/Forms-and-Publications.aspx) and follow the instructions on the form. Appeals should be based on personal injury, illness, family difficulties, death of a relative, or other extenuating circumstances beyond the student’s control.
2. If more than one semester is needed to comply with the SAP policy as detailed above, it is recommended that your appeal include an advisor-approved academic plan that if followed will ensure you will be able to meet SAP requirements by a specific point in time.
3. If your appeal is approved, you will be placed on “financial aid probation” and as long as you meet all requirements of the approval letter and follow your academic plan (if applicable), you may continue to receive financial aid.
4. The Deadline for appeals is no later than four weeks prior to the end of the semester for which aid is desired. Allow up to three weeks for processing appeals.

APPEAL NOTIFICATION PROCESS
1. Students will be notified of the appeal decision by hard-copy letter mailed to students’ permanent home address on record. Allow up to three weeks for appeal processing.
2. Subsequent appeals of the same nature are not permitted.
3. All appeal decisions are final.

REINSTATEMENT OF ELIGIBILITY
When a student has made satisfactory progress as outlined above for a particular semester without the benefit of student financial aid, the student must contact the Office of Student Financial Aid and request a Satisfactory Academic Progress re-evaluation. The student will then be reinstated to an eligible status for the subsequent term.

THE RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF STUDENTS RECEIVING FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE
As recipients of student financial aid, students have certain rights they should exercise and certain responsibilities that must be met.

Student Rights
1. Students have the right to know the cost of attending the institution.
2. Students have the right to know where and from whom information on student assistance at the institution may be obtained.
3. Students have the right to know what financial aid programs are available at their school.
4. Students have the right to know how to apply for student assistance programs and what standards are used to determine eligibility.
5. Students have the right to know the deadlines for submitting applications for each of the financial aid programs available.

6. Students have the right to know how financial aid will be distributed, how decisions on that distribution are made and the basis for these decisions.

7. Students have the right to know how their financial need was determined. This includes how costs for tuition and fees, room and board, travel, books and supplies, personal miscellaneous expenses, etc. are considered in their budget.

8. Students have the right to know what resources (such as parental contribution, other financial aid, student assets, etc.) were considered in the calculation of their need.

9. Students have the right to know how much of their financial need as determined by the institution has been met.

10. Students have the right to request an explanation of the various programs in their student aid package.

11. Students have the right to know what portion of their financial aid must be repaid and what portion is grant aid. If the aid is a loan, students have the right to know what the interest rate is, the total amount that must be repaid, the payback procedures, the length of time they have to repay the loan and when repayment is to begin.

12. Students have the right to know the means by which financial aid will be disbursed and the frequency of disbursements.

13. Students have the right to know how the school determines whether they are making satisfactory progress, what happens if they are not and the procedures by which a student who has failed to maintain such progress may reestablish eligibility.

14. Students have the right to know their school’s refund policy.

15. Students have the right to know what academic programs are available at the institution and the faculty and facilities available for those programs.

16. Students have the right to data regarding retention of students at the institution.

17. Students have the right to know the number or percentage of students completing each program if such data is available.

Student Responsibilities

1. Students must complete all application forms accurately and submit them on time to the right place.

2. Students must provide correct information. In most instances, misreporting information on financial aid application forms is a violation of law and may be considered a criminal offense which could result in indictment under the U.S. Criminal Code.

3. Students must return all additional documentation, verification, corrections and/or new information requested by either the Office of Student Financial Aid or the agency to which an application was submitted.

4. Students are responsible for reading and understanding all forms that they are asked to sign and for keeping copies of them.

5. Students must accept responsibility for all agreements that they sign.

6. Students must perform the work that is agreed upon in accepting a Federal Work-Study award.

7. Students must be aware of and comply with the deadlines for application or reapplication for aid.

8. Students should be aware of their school’s refund procedures.

9. All schools must provide information to prospective students about the school’s programs and performance. Students should consider this information carefully before deciding to attend a school.

Academic Policies and Requirements - Undergraduate

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

The following requirements must be completed by undergraduate degree candidates at Rhode Island College in order to graduate:

1. The General Education requirements.

2. The College Writing Requirement.

3. The College Mathematics Competency.

4. The major requirements listed under each program, and, if applicable, requirements in the minor.

5. Experiential Learning Requirement.

6. A minimum of 120 earned credits.

7. The College Residency Requirement: a minimum of 45 credits must be taken at RIC, including a minimum of 50% of the major credits (with at least 12 credits in the major at the 300- or 400-level).

8. A minimum of a 2.0 G.P.A. in the major and minor (if applicable).

9. A minimum overall G.P.A. of 2.0 on a 4.0 scale.

COLLEGE WRITING REQUIREMENT

All students are required to complete the College Writing Requirement. In most cases, this requirement is satisfied by the completion of FYW 100, FYW 100P or FYW 100H, with a minimum grade of C. However, the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development requires a minimum grade of B. Students who receive a C- or below in FYW 100, FYW 100P or FYW 100H will receive the college credit but will not have fulfilled the College Writing Requirement. This requirement may also be satisfied by (1) passing the appropriate College Level Examination Program (CLEP)/College Composition, with a minimum score of 50, and by reporting the score to RIC's Admissions Office; or (2) by passing the course equivalent of FYW 100 with a C or better at another institution; in this latter case, the transcript from the institution at which the student enrolled in the equivalent course should be sent to RIC's Admissions office. Most students will have the opportunity during New Student Orientation to choose which FYW course best meets their needs. Visit the FYW Program website at www.ric.edu/firstyearwriting for information on this process.

Students are encouraged to fulfill the College Writing Requirement in their first year of study at Rhode Island College. Students who have not fulfilled the College Writing Requirement before the completion of 30 attempted credits at the college will have a registration hold placed on their account until they have registered for the course. If the course is not completed successfully, the hold will be placed again.
MAJORS

Majors
All students must complete an approved major/program. Requirements are listed under each major and can be found in the catalog by school or online at http://www.ric.edu/academics/Pages/majors_programs.aspx. For some majors or programs, including pre-professional programs in education, nursing and social work, there is a secondary admission process. Students must first begin as intended majors and meet certain requirements in order to apply for formal acceptance into the major/program. Majors and programs may also include cognates, a group of related courses that support the requirements of the major. Students must earn a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.00 in their major in order to graduate. Please note that some individual majors may have higher GPAs or specific grade requirements, and this will be stated where the major is outlined in the catalog.

Declaring a Major
Entering freshmen who are unsure of a choice of major may select one of six Exploring Majors: Arts, Business, Health Sciences, Humanities, Science/Math and Social & Behavioral Sciences. Each provides a three-semester plan or RhodeMap to help keep students on track to on time graduation. All undergraduate degree students must declare a major by the time they have earned 45 credits (includes all earned course and test credits). Students who fail to declare a major will have a registration hold placed.

Changing Majors
Students who wish to change their major or add a second major, should contact the department chair of the new or additional major. Names and contact information can be found at www.ric.edu/academics/Pages/Majors_Programs.aspx. Students who have a double major and wish to drop one of them should contact the records office.

Student-Designed Majors
Students may develop individualized majors to accommodate special needs and interests. These majors may focus on an area of study not covered in regular departmental offerings or may be interdisciplinary in nature. Student-designed majors are open to undergraduate degree candidates who have earned at least 40 credit hours and who have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.50. Proposals from students with more than 75 credit hours are normally not accepted. A completed proposal must be submitted to the Committee on Student-Designed Majors no later than October 1 or March 1 for action that same semester. Further information about this program and application materials may be obtained from the offices of the academic deans.

MINORS

Minors, while not required at the college, can enhance and broaden a student’s educational experience and add value for employment or graduate school. Minors require a minimum of 18 credits and most range from 18-24 credits. Minors are open to students in any major, not just a minor in the school of the student’s major. Most majors have a corresponding minor. At least two courses in the minor must be completed at the college. Students must earn a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.00 in their minor.

Minors are also available in the following areas: archaeology, behavioral neuroscience, biological anthropology, cultural anthropology, coaching, cybersecurity, data science, digital media production, educational studies, gerontology, international business, international governmental non-governmental studies, Italian, jazz studies, linguistic anthropology, medical anthropology, public history, queer studies, rhetoric and writing, and statistical modeling.

Transfer Minors
The college has created transfer minors designed primarily for, but not limited to, community college transfer students who have completed designated associate degree programs. All coursework for the minor will have been completed at the student’s prior institution before matriculating as a new student or a readmit at the college. Transfer minors consist of 18-24 credits in a focused field of study for which a minor does not exist at RIC. The transfer minor will be posted on the student’s official RIC transcript as an additional academic credential.

Available Transfer Minors:
Bristol Community College
- Deaf Studies
- Fire Science
- Law Enforcement
- Occupational Therapy
- Paralegal Studies
Community College of Rhode Island
- Business Advisory Services
- Computer Studies
- Emergency Management/Homeland Security
- Fire Science
- Law Enforcement
- Networking
- Occupational Therapy
- Paralegal Studies
- Web Technologies

For a description of the courses required for each CCRI transfer minor, visit www.ric.edu/CCRitoRIC/Pages/default.aspx

COLLEGE MATHEMATICS COMPETENCY
Students are urged to complete the College Mathematics Competency by the end of their first semester of study at the college. Students who do not satisfy the College Mathematics Competency by the end of their first semester (15 or more attempted credit hours at Rhode Island College) will have a registration hold placed on their account until they either satisfy the requirement via the Mathematics Placement Exam or registering for MATH 010. If the course is not completed successfully, the hold will be placed again.

Note: Fulfillment of the College Mathematics Competency is distinct from and does not substitute for completion of the Mathematics category of General Education.
Entering Freshmen:

1. All entering freshmen will be required to take the Mathematics Placement Exam prior to or during freshman orientation. Students who achieve a satisfactory grade on the Mathematics Placement Exam will have met the College Mathematics Competency. (This exam is given at least six times each semester, and, if necessary, may be repeated once. It is administered by the Mathematics Learning Center.)

2. Students who receive transfer credit for a course(s) deemed equivalent to MATH 010, MATH 120, or MATH 177 or higher will have met the competency.

3. Transfer students who do not fulfill the College Mathematics Competency by means of numbers 1 or 2 above will be required to take the Mathematics Placement Examination prior to or during their first semester at Rhode Island College. Students who achieve a satisfactory grade on the Mathematics Placement Exam will have met the competency. (This exam is given at least six times each semester, and, if necessary, may be repeated once. It is administered by the Mathematics Learning Center.)

4. Students who do not achieve a satisfactory grade on the Mathematics Placement Exam must enroll in MATH 010 prior to or during their first semester at Rhode Island College. Students who fail to earn a satisfactory grade during that semester shall be required to retake MATH 010 until successful completion.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

A requirement for all undergraduate students at Rhode Island College.

Experiential learning is a process through which students develop and apply knowledge, skills, conceptual understanding and values to real-world problems or situations. The classroom, laboratory, studio or authentic real-world experiences--on campus and in the community--can serve as experiential learning settings. Through experiential learning, students are able to bridge the gap between theory and practice.

At Rhode Island College, our programs are designed to facilitate effective, vigorous, and flexible learning that will prepare our students for accomplishment, fulfillment, and self-realization in a swiftly changing world. Through an emphasis on experiential learning throughout the curriculum, we engage and require our students to learn through doing, and become more effective in whatever discipline they pursue.

Students at RIC encounter experiential learning in three main areas:

1.) Senior capstone courses: These are required Senior experiences that range from creative projects, in-service experience, practicum, internships, or seminars (or other culminating courses). Seminars (and culminating courses) demand research, presentations and/or projects that allow students to show they understand the demands of the major by utilizing the skills they have developed in their course of study.

2.) Other required courses in programs that emphasize experiential learning: Not a culminating experience, but these courses highlight experiential learning, with an emphasis on hands-on learning activities, laboratory work (often doing original research), service-learning, volunteer experience, clinical skills, practicum, case studies, data collection and analysis, field work, creative production and performance, presentations, reflective discussion and active research.

3.) Not required but available: Optional research (discipline based), internships, project work, field based courses, evidence-based practices, replication studies, simulation exercises, experimental techniques, self-exploration exercises and creative/performance projects.

The website has a link at http://www.ric.edu/experientiallearning/ to show you a chart that contains program by program details of which experiential learning courses are required in each program, as well as other optional opportunities. This information can also be found on department websites.

Experiential Learning Outcomes

RIC aims to graduate students who are:

Flexible: Be resilient but adaptable to change, able to work under pressure, openly self-evaluate, and display thoughtful, thorough, and informed judgment in diverse situations and a changing environment.

Effective: Be able to fully integrate theory and practice within their discipline by utilizing those portable skills they have developed through their coursework. Such skills include critical thinking, oral communication, collaboration, research proficiency, and professional behavior.

Aware: Demonstrate self-awareness and social-awareness, and be able to work empathetically and effectively with people from diverse cultures and backgrounds.

Self-directed: Be able to integrate knowledge and skills learned in the classroom to identify and solve problems beyond the classroom, but also be able to assess, critique and improve their work through an understanding of how to develop new knowledge and skills where necessary.

GRADING SYSTEM

Academic standing is based on grade points, which are related to the letter grades as indicated:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

</tbody>
</table>
Requests for course or semester withdrawal(s) for non-academic reasons (i.e., medical, personal leave, active duty reasons or withdrawal from the college) should be referred to the Office of Student Life.

Withdrawals for Student Veterans

Student veterans who withdraw from a course and have a W grade are required to return a portion of their benefits. An F does not require a return of benefits. However, the F has a greater impact on academic standing. The federal government allows a one-year grace period if the student veteran has an Incomplete instead of a W. Student veterans will be allowed two consecutive semesters following the course (summer sessions not included) to complete the course requirements for the Incomplete without needing to request instructor permission.

Limit on W Grades

Students are limited to a maximum of 5 W grades while pursuing an undergraduate program at RIC. W grades posted prior to the implementation of this policy will not be counted toward the total of 5 W’s allowed. A student with extenuating circumstances may petition the Academic Standing Committee for permission to exceed the maximum of 5 W’s. W/L and W/M grades do not count towards the 5 W grade limit. If the total number of W’s exceeds the maximum, a notation indicating a violation of college policy will appear on the student’s unofficial transcript. Further consequences such as a registration hold may apply.

INCOMPLETE GRADE - UNDERGRADUATE

For all undergraduate students, the time limit for completing course requirements for courses in which the grade of Incomplete was received is the last day of classes of the succeeding semester (two semesters for student veterans). For further information, students and their advisors should consult the Manual on Academic Policies & Procedures (MAPP) at www.ric.edu/academics/Documents/AcademicPoliciesProceduresrev8-18.pdf.

ACADEMIC FORGIVENESS POLICY (5 - YEAR RULE)

The Academic Forgiveness Policy allows a fresh start for former undergraduate students from RIC who have had a minimum of five consecutive years absence from the college and wish to return to complete a first bachelor’s degree. The older credits will be evaluated under the college’s current transfer model. When the policy is applied, the cumulative GPA will be recalculated and reset.

Courses that are at least five years old in which the student earned a grade of “C” or higher will be awarded elective credit, or if appropriate, general education credit. Upper level courses will be reviewed/evaluated by the department of the chair of the student’s major/program who determines if the course(s) may still be applied to the student’s program or must be repeated (such as change in body of knowledge, etc.). Programs with a secondary admission process are allowed to calculate grades from older courses and may require students to repeat those courses.
At the discretion of the admissions office, college credit may also be evaluated for academic forgiveness for transfer applicants with credits five years or older from other institutions.

REPEATING A COURSE
A student may repeat only once any course taken for undergraduate credit that is not subject to restrictions within undergraduate programs. A W grade counts as a repeat. A student who wishes to repeat a course a second time may request permission to do so from the Academic Standing Committee. The form for petitioning the Academic Standing Committee is available online at http://www.ric.edu/recordsoffice/documents/PetitiontoAcademicStandingCommittee.pdf

Once a course is repeated, only the higher grade earned will be included in the calculation of the cumulative grade point average and will appear on the student’s transcript. The original course and grade will also appear on the transcript. Only grades for courses repeated at Rhode Island College will be adjusted.

AUDITING A COURSE
To audit a course is to participate in a course without receiving credit for the course or having the grade point average affected. Auditing requires consent of the instructor and the appropriate department chair. During the first two weeks of a semester, if registration for the course has not been closed, a course may be added for audit through regular Add/Drop procedures without a late registration fee charged. Conversely, during the first two weeks of the semester, a course that was audited may be dropped and added for credit with no late registration fee charged. Full-time undergraduate students may register as auditors without paying additional fees. Part-time or nondegree students pay the usual per-credit fee. Any refunds will be made only at the student’s request and according to the standard Rhode Island College refund schedules. Under no circumstances will audited courses be counted for credit toward a degree.

INDEPENDENT STUDY
Independent study, directed study and certain research courses afford students the opportunity to pursue concentrated study in a selected topic under the supervision of a faculty member. Students enrolled in independent study are expected to observe the semester begin and end dates, unless a different time limit has been arranged with their instructor. Requests for an independent study should be made in the semester prior to the semester of the planned independent study. An application for Independent Study Form, signed by the instructor, the department chair and the appropriate dean must be filed with the respective program. Forms are available in the Records Office or online at www.ric.edu/recordsoffice/Pages/Forms.aspx.

ACADEMIC STANDING AND RETENTION STANDARDS
Rhode Island College defines good academic standing as a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.0. The academic standing policy applies to all degree and nondegree undergraduates once they have attempted a minimum of 12 credits at the college. Maintaining good academic standing is crucial to demonstrating progress towards the completion of the degree.

Academic standing is based on the number of credit hours attempted, the GPA earned at the end of a semester and the cumulative GPA. Following the posting of grades each semester, the Records Office will review all undergraduate students, degree and nondegree, to determine the level of academic standing applicable to each student. Professional programs and some majors may have additional and/or higher academic standards which the student must meet at specific intervals.

ACADEMIC ASSESSMENT
Faculty and staff at Rhode Island College are committed to meeting the mission of providing excellent academic and co-curricular programs. All major programs publish goals that articulate our expectations for student learning. Formative and summative assessment of student learning and programs help us to determine how well we have met our goals and make improvements. Students and graduates are expected, when requested, to submit examples of their work, respond to surveys and tests, and engage in discussions that enrich the collegiate environment and support our effort to strive for continuous improvement in the delivery of excellent academic programs. Faculty collect and analyze data to make program improvements as their contribution to this college-wide process.

PLAGIARISM
The Rhode Island College community is committed to the basic principles of academic honesty. Instances of alleged academic dishonesty are adjudicated under the procedures developed by the Academic Integrity Board. The board is composed of students, faculty and administrators. A description of its powers and responsibilities can be found in the Manual on Academic Policies and Procedures on the RIC website at www.ric.edu/academics/Documents/AcademicPoliciesProceduresrev7-17.pdf.

TRANSFER CREDIT
Undergraduate degree candidates who plan to take a course at another college while a degree student at RIC must complete an Authorization of Credit form(s) before registering for the course (including CCRI and URI courses). The Authorization of Credit form may be found online at www.ric.edu/recordsoffice/documents/authorcreditform.pdf and must be filed with the Records Office. Students must also obtain permission of the department chair or, in the case of interdisciplinary courses, the dean. Students with financial aid awards should contact the Office of Student Financial Aid about their continued eligibility to receive aid while they take courses at other colleges.

Upon completion of the course, students must arrange to have their official transcript sent to the Records Office. Credit will not be posted until the official transcript is received.

Students who withdraw from Rhode Island College to attend another college must make formal application for readmission if they decide to return to RIC.

THE 3.5 SOCIETY
Full-time freshmen who earn a minimum GPA of 3.5 in their first semester or by the end of their first year will automatically become members of The 3.5 Society in recognition of their scholastic achievement.

CAP AND GOWN AWARDS
Rhode Island College recognizes academic excellence and outstanding achievement through the annual presentation of special awards. These are sponsored by alumni, faculty and friends of Rhode Island College, as well as by the families and friends of those for whom they are named. Most funds for endowed awards are deposited with the Rhode Island College Foundation. The awards are given to graduating seniors at the annual Cap and Gown Convocation.

COLLEGE HONORS PROGRAM

The College Honors Program offers academically superior students, regardless of major, the opportunity to participate in a four-year honors experience. The program has two parts: General Education Honors and Departmental Honors. Each part may be taken independently of the other and will be noted on the student’s official transcript. However, both parts must be completed in order to receive the additional designation of “College Honors” on the transcript.

General Education Honors

General Education Honors admits students directly from high school, during their freshman year or as transfers. General Education Honors is normally, although not necessarily, completed by the end of the sophomore year.

Students take a minimum of five General Education courses, normally including the three core requirements, in specially designed honors sections. These sections are designed to be more intellectually challenging than regular courses and are kept small in size, thus allowing ample opportunity for class discussion and for individualized study.
Successful completion of General Education Honors requires a minimum overall grade point average (GPA) of 3.00. All honors courses taken are noted on the student's transcript, as is the completion of General Education Honors as a whole. Students may withdraw from the program at any time.

Admission to General Education Honors is by invitation of the director of honors and the College Honors Committee. Students invited into General Education Honors normally rank in the top 20 percent of their high school class, have taken demanding academic schedules and have scored at least 1200 on the SAT. Each student’s application is reviewed individually and other factors are considered, such as activities, recommendations, the student’s high school curriculum and his or her personal statement. Students may also join on the basis of their performance at Rhode Island College during their first year or as transfer students, if they have not already completed too many General Education courses.

Each year Rhode Island College awards a number of merit-based financial scholarships to students in General Education Honors. Those scholarships are renewable for a maximum of four years as long as the student maintains full-time status with a minimum GPA of 3.00 and makes satisfactory progress toward completing General Education Honors.

Other financial scholarships specifically for General Education Honors students are the Eleanor M. McMahon Award, which is presented to an outstanding graduating senior who has completed both General Education Honors and Departmental Honors; the Eleanor M. McMahon Rising Junior Award, which is presented to a rising junior in General Education Honors who plans to complete a departmental honors project; the John Nazarian Honors Scholarship, which is awarded to an outstanding incoming freshman in General Education Honors; the Director of Honors Scholarship, which is given to a deserving student in General Education Honors; and the Ruth Williams ’33 Honors Scholarship, which is given to students from the Westerly, Rhode Island area.

Honors Colloquium
Honors 351: Honors Colloquium admits continuing and transfer students who have achieved a cumulative grade point average of 3.00, whether or not they have participated in General Education Honors. Although most students will have attained junior status, this colloquium is open to second-semester sophomores as well. This course may be taken twice for credit.

Honors 351 promotes intellectual and social community among students from different disciplines at the college. It teaches students to think self-analytically about their majors and about working in particular academic genres. It helps students decide whether or not to undertake departmental honors work and guides them in the initial stages of identifying, researching and proposing honors projects in their respective majors.

Departmental Honors
Departmental Honors offers students the opportunity to undertake an independent research, critical or creative project on a topic of the student’s choice and directed by a professor of the student’s choice. Normally, the project begins in the senior year, although it may commence earlier, and carries six to eight hours of independent study credit over two semesters. Students may participate in Departmental Honors whether or not they have completed General Education Honors or taken Honors 351.

A Departmental Honors project is completed in the department of the student’s major. The student must apply formally to the appropriate departmental honors committee, which is responsible for accepting the student’s proposal for an honors project, for evaluating the completed project and for awarding the Departmental Honors designation, which will appear on the student’s transcript. If the student’s project involves work with persons or animals, the project must also be approved by the Committee on Human Participants in Research or the Committee on Animal Care and Use. Individual departments may also require that the student take specific upper-level courses in addition to or as part of the honors project. Undergraduate research/creativity grants are available to support honors projects.

If there is no honors program in the student’s major or if the student wishes to undertake an interdisciplinary project that cannot be accommodated in the major, the student may apply to the director of honors to appoint an appropriate faculty committee to review the student’s proposal and to oversee the project. In such cases, the student’s transcript will reflect completion of an Honors Independent Project rather than Departmental Honors. Such students will still be eligible to receive the College Honors designation on their transcripts. Students seeking Departmental Honors must have a minimum overall GPA of at least 3.0 and a minimum GPA in the major of at least 3.25. Some departments require higher minimum GPAs. Students should consult the respective departmental honors committees for details. A student whose project is denied honors may appeal that decision through the normal college appeal process.

Honors programs are offered in most departments in the Faculty of Arts and Sciences and in the School of Business, as well as in the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development.

DEAN’S LIST
Full-time students who attain a minimum GPA of 3.25 in any semester have their names placed on the Dean’s List in recognition of their scholastic achievement. (During a student teaching semester, students must attain a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0, as well as a minimum semester GPA of 3.0, and earn at least a grade of Satisfactory in student teaching.)

GRADUATION HONORS
Graduating seniors are cited for honors at the annual Commencement exercises, according to the following standards: a cumulative grade point average of 3.85 or higher, summa cum laude; 3.60 to 3.84, magna cum laude; 3.25 to 3.59, cum laude.

Students who have transferred to Rhode Island College or who are seeking their second baccalaureate degree are eligible for Graduation Honors if they have completed a minimum of 54 credit hours of work at Rhode Island College.

INTERNATIONAL HONOR SOCIETIES
Alpha Kappa Delta
The Beta Chapter of the International Honor Society in Sociology was chartered at Rhode Island College in 1976. The society was founded in 1920 at the University of Southern California. There are now 290 chapters in the United States and Canada that honor excellence in scholarship, research and service.

Kappa Delta Pi
The Epsilon Rho Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, an International Honor Society in Education, was organized at Rhode Island College in 1944. It encourages high personal, professional and intellectual standards and recognizes outstanding contributions to education. More than 500 colleges in the United States have chapters in this society.

Phi Alpha Theta
Kappa Psi Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, the International Honor Society in History, was organized at Rhode Island College in 1966. It recognizes history students who maintain high standards in their college studies. It promotes the study of history by encouraging research, good teaching, exchange of ideas and publication. Over 700 chapters exist across the United States, Canada and the Philippines.

Phi Sigma Iota
The Beta Gamma chapter of the International Foreign Language Honor Society was chartered at Rhode Island College in 1982. It recognizes outstanding accomplishment in the study or teaching of any of the academic fields related to foreign language, literature or culture. These fields include not only modern foreign language, but also classics, linguistics, philology, comparative literature, bilingual education, second language acquisition and other interdisciplinary programs with a significant foreign language component. Phi Sigma Iota is the highest academic honor in the field of foreign languages. There are approximately 250 chapters of Phi Sigma Iota at institutions of higher learning in the United States, Mexico and France.

Phi Sigma Tau
The Gamma Chapter of Phi Sigma Tau, the International Honor Society in Philosophy, was established at Rhode Island College in 2011. The objectives of the society are to award distinction to students having high scholarship and interest in philosophy; promote student research and advanced study; publish student research papers of merit; encourage a professional spirit and friendship; and popularize interest in philosophy among the general collegiate public. Founded in 1930, the society has over 200 chapters in the United States and Canada.

Sigma Tau Delta
The Alpha Omicron Pi Chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, an International Honor Society in English, was established at Rhode Island College in 2007 to recognize excellence in scholarship and includes students, alumni and faculty members. Sigma Tau Delta was founded in 1924 as a national society and became international in 1988. There are now over 750 active chapters, with conventions scheduled in even-numbered years.

Sigma Theta Tau
Sigma Theta Tau Inc., the International Honor Society in Nursing, has established the Delta Upsilon Chapter-at-Large at Rhode Island College and at the University of Rhode Island with this purpose in mind: to recognize superior achievement and scholarship, to recognize the development of leadership qualities, to foster high professional standards, to encourage creative work and to strengthen commitment to the ideals and purposes of the nursing profession.

Sigma Xi
Sigma Xi, the Scientific Research Society, was founded in 1886 as an honor society for science and engineering. Today it is an international research society with programs and activities that promote the health of the scientific enterprise and honor scientific achievement. There are more than 80,000 Sigma Xi members in over 500 chapters at colleges and universities, industrial research centers and government laboratories. Students who have shown potential as researchers are invited to join as associate members. The Rhode Island College chapter began as a club in 1984.

Tau Sigma
A chapter of Tau Sigma National Honor Society was chartered at Rhode Island College in 2010. Founded in 1999, Tau Sigma currently has chapters at nearly 90 colleges and universities throughout the United States. This is the first chapter in Rhode Island. The purpose of the society is to recognize and promote the academic excellence and involvement of transfer students.

Upsilon Pi Epsilon
The Alpha Chapter of the International Honor Society for the computing disciplines was chartered at Rhode Island College in 2011. The society was organized in 1967 at Texas A & M University. There are now over 200 chapters in the United States, Bulgaria, Japan and Mexico that honor academic excellence in computer and information systems, computer science and other computing disciplines.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETIES

Alpha Delta Mu
The Beta Chi Chapter of Alpha Delta Mu, the National Honor Society in Social Work, was chartered at Rhode Island College in 1982. Alpha Delta Mu is dedicated to the advancement of excellence in social work practice and to the encouragement, stimulation and maintenance of scholarship in social work.

Alpha Lambda Delta
The 3.5 Society chapter of Alpha Lambda Delta will be chartered at Rhode Island College in 2013. Founded in 1924, Alpha Lambda Delta (ALD) is one of the oldest honor societies in the United States dedicated to recognizing academic excellence among first-year college students.

Pi Mu Epsilon
The Rhode Island Beta chapter of Pi Mu Epsilon, the National Honor Society in Mathematics, was chartered at Rhode Island College in 1967. Founded in 1914, Pi Mu Epsilon currently has chapters at over 300 colleges and universities throughout the United States. The purpose of the society is to promote scholarly activity in mathematics among students in academic institutions.

Pi Sigma Alpha
The Alpha Epsilon Chapter of Pi Sigma Alpha, the National Honor Society in Political Science, was chartered at Rhode Island College in 2003. Pi Sigma Alpha recognizes academic excellence in political science, provides a forum for the scholarly discussion of politics and encourages graduate study in political science through scholarship awards.
Psi Chi
The Psi Chi Chapter of the National Honor Society in Psychology was charted at Rhode Island College in 1992. Psi Chi functions as a federation of chapters located at more than 800 senior colleges and universities in the United States. Psi Chi serves two major functions: (1) to provide academic recognition to its inductees; and (2) to nurture the creative and professional development of its members and its psychology department.

Academic Facilities and Services - Undergraduate

OFFICE OF ACADEMIC ADVISING
The Office of Academic Advising is located in the Lower Level of the Adams Library, in the area formerly known as OASIS, and supports all Exploring Majors, First-Year Intended Nursing Majors, and any student looking for additional support. Our office assists students with course registration, adding/dropping courses, short and long-term planning, exploring majors, and academic coaching. We also guide students as they navigate their major/career options and connect them to the proper resources, including faculty. We are here to help students create and assess academic, personal and career orientated goals, encourage you to get involved on campus, and focus in on items that can enhance your RIC experience academically, and holistically. Additionally, our office utilizes Starfish in order to schedule appointments, create engagement within the campus community, and to connect students to the proper resources.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT, OFFICE OF
Rhode Island College provides a number of academic support and advising services in the office known as OASIS. OASIS was established to assist students with questions concerning academic policies and procedures at Rhode Island College and to serve as the official advisor to students in the exploring major categories (undeclared). Students interested in becoming more effective learners will find assistance in OASIS. Services include instruction and tutorial help for reading comprehension, note taking, and test preparation for admission and certification testing for the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development. Assistance with tests required by the School of Nursing is also available. OASIS works closely with Disability Services to offer academic counseling and learning strategies to students who have or think they may have a learning disability. OASIS welcomes all Rhode Island College students. For more information on tutorial help, refer to the Mathematics Learning Center, Tutorial Services and Writing Center.

ADAMS LIBRARY
The James P. Adams Library provides:
• Access to information in print and online.
• Reference services in person and through use of several icons, such as “Text Us” and “CHAT” on the library homepage.
• One-on-one research consultation.
• Public computers for use throughout the building.
• Laptops, iPads, Nexus 7 tablets, external hard drives and graphing and business calculators for loan.

The library collection today includes 313,597 eBooks, 56,868 journals in electronic format and 123 databases, all of which are accessible both on and off campus. Print holdings include 324,419 items and 1,556 periodicals. The library also has a collection of technical reports, newspapers and government publications, a DVD collection of films and documentaries, a variety of music CDs and a rotating collection of popular fiction and non-fiction books for recreational reading. Your RIC ID is your library card. During the 2017-18 academic year, 18,294 items from the library’s collection were circulated.

Library faculty collaborate with college faculty to create library instruction for specific courses focused on the discovery, use and evaluation of library resources and information on the web. The library provided 156 library instruction sessions which were attended by 2,496 students during the 2017-18 academic year. These sessions are conducted by the reference librarians, who also answer about 6,347 reference questions a year.

The library’s participation in the Higher Education Library Information Network (HELIN) allows the RIC community to borrow from academic libraries throughout the state with a click of a button in the online catalog. Users can request items not available in the HELIN consortium through the library’s Document Delivery Service. During the 2017-18 academic year the RIC library borrowed 3,168 items from other libraries and lent 2,530 items, for a total of 5,698 items.

The College Archives, a rich depository of the history and records of Rhode Island College, as well as faculty and alumni publications and student theses, are located in the Special Collections Department. Special Collections includes a number of subject collections consisting of papers, books, manuscripts and other resources that document the state’s education, ethnic and socio-political history. A growing number of student theses and honor projects, faculty publications and Special Collections materials are also accessible electronically in the Digital Commons.

The Curriculum Resources Center, housed within the library, provides instructional material and curriculum development resources for teachers and teacher education programs.

Information about library hours, services and resources can be found on the Adams Library website at library.ric.edu.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTER
The Career Development Center serves students and alumni in the career planning and job and internship search process. The Center also offers assistance with applying to graduate school, including help with writing the personal statement.

Individual counseling sessions are offered at the Center, along with TypeFocus, an online system that helps students examine their values, skills and interests to reach informed decisions about a major and career. Workshops and programs are offered to help students develop competitive job search skills and strategies (e.g., résumé and cover letter writing, effective interviewing, LinkedIn accounts and networking).

Many resources are available 24/7 online, such as job and internship postings and information about career fields. Employers seeking full-time, permanent and part-time employees and interns connect with students through the Center’s career management tool, Handshake. Student employment (work-study and non-work-study) jobs available both on- and off-campus are also managed through the Center.

Current students and alumni may post résumés, view jobs/internships and access the center’s online library with RIC’s career management tool, Handshake (www.ric.edu/careerdevelopment). Additional tools available to students include Portfolium, an e-folio platform that translates classroom and experiential learning into workplace skills and highlights them for employers to view and Big Interview, an online system for job interview preparation. Please visit our website at www.ric.edu/careerdevelopment for additional details and resources. The Career Development Center is located in Building #6, Lower Level.

DISABILITY SERVICES CENTER

The Disability Services Center (DSC) is the central location on campus for disability-related services for undergraduate and graduate students and is committed to providing accommodations for students with disabilities and supporting them in achieving their academic goals. Students who self-identify and provide appropriate documentation of their condition to the DSC may be eligible to receive reasonable accommodations in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and analogous state laws. Support services may include classroom and testing accommodations, advisement, referrals and use of assistive technology. The DSC serves students with all types of disabilities: mobility, hearing, vision, motor, psychological, learning, attention, speech, medical, developmental and other conditions. In addition, the DSC shall seek to assist students with temporary impairments who are in need of short-term accommodations. The DSC is also available to advise any student who needs information about how to obtain proper documentation of a disability.

The DSC promotes the inclusion of individuals with disabilities in all aspects of college life, and endeavors to make students aware of the many opportunities and resources available to them at Rhode Island College. The DSC recognizes disability as a form of diversity and is the primary resource to educate, train and guide the college community in understanding disability access, rights and responsibilities. The DSC not only serves as an advocate for students with disabilities, but also encourages students toward self-advocacy and self-determination.

Clarification of policies and procedures for disability-related services is available in the Policies and Procedures Manual for Students with Disabilities. Copies of the manual are available at the Disability Services Center or on its Web site at www.ric.edu/disabilityservices. Persons using TTY/TDD devices may contact the Disabilities Services Center via Rhode Island Relay Services by dialing 711.

FACULTY CENTER FOR TEACHING AND LEARNING

The Faculty Center for Teaching and Learning (FCTL) promotes the professional growth and development of faculty as teachers and as scholars of teaching and learning. It cultivates a public dialogue about teaching and learning across disciplinary lines and strives to build a professional community among teachers at Rhode Island College. The FCTL serves faculty at every stage of their professional lives in order to support a campus-wide culture committed to inclusive excellence in teaching and learning. The FCTL is by faculty, for faculty. We offer opportunities for faculty members to talk about what they are doing, share strategies and stories, and learn about various teaching pedagogies including active/engaged learning, online teaching and new teaching-related technologies. In addition, the FCTL offers support for designing courses, syllabi, class discussions, assignments and assessments of learning outcomes. For more information about the FCTL and our offerings visit our website at www.ric.edu/fctl.

HELP CENTER

The Help Center provides comprehensive support for computer and printer problems along with a full complement of IT equipment and support for classroom instruction. The Help Center also assists conference planners with presentation media.

HENRY BARNARD LABORATORY SCHOOL

The Henry Barnard Laboratory School (HBS), which enrolls learners from preschool (age 3) through grade five, has served the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development and the College for 120 years. It provides opportunities for Rhode Island College education students preparing to become teachers to observe classes, to participate in clinical and practicum experiences and to student/co-teach. HBS faculty participate in educational research activities, publish in literature of the field and present at local and national conferences.

As a laboratory school, HBS seeks to be a model for other schools in the state and region. Faculty seek to develop, document and disseminate new, effective practices for the field. The HBS preschool is a Reggio-Emelia-inspired program. Afterschool care for all learners is available. For more information, visit the website at www.ric.edu/hbs.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SERVICES

The Office of Information Technology Services provides Information Technology resources to assist and educate the Rhode Island College Community. Information Technology Services supports the use of technology to promote communication, learning and access by providing services in the following areas:

- Classroom Technology
- MyRIC Portal (Student Information System)
- Office 365

Information Technology Services maintains the college’s two large walk-in computing facilities for student use, located in the Horace Mann Technology Center (closing end of 2019 for renovations) and in Whipple Hall, where over 135 Microsoft Windows and Apple Macintosh desktop computers are available, as well as electronic classrooms in over 15 buildings. In addition, hands-on instructional computing facilities are located in:

- Alger Hall
- Alex and Ani Hall
- Clarke Science Hall
- Craig-Lee Hall
- Gaige Hall
- Guardo Hall (School of Social Work)
- Fogarty Life Sciences
- Henry Barnard School
- Nazarian Center
- Whipple Hall

Our goal is to enhance the student experience. We can assist with all technology services through a single phone call to the Information Technology Services Help Center at (401) 456-8803. This one-stop shop for technology will provide support for desktop computers, laptops, phones, networking, wireless, printing, access to MyRIC, Blackboard and all other college applications, multimedia support, technology training and classroom support.

LEARNING FOR LIFE (L4L)
Learning for Life is a multi-faceted community and college partnership, linking students to a wide range of services, supports, and opportunities that fortify them for college success and remove practical, life challenges and obstacles that may prevent education from remaining a priority in their lives.

By connecting students with academic, social, life-skill, financial, and career-related supports, L4L helps students to navigate a direct course to college completion. Contact Learning for Life at www.ric.edu/learningforlife/ or l4linfo@ric.edu.

MATHEMATICS ASSESSMENT AND TUTORING
The Mathematics Learning Center, located in OASIS, has peer tutors available each day to assist students individually or in small groups with the Mathematics Placement Examination, with mathematics courses or with mathematics topics in another discipline. Students may make appointments in person or by phone.

ADULT EDUCATION AND WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT
Professional Studies and Continuing Education offers adult education and workforce development programs that provide academic enrichment, professional training and employment opportunities for adult students.

Programs are developed with campus, government, community and industry partners to address workforce development needs and to train individuals seeking to enter employment or to increase their employment options. Non-credit and credit based courses are combined in many programs to provide students with expanded opportunities for continuing college study.

PSCE programs include a variety of content and experiential learning components that prepare students for successful employment. Subject content for industry-specific training is combined with applied clinical and laboratory experiences and an internship in an industry setting. Allied training is provided in job readiness and job search skills, and students prepare a full portfolio of targeted résumés. Industry-specific remedial adult basic education study and English as a Second Language are provided as needed.

PARTNERSHIPS AND PLACEMENTS, OFFICE OF
In cooperation with academic departments within the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development, the Office of Partnerships and Placements is responsible for securing field placements and maintaining partnerships with school districts.

TUTORIAL SERVICES
Rhode Island College provides tutors to support students in a number of different disciplines across campus. They are available to meet with students in tutorial settings to help them identify learning needs, develop strategies that will result in effective study habits, and build successful techniques for continued progress and excellence in their studies. Tutoring is free to Rhode Island College students in general education courses and available online at smarthinking.com. Services are located in the Lower Level of Adams Library in Student Success Offices/OASIS.

UPWARD BOUND PROGRAM
Established at RIC in 1966, the Upward Bound Program serves low-income, first-generation college bound scholars in the pursuit of high school graduation and post-secondary completion. Our holistic approach enhances the intellectual, motivational, and character development of each scholar. Upward Bound is committed to providing equal access and opportunity to scholars through rigorous academic instruction, advising, support services, and an environment that recognizes individual differences and academic potential.

For more information visit the Upward Bound office, or e-mail upwardbound@ric.edu, or visit the Web site at www.ric.edu/upward_bound.

WRITING CENTER
The Writing Center is staffed by highly qualified student tutors. Tutors work with all writers, from freshmen to graduate students, in all disciplines. Tutors assist with any phase of writing, such as refining topics, writing for a specific audience, developing ideas, organizing material, revising drafts and editing.

The Writing Center maintains a reference library of books, journals and articles on writing theory, writing for specific disciplines and other topics, including MLA, APA and Chicago style manuals. Services are free to all Rhode Island College students, faculty and staff.
Campus Life - Undergraduate

CHILD CARE—COOPERATIVE PRESCHOOL
The Cooperative Preschool is a campus organization sponsored by Student Community Government. Through the cooperative involvement of parents, the co-op provides an affordable, reliable, high-quality preschool program for children ages three to five. To participate in the co-op, children must be toilet trained and be three years of age by August 31. Students, staff and faculty of Rhode Island College are eligible to enroll their children. Children of students are given first priority. Children are enrolled full-time, regardless of the number of hours they attend. The school is DCYF licensed and employs a certified teacher and work-study students. The co-op also participates in Brightstars, a preschool quality-rating and improvement system. The curriculum is aligned with the Rhode Island Early Learning domains.

In addition to paying monthly tuition, parents work designated hours, attend monthly meetings and participate in the running of the co-op. The co-op is open Monday through Friday from 7:45 a.m. to 5 p.m. during the academic year. Use of the co-op is limited to those hours in which the parent is performing college related activities, such as attending class, doing research, student teaching, etc.

For more information, stop by the co-op during hours of operation or access information and registration forms at: www.ric.edu/cooperativepreschool/.

COUNSELING CENTER
The principal aim of the Counseling Center is to help students grow, develop and succeed during their college years. A professional staff of psychologists, counselors and doctoral students in counseling or clinical psychology provide individual and group counseling to students who seek help with emotional or social challenges, academic difficulties or educational and career planning. Assessment of vocational interest and personal characteristics is available as needed. The center also offers groups and workshops on personal development matters, such as stress management and procrastination. Although friends or faculty may encourage individual students to utilize counseling, it is entirely voluntary, and most students make the decision on their own initiative. Counseling Center services are strictly confidential and are provided to any current Rhode Island College students without charge.

DINING SERVICES
Rhode Island College's Dining Services is dedicated to exceeding the food, beverage and service expectations of our diverse community. Dining Services provides a variety of quality products expertly prepared, professionally served and enjoyed in comfortable, relaxing settings.

Commuters, residents, faculty and staff are welcome in Donovan Dining Center and the Café. All guests can purchase their favorite food, drinks, and snacks using cash or debit/credit cards and flex meal points in our dining facilities or in one of the many vending machines across campus. Resident students will select one of four meal plan options and use it to make purchases from the two locations. Meal plans are also available for commuter students as well as faculty and staff.

Additionally, we are able to offer Nutrition Services to the campus community. Our registered, licensed dietician is available to meet with students to address dietary needs, discuss healthy eating habits and answer any related questions.

The full Dining Services website is available at www.ric.edu/collegedining.

HEALTH SERVICES
Health Services, located on the ground floor of Browne Hall, provides confidential, primary health care to all students. Care includes physical examinations, immunizations, treatment of acute and chronic illnesses and injuries, gynecological exams, health education and, if necessary, specialty referral. On-site laboratory services include blood and urine tests, throat cultures and pregnancy testing. Health Services is open year-round and is staffed by nurse practitioners, registered nurses and a part-time physician. Visits are available by appointment.

TeleHealth as well as in-office visits are available by appointment. COVID-19 precautions are in place according to guidelines set by the Rhode Island Department of Health and the CDC. Please call office before arriving at Health Services. Visits by appointment only.

Rhode Island College offers Student Health and Accident Insurance to any student taking a minimum of 6 credit hours. Information about this policy is available at www.universityhealthplans.com.

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS
Rhode Island College sponsors 21 varsity sports through the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. Seven team sports are offered in the fall, seven team sports during the winter and seven during the spring. Men’s teams compete in baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, indoor track, outdoor track, soccer, tennis and wrestling. Women’s teams compete in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track, lacrosse, outdoor track, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

Participation is open to qualified undergraduate degree candidates who are enrolled in a minimum of 12 credit hours of courses as well as other NCAA and institutional requirements.

The college’s intercollegiate athletic facility, The Murray Center, features practice and competition sites for basketball, gymnastics and volleyball. In addition, there are home and visiting team locker rooms, a fully equipped training/rehabilitation room, an equipment area, a weight training facility, offices and classrooms, team meeting rooms and the Athletic Hall of Fame. Additional intercollegiate athletic facilities include Pontarelli Field (baseball); the Bazar softball complex; competitive tennis courts; the Black Track complex, including a 4,000-seat outdoor competitive venue; a five-acre practice complex; two indoor conditioning/hitting facilities and the Ann and Vin Cullen Student-Athlete Success Center. All RIC intercollegiate athletic contests are webcasted live through the Anchormen network. Included in the college’s recreation center is a wing dedicated to the Olympic sport student-athlete at RIC. For additional and the most up-to-date information on the intercollegiate athletic program, visit www.goanchormen.com.

Rhode Island College is a proud member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, and the National Collegiate Gymnastics Association, and is a charter member of the Little East Conference, which sponsors conference championships in men’s baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, tennis and track; and in women’s basketball, cross country, lacrosse, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, track and
The nine member Little East Conference includes Plymouth State University, University of Massachusetts (Dartmouth), University of Massachusetts (Boston), Eastern Connecticut State University, University of Southern Maine, Western Connecticut State University, Keene State College and Castleton University. The conference also has several affiliate members.

INTERFAITH SERVICES CENTER
Rhode Island College Interfaith Services is a component of the Unity Center that endeavors to support the spiritual growth of the Rhode Island College community regardless of religious history/affiliation, cultural background or personal circumstance. Interfaith Services strives to foster appreciation, understanding and respect for religious choice; provide opportunities for prayer, worship and meditation; support faith-based student groups; encourage spiritual exploration and promote volunteerism both on- and off-campus. Interfaith services maintains a meditation room located in the Unity Center that can be reserved for members of the RIC community. Contact us at the Unity Center at (401) 456-8168.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS OFFICE
The International Student Office (ISO) is a component of the Unity Center in the division for Community, Equity and Diversity at Rhode Island College. The ISO mission is to support the institution’s internationalization effort and to facilitate and enhance the academic experiences of undergraduate and graduate international students. ISO serves as the main resource hub of support to international students (both newly admitted and current) by providing one-on-one advising services with respect to admission requirements, immigration and visa procedures, work permits, orientation, and cultural adjustment and transition into the greater New England community. The office also supports student success by hosting social and educational activities. The ISO is located in the Unity Center (lower level of the Donovan Dining Center). For more information, please visit: www.ric.edu/iss.

LGBTQ+ OFFICE
The LGBTQ+ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Queer/Questioning) Office is a component of the Unity Center in the division for Community, Equity and Diversity at Rhode Island College. The office advocates for the various concerns, both academic and personal, of the LGBTQ+ campus community and its allies. Its mission is to integrate the best practices for inclusion of gender, gender identity, and sexual orientation into all appropriate aspects of campus life. The LGBTQ+ staff assists students with processes relevant to preferred names and documentation, and engages campus constituents in understanding and implementing practices that promote safety and affirmation. In collaboration with other LGBTQ organizations within Providence and greater Rhode Island, this office works to ensure that state and federal protections provided to students, faculty, and staff including but not limited to: Title IX, hate crime and non-discrimination ordinances, are upheld to the highest level. The LGBTQ+ Office is located in the Unity Center (lower level of the Donovan Dining Center). Visit the website at www.ric.edu/lgbtq.

MILITARY RESOURCE CENTER - UNDERGRADUATE
The Military Resource Center serves as a bridge between off-campus services and on-campus services for military service members, veterans and their families. The VetSuccess on Campus program is located in the center. Students receive information and assistance in accessing educational benefits, exploring career options and locating other important services at Rhode Island College.

RECREATIONAL AND CLUB SPORTS
A completely renovated recreation center opened in the fall semester of 2012. The complex is home to all recreational programming, including intramurals and club sports. The center and its programs are available to all currently enrolled undergraduate and graduate students. The facility is also available to faculty, staff, alumni and the community on a membership-fee basis. For a complete list of activities and hours, which change each semester, visit www.goanchormen.com.

The 80,000-square-foot facility includes a five-lane, 25-yard, L-shaped swimming pool; a five-lane, 1/10-mile indoor track; three multi-use courts for basketball, volleyball and tennis; a fitness center, including cardio and strength areas; a student lounge complete with WiFi and cable television; new locker room facilities; a multimedia room; a wrestling facility adaptable for other events; a multi-use studio for aerobics and yoga with “fitness on demand” available during all operating hours; offices for coaches; and a suite to host fundraising-related initiatives. The Club Sport Program currently includes the following established club sport opportunities: men’s ice hockey, women’s equestrian, ultimate frisbee and men’s volleyball. For more updated information, or if you are interested in starting a club sport, go to www.goanchormen.com.

OFFICE OF RESIDENTIAL LIFE AND HOUSING
On-campus housing is available for undergraduate students and graduate students. Six residence halls—Browne, Thorp, Weber, Willard, Sweet and Penfield Hall—provide accommodations for approximately 1,100 students. Browne, Thorp and Weber Halls are designed with suites of eight to twelve single rooms adjacent to a study-lounge area. Sweet and Willard Halls feature double-occupancy rooms, with a select number of single rooms. Sweet Hall is built along more traditional lines, with rooms on either side of the corridors. Each hall has a common lounge area and laundry, and each room is furnished with a bed, desk and closet. Penfield Hall provides suite-style living for four, with either single or double bedrooms. A portion of Penfield Hall suites have apartment-style features, with breakfast counters and full-size refrigerators. The fees given below are for the 2020–2021 academic year. Because of rising costs, the Rhode Island Board of Education reserves the right to change fees without notice as conditions necessitate.

Residents are expected to secure alternate housing accommodations during scheduled breaks.

Room Fees
Rooms are contracted on a yearly basis. All students are required to pay a non-refundable housing deposit of $250, which is a prepayment towards the 2020-21 room fees. Residence halls open at the beginning of each semester and close at the end of each semester in December and May and during Spring Break. Residents are expected to secure alternate housing accommodations during scheduled breaks or students may apply to remain in housing during the College vacation breaks for an extra fee.

Board Fees

Students choosing to live on campus are required to purchase one of four available Meal Plans. Each Meal Plan includes a set number of meals per week, as well as Flex Meal Points that can be used throughout the semester. All meals are redeemable at Donovan Dining Center. Flex Meal Points may be used at Donovan Dining Center, in the Café, or in campus vending machines.

Room Refunds

1. Cancellation Prior to Cancellation Deadline- Enrolled Students: Matriculated students who paid a housing deposit, signed the housing contract, and chose a housing assignment for the following academic year during the College’s official Housing Selection Process may cancel their housing through written request at no additional fee, if written request is received by May 15th. Cancellation will result in forfeiture of $200 housing deposit.

b. Cancellation Prior to Cancellation Deadline- Non-Enrolled Students: Students who have yet to matriculate to the College (i.e. New First Year students and New Transfer Students) who paid a housing deposit, signed the housing contract, and were given a housing assignment for the following academic year from the Residential Life & Housing Office may cancel their housing through written request at no additional fee, as long as written request is received by August 1st for the fall semester or January 1st for the spring semester. Cancellation will result in forfeiture of $200 housing deposit.

c. Cancellation After Cancellation Deadline: Students who paid a housing deposit, signed the housing contract, and have a housing assignment, must submit a Contract Release Request Form to the Office of Residential Life & Housing for consideration. The College may exercise its discretion to grant or deny the request. If the College denies the request for cancellation, the student shall owe the full fee period of the housing contract (academic year), any charges for damages, cleaning, and any non-refundable housing fees. If the College accepts the cancellation request, the student shall owe the full period of occupancy used, plus a release of contract fee equivalent to a four (4) week rent fee at the student’s current housing rate, any charges for damages, cleaning, and any non-refundable housing fees.

d. Contract Release Request Form: Students who wish to cancel their housing after the cancellation deadline, and have circumstances that meet the criteria below, may submit a Contract Release Request Form for review.

i. Withdrawal from the College

ii. Graduation from the College

iii. Military Deployment

iii. Attendance to an official College approved program (i.e. study abroad, national student exchange, or the equivalent)

iii. Financial Hardship (Must include verification appropriate to the circumstance and must demonstrate a loss of income that has occurred since the cancellation deadline. Petitions for release will be reviewed with the Financial Aid and Bursar Offices.)

iv. Medical Hardship (Must include medical documentation from a licensed physician on official letterhead, stating medical diagnosis, as well as a statement of how living on campus is related to the illness and the student’s treatment. Petitions for release will be reviewed by the Health & Wellness Office (Health Services and Counseling).)

e. Students who are released from their housing contract will be charged a release of contract fee equivalent to a four (4) week rent fee at the student’s current housing rate except in the following situations:

i. Withdrawal from the College

ii. Graduation from the College

iii. Military deployment

iii. Attendance to an official College approved program (i.e. study abroad, national student exchange, or the equivalent)

f. Any student who fails to occupy their assigned space one week after the contract start date shall be considered a “no-show” cancellation. Students considered “no-show” cancellations shall owe the full fee period of the housing contract (academic year) for enrolled students, or the four (4) week rent fee for non-enrolled students, plus any charges for damages, cleaning, and any non-refundable housing fees.

Board Refunds

The board contract is binding upon the student until the end of the academic year during which the cancellation is effected. However, proration of the food-cost portion of the Meal Plan contract will result in a refund based on the week when dining services is officially notified of withdrawal.

SECURITY AND SAFETY, OFFICE OF

The mission of the Campus Police, a component of the College’s Department of Security and Safety, while multifaceted, is simplistic in nature and is centered upon a single goal: to provide for the safety of life, personal and institutional property, and to enhance the educational process. The achievement of this mission relies on community partnerships built upon trust and mutual respect.
The department, located at the Welcome Center, provides 24-hour service and security to the Rhode Island College campus community. The department is responsible for the enforcement of all laws and regulations that apply to campus life, including those of the Rhode Island Council on Postsecondary Education and federal, state and certain municipal statutes. Information regarding security and safety, campus police, parking, traffic regulations, and vehicle registration is available at campus police headquarters or on the college website at www.ric.edu.

The department provides crime prevention support and assistance including 24-hour escort service for students, faculty and staff. This service is available by calling college extension 8888. For added protection, the campus has fifty-three blue-light emergency phones – located along illuminated walkways and campus buildings – that are directly linked to campus police. Moreover, building entrances and parking lots are thoroughly lit, highly visible, and equipped with state-of-the-art security cameras. (For locations of these phones, see the on-line Campus Map).

STUDENT ACTIVITIES
The Rhode Island College Office of Student Activities provides involvement opportunities for students. There is a wide array of possibilities for all students to make the most of their college investment beyond the classroom, including campus events, student organizations, Greek Life, student organizations, and community service. Students who are engaged meet more people, learn new things, and develop a sense of belonging at RIC. Visit our website for more information and a list of events we are hosting at ric.edu/student-activities/.

STUDENT COMMUNITY GOVERNMENT
As the official voice of the student body, Student Community Government is concerned with student rights and responsibilities and the enhancement of educational, cultural and social opportunities for students.

Although primarily undergraduate in membership, Student Parliament, the main body of Student Community government, includes representatives from almost all areas of the college. A Finance Commission, composed of parliament and non-parliament members, allocates funds from the student activity fee to support various student organizations and activities on campus.

STUDENT ID CARD
The student ID is more than your official Rhode Island College photo identification card. It is a great way to pay for everything including food, beverages, photocopies, laundry, printing, and textbooks at the Bookstore. You can add value to your campus points account at the Student ID office with a credit card. You can also add value using cash at either of the two Value Port stations; located at Adams Library behind the reference desk and at the lower entrance of Browne Hall. Your student ID accounts can be managed using GET Funds. Point your browser to https://get.cbord.com/ric and register your account. Additionally, your ID card has some important non-debit uses as well. It serves as your meal card when you sign up for a meal plan, your door key for entrance to your residence halls, your Adams Library card, and your ID for entrance into the Recreation Center. The ID card consists of 3 accounts:

1. The meal plan account for Donovan Dining Center and the café, (Board, Guest Passes, and Bonus Dollars).
2. The Campus Points account for use at all locations where points are accepted (DDC, café, Bookstore, Student Union game room, many copiers, laundry facilities in the Residence Halls, and pay-for-print stations in the café and Adams Library).
3. DDC commuter points (DDC points). This account is useful if you would like to designate funds for food only.

Your first ID card is free and can be obtained by coming to the Student ID office located on the second floor of the Student Union. Call 401.456.8394, email studentid@ric.edu, or visit www.ric.edu/student-ID for more information.

STUDENT INVOLVEMENT PROGRAMS
Students can participate in a wide variety of cultural activities, leadership programs, and events at Rhode Island College. These opportunities include open mic performances at the Café, Diversity Week presentations, student plays and concerts in the Nazarian Center, art exhibits at the Bannister and Chazan Family Galleries, lectures from world renown public figures, performances by comedians and musicians, and an array of cultural celebrations. There are academic-based exhibition and performance opportunities and a host of student groups in which students participate in ways best suited to their interests, from audience members to directors. Many of these activities and events are free or discounted for students. Whatever your interest or passion, there is a way for you to participate.

STUDENT LIFE, OFFICE OF
The office of student life addresses disagreements between students. For disagreements between students and faculty they are referred to the department chair or academic dean. For disagreements between students and staff they are referred to the supervisor of the staff member.

STUDENT UNION
The Student Union facility consists of the Student Union and Ducey Media Center. As its mission states, it is “more than a building, but also an organization and a program which complements the academic experience and contributes to student success.” In addition to Student Activities, Greek Life and the Student Life office, departments and services include Student ID office, Student Information Center/Mail Room, Bookstore, Military Resource Center, the Café, Student Community Government and a variety of other student organization offices. The Student Union further includes groups located in the Ducey Media Center: The Anchor (student newspaper), Anchor TV and WXIN Radio.

UNITY CENTER
The Unity Center is a Rhode Island College intercultural services center and a department of the division for Community, Equity and Diversity
(CED). The Unity Center is comprised of the leadership and activities of the Women’s Center, the LGBTQ+ Office, the International Student Office and Interfaith Services. Its mission is to promote educational equity, academic excellence and involvement in campus life to all students through collaborative programming and fostering connections among its student affiliates, faculty, staff and the wider community. The center seeks to increase inter-group connections and dialogue by providing a safe forum for exploring issues pertaining to diversity, inclusion and social justice. The Unity Center offers information and referrals, a computer work stations, a student lounge, conference room, lending library and student employment opportunities. The International Student Office and the LGBTQ+ Offices are both located in the Unity Center and adjacent to the Women’s Center on the lower level of the Donovan Dining Center easily accessible from the campus quad. Visit our web page at www.ric.edu/unitycenter and like Rhode Island College Unity Center on Facebook.

WOMEN’S CENTER
The mission of the Women’s Center is to cultivate a campus culture that fosters the advancement of women and inspires RIC students to discover and embrace their full potential. The Center collaborates with related campus and community organizations on various projects to promote campus awareness and understanding through advocacy and education. It also provides a clearinghouse of information related to women’s history, health and progress. The Women’s Center connects and supports RIC students through confidential referrals to existing campus and local resources. We are located in the lower level of the dining center.

CONTINUING EDUCATION
Rhode Island College offers a wide range of continuing education options in cooperation with campus and community partners. Programs serve adult students; children, families and community members; working professionals in the private and public sectors and candidates for undergraduate and graduate CE degrees and certificates. Workforce development programs are available through Outreach Programs and the Office of Professional Studies and Continuing Education offers credit and non-credit academic and enrichment courses and programs.

The continuing education offices provide partners with assistance to develop and deliver programs and with identifying college resources that support personal enrichment and professional development activities. Rhode Island College has a long history of providing such assistance to business and industry and of assisting public and private schools and agencies. For more information, contact the director of professional studies and continuing education.

For returning adult students, a schedule of college course offerings, which includes information on registration and fees, is available online at www.ric.edu. For formal admission to an undergraduate program and for information on possible transfer credit, applicants should contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Applicants interested in pursuing graduate work should contact the appropriate dean. Individuals with teacher certification questions or those seeking to complete professional teaching requirements should contact the dean of the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development.

NATIONAL STUDENT EXCHANGE PROGRAM
The National Student Exchange Program enables undergraduate students to study for up to one academic year at one of up to 200 colleges or universities in another part of the United States. In addition to the academic opportunities made possible by studying on another campus, the program offers social and cultural experiences to further self-exploration and the enrichment of educational objectives.
In order to qualify for participation, a student should (1) be a full-time student at Rhode Island College, (2) be in their sophomore or junior year during the exchange, and (3) have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 at the time their application is submitted.

ROTC
Participation in the Army Reserve Officer’s Training Corps (ROTC) program is available to Rhode Island College students through the ROTC program at Providence College. For more information and a complete program description, contact the program director at Providence College, (401) 865-2471.

SPECIALIZATION IN ADAPTED PHYSICAL EDUCATION
See Physical Education.

STUDY ABROAD
Rhode Island College students, no matter what their majors, may study and/or intern abroad for course credit at institutions in other countries. They may study for a semester, an academic year, the summer or during the early spring term.

While studying abroad, students do not pay RIC tuition and may apply their financial aid to program costs, including tuition, at the host institution and toward travel expenses.

The choice of program and specific location depend upon the student’s interests. The Study Abroad Office provides information about the study abroad process, guides students in the selection of their program according to their estimated budget and their study roadmap at RIC, oversees their stay abroad in accordance with safety guidelines, and facilitates transfer of credits.

Rhode Island College is affiliated with eleven study abroad program providers and international schools that offer discounted tuition for RIC students: Academic Programs International, the American Institute for Foreign Study, the Center for International Studies, the Education Abroad Network, CAPA International Education, the International Studies Institute (Florence, Italy), Study In Portugal Network, SIT Study Abroad, University of Pavia (Pavia, Italy), University of Perugia (Perugia, Italy), KCP International (Tokyo, Japan). RIC has also engaged in international student exchange programs with the Institute of Technology (Sligo, Ireland) and the University of Neuchatel (Neuchatel, Switzerland). These providers and schools can be found on the Web. However, students are not limited to these affiliates and may study with many other programs and universities around the world. Also, individual faculty members may lead RIC courses abroad from time to time.

Students interested in studying abroad are encouraged to review the information available on the RIC Study Abroad website at ric.edu/studyabroad and to meet with the director of Study Abroad soon as they matriculate at RIC.

SUMMER SESSIONS
Summer Sessions provides degree and nondegree undergraduate and graduate students access to a comprehensive cross section of courses in two six-week sessions each summer. Traditional and intensive courses are offered to accelerate and maximize college study and many courses are designed specifically for personal enrichment or professional advancement. For information, contact the director of professional studies and continuing education.
Admissions - Graduate

ADMISSIONS POLICY
The primary factor in decisions for admission to graduate studies at Rhode Island College is a candidate’s academic record, although other factors, such as recommendations, personal statements and standardized test scores, are also part of the consideration. A bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited college or university is required for admission to all graduate programs. Final acceptance is based on the combined decision of the appropriate academic department and the dean responsible for that department. Decisions are made without regard to race, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, gender, religion, disability, age, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender identity or expression, marital status, citizenship, status as a special disabled veteran, recently separated veteran, Vietnam Era veteran or any other veteran who served in active duty. Applications should apply online at www.applyweb.com/ricg.

ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS
Graduate study is offered through the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development, the School of Business, the School of Nursing and the School of Social Work. Most programs have deadlines for the submission of all application materials for full acceptance to the fall or spring term, though some programs review applications on a continuing basis.

For all degree programs, the materials listed below are required.

1. A completed application form accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee.
2. Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate records. The dean’s office will obtain any Rhode Island College transcripts.
3. A minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of B (3.00 on a 4.00 scale) in all undergraduate course work. Applicants with undergraduate GPAs less than 3.00, but not less than 2.00, may be admitted to degree candidacy upon the submission of other evidence of academic potential, for example, satisfactory performance in postbaccalaureate work, professional experience as evidenced by publications or letters of recommendation and/or high scores on the standardized tests.
4. A copy of candidate’s teaching certificate (when applicable).
5. An official report of scores on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or the Miller Analogies Test (MAT) for most programs. See specific programs for requirements.
6. Three letters of recommendation attesting to the candidate’s potential to do graduate work. Placement references are generally not applicable.
7. Some programs have additional admission requirements and may include an interview. Please review requirements for individual programs.

The dean responsible for the program to which the candidate is applying will inform the candidate of the decision regarding his or her admission. Complete information on deadlines and admission requirements can be found at www.ric.edu/graduatestudies/Pages/default.aspx.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ADMISSION
Rhode Island College encourages applications from prospective international students whose command of English is sufficient for graduate study. Applicants follow the normal graduate admissions procedures and requirements. In addition, applicants must submit

1. Certified literal English translations and evaluations of applicant’s transcripts and academic records.
2. Scores on the Test of English as a Foreign Language and other tests as required by the program.
3. An affidavit of support detailing the funds available for the educational program.
4. A complete Immunization Record.

International students should contact the international student advisor in the International Student Office for information concerning U.S. laws and regulations.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS
All full-time students and international students are required to meet immunization requirements mandated by the Rhode Island Department of Health. Students living on campus, participating in the athletic program or enrolled in the nursing program are also required to have a physical examination on file at Health Services.

All health related information should be entered into the secure Medica Patient Portal located on the right sidebar of MyRIC.

Note: Certain departments have additional health requirements for admission to their programs.

MILITARY PERSONNEL AND VETERANS
Rhode Island College is a Servicemember’s Opportunity College. U.S. military personnel and veterans are invited to contact the appropriate dean or the RIC Veterans Resource Center for information on graduate degrees and courses or e-mail vrc@ric.edu.

Fees and Expenses - Graduate

TUITION AND FEES FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS (2020–2021)
The fees described in the following sections are projected for the 2020–2021 academic year. Because of rising costs, the Rhode Island Board of Education reserves the right to change fees without notice as conditions necessitate.
All full-time graduate students (those taking 9 credit hours or more per semester) and part-time graduate students (those taking fewer than 9 credit hours per semester) pay per credit hour:

Students accepted into a second degree undergraduate program pay undergraduate fees. Students accepted into the RITE program also pay undergraduate fees, but only after they have been fully accepted into the RITE program. Students are responsible for informing Rhode Island College of their status in order for the proper tuition and fee charges to be assessed.

SPECIAL FEES

Students are charged the following additional fees, if applicable:

Application Fee

$50

Applied Music Fee

$650 per semester, for students taking Music 370–388 or 570–588

Laboratory/Studio Art Fee

$35 per course

Late Payment Fee

$50

School of Business Program Fee

$25 per credit hour, up to a maximum of $300 per semester

School of Nursing Program Fee

EXPLANATION OF FEES

The Application Fee is used to defray the costs of processing an application.

The Applied Music Fee is used to cover 14 private 50-minute lessons, which make up Music 370–388 and 570–588.

The Fine Arts Fee is used to provide opportunities and activities in the fine and performing arts at Rhode Island College.

The Laboratory/Studio Art Fee is used to cover the costs of art and laboratory supplies provided by the college to students enrolled in specific courses.

The Late Payment Fee is a penalty for failing to make payment during the designated periods.

The Library Fee is used to cover the costs of purchasing books, periodicals, and non-print materials for the library.

The Recreation Fee is used to cover the operation and programs of the Recreation Center.

The Registration Fee is used to cover the costs associated with the registration process.

The Technology Fee is used to cover the costs of purchasing equipment and software for student use on campus.

The Transcript Fee is a one-time fee charged to all students to cover all requests for official transcripts.

The Transportation Fee is used to fund the re-establishment of a discounted RIPTA fare program for students and parking improvements on campus.

The Tuition (General Fee) is used to cover the basic costs of educating a student and of running the college.

DETERMINATION OF RESIDENCY FOR TUITION PURPOSES

The determination of residency for tuition purposes is made by the director of records for enrolled students. Time spent in Rhode Island while attending college usually may not be used to establish residence. Contact the Records Office for further information.

METROPOLITAN TUITION POLICY (MTP)

Rhode Island College students whose permanent place of residence is a community within a 50-mile radius of Providence are eligible for in-state tuition rates plus 50 percent. The Metropolitan Tuition Policy includes both full-time and part-time students, undergraduate and graduate students, and degree and non-degree students. Connecticut and Massachusetts communities within the 50-mile radius are listed online at www.ric.edu/bursar/pages/Metropolitan-Tuition-Policy.aspx.
Forms for verification of residence for this purpose are available in the Records Office and must be submitted for approval prior to the close of registration.

NEW ENGLAND REGIONAL STUDENT PROGRAM
Rhode Island College participates in the Regional Student Program (RSP) administered by the New England Board of Higher Education (NEBHE). Through this program, New England residents who live outside of Rhode Island may enroll in specified curricula at Rhode Island College for in-state tuition rates plus 50 percent. The student’s program of study must be one not offered at an institution in the student’s home state, or Rhode Island College must be closer in traveling time to the student’s legal residence than an institution offering an approved RSP program in the home state.

Students must remain in the program for which they applied or may transfer only into another NEBHE program or else they will be charged out-of-state tuition fees as of the date of transfer. Each semester, NEBHE program students must also request a tuition waiver from the Records Office.

Those entering Rhode Island College through the NEBHE program must meet all the standards required for admission to the college and must be accepted into a degree-granting program.

Additional information may be obtained from the vice president for academic affairs or the New England Board of Higher Education, 45 Temple Place, Boston, MA 02111.

SENIOR CITIZEN WAIVER
All Rhode Island residents who are at least 60 years old are eligible to take courses at Rhode Island College without having to pay the regular tuition charges. However, the registration, recreation and other applicable laboratory/studio fees will be charged. In addition, the student must have fulfilled all academic prerequisites for the course, is limited to registering on the last day of registration on a space-available basis and is subject to a means test.

UNEMPLOYMENT WAIVER
Rhode Island General Law 28-42-81 provides that any Rhode Island resident receiving unemployment benefits, including benefits earned in another state, is eligible for waiver of tuition for any course(s) taken at Rhode Island College. The law stipulates, however, that the waiver be granted on a space-available basis only and that each applicant be subject to a means test. Therefore, students who wish to register under the terms of waiver are limited to registering on the last day of registration. Students must obtain Form DET-467 from the Department of Labor and Training and submit this completed form, certifying eligibility, at the time of registration. Any registration prior to the specified date each term will be ineligible for consideration for an unemployment waiver, and no retroactive use of the waiver is permitted. Mandatory fees that are not waived include lab fees, recreation fees and activity fees.

REFUND OF TUITION AND FEES
A full- or part-time student withdrawing from Rhode Island College, either voluntarily or because of dismissal for disciplinary reasons, will receive a refund of tuition and/or fees in accordance with the college policy in force for first-time students, including Title IV students and all other withdrawn students. Enrolled students are also subject to the college refund policy.

REFUNDS FOR STUDENTS INVOLUNTARILY CALLED TO MILITARY SERVICE
The Rhode Island Board of Education has adopted as policy the following options for students who are involuntarily called to military service:
1. Total refund of tuition and course-related fees, including registration fee. Prorated refund for housing and dining fees.

Or
2. No tuition refund but a grade of Incomplete awarded for courses in which the student is enrolled at the time of recall. Prorated refund for housing and dining fees.

INDEBTEDNESS TO THE COLLEGE
Failure to make full payment of tuition and fees or to resolve other debts to Rhode Island College – for example, unreturned athletic equipment, overdue short-term or emergency loans, delinquent or defaulted student loans (Federal Nursing and/or Federal Perkins Loans), unreturned library books, damage to college property, etc.—may result in the cancellation of registration for the following semester, withholding of academic grades, denial of registration until the payment is made and/or disenrollment. If requested, appropriate departments will provide the student with notice of the debt, the reason for the debt and a review. Students must fulfill all financial obligations to the college, including participation in loan exit counseling for borrowers under one or more of the several long-term loan programs in which the college participates (e.g., Federal Perkins Loans, Federal Direct Loans, PLUS and/or SLS loans), before receiving grades, a degree, transcripts or a diploma.

Financial Aid - Graduate

FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID PROGRAMS
Financial aid for graduate students primarily consists of student loans and employment programs. Students interested in any financial assistance from the college must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Students are encouraged to apply online at https://studentaid.ed.gov. The FAFSA on the Web Worksheet can be used prior to applying online. Priority for funds administered by Rhode Island College is given to applications received by May 15 prior to the following academic year. In addition to demonstrating financial need, general eligibility requirements for financial aid include acceptance for admission as a degree candidate and status as a U.S. citizen or permanent resident.

Federal Direct PLUS Loans
Graduate students are eligible to borrow under the Federal Direct PLUS Loan Program. Students may borrow up to their full cost of attendance minus other student financial aid. The PLUS interest rate is fixed at 7.60 percent, and applicants must pass a credit review in order to qualify for the loan. Repayment of the loan begins six months after the borrower ceases to be enrolled at least half time, and interest accrues during the period of enrollment and grace period. In addition to interest, these loans have a 4.248 percent origination fee. Graduate applicants must complete the FAFSA, and they must have used their maximum eligibility under the unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan Program.
Federal Direct Loans
Recent federal legislation eliminated subsidized Direct Loans for graduate students effective July 1, 2012. Unsubsidized Direct Loans have an interest charge during the in-school and grace periods. The loans have a fixed interest rate of 6.60 percent and a 1.062 percent origination fee. The repayment period extends up to 10 years, but there is a minimum monthly payment of $50.
Graduate students may borrow up to $20,500 per year from the unsubsidized Direct Loan. Although financial need is not required for an unsubsidized loan, the FAFSA must still be filed. In all cases, the total amount of student aid from all programs is limited to a student’s total educational costs as determined by the Office of Student Financial Aid.

Federal Work-Study Program
This is a part-time employment program based on financial need. A work-study award is paid biweekly at an hourly rate based on hours worked. Wage rates reflect both the level of responsibilities and the experience of the student worker. Eligibility is determined by the Office of Student Financial Aid, using information from the FAFSA. The Career Development Center helps students with work-study awards identify opportunities both on and off campus; however, Rhode Island College cannot guarantee that a student will secure a work-study position.

FINANCIAL AID FOR SUMMER SESSIONS
In addition to filing the FAFSA as outlined above, students who desire financial assistance for summer sessions must submit a Rhode Island College Summer Financial Aid Application. This form is available from the Office of Student Financial Aid on or about February 1 each year. Summer aid is contingent upon the availability of funds and consists of Federal Loans and Federal Work-Study.
To be considered for Federal Work-Study for summer sessions, the FAFSA must be received at the federal processing center by March 1 and the Summer Financial Aid Application must be received in the Office of Student Financial Aid by April 1.

Students should be fully aware of their rights and responsibilities in applying for and accepting any form of financial aid.
Note: Rhode Island College reserves the right to require verification of income data submitted by any or all applicants for financial assistance. Awards to those asked for such verification will be made conditional upon receipt of the requested information/documentation. Any discrepancy in reported figures may result in adjustment or cancellation of the financial aid award and may be reported to the federal government for further review and possible legal action.

GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS
Scholarship assistance is available through the Elizabeth S. Carr Trust Fund for students in the elementary/early childhood education programs and through the Rhode Island College Alumni Association. Please contact the RIC Foundation for more information: foundation@ric.edu. The Harrower Family Award is available through the Department of English and the dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences. The Naylor Family Scholarship is available through the Department of Psychology and the dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences. Specific information on these and other scholarships is available from the Office of Student Financial Aid, and for alumni scholarships, the Office of College Advancement.

SCHOOL OF NURSING
A limited number of scholarships for students in graduate Nursing programs are available. Inquire with the Nursing department.

MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK SCHOLARSHIPS
The School of Social Work offers Master of Social Work Graduate work-study scholarships to full-time M.S.W. students in field placement. These scholarships match federal work-study funds to enable recipients to obtain paid field placements in nonprofit agencies and organizations, up to a total of $2,000 per year. To be eligible for these scholarships, students should file the FAFSA, which can be obtained online at https://studentaid.ed.gov. The School of Social Work also offers scholarships to students enrolled full-time in the M.S.W. program. These include the Gladys Corvera-Baker Scholarship, available to Hispanic students who demonstrate academic excellence and financial need; the Juanita Handy Scholarship, awarded to a second-year minority and/or female student; and the Mary G. Davey Scholarship, awarded to a second-year student who is dedicated to child welfare. Specific information may be obtained by contacting the dean’s assistant at the School of Social Work.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS
Graduate assistantships are limited to accepted degree candidates who are enrolled full-time. The normal course load for a graduate assistant is six hours per semester. The duties of a graduate assistant usually involve such activities as: preparation for and supervision of laboratory sections, assistance with classroom discussion, assistance in student support services, research and data collection.

The student may be required to devote a maximum of 20 hours a week to such work, not more than 10 hours of which may be in classroom contact hours.

Full-time 20 hour Graduate assistants receive a stipend of $3,500 for the academic year and remission of tuition for the academic year and summer session. Half-time 10 hour graduate assistants receive a stipend of $1,750 for the academic year and remission of half the cost of tuition for the academic year and summer session. Appointments to assistantships are for one year. Graduate assistantship applications are available on the graduate studies Web site. The application deadline for graduate student assistantships is March 1.

GRADUATE TRAINEESHIPS
The School of Social Work and the Paul V. Sherlock Center on Disabilities offer graduate traineeships. The School of Social Work graduate traineeships are available to accepted M.S.W. degree candidates who are enrolled full-time in the program. Graduate trainees in the School of Social Work are refunded tuition for the academic year and summer sessions and are required to fulfill 10 hours per week on assignments within the School of Social Work. Interested candidates who are accepted into the M.S.W. program should contact the dean’s assistant at the School of Social Work.

The Sherlock Center interdisciplinary graduate traineeships are open to accepted graduate students who have a lifelong commitment to people with disabilities. Graduate traineeships receive refunded tuition for the academic year and/or a stipend. Graduate trainees are required to fulfill 10 hours per week of field work and research activity connected to disability and Sherlock Center initiatives.

EMPLOYMENT PROGRAMS
The Career Development Center oversees the student employment hiring process and provides information on part-time employment both on and off campus during the academic year and the summer. One source of employment is the Federal Work-Study Program, which is based on financial need. However, student employment opportunities are also available for students who do not qualify for financial aid.

Academic Policies and Requirements - Graduate

PLAN OF STUDY
Each student recommended for admission to a degree or certificate program shall develop a plan of study with their advisor. The plan of study includes all degree requirements, including required and elective course work and independent research, along with other requirements such as exams and assessments necessary to complete degree requirements. The plan of study may also include courses that are to be taken without program credit to remedy deficiencies or to satisfy prerequisites. The plan of study must be approved by the program director and the appropriate academic dean. Students are not formally accepted into a graduate program until the plan of study is approved and filed. Students are responsible for meeting all program requirements for the thesis, portfolio, comprehensive evaluation or field project.

GRADING SYSTEM
Credit/No Credit
Graduate students are not permitted to take graduate courses for Credit/No Credit; however, they may take certain undergraduate prerequisite courses for Credit/No Credit with permission from their graduate advisor.

Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory Grades
Graduate courses approved for a Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory (S/U) grade by the Graduate Committee require students to perform at the B level (3.00) or better to receive a grade of S. These courses shall be so labeled in the college catalog and bulletin. S/U grades are not included in calculating grade point average.

Incomplete Grades
An Incomplete will be given in place of a grade when the work of the semester has been passing but has not been completed because of illness or some other reason that, in the opinion of the instructor, justifies such a report. Graduate students who do not make up an Incomplete within three academic semesters must make a request in writing to their graduate program for permission to complete the course.

Failure in a Course
A course with a failing grade that has been retaken or replaced will be considered taken for No Credit and must remain on the student’s transcript. The most recent grade will be included in calculating the grade point average.

Withdrawal from a Course Students may drop a course during the first two weeks of a semester (or during a corresponding time for summer sessions) without having any entry made on the permanent record. After that time, students will receive a grade of W and are financially responsible for the course.
Withdrawal from a course after the last withdrawal date until the end of the course requires the approval of the instructor of the course.
Approval is based on evidence of extenuating circumstances other than academic difficulty in the course.
Students who do not follow the official procedures, but stop attending classes, receive a grade based on the work completed as compared to the total course requirements.
Additional information on options and procedures for withdrawing from a course is available from the Records Office or the Office of Student Life.

AUDITING A COURSE
To audit a course is to participate in a course without receiving credit for the course or having the grade point average affected. Auditing requires consent of the instructor and the appropriate department chair.
During the first two weeks of a semester, if registration for the course has not been closed, a course may be added for audit through regular Add/Drop procedures without a late registration fee charged.
Conversely, during the first two weeks of the semester, a course that was audited may be dropped and added for credit with no late registration fee charged.
Under no circumstances will audited courses be counted for credit toward a degree.

RETENTION REQUIREMENTS - GRADUATE
Graduate students who earn a grade below B (3.0) in any course will have their status reviewed by the appropriate academic dean in consultation with the department. Such review may result in the student being placed on probation or dismissed. Students on probation must achieve grades of B (3.0) or better in graduate-level course work for the next 9 earned credits. Probation may also require the retaking of courses and the suspension of progress in the program until satisfactory performance is achieved. Students on probation will continue to be monitored until satisfactory performance in their graduate program is achieved. Failure to meet the conditions of probation will result in dismissal.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS - GRADUATE
The master’s degree or graduate certificate may be earned either through full- or part-time study or by a combination of both. However, candidates must take at least four-fifths of the credits required for the degree at Rhode Island College. In the School of Social Work, graduate students must complete the advanced year on a full-time basis (enrolled in at least nine credits).
TRANSFER CREDIT

A candidate may request credit for work taken at other regionally accredited institutions of higher learning not exceeding one-fifth of the total credits in the program for the degree. In considering a request for transfer credit, the student’s advisor will review the program of study, carefully evaluate the relevance of the proposed courses to the plan of study and consider the availability of courses to fulfill credit requirements. Transfer credit is granted only when approved by the student's advisor, the program director and the academic dean. Normally, transfer credit from another institution must not exceed 6 credit hours of a candidate’s graduate program. However, upon the recommendation of the student’s program committee and upon the approval of the chair, the amount of credits transferred may be increased but may not exceed 20 percent of the total program. Credit is transferred only for graduate courses having minimum grades of B.

For additional information on transfer credits from another institution or from within RIC, see the Graduate Studies Policies and Procedures Manual at http://www.ric.edu/academics/pdf/GraduateStudiesManual.pdf.

INDEPENDENT STUDY

Independent study, directed study and certain research courses afford students the opportunity to pursue concentrated study in a selected topic under the supervision of a faculty member. Students enrolled in independent study are expected to observe time limits corresponding to semester limits unless specifically arranged by the instructor. A Request for Independent Study form signed by the instructor, department chair, program director and the appropriate academic dean must be filed with the departmental office of the respective graduate program. Requests for an independent study must be made in the semester prior to the semester of the planned independent study. Independent study requests must be approved and fees paid before study is begun. Grades are reported for independent study in the same manner as for other courses.

Students who wish to register for credits that will be counted toward their degree but that will be earned through off-campus activities, such as research or independent study at a national laboratory, must list these activities as part of their plan of study and receive prior approval from their advisor and dean. Credits are calculated on the basis of 1 credit for three hours per week per semester and may not exceed the limits of full-time registration, namely 12 credit hours per semester and 6 per summer session.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE - GRADUATE

Graduate students are expected to remain continuously enrolled until they have completed all requirements and have received their degrees. Graduate students who must leave the college for a period of one semester or more due to military service, prolonged illness or other unusual circumstances, whether before or after they have completed the work prescribed in their plan of study, should apply for a leave of absence. The request should be made in writing to the appropriate academic dean. It should include an endorsement from the advisor and program director and be sufficiently specific to enable the academic dean to determine whether the leave is warranted. A leave of absence, granted under such unusual circumstances, has the effect of suspending time limitations such as those for completion of the degree or for the removal of incomplete grades. Accordingly, a leave will be granted only for sufficient reason and only if it is to be for one year or less. Students may apply in writing for a maximum of one additional year if circumstances warrant.

Permanent withdrawal from a graduate program is a serious matter that deserves careful consideration. Students should consult with their advisor to determine whether a leave of absence or a permanent withdrawal is the best course of action. Students must inform both the program director and academic dean in writing of their intention to terminate matriculation in a program.

TIME LIMITS - GRADUATE

Students must complete their program of study within six years from the time of registration following acceptance to degree or certificate candidacy; otherwise, the candidacy will be terminated and the Records Office notified by the program director. Students in the joint Ph.D. in Education offered by URI and RIC, and the D.N.P. program must complete their plans of study within seven years. An appeal for extension requires review by the appropriate program director, advisor and academic dean. (Note: Credits seven years or older may no longer be counted in a student’s program, unless the department and the appropriate dean grant an exception.)

ADAMS LIBRARY

The James P. Adams Library provides:

- Access to information in print and online.
- Reference services in person and through use of several icons, such as “Text Us” and “CHAT” on the library homepage.
- One-on-one research consultation.
- Public computers for use throughout the building.
- Laptops, iPads, Nexus 7 tablets, external hard drives and graphing and business calculators for loan.

The library collection today includes 313,597 eBooks, 56,868 journals in electronic format and 123 databases, all of which are accessible both on and off campus. Print holdings include 324,419 items and 1,556 periodicals. The library also has a collection of technical reports, newspapers and government publications, a DVD collection of films and documentaries, a variety of music CDs and a rotating collection of popular fiction and non-fiction books for recreational reading.

Your RIC ID is your library card. During the 2017-18 academic year, 18,294 items from the library’s collection were circulated.

Library faculty collaborate with college faculty to create library instruction for specific courses focused on the discovery, use and evaluation of library resources and information on the web. The library provided 156 library instruction sessions which were attended by 2,496 students during the 2017-18 academic year. These sessions are conducted by the reference librarians, who also answer about 6,347 reference questions a year.

The library’s participation in the Higher Education Library Information Network (HELIN) allows the RIC community to borrow from academic libraries throughout the state with a click of a button in the online appropriate documentation of their condition to the DSC may be eligible for disability-related services for students and is committed to providing accommodations for students with disabilities and supporting them in achieving their academic goals. Students who self-identify and provide appropriate documentation of their condition to the DSC may be eligible to receive reasonable accommodations in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and analogous state laws. Support services may include classroom and testing accommodations, advisement, referrals and use of assistive technology.

The DSC serves students with all types of disabilities: mobility, hearing, vision, motor, psychological, learning (including attention disorders), speech, medical, developmental and other conditions. In addition, the DSC shall seek to assist students with temporary impairments who are in need of short-term accommodations. The DSC is also available to advise any student who needs information about how you obtain proper documentation of a disability.

The DSC promotes the inclusion of individuals with disabilities in all aspects of college life, and endeavors to make students aware of the many opportunities and resources available to them at Rhode Island College. The DSC recognizes disability as a form of diversity and is the primary resource to educate, train and guide the college community in understanding disability access, rights and responsibilities. The DSC not only serves as an advocate for students with disabilities, but also encourages students toward self-advocacy and self-determination.

Clarification of policies and procedures for disability-related services is available in the Policies and Procedures Manual for Students with Disabilities. Copies of the manual are available at the Disability Services Center or on its Web site at www.ric.edu/disabilityservices. Persons using TTY/TDD devices may contact the Disabilities Services Center via the Rhode Island Relay Services by dialing 711.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SERVICES

The Office of Information Technology Services provides Information Technology resources to assist and educate the Rhode Island College Community. Information Technology Services supports the use of technology to promote communication, learning and access by providing services in the following areas:

- Classroom Technology
- MyRIC Portal (Student Information System)
- Office 365
- Blackboard Learning Management System
- Campus Telephones and Networking Systems

Information Technology Services maintains the College’s two large walk-in computing facilities for student use, located in the Horace Mann Technology Center (closing end of 2019 for renovations) and in Whipple Hall, where over 135 Microsoft Windows and Apple Macintosh desktop computers are available, as well as electronic classrooms in over 15 buildings. In addition, hands-on instructional computing facilities are located in:

- Alger Hall
- Alex and Ani Hall
- Clarke Science Hall
- Craig-Lee Hall
- Gage Hall
- Guardo Hall (School of Social Work)
- Fogarty Life Sciences
- Henry Barnard School
- Nazarian Center
- Whipple Hall

Our goal is to enhance the student experience. We can assist with all technology services through a single phone call to the Information Technology Services Help Center at (401) 456-8803. This one-stop shop for technology will provide support for desktop computers, laptops, phones, networking, wireless, printing, access to MyRIC, Blackboard and all other college applications, multimedia support, technology training and classroom support.

WRITING CENTER
The Writing Center is staffed by highly qualified student tutors. Tutors work with all writers, from freshmen to graduate students, in all disciplines. Tutors assist with any phase of writing, such as refining topics, writing for a specific audience, developing ideas, organizing material, revising drafts and editing. The Writing Center maintains a reference library of books, journals and articles on writing theory, writing for specific disciplines and other topics, including MLA, APA and Chicago style manuals. Services are free to all Rhode Island College students, faculty and staff.

Campus Life - Graduate

CHILD CARE—COOPERATIVE PRESCHOOL
The Cooperative Preschool is a campus organization sponsored by Student Community Government. Through the cooperative involvement of parents, the co-op provides an affordable, reliable, high-quality preschool program for children ages three to five. To participate in the co-op, children must be toilet trained and be three years of age by August 31. Students, staff and faculty of Rhode Island College are eligible to enroll their children. Children of students are given first priority. Children are enrolled full-time, regardless of the number of hours they attend. The school is DCYF licensed and employs a certified teacher and work-study students. The co-op also participates in Brightstars, a preschool quality-rating and improvement system. The curriculum is aligned with the Rhode Island Early Learning domains. In addition to paying monthly tuition, parents work designated hours, attend monthly meetings and participate in the running of the co-op. The co-op is open Monday through Friday from 7:45 a.m. to 5 p.m. during the academic year. Use of the co-op is limited to those hours in which the parent is performing college related activities, such as attending class, doing research, student teaching, etc.
For more information, stop by the co-op during hours of operation or access information and registration forms at: www.ric.edu/cooperativepreschool/.

COUNSELING CENTER
The principal aim of the Counseling Center is to help students grow, develop and succeed during their college years. A professional staff of psychologists, counselors and doctoral students in counseling or clinical psychology provide individual and group counseling to students who seek help with emotional or social challenges, academic difficulties or educational and career planning. Assessment of vocational interest and personal characteristics is available as needed. The center also offers groups and workshops on personal development matters, such as stress management and procrastination. Although friends or faculty may encourage individual students to utilize counseling, it is entirely voluntary, and most students make the decision on their own initiative. Counseling Center services are strictly confidential and are provided to any current Rhode Island College students without charge.

CULTURAL ACTIVITIES
Graduate students can participate in a wide variety of cultural activities and events at Rhode Island College. For example, students and their families listen to a speaker at Adams Library, see a play or concert in the Nazarian Center, or attend an art gallery opening. In addition, several on-campus groups bring nationally and internationally renowned fine and performing artists to RIC. Many of these cultural activities and events are free or discounted for students and their families.

HEALTH SERVICES
Health Services, located on the ground floor of Browne Hall, provides confidential, primary health care to all students. Care includes physical examinations, immunizations, treatment of acute and chronic illnesses and injuries, gynecological exams, health education and, if necessary, specialty referral. On-site laboratory services include blood and urine tests, throat cultures and pregnancy testing. Health Services is open year-round and is staffed by nurse practitioners, registered nurses and a part-time physician. Visits are available by appointment. TeleHealth as well as in-office visits are available by appointment. COVID-19 precautions are in place according to guidelines set by the Rhode Island Department of Health and the CDC. Please call office before arriving at Health Services. Visits by appointment only.
Rhode Island College offers Student Health and Accident Insurance to any student taking a minimum of 6 credit hours. Information about this policy is available at www.universityhealthplans.com.

RECREATIONAL AND CLUB SPORTS
A completely renovated recreation center opened in the fall semester of 2012. The complex is home to all recreational programming, including intramurals and club sports. The center and its programs are available to all currently enrolled undergraduate and graduate students. The facility is also available to faculty, staff, alumni and the community on a membership-fee basis. For a complete list of activities and hours, which change each semester, visit www.goanchormen.com.
The 80,000-square-foot facility includes a recently enhanced five-lane, 25-yard, L-shaped swimming pool; 1/10-mile indoor track; three multi-use courts for basketball, volleyball and tennis; a fitness center, including cardio and strength areas; a student lounge complete with WiFi and cable television; new locker room facilities; a multimedia room; a wrestling facility adaptable for other events; a multi-use studio for aerobics and yoga with “fitness on demand” available during all operating hours; offices for coaches; and a suite to host fundraising-related initiatives. The Club Sport Program currently includes the following established club sport opportunities: men’s ice hockey, women’s equestrian, ultimate frisbee and men’s volleyball. For more updated information, or if you are interested in starting a club sport, go to www.goanchormen.com.

SECURITY AND SAFETY, OFFICE OF
The mission of the Campus Police, a component of the College’s Department of Security and Safety, while multifaceted, is simplistic in nature and is centered upon a single goal: to provide for the safety of life, personal and institutional property, and to enhance the educational process. The achievement of this mission relies on community partnerships built upon trust and mutual respect.

The department, located at the Welcome Center, provides 24-hour service and security to the Rhode Island College campus community. The department is responsible for the enforcement of all laws and regulations that apply to campus life, including those of the Rhode Island Council on Postsecondary Education and federal, state and certain municipal statutes. Information regarding security and safety, campus police, parking, traffic regulations, and vehicle registration is available at campus police headquarters or on the college website at www.ric.edu.

The department provides crime prevention support and assistance including 24-hour escort service for students, faculty and staff. This service is available by calling college extension 8888. For added protection, the campus has fifty-three blue-light emergency phones – located along illuminated walkways and campus buildings – that are directly linked to campus police. Moreover, building entrances and parking lots are thoroughly lit, highly visible, and equipped with state-of-the-art security cameras. (For locations of these phones, see the on-line Campus Map).

UNITY CENTER
The Unity Center is a Rhode Island College intercultural services center and a department of the division for Community, Equity and Diversity (CED). The Unity Center is comprised of the leadership and activities of the Women’s Center, the LGBTQ+ Office, the International Student Office and Interfaith Services. Its mission is to promote educational equity, academic excellence and involvement in campus life to all students through collaborative programming and fostering connections among its student affiliates, faculty, staff and the wider community. The center seeks to increase inter-group connections and dialogue by providing a safe forum for exploring issues pertaining to diversity, inclusion and social justice. The Unity Center offers information and referrals, a computer work stations, a student lounge, conference room, lending library and student employment opportunities. The International Student Office and the LGBTQ+ Offices are both located in the Unity Center and adjacent to the Women’s Center on the lower level of the Donovan Dining Center easily accessible from the campus quad. Visit our web page at www.ric.edu/unitycenter and like Rhode Island College Unity Center on Facebook.

VETERANS RESOURCE CENTER - GRADUATE
The Veterans Resource Center serves as a bridge between off-campus services and on-campus services for military service members, veterans and their families. The VetSuccess on Campus program is located in the center. Students receive information and assistance in accessing educational benefits, exploring career options and locating other important services at Rhode Island College.

WOMEN’S CENTER
The mission of the Women’s Center is to cultivate a campus culture that fosters the advancement of women and inspires RIC students to discover and embrace their full potential. The Center collaborates with related campus and community organizations on various projects to promote campus awareness and understanding through advocacy and education. It also provides a clearinghouse of information related to women’s history, health and progress. The Women’s Center connects and supports RIC students through confidential referrals to existing campus and local resources. We are located in the lower level of the dining center.

Degree Programs - Graduate

CERTIFICATE OF ADVANCED GRADUATE STUDY (C.A.G.S.)
The C.A.G.S. is a degree program consisting of a minimum of 24-post master’s credit hours that prepare candidates for positions and competencies in education and related fields for which the master’s degree is not sufficient. The C.A.G.S. is offered in the following areas:
• Individualized Certificate of Advanced Graduate Study
• School Psychology

DOCTOR OF NURSING PRACTICE (D.N.P.)
The D.N.P. degree is designed to prepare advanced practice nurses as leaders, clinical scholars and experts with the knowledge, skills and attitudes needed to negotiate and influence the healthcare system to improve health outcomes of individuals, systems and populations.

MASTER OF ARTS (M.A.)
The M.A. degree is offered in the following areas:
• Art with concentrations in
  • Art Education
  • Media Studies
• Biology
• Counseling with concentration in:
  • School Counseling (Not currently accepting applications.)
• English
• English with concentrations in
  • Creative Writing
  • History
• Justice Studies
• Individualized Master of Arts
• Mathematical Studies with concentrations in • Mathematics
  • Mathematics for the Professions
• Psychology
• Youth Development

MASTER OF ARTS IN TEACHING (M.A.T.)
The M.A.T. degree is offered in the following areas:
• Art Education
• Elementary Education
• Music Education
• Secondary Education with teaching concentrations in • English Pedagogy
• Mathematics Pedagogy
• World Languages Education with teaching concentrations in French, Portuguese, Spanish

MASTER OF EDUCATION (M.ED.)
The M.Ed. degree is offered in the following areas:
• Advanced Studies in Teaching and Learning
• Early Childhood Education
• Educational Leadership (Not currently accepting applications.)
• Elementary Education (Not currently accepting applications.)
• Individualized Master of Education
• Health Education
• Reading (Not currently accepting applications.)
• Special Education with concentrations in Early Childhood Special Education
• Elementary or Secondary Special Education
• Exceptional Learning Needs
• Severe/Profound Intellectual Disabilities (SID)
• Urban Multicultural Special Education
• Teaching English as a Second Language with concentration in Bilingual Education

MASTER OF MUSIC EDUCATION (M.M.ED.)
The M.M.Ed. degree is offered for persons certified to teach music. However, students seeking initial certification are required to enroll in the Master of Arts in Teaching program.

MASTER OF PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNTANCY (M.P.AC.)
The M.P.Ac. degree is offered in professional accountancy, with concentrations in accounting and personal financial planning.

MASTER OF SCIENCE (M.S.)
The M.S. degree is offered in:
• Clinical Mental Health Counseling
• Health Care Administration
The M.S. Health Care Administration degree prepares students for management/leadership positions in health care organizations. These organizations may include healthcare providers, governmental agencies, insurers, or public health organizations. An accelerated program is offered for graduates of the RIC B.S. Health Care Administration program.

• Operations Management - PROGRAM SUSPENDED
This graduate program prepares students for operations management related careers and meets the needs of current practitioners. An introductory course presents an advanced synthesis of operations management concepts and techniques from a strategic perspective. Core courses develop knowledge and skills in the areas central to the Operation Manager’s function such as leadership, change, project management, and analytical methods and development of groups and teams. Interpersonal collaboration is also advanced throughout the curriculum. Restricted electives develop knowledge in specific content areas such as supply chain management, project management and health care administration operations. The capstone to the program is an applied project.

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN NURSING (M.S.N.)
The M.S.N. degree is designed to prepare expert nurses for advanced practice roles. There are three specialty concentrations: (1) adult/gerontology acute care (CNS or NP role), (2) nurse anesthesia, and (3) population/public health.

MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK (M.S.W.)
The M.S.W. degree prepares social workers for advanced professional practice in one of two areas of concentration: clinical and macro. The clinical concentration prepares students to work with individuals and families across the lifespan. The macro concentration prepares students for policy practice and leadership roles within organizations.

PH.D. IN EDUCATION PROGRAM
The Ph.D. in education is offered jointly by Rhode Island College and the University of Rhode Island. This cooperative program, which draws on the resources of two strong institutions, has been designed for the crucial mission of preparing leaders of effective, research-based educational reform.

INDIVIDUALIZED GRADUATE DEGREE PROGRAMS
Individualized graduate degrees are offered in the C.A.G.S., M.A., M.Ed. and M.S. programs. Essentially interdisciplinary in nature, these programs provide students with the opportunity to pursue graduate work in areas of specific academic interest or need. These programs may be oriented toward special career preparation or toward unique scholarly pursuits. Admission standards for all individualized programs are comparable to those of the department or departments involved. All graduate division criteria also apply. Admission is subject to the criteria approved by the Committee on Individualized Graduate Programs which approves all plans of study.
Students who are interested in an individualized graduate program should first consult with the Dean of Graduate Studies to receive advisement and the special forms for application.

Special Programs - Graduate

CERTIFICATE OF GRADUATE STUDY (C.G.S.)
The C.G.S. is a certificate program of advanced study offered in the following areas:
• Adult/Gerontology Acute Care for Clinical Nurse Specialists
• Adult/Gerontology Acute Care for Nurse Practioners
• Advanced Counseling
• Advanced Study of Creative Writing
• Advanced Study of Literature
• Autism Education
• Child and Adolescent Trauma
• Co-occurring Mental Health and Substance Use Disorders
• Elementary or Secondary Special Education
• Financial Planning
• Healthcare Quality and Patient Safety
• Historical Studies
• Integrated Behavioral Health
• Mathematics Content Specialist: Elementary
• Middle Level Education
• Modern Biological Sciences
• Nonprofit Leadership
• Nursing Care Management
• Physical Education
• Public History
• Severe Intellectual Disabilities
• Teaching English as a Second Language
• Teaching English as a Second Language: Bilingual Education Concentration
• Transition for Youth with Exceptionalities

RHODE ISLAND TEACHER EDUCATION (RITE) PROGRAM

Students who hold a baccalaureate degree and who have majored in or completed a substantial amount of coursework in an appropriate academic area (see appropriate academic areas below) may pursue the Secondary Education teaching certificate or for languages the PK-12 World Languages teaching certificate in that area through the RITE program. (This will appear on the transcript as a CUS; Certificate of Undergraduate Study, as the courses taken are undergraduate offerings.) This is not a degree program and courses taken in this program cannot be used in any graduate degree program at Rhode Island College. This program is designed so that successful applicants can, in most cases, complete the required course work within three consecutive semesters.

Appropriate academic areas are:

• Biology
• Mathematics
• Chemistry
• Physics
• English
• Portuguese
• French
• Social Studies
• General Science
• Spanish
• History

RITE Admission Requirements

1. A baccalaureate degree with a major equivalent to an undergraduate major at Rhode Island College in an appropriate academic area listed above.
2. A completed application submitted to the dean of the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development, including complete transcripts from a regionally or nationally accredited college or university.
3. A minimum cumulative G.P.A. of 2.75 in all previous undergraduate course work.
4. This requirement was removed last year
5. The minimum G.P.A. required in the academic major. Requirements for G.P.A.s in specific majors are available from the Department of Educational Studies.
6. Two Disposition Reference Forms from an instructor of a college course in the applicant’s academic major, or from a professional who can document the applicant’s experience with youth, or from a work supervisor.
8. A résumé outlining educational and work experience.
9. A personal interview with the RITE program major advisor.
10. A complete plan of study approved by the RITE program advisor, the chair of the Department of Educational Studies and the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development associate dean.

RITE Program Requirements

The RITE program, in addition to any missing required content courses includes:

• CEP 215: Introduction to Educational Psychology or CEP 315: Educational Psychology
• FNED 246: Schooling for Social Justice
• SED 406: Instructional Methods, Design, and Technology
• SED 407: Instructional Methods, Design, and Literacy (Secondary Education) or CURR 410: Teaching World Languages in Elementary Education (PK-12 World Languages)
• SED 411: Content and Pedagogy in Secondary Education
• SED 412: Field Practicum in Secondary Education
• SED 421: Student Teaching in the Secondary School
• SED 422: Student Teaching Seminar in Secondary Education
• SPED 433: Adaptation of Instruction for Inclusive Education

CREDENTIAL REVIEW PATHWAY (CRP)

The Credential Review Pathway is for individuals seeking a re-issue of their Expert Residency Preliminary Certificate, the addition of another certification or renewal of a certificate that is more than five years expired. After a credential review by faculty, the student is either granted certification or required to successfully complete specific graduate courses to obtain certification. The coursework required for certification will vary for each student. For details on how to apply, see: www.ric.edu/feinsteinSchoolEducationHumanDevelopment/Pages/Credential-Review-Pathway.aspx.

This is not a degree program and courses taken in this program may be transferred to graduate degree programs with the permission of the graduate program.
CRP Eligibility Requirements

- Bachelor’s degree.
- Minimum 3.0 cumulative G.P.A. in a degree program and 3.0 G.P.A. in appropriate content area courses.
- Extensive teaching experience in PK-12 academic settings in the certification area. Extensive teaching experience is a full semester of supervised student teaching in the certification area (recent graduate) or 270+ days of full-time professional teaching or 270+ days of full-time substitute teaching in the certification area.
- April 15 deadline.
GENERAL EDUCATION

Chair of the Committee on General Education
James Magyar

General Information
The General Education Program is designed to provide students in all academic majors and professional programs with the knowledge and skills of a college-educated citizen. General Education approaches eleven learning outcomes through three core courses, seven distribution areas, a second language requirement, and writing in each of the disciplines. In the first year, First Year Writing provides a starting point for writing at all levels throughout the curriculum. Also in the first year, students choose from a large selection of intriguing topics with which to hone their skills in First Year Seminar. Connections courses, taken later in one’s program, again use a topical approach to strengthen academic skills. Writing in each discipline purposefully and explicitly develops student writing appropriate to the style and context of the individual discipline.

Recognizing the vast scope of knowledge available, Distribution courses allow students to choose courses in each area to advance professional goals, enhance personal interests, or explore new areas. One of these courses is a more advanced course that builds upon other General Education courses in science and mathematics to develop skills and understanding at a higher level.

Rhode Island College graduates also demonstrate knowledge of an additional language, demonstrated through the Second Language Requirement. The following sections provide more detailed information on General Education at the College.

CORE COURSES

COURSES
First Year Seminar (FYS)
FYS 100 is required in the freshman year, with sections on a wide variety of topics. Each section is discussion-based and focused on developing critical thinking, oral communication, research fluency, and written communication. FYS 100 will not be offered in the summer or the early spring sessions. Students who enter the college as transfer students are not considered first-year students and are exempt from this requirement. Courses are limited to twenty students.

First Year Writing (FYW)
FYW 100 (or FYW 100P) is required in freshman year. Either course introduces students to college-level writing and helps them develop the writing skills needed for success in college courses. Successful completion of the course (a final grade of C or better) will also meet the College Writing Requirement. Courses are limited to twenty students for FYW 100 (four credit hours); courses are limited to fifteen students for FYW 100P (six credit hours).

Connections (C)
Courses in the Connections category are upper-level courses on topics that emphasize comparative perspectives, such as across disciplines, across time, and across cultures. Students must complete the FYS 100/HONR 100 and FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H courses and must have earned at least 45 college credits before taking a Connections course. Connections courses cannot be included in any major or minor program.

- FYW 100H is open only to students in the College Honors Program.

Connections (C)

* FYW 100H is open only to students in the College Honors Program.
DISTRIBUTION COURSES

Distribution courses emphasize ways of thinking and methods of inquiry within various disciplines. Students are required to take one course in each of the following seven areas:

- Arts—Visual and Performing
- History
- Literature
- Mathematics
- Natural Science (lab required)
- Social and Behavioral Sciences
- Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning

COURSES

Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning (AQSR)

Courses in the AQSR category have Mathematics or Natural Science prerequisites and often additional prerequisites. For the full list of prerequisites, see the course description section of this catalog.

WRITING IN THE DISCIPLINE

Building on the core course, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H, each discipline has identified a required course or courses within the major in which students learn to write for that discipline. Completion of the major/program fulfills the Writing in the Discipline requirement.

SECOND LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

Rhode Island College graduates are expected to communicate in and understand a language other than English at a novice-mid proficiency level. The Second Language Requirement of General Education is designed to meet that expectation. If you are unable to fulfill any one of the requirements listed below, please consult the chair of the Department of Modern Languages.

The Second Language Requirement may be fulfilled in any of the following ways:

1. By completing RIC language course 102 or higher.
2. Through transfer credit of language courses equivalent to 102 or higher from an accredited college or university.
3. Through transfer credit of a second language course from an approved study abroad program.
4. Through Advanced Placement (AP) credit. If students score three or higher on the AP Test in French, German, or Spanish, RIC will award 6 credits (equivalent to RIC language courses 113 and 114).
5. Through Early Enrollment Program credit for language courses 113 or 114.
6. By completing the CLEP Test in French, German, or Spanish, with a score on the Level I test of 50 or higher.
7. By completing the ACTFL Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI) and the written exam for languages for which there are no CLEP or AP Tests. Level: OPI (offered in 65 languages): Novice Mid to High. Written test: Novice High (offered in twelve languages).
8. By completing the SAT II Subject Test (scores vary according to language).
9. Foreign/international students may submit an official high school transcript from a non-English-speaking country of origin.

INTRODUCTION TO RIC REQUIREMENT

To maximize student success, a one-credit transition to college course, Introduction to RIC, is required of all first-year students during their first semester (RIC 100):

SOC 204 Urban Sociology 4 As needed
SOC 207 Crime and Criminal Justice 4 F, Sp, Su
SOC 208 The Sociology of Race and Ethnicity 4 F, Sp, Su
SOC 217 Sociology of Aging 4 F, Sp, Su

Students learn how to navigate college in general and RIC specifically, including such topics as time management, wellness, college expectations, note-taking, cultural competency, and campus resources.

Note: Students taking COLL 101 or HONR 150 will be exempted.

GENERAL EDUCATION CATEGORIES

Courses that fulfill General Education requirements have the appropriate notation in the course description following credit hours:

- Gen. Ed. Category AQSR (Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning)
- Gen. Ed. Category C (Connections)
- Gen. Ed. Category FYW (First Year Seminar)
- Gen. Ed. Category FYS (First Year Writing)
- Gen. Ed. Category H (History)
- Gen. Ed. Category L (Literature)
- Gen. Ed. Category M (Mathematics)
- Gen. Ed. Category NS (Natural Science)
- Gen. Ed. Category SB (Social and Behavioral Sciences)

TRANSFER STUDENTS

Transfer Students may determine their status with respect to General Education requirements by inquiring at the Office of Undergraduate Admissions or at the Office of the Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences. The college’s admissions website, at www.ric.edu/admissions/Pages/Transfer-Students.aspx contains useful information.

GENERAL EDUCATION HONORS

To complete General Education Honors, students must take a minimum of five General Education courses in specially designed honors sections. Courses chosen normally include the Honors Core, which consists of Honors First Year Seminar, Honors First Year Writing, and Honors Connections (taken in the junior year). Other honors courses are offered in various disciplines as Distribution requirements. Although honors courses are reserved for students in the General Education Honors Program, if space permits and with the permission of the director of honors, other students may take honors sections. For more information, write or call the director of honors.

OUTCOMES FOR GENERAL EDUCATION

Each course in General Education addresses several outcomes. Students who complete the General Education program will encounter each outcome at least once at an introductory level. No introductory course can fully meet an outcome. Rather, every course introduces or develops several outcomes. Relevant outcomes are addressed at a higher level within the advanced work of the respective majors.

1. Written Communication Students will understand the different purposes of writing and employ the conventions of writing in their major fields. Students will produce writing that is well organized, supported by evidence, demonstrates correct usage of grammar and terminology, and is appropriate to the academic context.
2. Critical and Creative Thinking Students will be able to analyze and interpret information from multiple perspectives, question assumptions and conclusions, and understand the impact of biases, including their own, on thinking and learning.
3. Research Fluency Students will demonstrate the ability to access, understand, evaluate, and ethically use information to address a wide range of goals or problems.
4. Oral Communication Students will learn to speak in a clearly expressed, purposeful, and carefully organized way that engages and connects with their audience.

5. Collaborative Work Students will learn to interact appropriately as part of a team to design and implement a strategy to achieve a team goal and to evaluate the process.

6. Arts Students will demonstrate through performance, creation, or analysis an ability to interpret and explain the arts from personal, aesthetic, cultural, and historical perspectives.

7. Civic Knowledge Students will gain knowledge of social and political systems and of how civic engagement can change the environment in which we live.

8. Ethical Reasoning Students will demonstrate an understanding of their own ethical values, other ethical traditions from diverse places and times, and the process of determining ethical practice.

9. Global Understanding Students will analyze and understand the social, historical, political, religious, economic, and cultural conditions that shape individuals, groups, and nations and the relationships among them across time.

10. Quantitative Literacy Students will demonstrate the ability to: (1) interpret and evaluate numerical and visual statistics, (2) develop models that can be solved by appropriate mathematical methods, and (3) create arguments supported by quantitative evidence and communicate them in writing and through numerical and visual displays of data, including words, tables, graphs, and equations.

11. Scientific Literacy Students will understand how scientific knowledge is uncovered through the empirical testing of hypotheses; be familiar with how data is analyzed, scientific models are made, theories are generated, and practical scientific problems are approached and solved; have the capacity to be informed about scientific matters as they pertain to living in this complex world; and be able to communicate scientific knowledge through speaking and writing.

Students must consult with their assigned advisor before they will be able to register for courses. The art education program, together with General Education courses, total more than 120 credit hours and may take longer than four years to complete.

ART EDUCATION B.S.

Admission Requirements

Students apply to the art education program while enrolled in or after completing ARTE 301: Art Education Concepts and Contexts by completing the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development (FSEHD) online application (see link below) and following the FSEHD admission application instructions. The Department of Art forwards recommendations to FSEHD through this online application. Applicants are then formally accepted into both the FSEHD and the teacher preparation program in art education.

For acceptance into the teacher preparation program in art education, students must fulfill the following requirements by the end of the semester in which they apply for admission:

1. All FSEHD admission requirements. Please refer to the FSEHD section of this catalog and see www.ric.edu/feinsteinschooleducationhumandevelopment/Pages/assessment-Admissions.aspx

2. Art education program-specific admission requirements:

   A. Completion of a plan of study approved by assigned advisor.

   B. Completion of a Declaration of Major Form.

   C. Completion of six studio foundations courses (ART 101, ART 104, ART 105, ART 107, ART 114, and either ART 204 or ART 205 with a minimum grade of B- in each course). A portfolio review demonstrating minimum grade equivalency is required for program credit for studio art courses taken at another institution or credit for advanced placement courses.

   D. Completion of ARTE 301: Art Education Concepts and Contexts, with a minimum grade of B-.

   E. Three letters of recommendation from art faculty: one from the student’s 2-D or 3-D synthesis instructor, one from the student’s ARTE 301 instructor, and one from another art studio or art history faculty member.

   F. Submission of Art Content Portfolio.

Note: For information on transferring credit for art studio courses taken at another institution or credit for advanced placement courses, see Transfer Portfolio Guidelines at www.ric.edu/art/pages/transfer-students.aspx or obtain guidelines in the main office of Alex and Ani Hall.

Retention Requirements

1. A minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.75 each semester.

2. Completion of all required studio art and art history courses and all teacher education courses with a minimum grade of B-. (A portfolio review demonstrating minimum grade equivalency is required for program credit for studio art courses taken at another institution or credit for advanced placement courses.)

3. Completion of ARTE 407 and ARTE 409, with a minimum grade of B each course.

4. In order to student teach, students must successfully complete the FSEHD and the art education program requirements for a Preparing to Teach Portfolio; students must then complete all Student Teaching requirements.

See www.ric.edu/feinsteinschooleducationhumandevelopment/Pages/Teacher-Candidates.aspx

The Art Education Advisory Committee will review records of students who do not maintain these criteria. Such students may be dismissed from the program.

ART EDUCATION B.F.A.

Admission currently suspended

Admission to Art Education B.F.A. is currently suspended. Only students accepted to Rhode Island College prior to Fall 2019 can continue in this program.

Admission Requirements
Students apply to the art education program while enrolled in or after completing ARTE 303: Introduction to Art Education by completing the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development (FSEHD) online application (see link below) and following the FSEHD admission application instructions. The Department of Art forwards recommendations to FSEHD through this online application. Applicants are then formally accepted into both the FSEHD and to the teacher preparation program in art education.

For acceptance into the teacher preparation program in art education, students must fulfill the following requirements by the end of the semester in which they apply for admission:

1. All FSEHD admission requirements. Please refer to the FSEHD section of this catalog and see www.ric.edu/feinsteinschooleducationhumandevelopment/Pages/Admission-Requirements.aspx.
2. Art education program-specific admission requirements, as follows:
   a. Completion of a plan of study approved by assigned advisor.
   b. Completion of a Declaration of Major Form, indicating studio concentration.
   c. Completion of all studio foundations courses, with a portfolio review resulting in a minimum grade of B- in each course.
   d. Completion of ARTE 303: Introduction to Art Education, with a minimum grade of B-.
   e. Three letters of recommendation from art faculty: one from the student’s 2-D or 3-D synthesis instructor, one from the student’s ARTE 303 instructor, and one from another art studio or art history faculty member.
   f. Completion of the Studio I course in the concentration, with a minimum grade of B.
   g. Submission of a B.F.A. application.
   h. A positive portfolio review. The portfolio must include work from studio foundations courses and the introductory studio art course in the concentration. Portfolios are reviewed once per semester. Review dates are posted in Alex and Ani Hall.
   i. Submission of Art Content Portfolio.

Note: For information on transferring credit for art studio courses taken at another institution or credit for advanced placement courses, see Transfer Portfolio Guidelines at www.ric.edu/artPages/Transfer-Students.aspx or obtain guidelines in the main office of Alex and Ani Hall.

Note: ART 101, ART 104, ART 231, or ART 232 fulfills the Arts—Visual and Performing (A) category of General Education, and CEP 215 fulfills the Social and Behavioral Science (SB) category.
Retention Requirements

1. A minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.75 each semester.
2. A minimum grade of B in all studio concentration courses, and a minimum grade of B- in all other required studio and art history courses and in all teacher education courses. (A portfolio review demonstrating minimum grade equivalency is required for program credit for studio art courses taken at another institution or credit for advanced placement courses.)
3. Completion of ARTE 404 and ARTE 405, with a minimum grade of B in each course.
4. In order to student teach, students must successfully complete the FSEHD and the art education program requirements for a Preparing to Teach Portfolio; students must then complete all Student Teaching requirements. See www.ric.edu/feinsteinschooleducationhumandevelopment/Pages/Stud ent-Teaching.aspx.

The Art Education Advisory Committee will review records of students who do not maintain this criteria. Such students may be dismissed from the program.

ART M.A.—WITH CONCENTRATION IN ART EDUCATION

The M.A. in art with concentration in art education does not lead to teacher certification. Students interested in pre-K–12 art teacher certification should see the M.A.T. program in art education.

Admission Requirements
1. A completed online application, accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee. Graduate applications are available online at www.ric.edu/graduatestudies/.
2. Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate records.
3. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.00 on a 4.00 scale in undergraduate course work.
4. An official report of scores on the Graduate Record Examination or the Miller Analogies Test.
5. A current résumé outlining educational, art and work experiences.
6. Three letters of recommendation attesting to the candidate's potential to do graduate work and potential to be successful in an art education career.
7. A bachelor's degree in art education or its equivalent, including 45 credit hours of art courses.
8. A representative portfolio of art work following the Art Education program's guidelines for portfolio submission, available from the art education graduate program director.
10. An interview with the art education graduate program director.
11. A plan of study approved by the advisor and appropriate dean.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Art and Art Education
- TWO COURSES in art studio, history, or theory at the 400- or 500-level
- ONE COURSE in art history, art theory, aesthetics or other advisor-approved course related to art or visual communications at the 400- or 500-level

ARTE 515
- Curriculum in Art Education

Professional Education Component
- FNED 502 Social Issues in Education
- SPED 531 Overview of Special Education: Policies/Practices

Professional Concentration
- TWELVE CREDIT HOURS OF COURSES chosen from approved areas

Research and Thesis
- ART 691 Thesis
- ARTE 591 Readings and Research in Art Education

ART EDUCATION M.A.T.

The M.A.T. in art education is designed for pre-K–12 art teacher certification.

Admission Requirements
1. A completed online application, accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee. Graduate applications are available online at www.ric.edu/graduatestudies/.
2. A current résumé outlining educational and work experiences and highlighting experiences with both art and children/youth.
3. Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate records.
4. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.00 on a 4.00 scale in undergraduate course work.
5. Two Disposition Reference Forms: one from a faculty or supervisor of a child/youth-related activity and one from a work supervisor.
6. A written Statement of Educational Philosophy, with scored rubric, following the specific directions provided by the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development (FSEHD).
7. An interview with the art education graduate program director.
8. A minimum of 45 credit hours of studio art and art history courses.
9. A representative portfolio of art work following the Art Education program's guidelines for portfolio submission, available from the art education program coordinator.
10. Three letters of recommendation attesting to the candidate's potential to do graduate work and potential to be successful in an elementary and/or secondary level art teaching career.
11. A plan of study approved by the advisor and appropriate dean.

Retention Requirements
1. A minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 each semester and for graduation.
2. Completion of all required studio art and art history courses and all teacher education courses with a minimum grade of B. (A portfolio review demonstrating minimum grade equivalency is required for program credit for studio art courses taken at another institution.)
3. Completion of ARTE 507 and 509, with a minimum grade of B in each course.
4. In order to student teach, students must successfully complete the FSEHD and the art education program requirements for a Preparing to Teach Portfolio; students must then complete all Student Teaching requirements.
   See www.ric.edu/feinsteinschooleducationhumandevelopment/Pages/Teacher-Candidates.aspx
5. Also, see the Academic Policies and Requirements – Graduate section of this catalog, the Rhode Island College Graduate Studies webpage (www.ric.edu/graduatestudies/Pages/Graduate-Degrees.aspx), and the Graduate Studies Policies and Procedures Manual for additional requirements and information.

The Art Education Advisory Committee will review records of students who do not maintain these criteria. Such review may result in the student being placed on probation or dismissed from the program.

Biology

Department of Biology
Mission Statement:
The mission of the Biology Department is to provide students with broad-based knowledge and experience in the investigative methods of life science. We support several curricula including general education, health sciences and undergraduate and graduate studies in biology. A faculty with diverse areas of expertise interacts closely with students in small classes, laboratories and field settings. We emphasize critical thinking skills and experiential learning while nurturing the intellectual development of our diverse student population. We foster scientific literacy such that our students make informed choices and act as responsible citizens.

Department Chair: Rebeka Merson
Department Faculty: Professor Merson; Associate Professors de Gouvenain, Govenar, Hall, Kinsey, Kolibachuk, Roberts, Sheridan, Spinette; Assistant Professors Britt, Conklin, Held, Hewins, Holmes, Montvilo, Patterson, Stilwell

Students must consult with their assigned advisor before they will be able to register for courses.

Chemical Dependency/Addiction Studies

Department of Psychology

Department Chair: Bethany Lewis
Chemical Dependency/Addiction Studies Program Director & Clinical Supervisor: Beth Lewis Chemical Dependency/Addiction Studies Program Faculty:
Professor Montvilo; Associate Professors Dottolo, Ladd, Lewis, Spas
Students must consult with their assigned chemical dependency/addiction studies advisor before they will be able to register for courses.

CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY/ADDICTION STUDIES B.S.

Admission Requirements
Students must have a minimum grade of B- in PSYC 217, PSYC 351, and PSYC 452; and a minimum grade point average of 2.50 in all courses taken in the program prior to admission.

Retention Requirements
Students must have a minimum grade point average of 2.50 in the major, and a minimum grade of B- in PSYC 425, PSYC 471, and PSYC 472.
Enrollment in PSYC 471 and PSYC 472 requires prior admission into the chemical dependency/addiction studies program. In their junior year, students should file an application with the program director.

TWELVE CREDIT HOURS of graduate-level literature or theory courses.

Note: ENGL 581 is taken for three semesters for a total of 9 hours.
Subtotal: 30

Examination Plan
Under the examination plan (optional for M.A. in English) and upon completion of at least 24 credit hours of graduate coursework, students take a written examination prepared and administered by the Department of English. The examination is based on reading lists in two of the following four categories: (1) British literature before 1800, (2) British literature since 1800, (3) American literature, and (4) theory or genre. Prior to the examination, students, in consultation with faculty, will prepare reading lists for the two categories selected. The departmental graduate committee must approve the reading lists and will appoint faculty committees to conduct examinations. Guidelines for preparing reading lists are available from the departmental graduate advisor.

Thesis Plan
Under the thesis plan (optional for M.A. in English; required for M.A. in English with concentration in creative writing), students take ENGL 591: Directed Reading in preparation for the writing of the thesis and ENGL 592: Master’s Thesis in their final semesters of study toward the M.A. degree. During this time they complete research for and write a master’s thesis on a subject of their choice that has been approved by the departmental graduate committee. The thesis will be written under the direction of a faculty member of the student’s choice and will be read by that faculty member and by a second reader appointed by the departmental graduate committee. For M.A. in English students, the thesis will normally be a substantial critical or research paper (though different kinds of projects are possible) of approximately fifty to seventy pages in length. For M.A. in English with concentration in creative writing students, the thesis will consist of a substantial body of poetry, fiction, nonfictional prose or drama. A defense of the thesis before a faculty committee is required in all cases.

Accelerated B.A. / M.A. in English Admission Option
Undergraduate students matriculated at Rhode Island College can apply for conditional admission to the Master of Arts in English program after completing 72 credits, at least 12 of which must be in English courses taken at RIC. If conditionally admitted to the M.A. program, students begin taking graduate courses after completing 90 credits. They will take 9 credits of graduate coursework that can count toward both the B.A. and M.A. degrees: ENGL 500, ENGL 501, and one elective 500-level seminar. In addition, conditionally admitted students can take one 500-level course that will count only toward the M.A. degree. If students are in good standing upon completion of the B.A., they are fully admitted to the M.A. degree program, which could be completed in two semesters. Admission requirements remain the same as for the M.A. degree with the following exception: a minimum G.P.A. of 3.2 in English courses.

JUSTICE STUDIES M.A.

Learning Goals

Admission Requirements

1. A completed application form accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee.
2. A bachelors degree, if not applying for the combined B.A./M.A. program.
3. Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate records.
4. Prior course work in research methods and quantitative analysis, PLUS at least four undergraduate courses in sociology, a major in a related field, or substantial work experience in a justice-related field.
5. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.00 on a 4.00 scale in undergraduate course work.
6. An official report of scores on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) General Test Test is required unless the B.A. degree earned is from Rhode Island College or the University of Rhode Island in the academic fields of political science, psychology, sociology, justice studies or criminal justice. This consideration applies to qualified students with an overall G.P.A.of 3.0.
7. Statement of professional goals including how the program will prepare the candidate for these goals.
8. Three letters of recommendation that address potential to succeed in a graduate program. Must include at least one letter from a professor in a social science course.
9. A plan of study approved by the advisor and appropriate dean.
10. An interview may be required.

B.A./M.A. Admissions Option

Students matriculated in the Rhode Island College undergraduate justice studies major may apply for a combined B.A./M.A. option. Such students will apply after completing 75 credits, including at least 20 credits in courses counted towards the Justice Studies major, and must have a minimum G.P.A. of 3.0. Application requirements include all of those listed above; however, the GRE may be waived for B.A./M.A. applicants. B.A./M.A. students are permitted to count 9 graduate credits towards their undergraduate requirements.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Liberal Studies

Program Director: Thomas Schmeling

Students must consult with their assigned Liberal Studies advisor before they will be able to register for courses.

LIBERAL STUDIES B.A.

Retention Requirement: A 2.0 GPA across all courses counted toward the major is required for graduation.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Courses
LIBS 261  Introduction to Liberal Studies  4  Annually
LIBS 461W  Liberal Studies Seminar  4  Annually

EIGHT ADDITIONAL COURSES chosen in consultation with a Liberal Studies Advisor.

At least one course must come from four of the five areas listed below, and no more than four courses may come from any one area or department. At least four of the courses must be at the 300-level or above. Connections courses, and courses that have been used to fulfill the student’s General Education requirements may not be counted toward the major.

Arts

Choose from courses in Art, Art History, Dance, Film Studies, Music and Theatre or any of the following courses:

COMM 241  Introduction to Cinema and Video  4  F, Sp, Su

MATHEMATICAL STUDIES M.A.

Admission Requirements
1. A completed application form accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee.
2. Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate records.
3. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.00 on a 4.00 scale in undergraduate course work.
4. A minimum of 30 credit hours of courses beyond precalculus mathematics.
5. An official report of scores on the Graduate Record Examination or Miller Analogies Test.
6. Three letters of recommendation.
7. A plan of study approved by the advisor and appropriate dean.

BA/MA in Mathematical Studies Admission Option:
Undergraduate students matriculated at Rhode Island College can apply for conditional admission to the Master of Arts in Mathematical Studies program after completing 60 undergraduate credits. Students conditionally admitted to the M.A. program begin taking graduate courses after completing 90 undergraduate credits. Students who remain in good standing and continue to meet admission requirements upon completion of the bachelors degree will be granted full admission to the M.A. program. Application requirements remain the same as above with the following exceptions: The GRE General Exam will be waived for B.A./M.A. applications if the applicant has a 3.0 G.P.A. overall, and grades of B or higher in all courses required for admission to the M.A. program. Applicants must complete M300 and at least 6 of the required 12 math courses for the B.A. program prior to taking graduate level courses.

Medical Imaging

Co-Directors: Eric Hall and Kenneth Kinsey

The medical imaging program at Rhode Island College is a joint program in conjunction with the Lifespan School of Medical Imaging. It is a comprehensive four-year program consisting of General Education and cognate courses at Rhode Island College followed by clinical education courses at the School of Medical Imaging.

Clinical education courses are held at Rhode Island Hospital, Hasbro Children’s Hospital, University Orthopedics, The Miriam Hospital, and Rhode Island Medical Imaging. Students who successfully complete the program are eligible to take the appropriate national certification examination.

Students accepted into a medical imaging clinical program are responsible for obtaining certification in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (basic life support for the health care provider) prior to enrolling in clinical courses.

Students must consult with their assigned advisor before they will be able to register for courses.

MEDICAL IMAGING B.S.

Admission Requirements for Concentrations in Diagnostic Medical Sonography, Magnetic Resonance Imaging, Nuclear Medicine Technology, and Radiologic Technology

Concentrators
1. Completion of all required preclinical courses, with a minimum grade of C in each course.
2. A completed application form submitted by the appropriate deadline to the Director of the Medical Imaging Program.
3. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.70.
4. An interview with the admissions committee of the Rhode Island Hospital School of Diagnostic Imaging.

Admission Requirements for Concentrations in Certified Medical Imager Management

Prior licensure in Diagnostic Medical Sonography, Magnetic Resonance Imaging, Nuclear Medicine Technology or Radiologic Technology.

Retention Requirement for All Concentrations

A minimum grade of C in all required courses.

General Education Requirements for Concentration in Certified RT Computed Tomography

Students must complete the college’s General Education requirements, with the following contingencies:
1. Students will take a required MATH course in the cognates for each program that will satisfy their General Education Mathematics category.
2. Students will receive transfer credit for NS 175, which will fulfill the Natural Science category.
3. Students will receive transfer credit for AQSR 175, which will fulfill the Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning category.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

CHOOSE concentration A, B, C, D, E, or F below.

A. Certified RT Computed Tomography

CTSC 300 Principles of Computed Tomography 2 As needed
CTSC 301 Computed Tomography Physics and Radiation Protection 2 As needed
CTSC 407 Sectional Anatomy and Pathology 2 As needed
CTSC 432 Computed Tomography Clinical Practice 8 As needed

Cognates
COMM 338 Communication for Health Professionals 4 F
MATH 209 Precalculus Mathematics 4 F, Sp, Su

Note: MATH 209: Fulfills the mathematics category of General Education.

Modern Languages

Department of Modern Languages

Department Chair: Eliani Basile

Department Faculty: Associate Professors Basile, Margenot, Oliveira; Assistant Professor Falangola

Students must consult with their assigned advisor before they will be able to register for courses.

Language Courses

The Department of Modern Languages offers elementary and intermediate courses in Arabic, French, German, Greek, Italian, Japanese, Latin, Portuguese, and Spanish. Placement for language study is determined by the student’s performance in course work or, for French, German, Portuguese and Spanish, by their score on the modern language online test at: www.ric.edu/modernlanguages/Pages/Language-Placement.aspx. Students who demonstrate proficiency on the CEEB or the College Level Examination Program tests are granted credit toward graduation in accordance with Rhode Island College policy.

Elementary courses (101 and 102) and intermediate courses (113 and 114) may be offered in languages not listed in this catalog. Refer to the schedule of classes published each semester and contact the department chair for details. Advanced courses are available in French, Italian, Latin American studies, Portuguese, and Spanish.

Elementary courses may be taken for elective credit, except in the language presented to meet college admission requirements. Students who wish to continue their study of the language presented for admission should elect language courses numbered 102, 113, or 114. For fulfillment of the Second Language Requirement see the section on General Education.

Internship

The Department of Modern Languages strongly encourages students to undertake internship experiences as part of their undergraduate education. Every semester, the department offers twelve-week internships for students in all modern languages concentrations. Students are placed in area agencies, organizations, and companies where they have the opportunity to use the language of their concentration. In order to participate in an internship, students must register for MLAN 320.

MUSIC IN MUSIC EDUCATION B.M.

Admission Requirements

Entrance to the music education program is a multi-stage process, beginning with application to Rhode Island College through the Office of Undergraduate Admissions and simultaneous application for the required entrance audition through the Department of Music, Theatre, and Dance. Once the applicant is admitted to the college and passes the music audition, they matriculate as a “Music Education-Intended Major.”

Students then apply to the Feinstein School of Education (FSEHD) while enrolled in MUSE 212 Introduction to Music Education (usually in the second year at RIC). Once admitted to FSEHD, their academic plan is changed to “Music Education.”

1. Admission to Rhode Island College (www.ric.edu/admissions).
2. Successful audition for entrance as a BM-MusicEd-Intended Major. (The audition should be completed as soon as possible and may precede admission to RIC) (www.ric.edu/mtd/pages/music-auditions.aspx).
3. Admission to FSEHD during the sophomore year, including:
   b. Program-specific requirements for Music Education.
      i. Applied Music MUS 270-289, 3 semesters (B- or better).
      ii. Successful Freshman Applied Proficiency at the end of second semester of applied lessons.
      iii. MUS 104 and MUS 105 (B- or better).
      iv. Large Ensemble MUS 161-163, 3 semesters (B- or better).
      v. MUS 230, MUS 231, MUS 232, MUS 233, MUS 234, MUS 235 (B- or better).

Note: MUS 113 Basic Rhythm is required for students whose rhythm skills are evaluated as needing significant improvement through an online and live assessment before entrance.

Retention Requirements

Internship
The Department of Political Science strongly encourages students to undertake internship experiences as part of their undergraduate education. Every fall, spring, and summer the department offers a twelve-week internship for students in political science, public administration, justice studies, gerontology, and other programs. Students are placed in federal, state, and local government agencies; in private sector public service organizations; and in organizations engaged in campaigns or political advocacy. To enroll in this internship, students should register for POL 328.

In addition, under the auspices of the Rhode Island State Internship Program, the department offers a twelve-week internship every spring semester, placing students with individual members of the Rhode Island state legislature or with members of the executive and judicial branches of state government. To enroll in this internship, students should register for POL 327.

The London Course
The London Course is the study of British politics, government, and culture, as well as urban geography and city planning in London. The course is divided into two components—a six-week proseminar at Rhode Island College during Summer Session I, followed by a three-week stay in London during July in conjunction with South Bank University. The stay in Europe includes trips to the House of Commons, Cambridge University, the Home Counties, and Paris.

Predental, Premedical, Preoptometry, Preveterinary Preparation

Predental, Premedical, Preoptometry, Preveterinary Advisor
Elaine Magyar
Prevetinary Advisor
Rebekah Merson

To qualify for admission to dental, medical, optometry, or veterinary school, students must present a strong liberal arts background, show competency in writing, competency in their chosen academic majors, and demonstrate some knowledge of work in the laboratory sciences.

Although neither a specific major nor a specific program of study is required for application, a biology or chemistry major will provide excellent preparation. In addition, most schools require the results of the student’s performance on standardized tests of verbal and quantitative analytical abilities, knowledge in certain content areas, and analytical and critical thinking.

Beginning in the freshman year, students interested in dental, medical, optometry, or veterinary school should consult with the appropriate preprofessional advisor concerning a plan of study and application procedures to a professional school. Since individual schools have specific course requirements, it is essential to consult with the advisor early in the program of study. Students should also supplement their majors with the following courses: BIOL 111, BIOL 112; CHEM 103, CHEM 104, CHEM 205, CHEM 206, CHEM 310; PHYS 101, PHYS 102; and two or three courses in advanced biology, chosen in consultation with the appropriate advisor. Premedical students should also take PSYC 110 and SOC 200 in preparation for the MCAT. It is strongly recommended that students take mathematics sequences through calculus as well as intermediate or advanced courses in modern foreign languages.

Each year the faculty is able to nominate several students who are Rhode Island residents as candidates for the Early Identification Program of the Alpert Medical School at Brown University. Students who are accepted into this competitive program and successfully complete their undergraduate coursework at Rhode Island College can be accepted into Brown’s medical school upon graduation. Complete details are available from the premedical advisor.

Prelaw Preparation

Prelaw Advisor
Thomas Schmeling

Choosing a major
Students considering law school should choose a major based on their interest in the subject and their ability to perform well in the major courses. No specific major is officially required or recommended as preparation for law school. Special “pre-law majors” are not recommended by law schools, and students in such majors may actually be less likely to be admitted to law school than are others.

Pre-law students should focus on developing the skills that law students and lawyers need: logical and critical reasoning, written and oral communication, and the ability to read and understand complex documents. Quantitative reasoning skills are also important for some areas of law. Although any major is acceptable, liberal arts majors in particular are designed to develop these skills. Liberal arts students also tend to score high on the Law School Admissions Test.

Whatever major you choose, it is useful to take a selection of elective courses that sharpen your skills and deepen your understanding of people and society. Include some of the following in your studies: Political Science (particularly American Government and the legal system), Philosophy (Introduction to Logic is strongly advised), History (especially American History), Economics, English (especially courses that... focus on writing), and other social sciences such as Psychology, Sociology, and Anthropology.

Grades
Your grade point average will be an important factor in determining your admission to law school. Work hard and do as well as you can. Having a major you really enjoy will help here. Law schools do recognize that it's harder to get high grades in some majors than in others.

The LSAT
Another important factor in law school admission is performance on the Law School Admissions Test (LSAT). All law schools require applicants to submit their LSAT scores. The LSAT is given four times a year at test sites in Rhode Island. Students who wish to enter law school in the fall should typically take the LSAT in October or December of the preceding year. More information on the LSAT can be found on the website of the Law School Admissions Council: http://www.lsac.org.

Recommendations
A final consideration in law school admissions will be your letters of recommendation. Visit your professors during office hours and let them get to know you. Letters from professors who know you well and with whom you have had several courses will help the most. Letters from employers who know you well are also useful.

The Pre-Law Advisor and Club
The College Pre-Law Advisor provides individual advising and organizes pre-law events on and off-campus. A student-run pre-law club has also been organized through Student Community Government. For contact information, see the top of this page.

PSYCHOLOGY M.A.

Admission Requirements
1. A completed application form accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee.
2. Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate records.
3. Prior course work in research methods and statistics, PLUS in at least three of the following areas: cognitive/physiological psychology (includes cognition, neuroscience, related courses), developmental psychology, learning, personality theory, and social psychology. Minimum 75th percentile score on the GRE Psychology subject test may be substituted for the three additional courses. An official report of the GRE Psychology subject test scores must be submitted if choosing this option.
4. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.00 on a 4.00 scale in undergraduate course work.
5. An official report of scores on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) General Test.
6. Statement of professional goals including how the program will prepare the candidate for these goals.
7. Three letters of recommendation that address potential to succeed in a graduate program. Must include at least one letter from a psychology professor or from a professional within psychology or related field.
8. A plan of study approved by the advisor and appropriate dean.
9. An interview may be required.

B.A./M.A. in Psychology Admission Option:
Undergraduate students matriculated at Rhode Island College can apply for conditional admission to the Master of Arts in Psychology program after completing 60 undergraduate credits. Students conditionally admitted to the M.A. program begin taking graduate courses after completing 90 undergraduate credits. If the student remains in good standing and continues to meet admission requirements upon completion of the undergraduate degree, they are changed to full admission to the M.A. program. Application requirements remain the same as above with the following exceptions: The GRE General Exam will be waived for B.A./M.A. applications if the applicant has a 3.0 GPA overall, and grades of B or higher in all courses required for admission to the M.A. program. Students under the BA/MA admissions plan must complete the coursework required for admission and the 47x lab requirement prior to starting graduate level coursework. B.A./M.A. students may count up to 9 graduate credits toward their undergraduate degree.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION B.A.-M.P.A.
Rhode Island College cooperates with the University of Rhode Island in providing Rhode Island College students with an opportunity to begin their graduate training in public administration as they complete their studies leading to a degree at Rhode Island College. Early advisement is essential for students seeking admission to this program. A student in this cooperative program could earn the Master of Public Administration degree in fifteen months of full-time study or pursue the degree on a part-time basis. Students should consult with the director of the undergraduate public administration program no later than the second semester of their junior year.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION M.P.A.
The Master of Public Administration Program is a cooperative program of Rhode Island College and the University of Rhode Island. M.P.A. students may take graduate-level electives at Rhode Island College to fulfill their plan of study. Requests for program information should be made to the director of the public administration program at Rhode Island College.

Sociology

Department of Sociology
Department Chair: Mikaila M. L. Arthur

GENERAL INFORMATION

General Information for Undergraduate Programs
The Feinstein School of Education and Human Development provides undergraduate students with a wide-range of choices and opportunities for working with Rhode Island youth. The choices include a range of teacher certification programs for pre-school through high school to community programs, working with youth of all age levels. Upon admission to one of the Feinstein teacher preparation programs, students become teacher candidates and take courses many of which include extensive field experiences including observations, tutoring, and teaching in Rhode Island Schools. Programs for teacher preparation separated by grade levels include: Early Childhood Education, Elementary Education, Elementary Special Education, Middle Level and Secondary Education. Programs for teacher preparation for teaching students in grades Kindergarten through Twelve are: Art Education, Health Education, Music Education, Physical Education, World Languages, and Technology Education.

In addition, the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development offers a variety of community programs for students who want to work with Rhode Island youth in varied community settings. These programs do not lead to teacher certification but provide our graduates with a broad range of employment opportunities. Additional information on community programs follows: Application to Undergraduate Teacher Preparation Programs section of the catalog.

Application to Undergraduate Teacher Preparation Programs
Students who are in good standing at Rhode Island College may apply for admission to a teacher preparation program. For more information on the Admissions requirements and instructions for all undergraduate teacher preparation programs, see www.ric.edu/feinsteinSchoolEducationHumanDevelopment/Pages/assessment-admissions.aspx.

The instructions and admissions requirements for early childhood, elementary, secondary, special education, and all PK-K–12 programs are updated twice each year. Further information may be obtained from the office of the associate dean of the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development (Horace Mann 104) or from the appropriate department.

Students interested in the art education or music education program should contact the department chair as soon as they are admitted to the college for information about the required courses in the program and the requirements for admission to the program.

Most applicants acquire and complete the application materials while they are enrolled in FNED 246: Schooling for Social Justice. This course is a prerequisite for admission to all teacher preparation programs. Basic skills tests are required for admission and should be completed before or during enrollment in FNED 246. Transfer students must complete these tests as soon as possible. See #5 for information about test requirements.

Admission Requirements to Undergraduate Teacher Preparation Programs
The applicant’s academic performance and related experiences that indicate potential for success as a teacher are reviewed in the admission process. The application materials submitted by the student, listed below, must provide evidence of the following:

1. Completion of at least 24 credit hours at a nationally or regionally accredited college or university by the end of the semester in which the candidate applies for admission to a teacher preparation program.
2. A minimum G.P.A. of 2.75 in all college courses taken at RIC prior to admission to a teacher preparation program.
3. Completion of the college mathematics competency.
4. Completion of FSEHD writing requirement: FYW 100 or FYW 100P, with a minimum grade of B. This requirement may also be satisfied by (1) passing the equivalent of a First Year Writing 100 course, with a minimum grade of B; (2) earning a minimum score of 59 on the College Level Examination Program/College Composition Exam (CLEP); or (3) earning a score of 4 or 5 on the Advanced Placement Test for English Language and Composition.
5. Completion of the assessment of basic skills tests as described at www.ric.edu/feinsteinSchoolEducationHumanDevelopment/document s/Assessment-of-Basic-Skills-Test-Requirements.pdf. This information is also shared at FSEHD Information sessions offered to all FNED 246 students each fall and spring semester. Individuals with disabilities and nonnative speakers of English who plan to request alternative test administration should check in with the Disability Services Center in Fogarty Life Science room 137.
7. Completion of FNED 246: Schooling for Social Justice, with a minimum grade of B-. The minimum grade requirement applies even if an equivalent course from another institution is transferred to Rhode Island College.
8. Submission of three FNED 246 Assessment forms. FNED 246 faculty will submit an evaluation for each student enrolled. Each student will be given two links, one evaluation to be completed by the supervisor during clinical practice and one to be completed as a student self evaluation. Students may check with the FNED professor or refer to the Admissions Requirements section of the FSEHD page.
9. Completion of program specific requirements. Each teacher preparation and community program has additional admissions requirements. Information about these requirements is available in the department to which the candidate is applying.
10. Response to background questions. As students complete the FSEHD application, they will answer a series of questions relating to their Background check (BCI). While answering yes to any of the questions may not bar a student from acceptance and subsequent field experiences, FSEHD cannot guarantee placements in school settings; a school has the right to prevent a student from entering the building. The Rhode Island Department of Education (RIDE) also has the right to refuse a request for a student-teaching permit and/or teacher certification. How any school and RIDE choose to address the charges on a BCI is beyond the control of FSEHD. As written in RI General Law 16-12-3, “Every teacher shall aim to implant and cultivate in the minds of all children committed to his care the principles of morality and virtue.”

The admissions requirements above, can be found at: www.ric.edu/feinsteinSchoolEducationHumanDevelopment/Pages/assessment-admissions.aspx.
Admission Procedures to Undergraduate Teacher Preparation Programs

Once a student submits an application, the department chair in the respective department evaluates the information provided in the application and makes a recommendation to the associate dean about the applicant’s admission to a teacher preparation program. If an application is recommended for admission, the department chair also assigns an advisor to the applicant.

The associate dean reviews the recommendation of the department and each applicant who is accepted into a program is sent a letter of acceptance (via RIC email). Students who do not meet admissions requirements will be informed via email.

Students accepted to a teacher preparation program become teacher candidates. A teacher candidate who wishes to transfer to or add another program within the school must inform the advisor or department chair of the decision and apply for admission to the new program. Information used in the original application may be used in the new application when appropriate.

Appeal Process

The applicant may appeal a decision for admission or re-admission to a teacher preparation program within 60 days of receiving the denial letter/email. The appeal may be based on policy or procedure and should be sent to the associate dean of the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development. Any applicant initiating an appeal must provide additional and substantiating evidence to support the appeal. Subsequent appeals should follow Rhode Island College policy for student appeals (see the Rhode Island College Student Handbook at www.ric.edu/studentlife/Pages/handbook.aspx).

Community Service Requirement

The Feinstein School of Education and Human Development requires all teacher candidates in teacher preparation programs (undergraduate and second bachelors’ programs) to participate in 25 hours of documented community service experiences. This requirement may be completed on an individual basis or through one or more of the courses in the program and generally begins with an experience during the FNED 246 course. These hours must be completed prior to student teaching. See www.ric.edu/communityservice/Pages/default.aspx.

Preparing to Teach Portfolio Requirement

The Feinstein School of Education and Human Development requires all teacher candidates in teacher preparation programs (undergraduate, second degree, RITE, and M.A.T.) to successfully complete a Preparing to Teach Portfolio prior to student teaching. In addition to program specific requirements the portfolio must also include two Feinstein School of Education and Human Development Assessments: a Teacher Candidate Mini Work Sample (TCMWS) and a Rhode Island Innovation Consortium Educator Evaluation (RI-ICEE) both of which are completed during one of the teacher candidate’s practicum courses. The portfolio must be rated as meeting standard or better for a teacher candidate to progress in and graduate from any teacher preparation program. General preparing to student teach requirements can be found on the Office of Partnerships and Placements page: www.ric.edu/feinsteinschooleducationhumandevelopment/Pages/Teacher-Candidates.aspx.

Faculty in each program evaluate the portfolios to insure all specific program requirements have been met. Once this is completed this information is sent to the associate dean.

Retention Requirement

All Feinstein School of Education and Human Development candidates are required to maintain an overall G.P.A. of 2.75 throughout their chosen program. Programs monitor the content G.P.A. as the required G.P.A. varies by program. Check with an advisor to learn about specific program requirements.

General Information for Undergraduate Feinstein School of Education and Human Development Community Programs

The Department of Health and Physical Education offers three community programs:

Community-Based Programs: The Department of Health and Physical Education offers two community-based programs leading to a BS in Community and Public Health Promotion and a BS in Wellness and Exercise Science. These programs provide a rigorous plan of study grounded in theoretical foundations, research methods, along with evidence-informed, and reflective practice. Students receive practical application through required field-based experiences including a one-semester internship. Graduates from these programs are prepared for entry-level positions in their field and graduate study.

B.S. in Community and Public Health Promotion: Building on a public health foundation, students are prepared to positively influence the health of individuals and communities through interventions including education initiatives, policy changes, and health promotion programs. Students pursue coursework in community and public health topics such as human health and disease, nutrition, health policy, social and global perspectives on health, program planning and evaluation, pedagogy, epidemiology, and research and grant proposal writing in community and public health. Students acquire the knowledge, skills, and dispositions to promote health literacy and equity, and eliminate health disparities.

B.S. in Wellness and Exercise Science: Through a comprehensive curriculum, students acquire essential knowledge, skills, and competencies to provide a holistic perspective to wellness and exercise in a variety of fitness settings. Students pursue coursework in anatomy and physiology, motor development, kinesiology, exercise physiology, exercise prescription, health and wellness, fitness and wellness programming, and research in wellness and exercise science. Students are prepared to work in the exercise and wellness professions where they promote lifelong learning, personal fitness and wellness, and quality of life for various populations.

The Department of Elementary Education offers two Early Childhood community programs:

Concentration in Community Programs: The Elementary Education Department offers a Concentration in Community Programs leading to a B.S. in Early Childhood Education. This program provides a plan of study that encompasses coursework aligned to the Rhode Island Early Learning and Development Standards and focuses on early childhood development, effective teaching practices, principles of family engagement, and the integrated systems of early care and education.
Students gain experience in classrooms through practicum courses and in early childhood community settings, such as community literacy programs, children’s museums, or professional development organizations through a one-semester internship. Graduates from this program are prepared for early care and education positions including home-based service provider, family support specialist, child-care teacher, or education coordinator.

Concentration in Birth to Three: The Elementary Education Department offers a Concentration in Birth to Three leading to a B.S. in Early Childhood Education. This program provides a plan of study that was developed through collaboration with local and national leaders, and is aligned to the Zero to Three Competencies and the Rhode Island Early Learning and Development Standards. The coursework encompasses principles of development in the early years, best practices for working with Infants, Toddlers, and their Families. Students engage in two semester long field placements and a one-semester internship in infant/toddler care and education settings, home-visiting programs, or Early Intervention. Graduates from this program are prepared to work with very young children and their families as a child care provider, home-based service provider, or Early Intervention provider.

Educational Studies Youth Development Program: www.ric.edu/educationalStudies/PagesNouthDevelopment.aspx

Youth Development B.A. Program at Rhode Island College: The Youth Development B.A. Program prepares professional youth workers for careers with young people (ages 3-21) within afterschool programs, recreation centers, community arts centers, youth residential housing, justice and probation sites, youth ministry, and governmental agencies. In addition to coursework in social work and education, our graduates also earn a non-profit studies certificate where they develop leadership and management skills.

Admission Requirements to Graduate (M.A., M.A.T., M.S., M.Ed., C.A.G.S., and C.G.S.) Programs

Admission to the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development master’s level programs is determined by the quality of the total application. Applicants must submit the materials listed below to the associate dean of graduate studies as a measure of their potential for success in graduate-level studies.

1. A completed online application form accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee. Graduate school information and the application are available online at www.ric.edu/graduatestudies/Pages/default.aspx.

2. Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate records.

3. A bachelor’s degree with a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.00 on a 4.00 scale in all undergraduate coursework. Applicants with undergraduate GPAs less than 3.00 may be admitted to degree candidacy upon submission of other evidence of academic potential.

4. A teaching certificate (for all school-related programs, except school psychology and health education).

5. An official report of scores on the Graduate Record Examination or the Miller Analogies Test, except MS CMHC and C.G.S. candidates. The M.A/T. applicant has a different admissions test that varies by program. The applicant should check with the appropriate department or the associate dean’s office. – approved by Grad Committee spring 2019

6. Three Candidate Reference Forms accompanied by three letters of recommendation.

See individual programs for additional program-specific requirements.

C.G.S. IN ADVANCED COUNSELING

The C.G.S. in Advanced Counseling is a certificate program which enables students who already have a master’s degree, which is fewer than 60 credits, to obtain 60 credits needed for licensure as a mental health counselor in the State of Rhode Island. Students will be able to take from 15-27 credits depending on the number of credits they need for licensure. Core courses in counseling practica and internship (a total of 12 credits) will be required of all C.G.S. candidates. Other credits are determined based on the needs of the candidate. (See “C.G.S. in Advanced Counseling” for a full description.)

Early Childhood Education

Department Chair: Patricia Cordeiro
Early Childhood Education Graduate Program Director: Mary Ellen McGuire-Schwartz
Early Childhood Undergraduate Program Coordinator: Leslie Sevey
Early Childhood Program Faculty: Associate Professor McGuire-Schwartz, Sevey; Assistant Professor Zoll

Students must consult with their assigned advisor before they will be able to register for courses.

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION B.S.

Program Admission Requirements
Admission to program is dependent upon prior admission into the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development.

Students will select a concentration and follow the same core program of coursework until the final semester of the program where they will either complete a student teaching experience or an internship.

Concentration options include:

- Concentration in Teaching (certification Pre-K through Grade 2)
- Concentration in Community Programs
- Concentration in Birth to Three

Fifth-Year Master’s Program Option

Applicants to this program will have the option of applying to the fifth-year master’s program in early childhood special education, which will fulfill the requirements for Early Childhood Special Education Certification.
CONCENTRATION IN TEACHING

Admission Requirements
Admission requires the successful completion of FYW 100 or FYW 100P (with a B or better), PSYC 110 (with a C or better), and ECED 290, FNED 101 and FNED 246 (with a B- or better), completion of community service learning requirement and an overall G.P.A. of 2.75. Candidates are also required to submit current valid BCIs at various times throughout the program in order to participate in practicum experiences.

Retention Requirements
1. A minimum overall G.P.A. of 2.75 each semester.
2. A minimum grade of B- in all professional and major courses, including ART 210.
3. Successful recommendations regarding candidate’s professional disposition from instructors and clinical instructors.
4. Meet program requirements, including successful performance evaluations.

Records of students who do not maintain good standing or who receive a Recommendation to Continue with Concerns are reviewed by the departmental retention committee. Students may be dismissed from the program. Appeal of a decision to dismiss a student is made to the dean of the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development.

EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP M.ED. (THIS PROGRAM HAS SUSPENDED ADMISSIONS.)

THIS PROGRAM IS UNDERGOING REDESIGN AND NOT ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS.
FOR INFORMATION, CONTACT ONE OF THE CO-DEANS, DEAN GERRI AUGUST AT GAUGUST@RIC.EDU OR DEAN JULIE HORWITZ AT JHORWITZ@RIC.EDU.

Elementary Education

Department of Elementary Education
Department Chair: Carolyn Obel-Omia
B.A. in Elementary Education Program Coordinator: Patricia Cordeiro
B.S. in Elementary Education Program Coordinator: Linda Capalbo
Elementary Education Program Faculty: Professors Goodrow, Halquist, Henshaw, Kniseley, Lawrence, McGuire-Schwartz; Associate Professors Cotti, Horn, Obel-Omia, Sevey; Assistant Professors Capalbo, Zoll

Students in elementary education are awarded either a B.A. or a B.S. degree.
  • The B.A. is awarded to students choosing the Elementary Education with a Teaching Concentration in Middle Level Mathematics or a Teaching Concentration in Middle Level General Science
  • The B.S. is awarded to students electing a teaching concentration in special education.

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION B.A.
The two Elementary Education Middle Level programs, Elementary Education BA with a Teaching Concentration in Middle Level Mathematics and Elementary Education B.A. with a Teaching Concentration in Middle Level General Science will take four and a half years to complete. Upon completion of either program, the graduate will meet all Rhode Island Department of Education for two teacher certifications. Admissions Requirements can be found in each of the two concentrations.

NOTE: Admission to the content majors in English, Multidisciplinary Studies, and Social Studies are currently suspended. Only students accepted to Rhode Island College prior to Fall 2019 can continue in these programs.

Retention Requirements for Both Programs

1. A minimum overall G.P.A. of 2.75 each semester.
2. A minimum grade of B- in ELED 202, and recommendation to continue from the instructor.
3. A minimum grade of B- in all other professional coursework, including an “acceptable” rating on the primary course artifact. Courses in the department may be repeated once with a recommendation to retake from the previous instructor.
4. A minimum grade of C in all prerequisite courses offered in the Faculty of Arts and Sciences. Students must maintain acceptable standing in academic work, fieldwork and demonstrate consistent professionalism or risk suspension from either Elementary Education program, the Concentration in Middle Level Mathematics or Concentration in Middle Level General Science.

Other Requirements
In addition to completing courses in elementary education, teacher candidates must complete the following requirements. See FSEHD website for additional information.

• Apply for a Background Check (BCI) each year. This information will be provided to each student, beginning in the FNED 101 course.
• Complete 25 hours of community service before student teaching.

Preparing to Student Teach
• Pass all appropriate teacher certification exams.
• Maintain the required G.P.A. in program courses and the concentration.
• Submit a complete Preparing to Teach Portfolio to the Elementary Education Office.
• Submit all Community service information. The semester before student teaching, teacher candidates will receive a link from the Office of Partnerships and Placements, providing directions to submit information regarding the Community Service experiences.

C.A.G.S. IN SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGY/COUNSELING M.A. — WITH CONCENTRATION IN EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

This program is recognized by the National Association of School Psychologists.

Admission Requirements
1. Completion of all Feinstein School of Education and Human Development admission requirements.
2. A minimum of three courses in psychology, including child or adolescent development, personality, and abnormal psychology.
3. A current résumé.
4. An interview.

Retention Requirements
1. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.25 on a 4.00 scale each semester. Grades below a B are not considered of graduate quality and are of limited application to degree work.
2. A minimum grade of B- in CEP 531, CEP 533 and CEP 603. Students who receive a grade below a B- in any of these courses must consult with their advisor before registering for any subsequent course in the plan of study.
3. A passing score on the M.A. Comprehensive Examination.
4. A satisfactory rating on the training portfolio, and a recommendation to continue from the graduate program director.
5. Failure to meet any one of the above requirements is sufficient cause for dismissal from the program.

Comprehensive Examination (Master of Arts)
0 credit hours. Offered Fall, Spring.

National School Psychology Examination (C.A.G.S.)
0 credit hours. Offered Fall, Spring.

Total Credit Hours: 69

The C.A.G.S. in school psychology is awarded when the student has completed:
1. An additional 27 credit hours of graduate course work beyond the master’s level as specified in the student’s integrated and sequential plan of study.
2. A one-year, 1200-hour, 12-credit internship in a cooperating school system.
3. A passing score (as determined by the Department of Counseling, Educational Leadership, and School Psychology) on the National School Psychology Examination administered by the Educational Testing Service (ETS/PRAXIS II #10400).
4. A performance portfolio at the conclusion of the internship.

The C.A.G.S. in school psychology meets state certification requirements in school psychology from the Rhode Island Department of Education.

For candidates admitted to the C.A.G.S. in school psychology, the M.A. in counseling (educational psychology concentration) is awarded when the student has completed CEP 531, CEP 532, CEP 533, CEP 534, CEP 536, CEP 537, CEP 538, CEP 551, CEP 554 and CEP 602, and satisfactorily passed a written examination prepared and administered by the Department of Counseling, Educational Leadership, and School Psychology. The examination is based on the student’s knowledge of human development, counseling approaches and intervention strategies. The M.A. in counseling with concentration in educational psychology is not granted as a terminal degree and does not meet requirements for certification as a school psychologist.

Secondary Education

Department of Educational Studies

Department Chair: Lesley Bogad

Secondary Education Program Faculty: Professors August, Bigler, Bogad, Cvornyek, Horwitz, Johnson, La Ferla, McLaughlin Jr.; Associate Professors Brelly Jr., Christy, Guilbault, McKamey, Tiskus, Williams; Assistant Professors Basile, Benson, Blankenship, Caswell, Hesson, Kraus, Shipe, Sox

Students must consult with their assigned advisor before they will be able to register for courses.

SECONDARY EDUCATION B.A. (BIOLOGY CHEMISTRY AND PHYSICS)

Retention Requirements

1. A minimum cumulative G.P.A. of 2.75 each semester.
2. A minimum grade of B- in all teacher education courses.
3. A satisfactory G.P.A. in the major area.
4. Positive recommendations from all education instructors based on academic work, fieldwork, and professional behavior.

If a student’s GPA falls below the minimum 2.75, or if the required GPA in the major falls below the minimum, the student will be put on probation, which means the student cannot continue to take courses in the professional education sequence until the probationary status is removed. If either the overall GPA or the required GPA in the major falls below the minimum for two consecutive semesters, the student may be suspended or dismissed from the secondary education program.

SECONDARY EDUCATION B.A. (ENGLISH, GENERAL SCIENCE, HISTORY, MATHEMATICS, SOCIAL STUDIES)

Retention Requirements
1. A minimum cumulative G.P.A. of 2.75 each semester.
2. A minimum grade of B- in all teacher education courses.
3. A satisfactory G.P.A. in the major area.
4. Positive recommendations from all education instructors based on academic work, fieldwork, and professional behavior.

If a student’s G.P.A. falls below the minimum 2.75, or if the required G.P.A. in the major falls below the minimum, the student will be put on probation, which means the student cannot continue to take courses in the professional education sequence until the probationary status is removed. If either the overall G.P.A. or the required G.P.A. in the major falls below the minimum for two consecutive semesters, the student may be suspended or dismissed from the secondary education program.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

CERTIFICATION COURSES
To be certified to teach history in Rhode Island secondary schools, students must also complete the certification courses listed below. Upon completion, students may be eligible for Rhode Island endorsement to teach economics, geography, political science and social studies.

Courses
ANTH 101 Introduction to Cultural Anthropology 4 F, Sp
ECON 200 Introduction to Economics 4 F, Sp, Su
GEOG 200 World Regional Geography 4 F, Sp
GEOG 401 Geography for Social Studies Educators 4 Sp
POL 202 American Government 4 F, Sp, Su

Note: ECON 200 will double-count as the General Education Social and Behavioral Sciences distribution (SB).

World Languages Education

Department of Educational Studies

Department Chair: Lesley Bogad

WORLD LANGUAGES EDUCATION B.A.

Admission Requirements

For acceptance into the teacher preparation program in world languages education, students must fulfill the following requirements by the end of the semester in which they apply for admission:

1. All FSEHD admission requirements. Please refer to the FSEHD section of this catalog or go to www.ric.edu/feinsteinSchoolEducationHumanDevelopment/Pages/Admission-Requirements.aspx.

2. Completion of 24 credit hours, including 8 in the content major

Retention Requirements

1. A minimum cumulative G.P.A. of 2.75 each semester.
2. A minimum grade of B- in all teacher education courses.
3. A G.P.A. of 3.0 or higher in the major area.
4. Positive recommendations from all education instructors based on academic work, fieldwork and professional behavior.

If a student’s G.P.A. falls below the minimum of 2.50, or if the required G.P.A. in the major falls below the minimum of 3.0, the student will be put on probation, which means the student cannot continue to take courses in the professional education sequence until the probationary status is removed. If either the overall G.P.A. or the required G.P.A. in the major falls below the minimum for two consecutive semesters, the student may be suspended or dismissed from the world languages education program.

Note: TECH 306 satisfies the Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning (AQSR) General Education requirement.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The School of Business houses three departments: (1) the Department of Accounting (2) the Department of Economics and Finance, and (3) the Department of Management and Marketing. The school also houses and coordinates the health care administration major.

Writing Requirement
A graded writing assignment is required in every course.

Suggested Sequence of Courses
Majors in the School of Business are designed primarily for upper-division students. Entering students should plan to complete their General Education Core and Distribution Requirements during their first two years. These courses provide excellent and necessary preparation for the major and its requirements.

In the first year, students may not take courses in the departments (except ECON 200, ECON 214, and ECON 215) but are strongly encouraged to complete MATH 177 and, for majors that require it, MATH 238.

Students entering their second year may enroll in a variety of required courses at the 200-level, including introductory courses in their major.

In the third year, students with junior standing and with 60 credit hours or more may enroll in 300-level courses in the School of Business.

Students with 45 credit hours or more may enroll in 300-level courses in the School of Business. Students with junior standing and with 60 credit hours or more may enroll in the School of Business. Students with 45 credit hours or more may enroll in 300-level CIS electives, FIN 301, MGT 201, and MKT 201. At this time, students begin to take courses to fulfill the requirements of their major.

Retention Requirements
Satisfactory completion (passing grade) of the college writing requirement.

1. Satisfactory completion (passing grade) of the college writing requirement.
2. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.00.
3. Students majoring in accounting, management, and marketing must achieve satisfactory completion of ACCT 201, ACCT 202, CIS 252; ECON 214, ECON 215; and MATH 177 and MATH 248.

The appropriate department within the School of Business, in cooperation with the Records Office, will monitor the standards for all declared majors and notify those students who fail to meet the requirements. The appropriate department within the School of Business will also establish and maintain an Appeals Committee to receive, review, and determine the outcome of petitions by students for retention under extenuating circumstances. Preregistration course reservations will be canceled for any student who has been notified that he or she no longer meets the retention standards.

HEALTH CARE ADMINISTRATION M.S.

Director: Marianne Raimondo

Faculty: Associate Professors Raimondo, Connolly; Assistant Professor Rampa

The M.S. in Health Care Administration (HCA) focuses on the organization, financing and management of health care organizations and the delivery of health care services in the United States. The program will prepare students for management careers in health care in the private and public sectors, including careers in public health, hospitals, long-term care, home/community-based care and health insurance. The program is also appropriate for those seeking positions in health policy. The curriculum focuses on leadership, performance improvement, organizational theory/behavior, health care finance and law.

Admission Requirements

1. Completed application form accompanied by a $50 nonrefundable application fee.
2. A Bachelor’s degree in Health Care Administration (HCA) or related field from an accredited college or university. Students with a bachelor’s degree in an unrelated field with relevant work experience may be considered for admission. For more information, contact program director.
3. Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate records.
4. Completion of the Graduate Management Admissions Test (GMAT) or Graduate Record Examination (GRE). A B.S. degree in HCA, health or human sciences, nursing or business from Rhode Island College or the University of Rhode Island, with a 3.00 G.P.A. in the major, will exempt the applicant from the GMAT/GRE.
5. A letter of intent including a statement of goals.
6. Three professional or academic references.

Retention Requirements

All students must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 at the end of the first year and an evaluation of Satisfactory or better in the Internship class. Students who do not have a minimum 3.0 GPA may not continue in the program. No course in which the student earns a grade below a C will get credit in the M.S. HCA program.

Accelerated B.S./M.S. Admission Option:
Undergraduate students matriculated at Rhode Island College can apply for conditional admission to the Master of Science in Operations Management program after completing 72 credits, at least 12 of which must be in Business courses taken at RIC. If conditionally admitted to the M.S. program, students will begin taking graduate courses after completing 90 undergraduate credits. Students will take MGT 455 and one 500-level Business course (i.e. MGT 530, MGT 536, MGT 537, MGT 542, MGT 543, MGT 544, MGT 545, MGT 546, MGT 547) which will count for both the B.S. and M.S. degrees. Additionally, students may take up to two additional 500 that will count towards only the M.S. degree. These courses will be taken in the student’s senior year which can include the early spring or summer sessions. If students are still in good standing upon completion of the B.S., they are fully admitted to the M.S. degree program, which could be completed in two semesters.

Application to the School of Nursing
Admission to the School of Nursing is highly competitive. The applicant’s academic performance, indicating potential for success as a nurse, is reviewed and considered carefully in the admission process. The criteria listed below are minimum admission requirements and do not guarantee admission to the nursing program. Students admitted to the college as freshmen are given preference. Transfer and second-degree candidates are welcome to apply for a limited number of spaces.

Application Requirements for All General Declared Nursing Majors
1. Completion of Enrollment Form signed by the faculty advisor and submitted to the School of Nursing by October 15 or April 15 of the preceding semester. Students may apply to the nursing program no more than three times if they were not accommodated. Students who receive a denial may apply twice.
2. Completion of the college mathematics competency and writing requirements.
3. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.00 on a 4.00 scale.
4. Completion of BIOL 231, CHEM 106, and PSYC 230, with a minimum grade of C; and a minimum overall grade point average of 2.67 (B-) in these courses.

Application Requirements for R.N. Students (with an associate’s degree in nursing or hospital diploma)
1. Admission to Rhode Island College through the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at www.commonapp.org and declaration of nursing as the major.
2. After acceptance to the College, completion of second Enrollment Form signed by the faculty advisor and submitted to the School of Nursing by November 15 or April 15 of the semester prior to NURS 316.
3. Completion of NURS 207 and NURS 225 with a minimum grade of C.
4. Completion of the college mathematics competency and writing requirements.
5. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.50.

Application Requirements for Second Degree Candidates
Second degree candidates must first apply to the college through the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at www.commonapp.org. Once all application materials are received and processed, a plan of study will be formulated with the B.S.N. program director. Acceptance as a second-degree student does not guarantee admission to the School of Nursing. The student should contact their nursing advisor regarding eligibility to make formal application to the school. Second degree candidates may petition to take the five beginning-level courses (NURS 220, NURS 222, NURS 223, NURS 224, and NURS 225) in one semester on a space-available basis if all cognate courses are completed.

Application Requirements for Registered Nurse Second Degree students applying to the R.N. to B.S.N. Program include submission of the application to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by June 1 for fall semester enrollment or by November 1 for spring semester enrollment. Once the application and all credentials have been received, the admissions office notifies the R.N. to B.S.N. candidate to schedule an appointment with the B.S.N. program director to determine the courses needed to meet the requirements for the second bachelor’s degree. Upon admission to the college, the R.N. to B.S.N. second-degree candidate will meet with an advisor to submit the second Enrollment Form to apply to the R.N. to B.S.N. Program.
Retention Requirements for All General Declared Nursing Majors
1. Completion of required prerequisite courses (cognate and nursing courses).
2. Completion of cognates before the junior year (intermediate level).
3. A minimum grade of C in each nursing course. Only one nursing course may be repeated. Students who sustain another failure (a grade below a C) in any nursing course will be dismissed from the program.
4. A minimum grade of C in each cognate course. Students with a grade of C- or below in a cognate course will have the option to progress in nursing (probationary status) for one semester while repeating the course in question.
5. Due to the rigors of the program and retention policies, enrollment in required nursing courses is limited to 12 credits per semester.
6. The School of Nursing will notify students who have not met the retention criteria. The faculty of the School of Nursing reserves the right to require withdrawal or dismissal of a student who shows evidence, academically or personally, of an inability to carry out professional responsibilities in nursing. Students are expected to adhere to the School of Nursing code of academic honesty. Students have the right to appeal through the Student Outcomes Committee and the dean of the School of Nursing.

Retention Requirements for RN Students
1. A minimum grade of C in each nursing course. Only one nursing course may be repeated. Students who sustain another failure (a grade below a C) in any nursing course will be dismissed from the program.
2. Due to the rigors of the program and retention policies, enrollment in required nursing courses is limited to 12 credits per semester.
3. The School of Nursing will notify students who have not met the retention criteria. The faculty of the School of Nursing reserves the right to require withdrawal or dismissal of a student who shows evidence, academically or personally, of an inability to carry out professional responsibilities in nursing. Students are expected to adhere to the School of Nursing code of academic honesty. Students have the right to appeal through the Student Outcomes Committee and the dean of the School of Nursing.

Health Requirements
Every year students must provide the Office of Health Services with evidence of a negative PPD test or compliance with treatment. Before beginning some clinical nursing courses, students may be expected to meet additional health requirements. All nursing students must provide the following documentation:
1. A physical examination.
2. Two measles immunizations.
3. One rubella (German measles) immunization.
4. One mumps immunization.
5. One dose of tetanus/diphtheria/pertussis (Tdap) if it has been two or more years since last dose of tetanus/diphthera (Td).
6. Hepatitis B vaccine (a series of three immunizations over a six-month period).
7. Two-step PPD (TB skin testing) within one year of starting clinical rotation.
8. Proof of chicken pox disease or immunization.
9. Influenza vaccine or declination form
Students will not be admitted to the first class meeting of a nursing practicum course without having complied with the health requirements. Proof of immunization may be obtained from your physician, high school, previous college or university, military record, and/or from blood titers. Nursing majors should follow the guidelines on the college immunization form or call College Health Services at (401) 456-8055 for further information. Once all required information has been entered into a student’s Patient Portal (instructions are on the Health Services website), and verified by Health Services, the student is able to print a document of their immunization status.

Clinical Placements
Clinical learning provides students with the opportunity to carry out nursing care for persons of all ages and in all stages of the health-illness spectrum. The School of Nursing retains the right to place and schedule students in appropriate clinical settings. Although every effort will be made to place all students, it is possible that in any given semester sufficient placements may not be available. Students in clinical courses are responsible for their own transportation to the clinical area. Affiliating agencies require students to consent to criminal background checks; therefore, students must have periodic Background Criminal Investigation (BCI) checks.

Licensure
Graduates of the nursing program are eligible to take NCLEX-RN for licensure as a registered nurse in any state. An applicant who has been convicted of a felony may not be awarded a license by the Rhode Island Board of Nurse Registration and Nursing Education. For more information, contact the dean of the School of Nursing.

Nursing Fee
The School of Nursing contracts with educational resource companies to provide students with comprehensive testing and review materials, which enhance the program. Nursing students are billed by the college each semester for these services.

Handbook
The School of Nursing Handbook for Undergraduate Students in Nursing provides detailed and essential information about the undergraduate nursing program. It is available online at www.ric.edu/nursing. Students must consult with their advisor each semester before registering for courses. ALL students must be certified for CPR each year.

POST MASTERS DOCTORATE IN NURSING PRACTICE, D.N.P.

Carolynn Masters, Dean, School of Nursing
Admission Requirements for All Post-Masters D.N.P. Students

Admission to the Doctor of Nursing Practice Program is competitive. Ideal candidates demonstrate a history of academic success, strong leadership, and potential for future success in leadership and practice scholarship. Specific requirements for admission include:

1. A completed application accompanied by a fifty-dollar nonrefundable application fee.
2. Current unrestricted Registered Nurse licensure in the state of intended practice.
3. Master’s of Science in Nursing (MSN) OR Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) and a masters degree in nursing or a related field
4. Attainment of a cumulative masters GPA of 3.0 or higher
5. Transcripts from all post-secondary schools attended
6. Completion of a graduate-level inferential statistics course within the past 5 years with a minimum grade of C is required prior to matriculation
7. Verification of the number of clinical/experience hours completed at the masters/graduate level
8. A statement of intent which should demonstrate the candidate’s leadership and practice experience, reasons for pursuing doctoral study, and the student’s potential area of focus for the DNP Scholarly Project. This statement should be representative of the applicant’s writing ability. The statement should be 2-4 pages, double-spaced, and written in 12-point font.
9. Current resume or curriculum vitae
10. Additional Requirements for International Students:
   a. Applicants with international degrees must have their transcripts evaluated for degree and grade equivalency to that of a regionally accredited institution in the United States.
   b. An official report of scores on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) from international applicants who are from countries where English is not the first language.

Retention Requirements for All General Declared Nursing Majors

Students who earn less than a B in a required nursing course will be placed on probationary status and must earn a minimum grade of B in all required nursing courses over the next 9 credits.

Handbook

The School of Nursing Handbook for Doctor of Nursing Practice Students provides detailed and essential information about the graduate nursing program. It is available online at www.ric.edu/dnp.

Subtotal: 36
The B.S.W. program is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education. Students must consult with their assigned academic advisor before they will be able to register for courses.

The social work major prepares students for bachelors-level social work practice. Students will graduate having completed sixteen months of internship in an agency recruited and approved by the faculty and staff and having learned the knowledge, values, and skills necessary for employment or graduate school. Students will focus on direct services and advocacy with a variety of populations including the elderly, children and families, people with developmental disabilities, people with mental illness and/or substance use challenges, survivors of trauma, people who are experiencing poverty or homelessness, and people in marginalized groups in our society based on their race, class, gender identity, nationality, religion, and sexual orientation.

This is the largest social work program in the state, large enough to ensure that the resources are there to support your success and small enough to ensure that you will know each of the faculty and each of the students in your graduating class.

College is not without its stress and pressure, and so we make an effort to create supports that encourage our students to describe the program as feeling “like a family.” We have high expectations and we are prepared to provide the support necessary to help you meet them.

Admission Requirements for the B.S.W. Program

1. Enrollment in SWRK 326.
2. Evidence of a combination of personal qualities considered essential to professional social work practice. Students must be capable of working with clients and communities with populations different from themselves, with people of different faiths, sexual orientations, and cultural norms. We seek students who can demonstrate responsiveness and sensitivity in relationships, commitment to improving social conditions, and the ability to function both independently and collectively with others.
3. A completed application during the first semester of the junior year, while enrolled in SWRK 326.
4. A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.00 on a 4.00 scale in undergraduate course work, and a minimum GPA of 2.67 in 300-level social work courses.

Students will apply with support from their instructor while enrolled in SWRK 326. Applications and support materials will be distributed during the meetings for this course. All students planning to proceed in the social work major and planning to enter the internship during the spring semester must complete an application. The application is a non-competitive process. Students are not competing against other students for a limited number of seats. Rather, students are asked to demonstrate that they meet the selection criteria listed above. Additional information and materials are available from the chair of the department.

Admission Requirements for the 5 year B.S.W./M.S.W. Program

Undergraduate students matriculated at Rhode Island College can apply for conditional admission to the Master’s in Social Work program after completing at least 65 credits, and admitted to the B.S.W. program. If conditionally admitted to the M.S.W. program, students will be required to take two 400 level practice courses in their senior year. In addition, conditionally admitted students are required to earn at least a C in each social work course and maintain an overall G.P.A. of 3.0. Students applying for the 5 year program must also submit an additional reference from a B.S.W. faculty member.

Retention Requirements

1. A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.00 on a 4.00 scale in undergraduate course work, and a minimum GPA of 2.67 in all 300-level social work courses. No student will be allowed to enter a subsequent semester if their GPA falls below these standards.
2. Students who receive a grade of C- or below in any required social work course must retake that course and receive at least a grade of C in order to proceed in the major. Students who receive a C- or below twice in the same course will be dismissed from the major. For additional information, see the School of Social Work B.S.W. Academic Manual available at the B.S.W. Office or on the School of Social Work Web site: www.ric.edu/socialwork/Pages/Bachelor-of-Social-Work-Program.aspx.
3. Students who receive an F in any required social work course or an initial grade of C- or below in any two required social work courses will be dismissed from the major.
4. Student performance and behavior must be in conformity with the school’s policy on professional behavior and the National Association of Social Workers Code of Ethics. The policy is available in the B.S.W. Academic Manual and the B.S.W. Field Manual (www.ric.edu/socialwork/Pages/Field-Education.aspx). The Code of Ethics is also discussed in courses. A copy of the B.S.W. Academic Standing Policy, including appeal procedures, is made available to students in the B.S.W. Academic Manual and the B.S.W. Field Manual.
Fieldwork

Social work majors enroll in fieldwork in both the junior and senior years. The first B.S.W. fieldwork experience takes place during the spring semester of the junior year. In the senior year, students may fulfill their 448-hour field requirement in one of the following ways:

1. Students may take SWRK 436 in the fall semester (minimum of 4 credit hours) and SWRK 437 in the spring semester (minimum of 4 credit hours). Credits are calculated on the basis of 4 hours per week for each credit hour; hence, students are in the field for 16 hours per week over the two semesters (total 448 hours).

2. Students may take the “extended field option”: SWRK 445 in the summer (120 hours of fieldwork plus 16 hours of seminar, for 3 credit hours), SWRK 446 in the fall semester (180 hours of fieldwork at 12 hours per week for 3 credit hours), and SWRK 447 in the spring semester (180 hours of fieldwork at 12 hours per week for 3 credit hours).

3. Students may take the “extended field option”: SWRK 445, SWRK 446, and SWRK 447 at the discretion of the department.

Honors

A Departmental Honors program is offered in social work. See Honors and Awards.

SOCIAL WORK M.S.W.

Jayashree Nimmagadda
Interim Dean, School of Social Work
M.S.W. Program Chair: Jennifer Meade
M.S.W. Program Faculty: Professors Evans, Mumm, Nimmagadda, Pearlmutter, Reamer, Siegel; Associate Professors Ghindia, Martell, Meade; Assistant Professors Aswood, Capobianco, Harvey, Mandayam, Oliveira

The M.S.W. program is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the School of Social Work is on a selective basis and is determined by the quality of the total application. The program expects applicants to meet the following requirements for admission. (Certain requirements may be waived under special circumstances; applicants must demonstrate sufficient cause in writing):

1. Evidence of a combination of personal qualities considered essential to professional social work practice. Students must be capable of working with clients and communities with populations different from themselves, with people of different faiths, sexual orientations, and cultural norms. We seek students who can demonstrate responsiveness and sensitivity in relationships, commitment to improving social conditions, and the ability to function both independently and collectively with others.

2. Baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution of higher learning. Students who have completed all but their last semester of baccalaureate work may also apply; however, their degree must be granted by August 15. Students who received their baccalaureate degree outside the United States may need to take and score above an 80 on the computerized TOEFL. See RIC Graduate Manual.

3. Evidence of the intellectual capacity to participate successfully in academic work at the graduate level. A diverse academic background with a liberal arts perspective that includes course work in the human biological sciences, humanities, mathematics, and social sciences. Specifically, an applicant is required to have:
   a. A minimum grade point average of 3.00 on a 4.00 scale in undergraduate work;
   b. At least 15 credit hours drawn from course work in anthropology, economics, political science, psychology, and sociology;
   c. Course work in human anatomy, human biology, or human physiology (course work is necessary; the CLEP Examination is not sufficient); and
   d. Course content in the humanities (English, language, philosophy, visual and performing arts, and Western and non-Western history).

4. A commitment to social work as a profession, which may be demonstrated by experience in the field. This experience may have been attained in a variety of ways, such as through volunteer work, fieldwork experience in conjunction with course work, life experiences, etc.

Admission Procedures

Applications to the social work program are completed using an online process. Follow this link to the CollegeNet application system www.applyweb.com/ricg/. Begin by creating an account, then follow directions to complete the application process. All parts of the application must be completed online. Applicants should have access to a computerized TOEFL and must demonstrate sufficient cause in writing.

1. A nonrefundable $50 application fee must be submitted or the applicant must present evidence of a fee waiver.
2. Transcripts. Applicants should scan and upload copies of transcripts from all undergraduate and graduate programs previously attended, including community colleges. Official transcripts can be submitted after notification of acceptance is made. The School of Social Work will obtain official transcripts for all work completed at Rhode Island College. Please note that the applicant must submit transcripts from every institution he or she attended.
3. Recommendation letters and forms. Applicants should provide names and email addresses within the online application for three letters of recommendation. Applicants seeking advanced standing should provide names and contact information for the director/chair, or advisor of their BSW program.
4. A personal statement. Typically six to eight double-spaced typewritten pages, the personal statement aids the Admission Committee in assessing the applicant’s qualifications for professional social work practice. Among these qualifications are: the ability to think analytically and conceptually; clarity in self-expression; responsiveness and sensitivity in minority and culturally diverse relationships; the ability to develop professional self-awareness and self-evaluation; commitment to improving social conditions; and the ability to function creatively, responsibly, and independently. Specifically, candidates should address the following questions in their personal statement:
   a. Tell us how your life experience have influenced your decision to pursue social work as a career.
   b. Social justice is a key component of social work’s mission. What social justice issues are important to you? Why?
   c. What experience have you had with oppressed populations (persons with racial, ethnic, sexual orientation, disabilities and other differences or similarities to you)? How has that experience influenced you and your decision to pursue social work?
   d. What do you see as your personal strengths and challenges as a professional social worker?
   e. Graduate social work education requires sophisticated writing and critical thinking skills. Discuss the reasons why you believe you will be able to meet the academic requirements of a rigorous graduate program? Include evidence that indicates you are able to do graduate level academic work successfully.
   f. If your grade point average is below 3.0 please discuss.
   g. If there are any gaps in your work history or short-term positions, please explain.

After preparing the personal statement, the applicant should scan and upload the document.

Admission Decision

Notice of acceptance will occur by April 15 for study beginning the following September. There are no midyear admissions. Within two weeks of receiving notification, accepted applicants must confirm in writing their intention to enroll in the program. Confirmation of acceptance should be addressed to the M.S.W. Department, School of Social Work. Upon accepting a place in the full-time, part-time, or advanced standing program (full or part time), the student is required to provide a nonrefundable one hundred dollar deposit, which will be applied against tuition charges for the first semester. Admitted applicants should also inform the program of any change of name or address.
Health Requirements
After being accepted, candidates are provided with an Admission Physical Examination Form, which must be completed and signed by a physician and returned directly to College Health Services before the candidate enrolls. As required by Rhode Island state law, all new entering students must present to College Health Services a certificate signed by a physician, attesting to their immunity to measles and rubella (German measles).

Advanced Standing Program
Preference in admission to advanced standing is given to students who have completed a B.S.W. during the last five years from a program accredited by the Council on Social Work Education. All students accepted into this program are expected to enroll in and successfully complete an online summer preparatory course. Advanced standing students should expect to pay $375 to participate in this class. Applicants who obtained a B.S.W. degree more than five years prior to their application year can still apply to the Advanced Standing Program.

Students who are granted admission to advanced standing are exempt from the foundation year, pending completion of comparable course work. Students in the program must complete 33 credit hours and may do so in one or two years.

Student Advisement
Shortly after initial registration, a member of the faculty is appointed as the student’s advisor. Thereafter, students plan their program in consultation with the advisor. Advisors assist students in developing their learning goals and objectives and in assessing their progress toward those objectives. Students are encouraged to confer with their advisors. Early in the first semester, prior to going into the concentration year(s), students in the full-time program will meet with their advisor and develop a plan of study, listing the required courses in the concentration and electives. The chair of the M.S.W. program provides advisement to students in the part-time program. Students must have an approved plan of study in order to proceed into the concentration year. Additional academic aids are available through college resources and/or special programs.

Grade Requirements
All students must have a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 3.00 at the end of the first year and an evaluation of Satisfactory or better in field education. Students who do not have the minimum 3.00 GPA may not continue in the program. No course in which the student earns a grade below a B- may be accepted for M.S.W. credit.

Full-Time Program
To achieve full-time status in either year, a student must register for field instruction and at least three courses each semester. Students who are admitted full time are expected to complete the program in two years. This would require that students register for 15 credits in their first semester, 14 credits in their second, 17.5 credits in their third, and 15.5 credits in their fourth. Students are encouraged to take at least one summer or early spring course to ease the third semester workload.

Part-Time Program
Applicants who intend to retain full-time employment while attending the M.S.W. program or who have significant responsibilities in other areas should apply to the part-time program. Admission requirements and procedures are the same as those for full-time study. Part-time students are normally expected to take a minimum of two courses during the academic year. A field placement will occur in a public or private nonprofit agency after the completion of 11 credit hours of course work. Degree requirements must be met within six years. At the discretion of the M.S.W. chair, students may switch from part-time to full-time study after completing the foundation year on a part-time basis.

Fieldwork
All students, except those in the advanced standing program, are required to complete SWRK 500 (240 hours), SWRK 501 (240 hours), SWRK 600 (300 hours), and SWRK 601 (300 hours) for a total of 1,080 hours. For full-time and part-time students, this is accomplished over two academic years. Students in the advanced standing program complete SWRK 600 (300 hours) and SWRK 601 (300 hours) for a total of 600 hours. All students are expected to be available during daytime hours (8 A.M.-5 P.M.) for at least one day during the week (Monday-Friday) for field experience.

All students must take the first-year placement concurrently with SWRK 532 and SWRK 533. All students in the Clinical concentration must take SWRK 602 and SWRK 603 concurrently with second-year field placement. Macro concentration students must take SWRK 628 and SWRK 629 concurrently with their second-year field placement. It is possible to do one year of fieldwork in the student’s place of employment, provided that the placement meets all the criteria for supervision and placement settings. Plans to do a placement in a student’s place of employment need to be discussed with and approved by the director of field education. For all continuing students, this approval must be obtained no later than April 1 for field placements to begin in September. For all incoming full-time students, this approval must be obtained no later than July 1 for placements to begin in September.

Course Numbering System

Courses Numbered 000–099 = Noncredit courses.
Courses Numbered 100–299 = Introductory and foundational knowledge courses normally taken in the undergraduate student’s initial years at the college.
Courses Numbered 300–399 = More advanced courses taken by undergraduate students. These courses are not accepted for credit toward graduate degrees.
Courses Numbered 400–499 = Most advanced courses, typically taken by seniors, and open to graduate students for credit toward graduate degrees. The number of credits acceptable in a graduate program is limited by graduate program policies.
Courses Numbered 500–599 = Courses open to graduate students. Normally these courses require a bachelor’s degree as a prerequisite. In certain circumstances, qualified undergraduate students who have earned at least 90 credit hours may be admitted, with documented consent of the instructor and the appropriate dean.
Courses Numbered 600–699 = Courses open to graduate and doctoral students only.
Courses Numbered 700–799 = Courses open to graduate and doctoral students only.

* Courses numbered 300 and above must have a prerequisite.
* In general, when the middle digit of a course number is 6, the course is a seminar or a General Education Core course; 8, a workshop; 9, directed study.
* Courses ending with an E are only open to Early Enrollment Program high school students.

Contact Hours

A number in parentheses appearing before the credit hours for a course indicates that the number of “contact hours” per week—time required in class, studio, or laboratory—differs from the number of credit hours.

Credit Hours

The number of “credit hours” specified for each course indicates both the number of credits it carries and the approximate total number of clock hours it meets each week.

Frequency of Course Offerings

Listed with each course description is the normal frequency with which the course is offered. For example, a course that is typically offered every fall semester carries the notation “Offered fall.” For complete and current information on course offerings, including dates, times, locations, and instructors, students are advised to consult both the Summer/Fall and Spring Course Bulletins.

Courses with Variable Content

Most departments offer a variety of topic courses (X50), seminar courses (X60), and workshop courses (X80), for which the content and credit hours are announced each semester. Departments may offer independent study courses (X9Y). The level of study, for example, 19Y, 29Y, 39Y, etc., will depend on what is appropriate in terms of the project and the student. These courses may be repeated for credit with a change in content.
ACCT - Accounting

ACCT 201 - Principles of Accounting I: Financial (3)
The identification, measurement, and reporting of the financial effects of economic events on enterprises are examined. Lecture and laboratory. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ACCT 202 - Principles of Accounting II: Managerial (3)
A continuation of ACCT 201, topics include accounting for corporations, liabilities, cash flow statements, cost accounting in a manufacturing environment, budgeting, and profit analysis for decision making. Lecture and laboratory. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ACCT 201.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ACCT 310 - Accounting Systems and Concepts (3)
Accounting systems are introduced, with emphasis on the accounting cycle through the preparation of statements. Students work with general ledger software and spreadsheet applications. Lecture and laboratory. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits, ACCT 201 and CIS 251 or CIS 252.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ACCT 311W - External Reporting I (3)
Accounting concepts, standards, principles, and practices in financial reporting for business entities are studied. Topics include assets, liabilities, and stockholder equity. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course. Lecture and laboratory. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and ACCT 310, with a minimum grade of C.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ACCT 312W - External Reporting II (3)
A continuation of ACCT 311, topics include revenue recognition, pensions, accounting for income taxes, leases, cash flow statements, and financial analysis. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course. Lecture and laboratory. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits, ACCT 310 (with a minimum grade of C) and ACCT 311W.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ACCT 321 - Cost Management I (3)
Focus is on internal accounting information and decision support systems that provide data and reports for product costing and management decision making. Lecture and laboratory. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Junior standing, ACCT 202 and ACCT 310, with a minimum grade of C.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer (as needed).

ACCT 331 - Federal Income Taxation (3)
Federal income tax law is introduced, with emphasis on individuals. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and ACCT 201 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ACCT 351 - Fraud Examination (3)
Prospective managers and auditors study the extent and significance of fraudulent activity, gaining understanding of the methods and techniques for prevention and detection.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and ACCT 201.
Offered: Fall.

ACCT 353 - Accounting for Governmental and Not-for-Profit Organizations (3)
A conceptual foundation is provided for understanding the accounting and financial reporting of governmental and not-for-profit organizations.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and ACCT 202.
Offered: Spring.

ACCT 422 - Cost Management II (3)
The use of internal accounting data and reporting in the management decision-making process is examined. Lecture and laboratory. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ACCT 321.
Offered: Spring.

ACCT 432 - Advanced Studies in Taxation (3)
The coverage of choice of an entity and the uses of the life-cycle approach to study these entities are expanded upon. Lecture and laboratory. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ACCT 331.
Offered: Fall.

ACCT 441 - Auditing (3)
Current audit theory and practice are surveyed. A cycle approach is used to demonstrate audit procedures. Topics may include legal liability, ethical standards, audit planning and reporting, and audit risk.
Prerequisite: ACCT 310 (with a minimum grade of C), ACCT 311 or ACCT 311W; CIS 252.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ACCT 443 - Business Law (3)
Fundamental principles of the law of contracts, sales, property, commercial paper, and bankruptcy are examined. Forms of business organizations, regulations, and accountants’ liability are also covered.
Prerequisite: ACCT 201 and completion of at least 60 college credits.
Offered: Fall, Spring.
ACCT 451 - Advanced Financial Accounting (3)
Emphasis is on business consolidations and the external reporting of consolidated financial information in the published financial statements of large publicly owned corporations. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ACCT 311 or ACCT 311W and ACCT 312 or ACCT 312W.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ACCT 461W - Seminar in Accounting Theory and Practice (3)
The development of accounting theory, major influences on accounting theory, and the application of accounting theory in the resolution of reporting issues are explored.
Prerequisite: ACCT 312 or ACCT 312W, ACCT 321, ACCT 331; FIN 301.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ACCT 467 - Directed Internship (4)

This is an introduction to the techniques and theory of anthropological fieldwork. Students engage in hands-on research. Students may conduct independent/collaborative research under the direction of an instructor. Prerequisite: Completion of at least 75 college credits and consent of Instructor or department chair. Offered: As needed.

ANTH 490 - Independent Study in Anthropology (1-4)
This is an introduction to the techniques and theory of anthropological fieldwork. Students engage in hands-on research. Students may conduct independent/collaborative research under the direction of an instructor. Prerequisite: Completion of at least 75 college credits and consent of Instructor or department chair. Offered: As needed.

ANTH 491 - Independent Study I (4)
This course continues the development of research or activity begun in ANTH 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment from the department. Prerequisite: ANTH 491, and consent of instructor, department chair and dean. Offered: As needed.

ANTH 492 - Independent Study II (4)
This course continues the development of research or activity begun in ANTH 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment from the department. Prerequisite: ANTH 491, and consent of instructor, department chair and dean. Offered: As needed.

ANTH 493 - Internships in Anthropology (1-8)
Students are placed in positions appropriate to their studies in anthropology, such as in museums and historical preservation agencies. A program of study is designed by the student and supervised by a faculty member.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits and consent of instructor and department chair.
Offered: As needed.

ANTH 561 - LatinX in the United States (4)
Students examine recent scholarship on LatinX in the United States and undertake research projects that focus on LatinX educational issues. Students cannot receive credit for both ANTH 561 or FNED 561. Prerequisite: Graduate status and any 300-level social or behavioral science course, or consent of department chair. Cross-Listed as: FNED 561. Offered: Annually.

ARBC - Arabic

ARBC 101 - Elementary Arabic I (4)
Students learn to understand, speak, read, and write in basic Modern Standard Arabic and gain an understanding of the diversity of Arabic life. Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARBC 102 - Elementary Arabic II (4)
Four skills in Modern Standard Arabic—speaking, reading, writing, and listening comprehension—are further developed within the context of Arabic-speaking cultures. Prerequisite: ARBC 101 or equivalent. Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART - Art

ART 101 - Drawing I: General Drawing (4)
The fundamentals and history of freehand drawing are explored. Observational analysis of forms and space, media characteristics, and pictorial organization approaches are stressed. Studio. 6 contact hours. General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing. Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 104 - Design I: Two-Dimensional Design (4)
Two-dimensional compositional strategies are applied through intuitive and logical organization of visual elements. Students also develop basic problem-solving skills while learning to think visually. Studio. 6 contact hours. General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing. Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 105 - Drawing II (3)
Drawing from the human figure is introduced, including basic anatomy, general nomenclature, and consideration of various artistic problems. Students work from live models, the skeleton, and anatomy texts. Studio fee charged. 6 contact hours. Prerequisite: ART 101. Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 107 - Foundations in Digital Media (3)
Combines and extends elements from ART 101 and ART 104 with more advanced exploration and research of digital still and moving images for art making. Includes digital photography shooting lab. Studio fee charged. 6 contact hours. Prerequisite: ART 101 and ART 104. Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 114 - Design II: Three-Dimensional Design (4)
The sequential development of planar and volumetric forms in real space provide the basis for study of visual structure. The role that media, process, and problem solving have in the development of form are also covered. Studio. 6 contact hours. Prerequisite: ART 104. Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 202 - Painting I (3)
The techniques of oil painting are introduced. Color, value, line, form, texture, and compositional problems are explored by observing objects and nature. Studio fee charged. 6 contact hours. Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205. Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 204 - Synthesis/Three-Dimensional Emphasis (3)
Using three-dimensional techniques, a synthesis of the skills and concepts developed in the previous four foundation courses is realized. The interaction of two- and three-dimensional approaches is stressed. Includes wood shop lab. Studio fee charged. 6 contact hours. Prerequisite: ART 105 and ART 114. Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 205 - Synthesis/Two-Dimensional Emphasis (3)
Emphasis is on the synthesis of basic drawing language and fundamental design skills. Extended possibilities for the manipulation of materials and the conceptual aspects of image construction are stressed. Studio fee charged. 6 contact hours. Prerequisite: ART 105 and ART 114. Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 206 - Ceramics I (3)
Basic hand-building methods and simple direct decoration techniques are introduced. Students explore clay, glaze materials, and firing procedures at earthenware temperatures. Studio fee charged. 6 contact hours. Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205 is prerequisite for art department majors. Nonart department majors must have consent of department chair. Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 207 - Digital Media II (3)
Students learn a wide range of digital techniques for 2D time-based works. Class demos and critiques focus on the use of such techniques in contemporary video art world. Studio fee charged. 6 contact hours. Prerequisite: ART 107 and concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205. Offered: Fall, Spring.
ART 208 - Printmaking: Intaglio and Monotype (3)
The materials and techniques of monotype and intaglio printmaking are introduced, with emphasis on the aesthetic and conceptual possibilities of various approaches. Studio fee charged. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205.
Offered: Spring.

ART 210 - Nurturing Artistic and Musical Development (4)
This hands-on art and music course provides students with experiences, knowledge, skills, and ideas for cultivating artistic development in their own lives and the lives of others. No prior artistic experience required. Studio fee charged.
General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 217 - Introduction to Photography (3)
Emphasis is on the expressive potential of the medium through the creative use of theory, camera controls, and darkroom procedures. Print quality is stressed. Studio fee charged. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205 is prerequisite for art department majors. Nonart department majors must have consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 218 - Printmaking: Lithography and Relief (3)
The materials and techniques of relief and lithographic printmaking are introduced, with emphasis on the aesthetic and conceptual possibilities of various approaches. Studio fee charged. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 221 - Metalsmithing and Jewelry: Basic Fabrication/Forming Processes (3)
Fabrication and forming processes are studied, with emphasis on the development of design concepts and skills in their application to the studio practice of metalsmithing and jewelry. Studio fee charged. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 223 - Metalsmithing and Jewelry: Casting/Duplication Processes (3)
Casting and its application in the design and production of jewelry and small art metal forms are studied using a variety of waxes and techniques to develop models. Studio fee charged. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 224 - Graphic Design I (3)
Students research concept, preliminary forms, analysis, and basic studio and computer skills. Included are conceptual and visual problem-solving and graphic design theory related to creative organization of space using typography and image. Studio fee charged. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ART 107 and concurrent enrollment in or completion of ART 204 or ART 205 are prerequisites for art department majors. Nonart department majors must have consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ART 225 - Figurative Modeling (3)
Elements that emphasize three-dimensional aspects of the figure and the development of figurative concepts are realized through modeling and drawing. Studio. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ART 105.

ARTE 407 - Elementary Practicum in Art Education (4)
Multiple perspectives, practices and resources for elementary art education are investigated. Students practice creating, teaching and assessing art lessons for children. Includes observations and supervised teaching experiences in PK-5 settings.
Prerequisite: Admission to the art education teacher preparation program, ARTE 301, ARTE 302, and six studio foundation courses: ART 101, ART 104, ART 105, ART 107, ART 114, and either ART 204 or ART 205.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 409 - Secondary Practicum in Art Education (4)
Multiple perspectives, practices and resources for secondary art education are investigated. Students practice creating, teaching and assessing art lessons for adolescents. Includes observations and supervised teaching experiences in grades 6-12 settings.
Prerequisite: ARTE 407 and 33 credits hours of art courses.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 407 - Elementary Practicum in Art Education (4)
Multiple perspectives, practices and resources for elementary art education are investigated. Students practice creating, teaching and assessing art lessons for children. Includes observations and supervised teaching experiences in PK-5 settings.
Prerequisite: Admission to the art education teacher preparation program, ARTE 301, ARTE 302, and six studio foundation courses: ART 101, ART 104, ART 105, ART 107, ART 114, and either ART 204 or ART 205.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 409 - Secondary Practicum in Art Education (4)
Multiple perspectives, practices and resources for secondary art education are investigated. Students practice creating, teaching and assessing art lessons for adolescents. Includes observations and supervised teaching experiences in grades 6-12 settings.
Prerequisite: ARTE 407 and 33 credit hours of art courses.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 420 - Introduction to Art Education Student Teaching (3)
Teacher candidates will participate in a three-week clinical preparation in the field. This induction phase will orient art education teacher candidates to their student teaching. Includes observational and teaching experiences. Graded S, U.
ARTE 421 - Art in the Elementary School (3)
The objectives of an art program in the elementary grades are considered as well as the means of developing, presenting, encouraging, and evaluating programs.
Prerequisite: ARTE 340 or elementary teaching experience, and consent of instructor.
Offered: As needed.

ARTE 426 - Student Teaching in Art Education (7)
In this culminating clinical experience, teacher candidates complete teaching experiences in elementary and secondary schools under the supervision of cooperating teachers and a college supervisor. This is a full-time experience. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in ARTE 420 and ARTE 464; satisfactory completion of all major and professional courses required prior to student teaching; special departmental requirements; a cumulative G.P.A. of 2.75 a full semester prior to student teaching; passing score(s) on the Praxis II, approved Preparing to Teach Portfolio; completion of the community service requirement; and a negative result from the required tuberculin test.
Offered: Spring.

ARTE 464 - Student Teaching Seminar in Art Education (3)
Teaching concepts, lesson plan development, and evaluation for teaching and learning within PK-12 school contexts, including through video analysis, and establish professional goals for agency as beginning art teachers.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in ARTE 420 and ARTE 464.
Offered: Spring.

ARTE 501 - Graduate Art Education Concepts and Contexts (3)
Students are introduced to the field of art education. Concepts of art teaching and learning, artistic development, and a diversity of contexts for art education are investigated. Includes clinical experiences.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 502 - Graduate Art Curriculum Design and Assessment (3)
Prospective art educators develop theoretical and practical knowledge related to art curriculum design, art lesson planning, and art teaching and assessment methods. Contemporary education environments and current social/education issues are considered.
Prerequisite: ARTE 501 or concurrent enrollment in ARTE 501.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 503 - Graduate Introduction to Art Education (3)
Prospective art educators are oriented to the field of art as a discipline and to concepts of teaching and learning in art. Included are graduate-level research projects as well as observational and studio experiences.
Prerequisite: Application or acceptance into the M.A.T. in art education program.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 504 - Graduate Secondary Practicum in Art Education (3)
Teaching concepts, lesson plan development, and evaluation for secondary art instruction are studied through readings, discussions, observations in secondary school art classrooms and introductory teaching experiences. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: CEP 552, prior or concurrent enrollment in ARTE 503, and acceptance into the M.A.T. in art education program.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 505 - Graduate Elementary Practicum in Art Education (3)
Artistic development, teaching models, and curriculum development for elementary school art instruction are studied through readings, discussions, observations in elementary school art classrooms, and introductory teaching experiences. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and ARTE 504.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 507 - Graduate Elementary Practicum in Art Education (4)
Multiple perspectives, practices, and resources for elementary art education are investigated. Students practice creating, teaching, and assessing art lessons for children. Includes observations and supervised teaching experiences in PK-Gr.5 settings.
Prerequisite: ARTE 501 and ARTE 502, and concurrent enrollment in SPED 531.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 509 - Graduate Secondary Practicum in Art Education (4)
Multiple perspectives, practices, and resources for secondary art education are investigated. Students practice creating, teaching, and assessing art lessons for adolescents. Includes observations and supervised teaching experiences in Gr.6-12 settings.
Prerequisite: ARTE 507.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 515 - Curriculum in Art Education (3)
Curriculum theory and development of art programs at elementary and secondary schools are identified, analyzed, and critiqued. Initiatives for site-specific curriculum development or revision are begun. Seminar.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

ARTE 520 - Graduate Art Education Student Teaching Introduction (2)
Teacher candidates will participate in a three-week clinical preparation in the field. This induction phase will orient art education teacher candidates to their student teaching. Includes observational and teaching experiences. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in ARTE 527 and ARTE 565.
Offered: Early Spring.

ARTE 525 - Graduate Student Teaching in Art Education (10)
In this culminating field experience, candidates complete a teaching experience in an elementary and secondary school under the supervision of cooperating teachers and a college supervisor. This is a full-semester assignment. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, ARTE 505, CEP 552, FNED 546; concurrent enrollment in ARTE 562; a cumulative GPA of 3.00 a full semester prior to student teaching; satisfactory completion of all required courses in the M.A.T. program in art education prior to student teaching; a minimum grade of C+ in all professional education courses; passing score(s) on the Praxis II, approved Preparing to Teach Portfolio; and a negative result from the required tuberculin test.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 527 - Graduate Student Teaching in Art Education (5)
In this culminating field experience, candidates complete a teaching experience in an elementary and secondary school under the supervision of cooperating teachers and a college supervisor. This is a full-semester assignment. Graded S, U.

Prerequisite: Graduate status, ARTE 509, CEP 552, FNED 546; concurrent enrollment in ARTE 520 and ARTE 565; a cumulative G.P.A. of 3.00 a full semester prior to student teaching; satisfactory completion of all required courses in the M.A.T. program in art education prior to student teaching; a minimum grade of B in all professional education courses; passing score(s) on the Praxis II, approved Preparing to Teach Portfolio; and a negative result from the required tuberculin test.

Offered: Spring.

ARTE 562 - Graduate Seminar in Student Teaching in Art Education (2)
Teacher behaviors appropriate to effective teaching are developed. Topics include classroom and time management, effective communication, learning styles, and teaching strategies. This seminar meets weekly.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and concurrent enrollment in ARTE 525.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 565 - Graduate Art Education Student Teaching Seminar (2)
Teacher candidates document, analyze, discuss, and reflect upon art teaching and learning within PK-Gr.12 school contexts, including through video analysis, and establish professional goals for agency as beginning art teachers.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and concurrent enrollment in ARTE 520 and ARTE 527.

Offered: Spring.

ARTE 591 - Readings and Research in Art Education (3)
Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research under the supervision of a faculty advisor.

Prerequisite: Graduate status consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ARTE 595 - Research to Inform Art Education Practice (2)
Under the supervision of a faculty advisor, students prepare to complete the Art Education MAT Capstone Project by conducting a focused investigation on a selected topic related to the TCWS.

Prerequisite: ARTE 507 or concurrent enrollment in ARTE 507.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

ARTE 613 - Research and Evaluation in Art (3)
Art research and evaluation are analyzed for design, methodology, and conceptual foundations. Emphasis is on interpreting, understanding, and critiquing original research or evaluation projects in art or art education.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ARTM - Art Media

ARTM 521 - Electronic Media Production I (4)
Studies visual aspects of web design, development and production, including typography, images, color, structure, HTML, CSS and Javascript. Students learn contemporary design techniques for planning, building, promoting and testing websites. Studio. 6 contact hours.

Prerequisite: Graduate status.

Offered: Fall.

ARTM 522 - Electronic Media Production II (4)
Study is made of the hypermedia environment as an interactive synthesis of diverse elements, including text, sound, moving and still photography, video, and animation. Studio. 6 contact hours.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and ARTM 521.

Offered: Spring.

ARTM 523 - Digital Portfolio I (4)
Students develop a personal vision and learn to conceive, design, and produce hypermedia projects. Various media models are tested against topics. Students also prepare their proposals for ARTM 524. Studio. 6 contact hours.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and ARTM 522.

Offered: Fall.

ARTM 524 - Digital Portfolio II (4)
In this capstone course, students consolidate their skills, while focusing on a specific topic and format. Studio. 6 contact hours.

Prerequisite: Graduate status, ARTM 523 and a written proposal submitted to and accepted by the instructor.

Offered: Spring.

ARTM 532 - Media Ethics (4)
The ethical context of contemporary media is examined.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the M.A. in art with concentration in media studies program or graduate status and consent of instructor and department chair. Undergraduates who have completed at least 90 college credits may enroll with documented consent of the instructor, department chair, and appropriate dean.

Offered: As needed.

ARTM 541 - Media Aesthetics (4)
The theoretical study of aesthetic principles and creative uses of media as art forms and not simply as transmission devices are presented. Students also examine theories governing the aesthetics of visual communication media.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the M.A. in art with concentration in media studies program or graduate status and consent of instructor and department chair. Undergraduates who have completed at least 90 college credits may enroll with documented consent of the instructor, department chair, and appropriate dean.

Offered: As needed.

ARTM 542 - Media Culture and Theory I (4)
From a historico-theoretical foundation, students analyze new media and the transformations of traditional media into its recent electronic incarnations.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the M.A. in art with concentration in media studies program or graduate status and consent of instructor and department chair. Undergraduates who have completed at least 90 college credits may enroll with documented consent of the instructor, department chair, and appropriate dean.

Offered: Spring.

ARTM 543 - Media Culture and Theory II (4)
From a theoretical foundation, students examine new media, evolving technologies, and the changes in culture, society, and media that have accompanied the rise of the computer and postmodernism.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the M.A. in art with concentration in media studies program or graduate status and consent of instructor and department chair. Undergraduates who have completed at least 90 college credits may enroll with documented consent of the instructor, department chair, and appropriate dean.

Offered: Spring.

ARTM 579 - Media Studies Internship (1-4)
Students gain a more comprehensive understanding of electronic media through on-the-job training. Instruction, supervision, and practice in professional careers and specialties are provided.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the M.A. in art with concentration in media studies program or graduate status and consent of instructor and department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ARTM 590 - Directed Study in Media Studies (4)
Students conduct independent research in new media and/or engage in independent electronic media production under the supervision of a faculty member.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the M.A. in art with concentration in media studies program and consent of instructor and department chair.

Offered: As needed.

ARTM 691 - Thesis in Media Studies (4)
Students research and complete their thesis project under the direction of their thesis advisor. Credit for this course is contingent on final approval of the thesis.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the M.A. in art with concentration in media studies program and consent of instructor and department chair.

Offered: As needed.

BLBC - Bilingual Bicultural Education

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS NEED SPECIAL PERMISSION TO ENROLL IN GRADUATE COURSES. SEE COLLEGE HANDBOOK FOR DETAILS.

BLBC 515 - Foundations of Education in Bilingual Communities (3)
This course examines critical theoretical frameworks and relevant research and policy for working with bilingual communities and emergent bilingual learners. Emphasis is placed on action and advocacy.
Prerequisite: Graduate status.

BLBC 516 - Pedagogy and Practice in Bilingual Education (3)
This course reviews current pedagogy and practice in bilingual education settings through a critical lens.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and BLBC 515; TESL 539; TESL 541 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

BLBC 517 - Curriculum Issues in Bilingual-Bicultural Education (3)
Curriculum issues relating to second-language acquisition at both the elementary and secondary levels are identified and analyzed. Curriculum models are researched and evaluated.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and BLBC 547 or TESL 546.

Offered: As needed.

BLBC 518 - Biliteracy Instruction for Emergent Bilingual Learners (3)
Current theories of bilingualism and biliteracy are examined and situated in sociocultural and historical contexts. Pedagogies for developing bilingual readers and writers are also addressed, with attention to oral proficiency.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and BLBC 515; TESL 539; TESL 541 or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

BLBC 539 - Language Acquisition and Learning (3)
Theory and research relating to first- and second-language acquisition and learning are examined from a pedagogical perspective. Students cannot receive credit for both BLBC 539 and TESL 539.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and 6 credit hours of teacher education courses or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

BLBC 547 - Concepts in Bilingual-Bicultural Education (3)
Methods and materials relating to bilingual and bicultural learning situations at all levels are examined and compared. Essential components of a bilingual-bicultural program are identified and implemented.
Offered: As needed.

BLBC 553 - Field Supervision: Bilingual Education and TESOL (1)
Prerequisite: TESL 553 and consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

BLBC 562 - Seminar in Bilingual Education (3)
Focus is on developing appropriate investigative skills and methodologies in conducting bilingual classroom-centered research. Students attend weekly seminar discussions.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and 24 credit hours of graduate courses, including BLBC 517 and BLBC 547.

Offered: As needed.
BIOL - Biology

BIOL 100 - Fundamental Concepts of Biology (4)
Unifying concepts from various levels of biological organization are considered. This course is for students pursuing studies other than the natural sciences. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours. Not open to biology and clinical laboratory science majors. Students cannot receive credit for both BIOL 100 and BIOL 109.
General Education Category: Natural Science.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 103 - Human Biology (3)
The fundamental principles and concepts of biology as they pertain to the human organism are introduced. This course is intended for students who are pursuing studies in areas other than the natural sciences. Lecture.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 108 - Basic Principles of Biology (4)
Basic biological principles are introduced. This course prepares students for courses in anatomy, physiology, and microbiology. Lecture and laboratory (dissection included). 6 contact hours. Not open to biology majors.
General Education Category: Natural Science.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 111 - Introductory Biology I (4)
Emphasis is on the molecular and cellular nature of living systems. This course is intended for science majors and any student with an interest in science. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
General Education Category: Natural Science.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 112 - Introductory Biology II (4)
Emphasis is on organismal and ecological levels of organization. This course is intended for science majors and any student with an interest in science. Lecture and laboratory (dissection included). 6 contact hours.
General Education Category: Natural Science.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 with a minimum grade of C-.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 213W - Plant and Animal Form and Function (4)
Students explore multicellularity by examining the anatomical and physiological adaptations of plants and animals to the common challenges of life. Mathematical problem-solving and scientific writing skills are practiced throughout. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a minimum grade of C.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

BIOL 221 - Genetics ()
Offered: Fall

BIOL 231 - Human Anatomy (4)
By using a systematic approach, study is made of the human organism with respect to the histological and gross anatomy. Lecture and laboratory (dissection included). 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, or BIOL 108, with a grade of C or better.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 240 - Biostatistics (4)
Elementary probability theory serves as a foundation to learn research design, sampling, hypothesis testing, and statistical inferences in biology. Students use SPSS to statistically analyze problems typical of biological research.
Prerequisite: Completion of college mathematics competency and a grade of C or better in BIOL 100, BIOL 108 or BIOL 112.
Offered: Spring.

BIOL 241 - Biology Research Colloquium (0.5)
Students attend formal scientific research seminars given by invited outside speakers from diverse fields of biology. Students discuss the research with the speaker and their peers. This course must be taken for two semesters. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, or BIOL 108, with a grade of C or better.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

BIOL 261 - The World's Forests (4)
Interactions between people and the three major types of forests of the world (boreal, temperate, and tropical) are explored from historical, ecological, cultural, socioeconomic, environmental, and ethical perspectives.
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H, and at least 45 credits.
Offered: Fall (even years).

BIOL 314 - Genetics (4)
A balanced treatment of classical Mendelian concepts, population topics, and the recent advances in molecular genetics are presented. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better.
Offered: Fall.

BIOL 318 - Ecology (4)
The ecosystem is introduced. Emphasis is on how the interaction of environmental factors has shaped, influenced, and controlled the distribution of biomes, communities, and populations. Lecture, laboratory, and field trips. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better.
Offered: Fall.

BIOL 320 - Cell and Molecular Biology (4)
The structure and function of cells as living units are presented. Cell metabolism, reproduction, and steady-state controls are discussed. The biochemical and ultrastructural nature of cells is examined. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111, BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, BIOL 314; CHEM 205.
Offered: Spring.

BIOL 321 - Invertebrate Zoology (4)
Study is made of common invertebrate types, their life histories, adaptive morphology, and physiology, with respect to their environment and to their phylogenetic position. Lecture and laboratory.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 324 - Vertebrate Zoology (4)
The origin, evolution, life history, and adaptation of the subphylum vertebrata are studied. Local fauna is stressed in the laboratory. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 329 - Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy (4)
Comparison of the anatomy and functions of the vertebrates from the evolutionary point of view is presented. Included is detailed dissection of selected representatives from five classes of vertebrates. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 330 - Developmental Biology of Animals (4)
A descriptive and experimental approach is applied to animal ontogeny, with consideration of cell fate determination, differentiation, morphogenesis, and pattern formation. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 335 - The Plant Kingdom (4)
The major groups of plants are surveyed, with emphasis on evolutionary aspects, reproductive strategies, and ecological interrelationships. Structural features of plant cells, tissues, and organs are emphasized. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, or consent of instructor.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 353 - The Plant Kingdom (4)
The major groups of plants are surveyed, with emphasis on evolutionary aspects, reproductive strategies, and ecological interrelationships. Structural features of plant cells, tissues, and organs are emphasized. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, or consent of instructor.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 354 - Plant Growth and Development (4)
Topics include photophysiology, nitrogen metabolism, phytohormones, translocation, mineral nutrition, and the anatomical structures associated with these processes. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 and BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, or consent of instructor.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 421 - Biochemistry of Energy Metabolism (3)
The physical and chemical properties of carbohydrates and lipids are presented. Students cannot receive credit for both BIOL 421 and CHEM 421. Lecture.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency, CHEM 206 and either BIOL 320 or CHEM 310.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 429 - Medical Microbiology (4)
This is a study of medically important microorganisms, with emphasis on the molecular mechanisms of pathogenicity. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: BIOL 348; CHEM 205, CHEM 206.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 431 - Immunology (3)
This is a study of animal immune responses, with emphasis on the properties of antigens and immunoglobulins, cellular communication, pathology, and the development and regulation of humoral and cellular immunity. Lecture.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111, BIOL 112 with a grade of C or better, and BIOL 314.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 435 - Comparative Animal Physiology (3)
This is an exploration of diverse physiological adaptations to environmental conditions. Particular emphasis is placed on the wide variety of mechanisms that animals use to cope with diverse environmental conditions.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111, BIOL 112 with a grade of C or better; CHEM 205; or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 440 - Evolution (3)
An interdisciplinary approach is used to examine evolutionary trends of plants and animals, the origin of life, molecular evolution, and speciation. Lecture.
Prerequisite: BIOL 314.
Offered: As needed.
BIOL 443 - Fundamentals of Neurobiology (4)
A comprehensive survey of central nervous system (CNS) biology is presented. Emphasis is placed on molecular, cellular and physiological processes of the nervous system. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111, BIOL 112 and BIOL 314.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 445 - Behavioral Neuroscience (4)
Advanced assessment of neural systems and function is presented, with an emphasis on techniques and laboratory approaches. Neuroscience labs include anatomical, physiological, pharmacological, genetic, and behavioral analyses in animal models. Credit cannot be received for both PSYC 445 and BIOL 445. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency, PSYC 110, PSYC 221 and PSYC 345.
Offered: Annually.

BIOL 460 - Biology Senior Seminar (3)
Topics covering the breadth of biology content are synthesized in this capstone experience. Skills emphasized are writing and oral presentation in science. A content examination and literature review are required. Graded H, S, U. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: Senior status (90 credit hours successfully completed), BIOL 111, BIOL 112, with a grade of C or better, BIOL 314, BIOL 318, BIOL 320; or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

BIOL 491-494 - Research in Biology (1)
The experimental aspects and recent advances in different fields of biology are examined. Research projects and papers on the work accomplished are required. Not open to students enrolled in the M.A. program in biology.
Prerequisite: Two 300-level biology courses and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 526 - Molecular Cell Physiology (3)
Topics may include solution chemistry, membrane structure, gene regulation, homeostasis, and cell organelle structure and function. Lecture.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, BIOL 320, CHEM 205, CHEM 206.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 531 - Mammalian Endocrinology (4)
Topics include neuroendocrinology, hypothalamic-pituitary relationships, mechanisms of hormone action, endocrine aspects of reproduction, carbohydrate metabolism, calcium homeostasis, and water/electrolyte balance. Lecture.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, two 300-level or above biology courses and consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 532 - Advanced Developmental Biology (4)
The molecular regulation of development, differentiation, control of the cell cycle, and regeneration are examined, with emphasis on recent research. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, BIOL 314, BIOL 320, BIOL 330, or equivalents.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 533 - Research Methods in Molecular Biology (4)
Students undertake a single semester-long research project, which requires the integration of diverse biological facts, principles, and techniques in order to answer a novel biological question.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or senior undergraduate status, with consent of department instructor, chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

BIOL 535 - Advanced Physiology I (4)
Examination of human physiology and pathophysiology in relationship to anesthesia practice. This course will utilize a systems approach to the topics of cellular physiology, neurophysiology, cardiovascular and respiratory physiology.
Prerequisite: Enrollment in the M.S.N. nurse anesthesia program or permission of the instructor.
Offered: Fall.

BIOL 536 - Advanced Physiology II (4)
Continuation of the examination of human physiologic concepts. This course will utilize a systems approach to the topics of renal and acid-base, gastrointestinal, and endocrine concepts.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and BIOL 535.
Offered: Spring.

BIOL 560 - Graduate Seminar (1)
Students investigate a current biological topic using primary literature and develop skills that contribute to effective oral and written presentations in science.
Prerequisite: Graduate status. Open to undergraduates with consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: Fall.

BIOL 591-594 - Advanced Topics in Biology (1-4)
Individual study is provided under the direction of a faculty member of the biology department. Topics vary.
Prerequisite: Normally open only to students enrolled in the M.A. program in biology.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

BIOL 691-696 - Directed Research (1-6)
Students investigate an experimental question in biology under the direction of an advisor.
Prerequisite: Enrollment in the C.G.S. in Modern Biological Sciences or M.A. in Biology program and consent of advisor and department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.
CTE - Career and Technical Education

CTE 300 - Methods of Teaching Career and Technical Education (4)
Students are introduced to teaching career and technical education at the secondary and post-secondary levels. Topics include basic planning and teaching skills, writing skills, and strategies for identifying, organizing, and presenting lessons. (Only open to students enrolled for career and technical education certification.)
Prerequisite: CEP 215 or equivalent, with minimum grade of C; minimum GPA of 2.50 in all previous courses; or consent of department chair.
Cross-Listed as: TECH 406.
Offered: Spring.

CTE 302 - Curriculum Construction in Career and Technical Education (3)
Students develop the competencies needed to identify, write, and implement a curriculum in their occupational area. (Only open to students enrolled for career and technical education certification.)
Prerequisite: CEP 215 and FNED 246.
Offered: Spring.

CHEM - Chemistry

CHEM 103 - General Chemistry I (4)
Topics include atomic theory, periodicity, bonding, reactions, stoichiometry, gas laws, and thermochemistry. Laboratory experiments illustrate these concepts and develop laboratory techniques. Lecture and laboratory. 7 contact hours.
General Education Category: Natural Science.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency or appropriate score on the math placement exam.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CHEM 103H - Honors General Chemistry I (4)
For students with a good background in science and mathematics. Topics are listed in and experiments are similar to CHEM 103, with increased emphasis on instrumentation and independent work. Lecture and laboratory. 7 contact hours.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.
Prerequisite: CHEM 103H or equivalent with a minimum grade of C-.
Offered: Spring.

CHEM 105 - General, Organic and Biological Chemistry I (4)
Topics include alcohols, carbonyl compounds, amines, amides, carbohydrates, lipids, proteins, enzymes, nucleic acids, hormones, and neurotransmitters. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.
Prerequisite: CHEM 105 with a minimum grade of C-.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CHEM 106 - General, Organic, and Biological Chemistry II (4)
Topics include states of matter, solutions, kinetics, acids and bases, equilibrium theory, thermodynamics, and electrochemistry. Lecture and laboratory. 7 contact hours.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.
Prerequisite: CHEM 103 or equivalent with a minimum grade of C-.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CHEM 104H - Honors General Chemistry II (4)
For students with a good background in science and mathematics. Topics are listed in and experiments are similar to CHEM 104, with increased emphasis on instrumentation and independent work. Lecture and laboratory. 7 contact hours.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.
Prerequisite: CHEM 103H or equivalent with a minimum grade of C-.
Offered: Spring.

CHEM 205 - Organic Chemistry I (4)
Topics include structure, stereochemistry, nomenclature, and chemistry of hydrocarbons and alkyl halides, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms, and computational chemistry. Lecture and laboratory. 7 contact hours.
Prerequisite: CHEM 104 with a minimum grade of C-.
Offered: Fall, Summer.

CHEM 206 - Organic Chemistry II (4)
Topics include reactions of functional groups, synthesis and mechanism, spectroscopic identification, and topics in biochemistry and computational chemistry. Lecture and laboratory. 7 contact hours.
Prerequisite: CHEM 205.
Offered: Spring, Summer.

CHEM 310 - Biochemistry (4)
Topics include biological macromolecule structure, function and interactions, catalysis and kinetics of biochemistry, acid-base equilibrium in biological systems, and thermodynamics of binding and recognition. Lecture.
Prerequisite: CHEM 206.
Offered: Fall.

CHEM 405 - Inorganic Chemistry I (3)
Topics include electronic structure of atoms, molecular symmetry, bond theories, acid-base chemistry, solids, redox and coordination chemistry.
Prerequisite: CHEM 206.
Offered: Fall.
CHEM 404 - Analytical Chemistry (4)
Topics include the principles and applications of volumetric, gravimetric, and selected instrumental methods of analysis, including potentiometric and spectroscopic methods. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: CHEM 104.
Offered: Spring (even years).

CHEM 405 - Physical Chemistry I (3)
Through rigorous quantitative approaches, properties of gases, kinetic molecular theory, thermodynamics, statistical mechanics, and chemical and phase equilibrium are presented. Differential and integral calculus are used extensively. Lecture.
Prerequisite: CHEM 104, MATH 213, and PHYS 102.
Offered: Fall.

CHEM 406 - Physical Chemistry II (3)
Through rigorous quantitative approaches, quantum mechanics, atomic structure, atomic spectra, chemical bonding, molecular spectra, and chemical kinetics are presented. Differential and integral calculus are used extensively. Lecture.
Prerequisite: CHEM 104, MATH 314, and PHYS 102.
Offered: Spring.

CHEM 407 - Physical Chemistry Laboratory I (1)
Experiments involving topics covered in CHEM 405 are performed. The experimental methods of physical chemistry are developed. Error analysis, statistical methods, and computer applications are emphasized. 3 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Prerequisite or corequisite: CHEM 405.
Offered: Fall.

CHEM 408 - Physical Chemistry Laboratory II (1)
This is a continuation of CHEM 407. Experiments involving chemical kinetics, molecular spectroscopy, photochemistry, computational chemistry, and other topics covered in CHEM 406 are performed. 3 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Prerequisite or corequisite: CHEM 406.
Offered: Spring.

CHEM 412 - Inorganic Chemistry II (2)
Topics include molecular orbital theory, symmetry, spectral and magnetic properties of coordination compounds, and selected main group and organometallic chemistry.
Prerequisite: CHEM 403.
Offered: Spring.

CHEM 413 - Inorganic Chemistry Laboratory (1)
Experiments illustrate main group periodicity, coordination and organometallic compounds’ properties, and techniques, including the use of inert atmospheres and microwave acceleration of rates. 3 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Prior or concurrent enrollment in CHEM 406 and CHEM 412.
Offered: Spring.

CHEM 414 - Instrumental Methods of Analysis (4)
Emphasis is on the areas of spectroscopy, electrochemistry, chromatography, and other identification and separation techniques using instrumental methods. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: CHEM 404 or CHEM 416.
Offered: Spring (odd years).

CHEM 416 - Environmental Analytical Chemistry (4)
Topics include the principles and applications of volumetric, gravimetric, and selected instrumental methods of analysis, including potentiometric and spectroscopic methods, with emphasis on environmental applications. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: CHEM 104.
Offered: Spring (odd years).

CHEM 418 - Marine Environmental Chemistry (4)
Examines biogeochemical cycling of material in the environment, including major and trace element distributions in seawater, environmental chemical equilibria, nutrient distributions and role of ocean in global climate. Students cannot receive credit for both CHEM 417 and CHEM 418.
Prerequisite: CHEM 206.
Offered: Fall (even years).

CHEM 419 - Biochemistry Mechanisms (3)
Mechanistic approaches to metabolic processes are discussed, including but not limited to glycolysis, citric acid cycle, oxidative phosphorylation and photosynthesis. Lecture.
Prerequisite: CHEM 310 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

CHEM 420 - Biochemistry of Proteins and Nucleic Acids (3)
The physical and chemical properties and metabolism of proteins and nucleic acids are discussed. Lecture.
Prerequisite: CHEM 206 and either BIOL 320 or CHEM 310.
Offered: Fall, Spring (odd years).

CHEM 421 - Biochemistry of Energy Metabolism (3)
The physical and chemical properties of carbohydrates and lipids are presented. Students cannot receive credit for both CHEM 421 and BIOL 421. Lecture.
Prerequisite: CHEM 206 and either BIOL 320 or CHEM 310.
Offered: As needed.

CHEM 422 - Biochemistry Laboratory (3)
Topics include basic laboratory concepts, including notebook documentation, ethics, and data interpretation, as well as experiments involving DNA cloning, protein purification, spectroscopic analysis, and functional assays. Laboratory.
Prerequisite: CHEM 310 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

CHEM 425 - Advanced Organic Chemistry (4)
Synthesis, structure determination, and mechanism are discussed in the context of natural product and bio-organic chemistry. Spectroscopic and computational methods are emphasized. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
CHEM 435 - Pharmacology and Toxicology (3)
The relationship between the chemical structure and biological activity of organic compounds is studied. Historical and current drug development and use are emphasized in relation to the biochemistry of disease.
Prerequisite: CHEM 205 and CHEM 206, or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

CHEM 467 - Honors Colloquium in Chemistry (05)
Advanced level topics in science are examined through participation in department colloquia with outside speakers and through a series of seminars. This course may be repeated for credit with a change in content. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: CHEM 206 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Annually.

CHEM 490 - Independent Study in Chemistry (3)
Students study under the guidance of a member of the chemistry faculty. The particular area of chemistry is selected on the basis of the interest of the student and instructor.
Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

CHEM 491-493 - Research in Chemistry (1)
The student conducts original research in an area selected after consultation with the instructor and prepares a report on the work. A maximum of 6 credit hours may be earned in these courses.
Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

CHEM 519 - Biochemistry for Health Professionals (3)
This course is designed to provide nurse anesthetist students with a strong foundation of biochemistry.
Prerequisite: CHEM 105 and CHEM 106 or equivalent, enrollment in the M.S.N. nurse anesthesia program or consent of the instructor.
Offered: Fall.

COLL - College Course

COLL 101 - The College Experience (1)
Through classroom instruction and academic advisement, students explore the meaning of higher education, the transition to college, academic organization and terminology, and time management.
Offered: Fall.

COLL 125 - College Learning Strategies (3)
Skills necessary for success in college are developed, with emphasis on organizational methods, study skills, and the interpretation of reading materials. Normally open to freshman and sophomore students only, with consent of instructor. 4 contact hours.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM - Communication

COMM 162 - East Asian Popular Cinema (4)
East Asian culture, identity, gender, and communication patterns are explored through the examination of different genres in popular films and documentaries from Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong, and China.
Offered: As needed.

COMM 201 - Writing for News (4)
The fundamentals of composition using the AP style guide are introduced. Topics include news values, basic reporting, public relations formats and techniques for achieving high-quality news and public relations writing. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course. (Formerly COMM 302.)
Prerequisite: FYW 100 or FYW 100P or completion of the College Writing Requirement.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 208 - Public Speaking (4)
Students develop public-speaking skills through directed practice. Emphasis is on the selection and organization of material, the use of reasoning and evidence, speech construction, and methods of delivery.
Offered: Fall, Spring.
COMM 220 - Digital Audio Production I (4)
This course is designed for students interested in live and studio audio production in a computer-based studio. Students cannot receive credit for both COMM 220 and MUS 220.
Cross-Listed as: MUS 220.
Offered: As needed.

COMM 222 - Digital Audio Production II (4)
This course serves as a project-based extension of Digital Audio Production I, including continued exploration of sound recording and transmission, composition and arranging, editing, mixing and mastering. Students cannot receive credit for both COMM 222 and MUS 222.
Prerequisite: COMM 220 or MUS 220.
Cross-Listed as: MUS 222.
Offered: As needed.

COMM 230 - Interpersonal Communication (4)
By participating in a series of communication experiences, students explore principles, skills, theory, and techniques essential for effective face-to-face communication across a variety of contexts. (Formerly COMM 330.)
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or sophomore standing or permission of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

COMM 240 - Mass Media and Society (4)
The institutions, history, and technology of the mass media are examined. Newspapers, film, and broadcasting media are studied in terms of social and personal impact.
General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

COMM 241 - Introduction to Cinema and Video (4)
Hollywood industry, new digital technology, audiences, and other important cinematic elements (visual, technical, social, ideological, aesthetic, economic, and cultural aspects) are examined.
General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

COMM 242 - Message, Media, and Meaning (4)
Students are introduced to visual communication and how meaning is made. Topics include the theories about and critical interpretation of visual media. Media production projects and presentations are required.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 243 - Preproduction for Digital Media (4)
Students are introduced to the concepts and techniques used during the digital media preproduction process. Students also learn how to write for a variety of digital media distribution channels.
Prerequisite: FYW 100, FYW 100P or FYW 100H.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 244 - Digital Media Lab (4)
Students learn to create and analyze digital media in multiple forms, including still image work, motion graphics composition, audio and video production, and web design.
General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing.

COMM 246 - Television Production (4)
The theoretical and practical aspects of television production, script preparation, and studio and control room operations and practice are presented. Included is a two-hour-per-week lab.
Prerequisite: COMM 243 and COMM 244.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 251 - Research Methods in Communication (4)
Students will critique research from scholarly journals and apply a selected method in an original research proposal. Topics include communication research, quantitative and qualitative methods. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course. (Formerly COMM 200.)
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 24 college credits.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 252 - Multimedia Journalism I (4)
Skills-based course which introduces visual journalism and digital storytelling. Emphasizes telling the story through audio, video and social media channels and prepares students for reporting the news digitally.
Prerequisite: COMM 244.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 253 - Multimedia Journalism II (4)
Production-based course in which students report live, real-time, news situations to create digital news packages usable across multiple digital platforms: audio, video and social media.
Prerequisite: COMM 252.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 255W - Introduction to Language (4)
The diversity and basic similarities of languages are explored, including their phonetic, phonological, morphological, syntactic, semantic, and social properties. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: COMM 251 or COMM 251W.
Offered: Spring.

COMM 256 - Human Communication and New Technology (4)
Explores how human communication occurs through new technologies, including the Internet, social media, mobile communication, and virtual spaces. Students will study both theory and praxis in professional and personal contexts.
Prerequisite: COMM 251 or COMM 251W.
Offered: Spring.

COMM 261 - Issues in Free Speech (4)
Free speech issues are critically examined in historical and cultural context. Emphasis is on American law and circumstances compared to those of selected non-Western countries.
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H, and at least 45 credits.
Offered: Annually.
COMM 262 - Dialect: What We Speak (4)
This course explores the variability within a human language as influenced by geography, history, social class, gender, age, ethnicity, and cultural identity.
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H, and at least 45 credits.
Offered: As needed.

COMM 263 - East Asian Media and Popular Culture (4)
Examination of cultural forms in China, Japan, and Korea by studying socio-political and cultural implications of transnational flows between East Asia and the West through various forms of media.
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H, and at least 45 credits.
Offered: Spring, Summer.

COMM 301 - Introduction to Public Relations (4)
The field of public relations is surveyed, with emphasis on the role of the communication specialist as a practitioner. Topics include public relations history, ethics, campaign design, and media use.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 45 college credits.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 303 - Advanced Reporting and Interview (4)
Skills-based reporting course that emphasizes interviewing techniques, longer-form storytelling, interpersonal skills and feature-style storytelling. Requires students to bring in real-world features and long-form interviews into class.
Prerequisite: COMM 201 or COMM 201W or COMM 302.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 305 - Introduction to Communication Disorders (3)
A variety of speech, language, and hearing problems that may exist in children and adults are examined. Normal processes, abnormalities, and treatment are also discussed.
Prerequisite: COMM 251 or COMM 251W
Offered: Fall.

COMM 311W - Advanced Public Relations (4)
Advanced public relations skills are learned, with emphasis on strategy and evaluation techniques applied to case studies. Students develop individual case studies using a multi-stage writing process. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: COMM 301.
Offered: Fall.

COMM 312W - Advanced Writing: Public Relations and Advertising (4)
Students engage in portfolio-building writing exercises beginning with resume and cover letters. Later assignments include press release, fact sheet infographic, radio and print advertisements, and annual appeal letters. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: COMM 301 or COMM 334.
Offered: Spring.

COMM 319 - Phonetics and Phonology (4)
Students develop listening and transcription skills as well as knowledge about the production of speech. The sound structure of language is explored and students are introduced to phonological theory.
Prerequisite: COMM 255.
Offered: Fall.

COMM 320W - Speech and Language Development (4)
The theories and stages involved in the acquisition of speech and language skills from birth to adolescence are examined. Included are the subsystems of language and normal and abnormal speech and language development. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: COMM 251 or COMM 251W and COMM 255 or COMM 255W.
Offered: Fall.

COMM 323 - Introduction to Audiology (3)
Acoustics, anatomy, and physiology of the ear are introduced. Included are basic hearing tests, hearing disorders, and rehabilitation.
Prerequisite: COMM 251 or COMM 251W and either COMM 255 or COMM 255W, or COMM 305.
Offered: Fall.

COMM 325 - Anatomy and Physiology: Speech and Hearing (4)
Topics include the anatomy and physiology of the speech and hearing mechanism, and neurological, skeletal, and muscular functions involved in speech and hearing.
Prerequisite: COMM 251 or COMM 251W and either COMM 255 or COMM 255W, or COMM 305
Offered: Spring.

COMM 332 - Gender and Communication (4)
Theoretical foundations of gender and communication are introduced. Topics include verbal and nonverbal communication, communication style, socialization, and processing information. Contexts include interpersonal, organizational, political, and family.
Prerequisite: COMM 251 or COMM 251W, or permission of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

COMM 333 - Intercultural Communication (4)
The communication contexts, issues and consequences that accompany interaction between people from diverse cultures are explored. Research dealing with intercultural communication is explored.
Prerequisite: Junior standing, completion of at least 60 college credits or permission of program chair.
Offered: As needed.

COMM 334 - Introduction to Advertising (4)
The key processes of modern advertising practice are introduced. Topics include production of effective advertising and media. Students cannot receive credit for both COMM 334 and MKT 338.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 45 college credits.
Offered: Fall, Spring.
COMM 335 - Research for Public Relations and Advertising (4)
Students explore the processes of acquisition, evaluation and analysis of information needed for PR and advertising planning. Secondary and primary research for PR and advertising is introduced.
Prerequisite: COMM 301 or COMM 334.
Offered: Spring.

COMM 336 - Health Communication (4)
Explores the dynamics and impact of health communication between individuals and the health care system, such as doctor-patient communication, dissemination of health-related information, and the role of mediated communication.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 hours credit or junior standing, or permission of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

COMM 337 - Advanced Advertising (4)
Theoretical foundations and the process of developing advertising strategy are introduced. Methods of using research data for developing advertising strategy are presented and case studies are discussed.
Prerequisite: COMM 334.
Offered: Spring.

COMM 338 - Communication for Health Professionals (4)
Designed for health professionals, this course examines the dynamics of patient-provider communication inside the context of the contemporary health system. Other topics covered include risk communication, diversity, influence of technology and social support and health.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits, enrollment in the Medical Imaging program and MEDI 201 or RADT 201.
Offered: Fall.

COMM 339W - Creativity for Public Relations and Advertising (4)
Students are introduced to the process of conceptualizing and preparing PR and advertising content for mass media. Emphasis is placed on creative thinking, strategic writing skills and visualization. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: COMM 311 or COMM 311W, or COMM 337, or permission of instructor.
Offered: Fall.

COMM 340 - Media Ethics (4)
Focus is on contemporary ethical issues that arise in both traditional mass media and new media contexts.
Prerequisite: COMM 240.
Offered: Spring.

COMM 343 - Audio Production for Multimedia (4)
This course covers the foundations of audio production for multimedia contexts including radio/podcasting, video/cinema/film, TV, and interactive multimedia.
Prerequisite: COMM 243 and COMM 244.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 344 - Broadcast Journalism (4)
The preparation, writing, production, and editing of broadcast news are discussed. Emphasis is on local and special news events. An analysis of broadcast policies and principles of news management are presented.
Prerequisite: COMM 246.
Offered: Spring.

COMM 345 - Advanced Digital Media Production (4)
Students advance their knowledge of digital media production, including video, digital graphics and audio, with an emphasis on nonfiction video projects. Course prepares them for their senior year capstone work.
Prerequisite: COMM 243 and COMM 244.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 346 - Sports Reporting (4)
Students will learn the skills necessary to succeed as sports reporters and will be required to read, watch and listen to sports reporting from a variety of sources.
Prerequisite: COMM 201 or COMM 201W, or COMM 302, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

COMM 347 - Media Law (4)
Laws and regulations that affect both mass media and new media formats are examined. Topics include the First Amendment, libel, commercial speech, obscenity and other current legal issues.
Prerequisite: COMM 240.
Offered: Spring.

COMM 348 - Global Communication (4)
Students examine how the globalization of communication systems and content affects people's lives around the world. Media and interaction patterns within and across nations are compared.
Prerequisite: COMM 240.
Offered: Fall.

COMM 349 - Media Theory and Research (4)
Students should understand the role of audience research as related to film, radio, television and online media as well as within in the social sciences.
Prerequisite: COMM 240, COMM 242 and 60 Credits.
Offered: Fall.

COMM 351 - Persuasion (4)
Students will examine principles and techniques of effective influence. The course offers practical experience in persuasive message making in a variety of contexts.
Prerequisite: COMM 208 or permission of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 353 - Political Communication (4)
The role of communication in electoral campaigns, speechmaking, debates, media coverage, political advertising, and social media is examined. Special emphasis is placed on the use of strategic communication.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or sophomore standing, or permission of department chair.
COMM 354 - Communication and Civic Engagement (4)
Students will explore the ways in which public dialogue and deliberation is used to encourage citizen engagement. Experiential projects and student-designed learning experiences are integral to the course.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 45 college credits and COMM 208, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

COMM 356 - Group Decision Making (4)
The principles of group dynamics and discussion in task-oriented experiences are examined. Topics include group leadership skills and cooperative problem-solving methods.
Prerequisite: COMM 208 or permission of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

COMM 357 - Public Opinion and Propaganda (4)
The nature and influence of public opinion are explored. Topics include propaganda as a technique for persuasion.
Prerequisite: COMM 240.
Offered: Fall, Summer.

COMM 359 - Argumentation and Debate (4)
The tools of argumentation and debate are introduced, including the construction of logical arguments and the analysis of arguments for weakness in reasoning or evidence.
Prerequisite: 60 credits or permission of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

COMM 378 - Forensics (1)
With the approval of the forensics director, students may receive credit for participation in debate and other forensic activities. Admission to the activity does not, by itself, ensure credit. Credit may be awarded no more than four times.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or sophomore standing.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 412 - Strategies in Fundraising and Development (4)
This course is designed to equip students with the practical skills of strategic fundraising and development, and to provide them with practice in applying these newly acquired skills.
Prerequisite: COMM 251 or COMM 251W and COMM 351, or permission of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

COMM 421 - Speech and Hearing Science (4)
Basic acoustics, the acoustics of speech, speech production theory, psycho-acoustics, and speech perception are covered. Lecture and laboratory.
Prerequisite: COMM 319.
Offered: Spring.

COMM 422 - Language Processes (4)
Human language processes are examined, with explorations into its social, biological, and cognitive components. This course may be repeated for credit with a change in content.
Prerequisite: COMM 251 or COMM 251W (or equivalent) and COMM 253 or COMM 255W.
Offered: Annually.

COMM 429 - Introduction to the Clinical Process (3)
The clinical process and ethics in speech-language pathology and audiology are introduced. Students earn 25 observation hours and learn professional report writing.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least six courses in communication, including COMM 305, with a minimum GPA of 3.00 in all courses.
Offered: As needed.

COMM 443 - Sports, Culture, and Media (4)
This course explores the dynamics of the relationship between sports and the media, and examines how media interprets sports through critical and cultural media theories.
Prerequisite: COMM 240 and 60 Credits.
Offered: Spring.

COMM 452 - Conflict Resolution (4)
Conflict is examined as a personal and societal challenge that can be managed by applying communication skills and knowledge.
Prerequisite: Junior standing, completion of at least 60 college credits or permission of program chair.
Offered: As needed.

COMM 454 - Organizational Communication (4)
A review of theory and practice of communication in organizations. Topics include corporate culture, leadership, teamwork, globalization, ethics, diversity, and critiques of communication systems and structures.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 60 college credits or junior standing, or permission of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

COMM 459 - Debate Practicum (4)
By applying theories and methods of argumentation, students debate on controversial topics in public venues, such as high schools.
Prerequisite: COMM 359 or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

COMM 460 - Seminar in Communication (3)
A topic not previously studied in communication is researched.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 75 college credits, including COMM 208, COMM 251 or COMM 251W, and 12 additional credit hours of communication courses.
Offered: As needed.

COMM 461 - Public and Professional Capstone (4)
This course offers students an opportunity to engage in a research study employing rhetorical, qualitative, or quantitative methods, and author an essay suitable for presentation before academic or professional audiences.
Prerequisite: 75 credit hours, all communication required courses (COMM 208, COMM 251, COMM 351) and at least 4 other Public and Professional courses.
Offered: As needed.
COMM 479 - Communication Internship (4)
Students gain a more comprehensive understanding of communication fields through on-the-job training. This course may be repeated once for credit.
Prerequisite: Open to communication majors who have completed at least 75 credit hours of undergraduate courses, 18 of which are communication courses, and to graduate students, with consent of instructor. Application must be made during the semester prior to field experience. Additional requirements are set forth in the application form.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

COMM 485 - Public Relations and Advertising Campaigns (4)
Working in teams, students research, plan and implement a communication campaign for a client organization. Field experience may be required.
Prerequisite: COMM 251 or COMM 251W, COMM 301, COMM 334 and COMM 311 or COMM 337.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 490 - Directed Study (1-4)
Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member. This course may be repeated with a change in topic.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

COMM 491 - Special Problems in Communication (1-4)
Students select a practicum-oriented problem and undertake concentrated research under the supervision of a faculty advisor. This course may be repeated once for credit with a change in topic.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 18 credit hours of communication courses, including COMM 251 or COMM 251W, and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

COMM 492 - Digital Media Practicum (4)
Students collaborate in teams to produce digital media content types across multiple media platforms, formats and delivery systems. Group and individual projects are evaluated via the student's capstone portfolio.
Prerequisite: COMM 343, COMM 345, and COMM 349 or consent of the department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

COMM 494 - Independent Study I (4)
Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean, and admission to the communication honors program.
Offered: As needed.

COMM 495 - Independent Study II (4)
This course continues the development of research or creative activity begun in COMM 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment from the department.
Prerequisite: COMM 491 and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

CTSC - Computed Tomography

CTSC 300 - Principles of Computed Tomography (2)
The principles of computed tomography imaging are taught, including basic patient care, pharmacology and drug administration, and routine pediatric and emergency medical care procedures.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a medical imaging clinical program.
Offered: As needed.

CTSC 301 - Computed Tomography Physics and Radiation Protection (2)
Topics include the physical principles and instrumentation involved in computed tomography. An overview is also given of radiation protection and responsibilities.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a medical imaging clinical program.
Offered: As needed.

CTSC 407 - Sectional Anatomy and Pathology (2)
Course content includes the detailed study of gross anatomical structures by location, relationship to other structures, and function. Thorough coverage is given of human diseases diagnosable via computed tomography.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a medical imaging clinical program.
Offered: As needed.

CTSC 432 - Computed Tomography Clinical Practice (8)
Content and clinical practice experiences are designed to develop, apply, critically analyze, integrate, synthesize, and evaluate concepts and theories in performing computed tomography procedures. 24 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a medical imaging clinical program.
Offered: As needed.

CTSC 438 - Registry Review (2)
This course prepares students for successful completion of the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists Advanced Certification Examination in Computed Tomography.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in CTSC 300.
Offered: As needed.

CIS - Computer Information Systems

CIS 252 - Introduction to Information Systems (4)
Information systems are an integral part of all business activities and careers. This course introduces students to contemporary information systems and demonstrates how these systems are used throughout global organizations. (Formerly CIS 352 Management Information Systems.)
Prerequisite: Completion of 30 college credits.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer
CIS 301 - Introduction to Computer Programming in Business (4)
Introductory course using an object-oriented programming language to solve business problems. Topics include: algorithm concepts and development; object-oriented programming methodologies; graphical interface design and event based programming.
Prerequisite: CIS 252 or CIS 251.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CIS 302 - Intermediate Computer Programming in Business (4)
Prerequisite: CIS 255, CIS 256, CIS 257, or CIS 301.
Offered: As needed.

CIS 320 - Information Technology: Hardware and Software Systems (4)
The evolution of the major subsystems of computer hardware, technical knowledge of the integration of hardware, and selected operating systems software are examined.
Prerequisite: CIS 251 or CIS 252 or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

CIS 324 - Web Design and Development (4)
Students are introduced to basic concepts, issues, and techniques related to designing, developing, and deploying websites using a variety of tools. Study includes HTML, CSS, formatting, layout, and objects.
Prerequisite: CIS 251 or CIS 252 or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

CIS 350 - Special Topics (4)
New courses are offered by faculty to present latest computer information materials.
Prerequisite: CIS 251 or CIS 252 or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

CIS 351 - Advanced Office Applications for Business (4)
Advanced applications of Office Suite software are examined. Applications include database, spreadsheet, word processing, and presentation graphics.
Prerequisite: CIS 251 or CIS 252 or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

CIS 358 - Mobile Application Development (4)
Students are introduced to mobile application design concepts and programming components. These concepts and components include simple mobile programs (e.g. canvas, animation and games); global variables and conditionals; procedures; and procedures with parameters, lists and tiny database.
Prerequisite: CIS 251 or CIS 252 and completion of 60 college credits.
Offered: As needed.

CIS 416 - Human-Computer Interaction Design (4)
Introduces students to fundamental concepts and techniques in the design, implementation and evaluation of user interfaces for computers, smart phones and other devices. Students cannot receive credit for both CIS 416 and CSCI 416.
Prerequisite: CIS 252 or CIS 352, CSCI 212, or CSCI 315.
Offered: As needed.

CIS 421 - Networks and Infrastructure (4)
Both computer and systems architecture and communications networks are presented with a focus on the services and capabilities that information technology infrastructure solutions enable in an organizational context.
Prerequisite: CIS 252 or CIS 352 and completion of 60 college credits, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CIS 430 - Issues in Computer Security (4)
Students evaluate organizational and technological methods employed to provide security for computer software, hardware, and data. Topics include controlling for error, natural disaster, and intentional attacks.
Prerequisite: CIS 252 or CIS 352 and completion of 60 college credits, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CIS 455 - Database Programming (4)
The basic components of file and communication systems as they support information systems are surveyed. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: CIS 252 or CIS 352 and completion of 60 college credits, or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

CIS 462W - Applied Software Development Project (4)
This is a practicum in the application of programming and systems-development concepts, resulting in a comprehensive systems-development project. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: ONE from CIS 255, CIS 256, CIS 257, or CIS 301, and CIS 455 or CIS 455W, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CIS 467 - Directed Internship (4)
Students are assigned to a business, an industrial organization, or a not-for-profit organization and supervised by a mentor. Students receive 1 credit hour for every four hours of work. A two-hour biweekly seminar is included. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: Major in computer information systems and completion of at least 60 college credits.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CIS 470 - Introduction to Data Science (4)
Domain knowledge in mathematics, statistics, machine learning and databases that pertains to specific data and information extraction are introduced. Students use these tools to solve unstructured problems.
Prerequisite: CIS 252 or CIS 352, CSCI 157 and MATH 248 or MATH 240, or consent of department chair
Offered: Fall.

CIS 472 - Data Visualization (4)
This course introduces algorithms and techniques for effective data visualizations based on data science principles, graphic and communication design, visual art, perceptual and cognitive science. Data visualization tools are introduced.
CIS 490 - Directed Study (4)
Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

CIS 491 - Independent Study I (4)
This course emphasizes the development of research for students admitted to the computer information systems honors program. The research topic is selected and conducted under the mentorship of a faculty advisor.
Prerequisite: Admission to the CIS honors program and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

CIS 492 - Independent Study II (4)
This course continues the development of research begun in CIS 491. The honors research is completed under the consultation of a faculty advisor. A research paper and presentation are required.
Prerequisite: CIS 491 and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

CSCI - Computer Science

CSCI 101 - Introduction to Computers (3)
Topics include an overview of computer systems, hardware and software, algorithms, computer history, applications, and the impact of computers on society. Hands-on computer work.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CSCI 102 - Computer Fundamentals for Cyber Security (4)
Students will learn the technical details necessary to study cyber security. Topics include binary and hexadecimal, operating systems, hardware and software, networking, memory, storage management and databases.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 157 - Introduction to Algorithmic Thinking in Python (4)
This course introduces algorithmic thinking and computer programming in the Python programming language. Topics include algorithms, flowcharts, top-down design, selection, repetition, modularization, input-output, and recursion.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 211 - Computer Programming and Design (4)
Fundamentals of problem specification, program design, and algorithm development are taught in the Java programming language. Topics include functions, selection, iteration, recursion, arrays, classes, and inheritance.
Prerequisite: CSCI 157 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 212W - Data Structures (4)
Abstract datatypes and data structures are presented. Topics include time complexity, linked lists, stacks, queues, lists, hashing, trees, heaps, searching, sorting, and development of object-oriented programming techniques. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: CSCI 211 or CSCI 221.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 211 - Data Management (3)
Various techniques are explored for the management of the design and development of database systems. Issues in the creation and use of logical data models, database administration, and concurrent processing are explored.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and senior standing or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

CSCI 302 - C++ Programming (3)
The fundamental concepts and constructs of the C++ programming language are examined. Topics include expressions, input/output, control structures, classes, inheritance, arrays, strings, and templates.
Prerequisite: CSCI 211 or CSCI 221.
Offered: Spring.

CSCI 303 - Functional Programming (4)
Functional programming focuses on the design process from problems to well-organized solutions. Topics include design recipes, functions, lists, self-referential data structures, recursion, lambda functions, and abstraction with practical applications.
COURSES | 221

Prerequisite: CSCI 201 or CSCI 211 or equivalent, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Fall.

CSCI 309 - Object-Oriented Design (4)
Students will learn fundamental concepts, techniques and principles in object-oriented analysis and design. Topics include the object-oriented design process, interfaces, inheritance, polymorphism, graphical user interfaces and design patterns.
Prerequisite: CSCI 201 or CSCI 211.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 312 - Computer Organization and Architecture I (4)
Basic concepts of computer organization, architecture, and machine language programming are examined. Topics include data representation, binary and hexadecimal arithmetic, Boolean algebra, combinatorial and sequential circuits, and registers.
Prerequisite: CSCI 201 or CSCI 211.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 313 - Computer Organization and Architecture II (3)
A continuation of CSCI 312. Topics include the central processing unit, memory access, input/output, and floating point operations.
Prerequisite: CSCI 312 and either CSCI 211 or CSCI 221.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 325 - Organization of Programming Language (3)
Programming language constructs are presented, with emphasis on the run-time behavior of programs. Topics include language definition, data types and structures, and run-time considerations.
Prerequisite: CSCI 212 or CSCI 212W or CSCI 315.
Offered: Fall (even years), Spring.

CSCI 401W - Software Engineering (3)
The software development process is examined from initial requirements analysis to operation and maintenance. Student teams develop a software system from requirements to delivery, using disciplined techniques. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: CSCI 212 or CSCI 212W or CSCI 315, and at least two additional computer science courses at the 300-level or above, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall (odd years), Spring.

CSCI 402 - Cyber Security Principles (4)
Students will explore topics such as software security, secure programming, network security, cryptography and virtual machines. Students will study cyber security history and the legal discourse surrounding the field.
Prerequisite: CSCI 102 and CSCI 157; or CSCI 211.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 410 - Digital Forensics (4)
Students will investigate digital forensic science methods and processes and apply them to the discovery, collection and analysis of evidence. Topics include documenting procedures, securing data and providing expert testimony.
Prerequisite: CSCI 402.

Offered: Fall.

CSCI 415 - Software Testing (4)
Software testing principles, concepts, and techniques are presented within the context of the software development life cycle. Topics include software test design, test process, test management, and software testing tools.
Prerequisite: CSCI 212 or CSCI 212W, or CSCI 315, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

CSCI 416 - Human-Computer Interaction Design (4)
Introduces students to fundamental concepts and techniques in the design, implementation and evaluation of user interfaces for computers, smart phones and other devices. Students cannot receive credit for both CIS 416 and CSCI 416.
Prerequisite: CIS 252 or CIS 352, CSCI 212 or CSCI 212W, or CSCI 315.
Offered: As needed.

CSCI 420 - Introduction to Computation Theory (4)
Computation theory concepts are introduced with applications to lexical analysis, parsing and algorithms. Topics include formal languages, finite-state automata, pushdown automata, Turing machines and undecidability.
Prerequisite: MATH 436.
Offered: Spring (As needed).

CSCI 422 - Computer Organization and Architecture I (4)
Basic concepts of computer organization, architecture, and machine language programming are examined. Topics include data representation, binary and hexadecimal arithmetic, Boolean algebra, combinatorial and sequential circuits, and registers.
Prerequisite: CSCI 201 or CSCI 211.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CSCI 425 - Organization of Programming Language (3)
Programming language constructs are presented, with emphasis on the run-time behavior of programs. Topics include language definition, data types and structures, and run-time considerations.
Prerequisite: CSCI 212 or CSCI 212W or CSCI 315.
Offered: Fall (even years), Spring.

CSCI 427 - Introduction to Artificial Intelligence (3)
Fundamental artificial intelligence methods are introduced, including search, inference, problem solving, and knowledge representation. AI applications, such as natural language understanding and expert systems, are introduced.
Prerequisite: CSCI 212 or CSCI 212W or CSCI 315.
Offered: As needed.

CSCI 428 - Machine Learning (4)
Students will learn to develop intelligent systems and analyze data. Topics include supervised, unsupervised and deep learning algorithms. Current packages and tools will be used to solve real-world problems.
Prerequisite: CSCI 212W, or CIS 470 and CSCI 157, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

CSCI 430 - Network and Systems Security (4)
Students will study a survey of network and systems security topics such as packet analysis, penetration testing and intrusion detection. Students will practice with tools/techniques used by security professionals.
Prerequisite: CSCI 402.
Offered: Spring.

CSCI 435 - Operating Systems and Computer Architecture (3)
Topics include instruction sets, I/O and interrupt structure, addressing schemes, memory management, process management, performance, and evaluation.
Prerequisite: CSCI 313 and either CSCI 212, or CSCI 212W, or CSCI 315.
Offered: Fall, Spring (even years).

CSCI 437 - Network Architectures and Programming (4)
An introduction to fundamental concepts of computer networks. Topics include the internet reference model, TCP/IP, flow control, congestion control, routing, switching, network programming, and data capturing and analysis.
Prerequisite: CSCI 212 or CSCI 212W, or CSCI 315.
Offered: As needed.

CSCI 455 - Introduction to Database Systems (3)
Database structure, organization, languages, and implementation are introduced, including data modeling, relational and object-oriented systems, query languages, and query processing.
Prerequisite: CSCI 212 or CSCI 212W, or CSCI 315.
Offered: Fall.

CSCI 467 - Computer Science Internship (4)
Students work at a business or nonprofit organization integrating classroom study with work-based learning, supervised by a faculty member.
Prerequisite: Major in computer science, minimum GPA of 2.67 in computer science courses, completion of or concurrent enrollment in CSCI 401 or CSCI 401W, and consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

CSCI 467 - Advanced Topics in Computer Science (3)
Recent developments and topics of current interest in computer science are studied. This course may be repeated for credit with a change in content.
Prerequisite: CSCI 212 or CSCI 212W, or CSCI 315.
Offered: Spring.

CSCI 490 - Directed Study in Computer Science (1-4)
This course is open to students who have demonstrated superior ability in computer science. Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member. This course may be repeated for credit once with a change in content.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

CSCI 491 - Independent Study in Computer Science (1-4)
This course is open to students who have demonstrated superior ability in computer science. Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity mentored by a faculty member. This course may be repeated for credit once with a change in content.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

CEP - Counseling and Educational Psychology

CEP 215 - Introduction to Educational Psychology (4)
Students examine introductory topics in Educational Psychology including human development, diversity, motivation, behavior, learning, teaching and assessment both in and out of school environments.
General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CEP 315 - Educational Psychology (3)
Learner-centered psychological principles and research findings are analyzed. Emphasis is on the characteristics of the learner and the nature of developmentally responsive pedagogy.
Prerequisite: Admission to a teacher education program or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CEP 509 - Professional Orientation and Ethical Practice (3)
Overview of the counseling profession including history, contemporary issues, professional identity and preparation of clinical mental health counselors is provided. Standards of ethical practice in counseling are reviewed.
Prerequisite: Matriculation into a graduate counseling program or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CEP 519 - Supervision of Field-Based Work (1)
Students review the practice and administration of supervision for CEP candidates. Focus is on the characteristics of effective supervisors and the current trends in professional disciplines. Hybrid course.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

CEP 531 - Human Development across Cultures (3)
Focus is on human development theories across cultures as they relate to the field of human services and on life cycle stages, the exploration of child, adolescence, and adult issues.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CEP 532 - Theories and Methods of Counseling (3)
The nature of the counseling process and theories of counseling are considered. Included are techniques of interviewing and an examination of common and special counseling problems in various school and agency settings.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CEP 533 - Psychology of Students with Exceptionalities (3)
The symptoms, causes and treatment of developmental, learning and social-emotional problems of children are covered. Educational classification criteria, services, interventions and collaboration are reviewed. Observations are required.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.
CEP 534 - Quantitative Measurement and Test Interpretation (3)
Students develop techniques for the effective use of test results in counseling, including statistical and data analysis techniques.
Prerequisite: Matriculation into the master's program in counseling or school psychology and CEP 532, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Summer.

CEP 535 - Vocational Counseling and Placement (3)
Counseling theories are explored, including the assessment of individual aptitudes, interests, and abilities. Also examined are occupational information sources and opportunities.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring, Summer.

CEP 536 - Biological Perspectives in Mental Health (3)
Students are introduced to the neuroscience perspective of studying human behavior, including the biology of mental illness and the role of psychopharmacology.
Prerequisite: CEP 532 and matriculation into the master's program in counseling or school psychology program, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Summer.

CEP 537 - Introduction to Group Counseling (3)
The dynamics of group process, an analysis of current modalities, and the principles and techniques of group counseling are covered. Students participate in a time-limited group.
Prerequisite: CEP 538 and matriculation into the master's program in counseling or school psychology program, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Summer.

CEP 538 - Practicum I: Introduction to Counseling Skills (3)
Counseling experience is offered under supervised laboratory conditions, with emphasis on observation and evaluation in a laboratory-seminar sequence. Video, audio, and process recordings are used.
Prerequisite: CEP 531, CEP 532, and matriculation into the master's program in counseling or school psychology program.
Offered: Fall, Summer.

CEP 539 - Practicum II: Clinical Interviewing and Treatment Planning (3)
Students learn to conduct clinical interviews and develop collaborative, evidenced-based clinical treatment plans. Students apply their skills in a supervised clinical setting for 50 hours over the semester.
Prerequisite: CEP 538, with minimum grade of B, and prior or concurrent enrollment in CEP 509 and CEP 543.
Offered: Spring.

CEP 540 - Clinical Practicum with Children in Schools (3)
Attention is given to developing skill in counseling children and youth, while working with clients under controlled supervisory conditions. Supervised school-based experiences are required.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and CEP 538, with minimum grade of B.
Offered: Spring.

CEP 541 - Clinical Internship in School Counseling I (3)
Students complete 150 hours of supervised school counseling in a school setting.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and CEP 540, with minimum grade of B.
Offered: Fall.

CEP 542 - Clinical Internship in School Counseling II (3)
This is a continuation of CEP 541.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and CEP 541, with minimum grade of B.
Offered: Spring.

CEP 543 - Clinical Assessment and Case Problems (3)
This is an introduction to clinical decision making, diagnostic assessment, and treatment planning. Students also learn how to conduct intake and mental status examinations and how to diagnose various psychiatric conditions.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and prior or concurrent enrollment in CEP 536, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CEP 544 - Family Counseling Theory and Practice (3)
Current family counseling theories and methods are introduced. Class instruction includes lectures, demonstrations, and family simulations.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and CEP 537 and CEP 538.
Offered: Spring.

CEP 549 - Foundations in School Counseling (3)
This is an introduction to the historical foundations, roles and functions, and professional standards and ethics in the practice of school counseling.
Prerequisite: CEP 531, CEP 532, and matriculation into the school counseling program.
Offered: Fall.

CEP 551 - Behavioral Assessment and Intervention (3)
Current theory, research, and applications of behavioral assessment and intervention are reviewed. Emphasis is on behavioral approaches to school-related problems.
Prerequisite: Matriculation into the school psychology program or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

CEP 552 - Psychological Perspectives on Learning and Teaching (3)
This is a systematic study of students and teachers and their interactions in classroom settings. Emphasis is on understanding typical and exceptional learners. A field component is required.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

CEP 553 - Counseling Children and Adolescents (3)
This course explores the application of developmental theory, evidence-based literature, and the clinical knowledge of children and adolescents to guide effective counseling with diverse populations.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and CEP 531 and CEP 532.
Offered: Spring.
CEP 554 - Research Methods in Applied Settings (3)
Nonexperimental, experimental, and single-subject designs are explored, along with the use of inferential statistics. A research proposal relevant to human service settings is also developed.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and a measurement and/or research course (CEP 534 or equivalent).
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CEP 556 - Cognitive Behavioral Therapy Interventions (3)
Students will learn the fundamental components and theoretical bases of cognitive behavioral therapy and how to conceptualize and treat various clinical problems through a cognitive behavioral therapy framework.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and CEP 538 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Summer.

CEP 558 - Multimodal Clinical Interventions (3)
Students will learn how to apply various multimodal counseling techniques such as writing exercises, goal-setting charts, diagrams and movement exercises to a variety of clinical populations.
Prerequisite: CEP 532 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Summer.

CEP 533 - Psychology of Students with Exceptionalities (3)
The symptoms, causes, and treatment of developmental, learning, and social-emotional problems of children are covered. Educational classification criteria, services, interventions, and collaboration are reviewed. Observations are required.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

CEP 601 - Cognitive Assessment (3)
Lab experiences are provided in the administration, scoring, and interpretation of individual cognitive tests, with emphasis on the application of tests. Psychological report writing is also introduced.
Prerequisite: Matriculation into the school psychology program.
Offered: Fall.

CEP 602 - Social-Emotional Assessment and Intervention (3)
Objective and projective techniques in the assessment of child and adolescent personalities are studied. Lab experiences are provided in test administration, scoring, and interpretation.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, CEP 534 and CEP 551.
Offered: Spring.

CEP 603 - Professional School Psychology (3)
This course covers the foundations of school psychology, roles and functions of psychologists in schools, professional standards and ethics, realities of practice, and vital issues for the profession.
Prerequisite: Matriculation into the school psychology program.
Offered: Fall.

CEP 604 - Psychoeducational Assessment and Response-to-Intervention (3)
The neuropsychological process in learning is reviewed, with lab work in the use of psychoeducational tests to identify learning problems. Remedial instructional strategies are also examined.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and prior or concurrent enrollment in CEP 601.
Offered: Spring.

CEP 605 - School Psychology Practicum (6)
This is a yearlong, 400-hour practicum experience. Emphasis is on supervised practice in the problem-solving approach to school psychological service.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and CEP 601, CEP 603, and CEP 604, each with minimum grade of B.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CEP 610 - Advanced Clinical Internship I (3)
Students attend a weekly seminar and log 300 hours at a work setting placement under the supervision of a field supervisor and department faculty member.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and CEP 509 and CEP 684 (with minimum grade of B) or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

CEP 611 - Advanced Clinical Internship II (3)
Students attend a weekly seminar and log 300 hours at a work setting placement under the supervision of a field supervisor and department faculty member.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and CEP 610 (with a minimum grade of B) or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

CEP 612 - Cross-Cultural Counseling (3)
Issues in counseling diverse groups are presented. Current counseling models are adapted to meet these groups’ specific needs.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and CEP 539 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Summer.

CEP 629 - Internship in School Psychology (12)
This internship consists of a 1,200-hour, one-year placement in a cooperating school system under the supervision of a certified school psychologist and a college faculty member. A weekly seminar is required.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, CEP 604 and CEP 605.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CEP 648 - Assessment and Treatment of Co-Occurring Disorders (3)
Students develop clinical skills to assess, diagnose, and engage chemically dependent individuals in counseling and recovery processes. The interactive nature of substance use and co-occurring mental health issues is explored.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and CEP 539 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

CEP 649 - Clinical Practice with Military Connected Clients (3)
Students utilize clinical methods to assess, diagnose and treat military stressors and trauma. Military culture is explored and the need for competent clinical practice is emphasized.
Prerequisite: Graduate status in counseling program or second year status in M.S.W. program; CEP 543 or equivalent assessment course recommended; or consent of department chair.

Cross-Listed as: SWRK 649
Offered: Spring.

CEP 651 - Academic Instruction, Interventions and Supports (3)
Course covers evidence-based interventions to promote academic skills, including reading and mathematics. Students will learn how to conceptualize student needs and intervene through a Multi-Tiered System of Supports framework.
Prerequisite: Graduate status in CEP 604 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

CEP 656 - Crisis Assessment and Intervention (3)
This course includes an examination of diverse crisis situations as well as assessment and treatment strategies used by counselors to assist individuals, groups, and organizations in managing and resolving crises.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and CEP 604 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Summer.

CEP 675 - Consultation and Collaboration in School and Community Settings (3)
For graduate students in school psychology, school counselors, special educators, and administrators interested in collaboration. Emphasis is on direct and indirect support-service delivery in schools.
Prerequisite: Matriculation into the counseling, educational leadership, or school psychology program; or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

CEP 683 - Practicum III: Advanced Counseling Skills (3)
Students extend and deepen their counseling skills. Audio and video resources are used. Students apply their skills in a supervised clinical setting for a minimum of five hours a week.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and CEP 539 (with a minimum grade of B) or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

CEP 684 - Practicum IV: Advanced Clinical Interventions (3)
Students learn advanced interventions skills and how to develop measurable outcomes to improve the effectiveness of counseling. Students work 100 hours in a supervised clinical setting providing direct client service.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and CEP 683 (with a minimum grade of B).
Offered: Spring.

CEP 690 - Independent Study (3)
Research is conducted under the supervision of a faculty advisor.
Prerequisite: Matriculation into a C.A.G.S. program and consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

CURR - Curriculum

CURR 130 - Work Experience Seminar (1)
Provides a framework through which youth service providers integrate course theory and work experiences with youth.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in PSYC 230, SWRK 324 and SWRK 326.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

CURR 347 - Service Learning in Educational Contexts (1)
Students engage in fifteen hours of service in a pre-K-12 educational setting and collaboratively examine the pedagogy and best practices of service learning.
Prerequisite: FNED 246 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

CURR 410 - Teaching World Languages in Elementary Education (4)
Major theories of children's language development are examined. Students learn and practice foreign language teaching strategies, and observe and teach several classes in a field-based elementary school setting.
Prerequisite: Admission to program or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring as needed.

CURR 501 - Digital Media Literacy (4)
Over two weeks, student will engage conceptual and practical tools to help them integrate media literacy and digital technology into K-16 classrooms. Specific attention to social justice perspectives on education.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.
Offered: Summer.

CURR 505 - Learning Theory and Curriculum Research (3)
Students examine how learning theory informs various approaches to curriculum. Included are behavioral, cognitive, developmental, humanistic, and interactionist theories of learning.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring (odd years).

CURR 532 - Curriculum Theory and Research (3)
The rationale for curriculum construction is examined. Research in curriculum is reviewed as it pertains to the development of theory.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

CURR 558 - Internship in Curriculum I (2)
This is a 150-hour field-based experience under the supervision of a curriculum director and a faculty advisor.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

CURR 560 - Seminar in Curriculum (3)
Topics vary.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.
DANC 110 - Introductory Ballet (2)
Ballet technique and the classical tradition in dance are introduced through an intensive studio experience, related readings, and attendance at ballet performances. 4 contact hours.
Offered: Fall.

DANC 112 - Introductory Jazz (2)
The technique, rhythms, styles, and historical background of jazz dance are introduced through an intensive studio experience, related readings, and films. 4 contact hours.
Offered: Fall.

DANC 114 - Introductory Tap Dance (2)
The technique, style, and vocabulary of tap dance are introduced through studio experience, related readings, and films. Emphasis is on the development of a strong fundamental technique. 4 contact hours.
Offered: Fall (odd years).

DANC 116 - Beginner Modern Dance Technique (2)
Students focus on technical and artistic elements of expression including the fundamentals of technique, proper alignment and performance artistry in modern dance. This course may be taken twice for credit. Prerequisite: For dance majors and minors or with consent of the instructor.
Offered: Fall.

DANC 181 - Dance Company I (1)
This course is offered to all qualified students by audition. May be repeated for credit. 6 contact hours. Prerequisite: Membership in the Rhode Island College Dance Company and consent of instructor.
Offered: Spring.

DANC 210 - Intermediate Ballet (2)
Intermediate ballet technique and the classical tradition are studied through studio experience, related readings, and ballet performances. Emphasis is on the refinement of technique and elements of performance. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DANC 110.
Offered: Spring.

DANC 212 - Intermediate Jazz (2)
Intermediate jazz technique and the history of jazz dance are examined through studio experience, related readings, and films. Emphasis is on the refinement of technique and elements of performance. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DANC 112.
Offered: Spring.

DANC 214 - Intermediate Tap Dance (2)
Intermediate tap technique and the history of tap dance are explored through studio experience, related readings, and films. Emphasis is on the refinement of technique and elements of performance. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DANC 114.
Offered: Fall (even years).

DANC 215 - Contemporary Dance and Culture (4)
Students are introduced to the techniques, improvisation, and performance of modern dance, with a concentration on proper form and body analysis. Lecture emphasizes dance history, cultural dance, and dance in our society today. 5 contact hours. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course. General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

DANC 216 - Intermediate Modern Dance (2)
Intermediate modern dance technique is provided in a studio experience. Emphasis is on the refinement of technique and elements of performance. 4 contact hours. Prerequisite: DANC 215 or DANC 215W.
Offered: Fall.

DANC 281 - Dance Company II (1)
This course is offered to all qualified students by audition. May be repeated for credit. 6 contact hours. Prerequisite: Membership in the Rhode Island College Dance Company and consent of instructor.
Offered: Spring.

DANC 302 - Musical Resources for Dance (3)
Study includes taking rhythmic dictation, composing rhythmic scores, and analyzing musical forms. Criteria are developed for the selection of music to support, supplement, or contrast with dance. Prerequisite: DANC 215 or DANC 215W.
Offered: As needed.

DANC 303 - Dance Production (3)
The fundamentals of technical production are studied. Emphasis is placed on scenic design for dance and the technical aspects of lighting design. A minimum of twenty hours of laboratory work in a production is required. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours. Prerequisite: DANC 181 (one year in dance company).
Offered: As needed.

DANC 304 - Choreography I (3)
Binary and ternary dance forms are reviewed. Rondo, theme and variations, sonata, and other forms are choreographed. Dance history is summarized and exemplary performing artists are introduced. 5 contact hours. Prerequisite: Consent of instructor.
Offered: Fall (even years).

DANC 309W - Dance History (3)
The development of dance as a performing art in Europe, Russia, and America is examined. Attention is given to the cultural context of dance events. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course. Prerequisite: DANC 215 or DANC 215W, or consent of dance director.
Offered: Spring (odd years).

DANC 316 - Advanced Modern Dance (2)
Advanced modern dance technique is provided in a studio experience. Emphasis is on the refinement of technique and elements of performance through the mastery of complex movement sequences. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DANC 216.
Offered: Spring (even years).

DANC 321 - Dance for Musical Theatre (3)
The performance of dance for musical theatre is studied in its theatrical context. Emphasis is placed on performance techniques and the characteristics of style. This course may be taken twice for credit. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: 9 credit hours of dance technique courses and consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

DANC 322 - Repertory Performance (3)
Performance and style are examined through repertory experience. New or existing dance works are prepared for formal and informal performances. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: 9 credit hours of dance technique courses and consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall (odd years).

DANC 324 - Improvisation/Performance (2)
Students refine their facility for generating dance as a spontaneous response to movement structures and various stimuli. Included are frequent informal and occasional formal performances. This course may be taken twice for credit. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DANC 216.
Offered: As needed.

DANC 333 - Dance Studio Teaching and Styles (3)
Students are introduced to teaching in private dance studios, which involves creating lesson plans, generating choreography for recitals and competitive dance as well as basic dance studio protocols.
Prerequisite: DANC 110, DANC 112, and DANC 216 or consent of Director of Dance.
Offered: As needed.

DANC 343 - Anatomy and Kinesiology for the Dancer (3)
Students cover aspects of anatomy and kinesiology that apply to correct development of dance technique. Students learn about common dance injuries, their causes, and basic methods of care and rehabilitation.
Prerequisite: BIOL 108.
Offered: As needed.

DANC 360 - Seminar in Dance (3)
This course builds on the student's experiences in dance. Topics are announced in advance and allow the student to pursue investigations into select theories and problems.
Prerequisite: 6 credit hours of dance courses and consent of instructor.
Offered: As needed.

DANC 381 - Dance Company III (1)
This course is offered to all qualified students by audition. May be repeated for credit. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Membership in the Rhode Island College Dance Company and consent of instructor.
Offered: Spring.

DANC 405 - Choreography II (3)
Dancers apply the fundamentals of choreography to create examples of preclassical and modern dance. These dances are presented in a demonstration workshop at the end of the semester.
Prerequisite: DANC 304.
Offered: As needed.

DANC 491 - Independent Study in Dance (1-3)
Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research under the supervision of a faculty advisor.
Prerequisite: Demonstration of superior ability and initiative in previous dance courses; and consent of instructor, department chair, and dean.
Offered: As needed.

DANC 492 - Independent Performance in Dance (3)
The student, working with a faculty advisor, selects a specific form or style in dance to which the work is restricted. Evidence of performance is presented during the student choreography showcase.
Prerequisite: Demonstration of superior ability and initiative in previous dance courses; and consent of instructor, department chair, and dean.
Offered: As needed.

DMS - Diagnostic Medical Sonography

DMS 300 - Introduction to Diagnostic Medical Sonography (1.5)
This course is designed to introduce students to diagnostic medical sonography, including sonographic principles and instrumentation, other imaging modalities and medical terminology.
Prerequisite: MEDI 201 or RADT 201, and admission into the diagnostic medical sonography concentration.
Offered: Fall.

DMS 301 - Abdominal Sonography I (1.5)
This course introduces the student to scanning lower extremity vascular sonography. The student then progresses to abdominal vasculature, neck sonography and sonography of the kidneys.
Prerequisite: Admission into the diagnostic medical sonography concentration.
Offered: Spring.

DMS 302 - Scan Lab I (1)
This Scan lab specifically introduces scanning techniques, scan protocols and procedures within the laboratory setting. 2 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DMS 300.
Offered: Spring.

DMS 303 - Abdominal Sonography II (1.5)
This course is designed to give the student an understanding of abdominal and small parts anatomy, physiology, pathophysiology, sonographic presentation, and the clinical presentation of multiple disease states.
Prerequisite: DMS 301.
Offered: Summer.
DMS 305 - Foundations of Diagnostic Medical Sonography (3)
Students are introduced to the Diagnostic Medical Sonography profession. Foundations and basic principles will be discussed.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging Clinical Program.
Offered: Fall.

DMS 306 - Abdominal and Small Parts Sonography (5)
Students learn in-depth pathophysiology of abdominal and small parts organs, including but not limited to the thyroid, parathyroid, prostate and scrotum. 7 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DMS 305.
Offered: Spring.

DMS 307 - Sonographic Principles and Instrumentation (3)
Imaging techniques that use high frequency sound production are introduced. Included is in-depth study of the characteristics of ultrasound and its interaction with human tissue.
Prerequisite: DMS 303.
Offered: Spring.

DMS 308 - Sonographic Principles and Instrumentation (4)
Physical principles and instrumentation of diagnostic ultrasound are covered. Students will study the physical principles of image formation, management of artifacts, evaluation of instrument performance, and safe scanning techniques.
Prerequisite: DMS 305.
Offered: Spring.

DMS 309 - Clinical Education I (3)
Students are prepared for entering the healthcare profession. The student will observe sonographic examinations and procedures as well as practice their individual scanning skills. 16 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DMS 305.
Offered: Spring.

DMS 310 - Clinical Practice I (6)
Students are introduced to clinical and practical experience in diagnostic medical imaging. They must demonstrate the structures of the abdomen and gravid non-gravid female pelvis, using sonography under known conditions. 24 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Admission into the diagnostic medical sonography concentration.
Offered: Spring.

DMS 312 - Scan Lab III (1)
Topics of this course include pancreatic and splenic sonography, and MSK of the shoulder. 2 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DMS 312.
Offered: Fall.

DMS 313 - Clinical Education II (5)
Students learn ultrasound procedures and examinations in clinical settings. This course prepares students to become independent functioning ultrasound technologists. 30 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DMS 309.

DMS 314 - Clinical Practice II (8)
This is a continuation of DMS 310. Students perform sonographic examinations and learn to recognize normal and abnormal sonographic patterns in the abdomen, female pelvis, and fetus. 24 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DMS 310.
Offered: Summer.

DMS 333 - Abdominal Sonography III (1.5)
Students will learn abdominal sonography, including the pancreas and spleen. The student will also be introduced to MSK imaging and abdominal organ imaging.
Prerequisite: DMS 303.
Offered: Fall.

DMS 335 - Obstetrical and Gynecological Sonography III (1.5)
Students will learn third trimester anatomy and pathologies, fetal heart and brain and fetal thoracic pathologies. The student will be introduced to fetal echocardiography and 3D and 4D obstetrical sonography.
Prerequisite: DMS 306.
Offered: Fall.

DMS 336 - Obstetrical and Gynecological Sonography IV (1.5)
Students will learn sonography of post-partum uterus and interventional obstetrics/gynecology with sonographic guidance. Pediatric sonography, and preparation for the ARDMS exam are included.
Prerequisite: DMS 335.
Offered: Spring.

DMS 339 - Clinical Practice IV (6)
This is a continuation of DMS 330. 25.5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DMS 330.
Offered: Fall.

DMS 340 - Clinical Practice III (8)
This is a continuation of DMS 310. 25.5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DMS 330.
Offered: Fall.
DMS 431 - Vascular Technology (4)
Students learn about vascular techniques in DMS. Students learn about venous and arterial anatomy, physiology, pathology and imaging protocols. Advanced testing techniques and interventional procedures are included. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DMS 313
Offered: Fall.

DMS 432 - Obstetrical Sonography (4)
Students will learn normal and pathologic obstetrical imaging. This course also includes ethics, congenital conditions, complications, fetal surveying and assessment.
Prerequisite: DMS 313.
Offered: Fall.

DMS 433 - Clinical Education III (4)
Students learn advanced ultrasound procedures and examinations in clinical settings. This course prepares students to become independent functioning ultrasound technologists. 24 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DMS 313.
Offered: Fall.

DMS 434 - Registry Review (3)
Students of diagnostic medical sonography are prepared to sit for their registry examinations in Abdomen and Ob/GYN sonography.
Prerequisite: DMS 433.
Offered: Spring.

DMS 435 - Advanced Procedures in DMS (3)
Students are educated on a variety of advanced sonographic procedures and examinations. Topics include emerging technologies, sonographic imaging in pediatrics, musculoskeletal, contrast-enhanced imaging and doppler analysis.
Prerequisite: DMS 433
Offered: Spring.

DMS 436 - Clinical Education IV (4)
Students practice advanced ultrasound procedures and examinations in various clinical settings on all patient types. This course prepares students to become independent functioning ultrasound technologists. 24 contact hours.
Prerequisite: DMS 433.
Offered: Spring.

DIS - Disability Studies

DIS 100 - Self-Advocacy and Beyond (2)
Person-centered planning is the basis of understanding college: the campus, the decisions required to engage in college and planning for after college.
Prerequisite: Consent of department chair.
Offered: Summer.

DIS 101 - Introduction to Vocational Exploration (3)
Understanding diversity of careers is the basis of this course. Students will gain an understanding of market data and the skills needed for different career choices.
Prerequisite: DIS 100.
Offered: Fall.

DIS 102 - Campus Vocational Experience I (3)
Students apply self-determination skills to identify potential campus employment. Students use job supports and effective communication to develop skills related to their initial campus employment experience.
Prerequisite: DIS 101.
Offered: Fall.

DIS 103 - Campus/Community Vocational Experience II (3)
Students extend their job experience to include employment into a new vocational area. Students expand their use of job supports and effective communication in their second campus/community experience.
Prerequisite: DIS 102.
Offered: Fall.

DIS 104 - Community Vocational Internship (4)
Students complete their final job experience in their local community. Job skills are expanded into this environment and documented on student resumes.
Prerequisite: DIS 201.
Offered: Spring.

DIS 201 - Study of Disabilities in the USA (3)
Expand understanding of perceptions of individuals with a disability within the United States over time.
Prerequisite: Graduate status.
Offered: Fall.

DIS 202 - Fieldwork in Disability Studies (1)
Students will engage in research, team collaboration, family support and/or product development related to individuals with disabilities.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and Sherlock Center Trainee or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

DIS 203 - Starting the Transition Journey (4)
Students explore self-determination, person-centered planning, transition assessment and the development of appropriate academic, employment and independent living goals and services for students with exceptionalities ages 14 – 16.
Prerequisite: DIS 451, Admission to the C.G.S. in Transition to Adult life or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

DIS 204 - Transition in the Middle Years (4)
Students will identify the systems, supports, services and practices in transition for students ages 17-18 with exceptionalities; Self-determination, person-centered planning, transition assessment will be examined.
Prerequisite: DIS 551 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.
DIS 553 - Completing the Transition Journey (4)
Prepating young adults with exceptionalities (ages 19-22) to access adult supports will include a comprehensive review of the timelines and support agency involvement.
Prerequisite: DIS 552 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

DIS 561 - Interdisciplinary Seminar 1: Foundations (1)
This seminar will provide a forum for discussing issues pertinent to interdisciplinary practice. The foundations of interdisciplinary team decision-making and interdisciplinary service provision will be explored.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and Sherlock Center trainee or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall (odd years).

DIS 562 - Interdisciplinary Seminar 2: Legal/Legislative Influences (1)
This seminar will provide forum for examining how law and legislation influence the lives of individuals with disabilities. The role of current and future leadership in law and legislative change will be discussed.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and Sherlock Center trainee or consent of department chair, DIS 561.
Offered: Spring (even years).

DIS 563 - Interdisciplinary Seminar 3: Leadership (1)
This seminar will provide a forum for trainees to develop leadership skills in disability studies. Participants will develop skills in presentations around disability study.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and Sherlock Center trainee or consent of department chair, DIS 561 and DIS 562.
Offered: Fall (even years).

DIS 564 - Interdisciplinary Seminar 4: Funding (1)
This seminar extends the opportunities for trainees to expand leadership skills in disability studies. Participants will develop skills in grant development around disability studies.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and Sherlock Center trainee or consent of department chair, DIS 561, DIS 562 and DIS 563.
Offered: Spring (odd years).

ECED - Early Childhood Education

ECED 201 - Introduction to Early Childhood Education (3)
Using a social justice framework, students study theories of learning and models of early childhood education to understand components of curricula including content, process, teaching, facilitating and contexts of learning.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ECED 202 - Early Childhood Development, Birth to Eight (3)
This course examines the characteristics and needs of young children, birth through eight, including the stages and multiple influences on early development and learning, using historical and culturally diverse perspectives. (Formerly ECED 302.)
Prerequisite: ECED 290 and admission to the early childhood education teacher preparation program, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

ECED 252 - Building Family, School and Community Partnerships (3)
Students examine methods of building respectful, reciprocal relationships that empower and support families in their children's development. Students also come to understand the complexities of family and community characteristics. (Formerly ECED 332.)
Prerequisite: Admission to a FSEHD Early Childhood Education program, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 290 - A Cross-Disciplinary Approach to ECED (3)
The application of social work principles to the field of early care and education is explored, with emphasis on a systems-based approach to working with children and families.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ECED 301 - Developmental Approaches to Teaching and Learning (3)
Developmentally appropriate approaches and teaching models for all early childhood education students, including atypical/exceptional, are learned through supervised practice. Observations and a multicultural/urban practicum are required. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Minimum GPA of 2.50 in all previous courses and admission to the early childhood education teacher preparation program, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

ECED 303 - Creating an Early Childhood Learning Community (3)
This course explores principles of care and education in the early childhood environment, including the importance of creating a community through relationships, physical space, and organization of time.
Prerequisite: CEP 215; ECED 301, ECED 202 or ECED 302; SPED 301; and admission to the early childhood education teacher preparation program.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 305 - Intentional Teaching in the Early Years (4)
The practicum course introduces developmentally effective approaches for teaching/learning in the early years (3-5). ECED candidates observe, evaluate, design, implement curriculum and environments supportive of children's development and learning.
Prerequisite: Admission to the FSEHD EC Program; or consent of department chair; taken concurrently with ECED 326.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 310 - Contextualizing Infant Toddler Education (3)
Students explore effective tools emphasizing positive attention, approval and affection in infant-toddler care/development, and apply a structured caregiving model to current trends and theories to enhance development across developmental domains.
Prerequisite: Admission to the FSEHD ECED BS Concentration in Birth to Three, or by permission of department chair.
Offered: Fall.
ECED 312 - Infant Toddler Cognitive Development and Learning (5)
Candidates' study the cognitive development of infants/toddlers and the role of primary caregiving relationships in supporting this development. Using theory, research and reflection candidates' strengthen their own practices.
Prerequisite: Admission to the FSEHD EC Program or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

ECED 314 - Infant Toddler Social/Emotional Development and Learning (5)
Candidates' study the social-emotional development of infants/toddlers and the role of primary caregiving relationships in supporting this development. Using theory, research and reflection candidates' strengthen their own practices.
Prerequisite: Completion of ECED 202 or ECED 302, ECED 310, ECED 312 and SPED 305 (B- or higher) or by permission of Department Chair.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 321 - Mathematics: Methods and Assessment (4)
ECED Candidates develop an understanding of essential content and effective data-driven teaching approaches for mathematics in early childhood (K-2) through an in-depth practicum experience that utilizes observation, reflection and co-teaching.
Prerequisite: Any mathematics general education distribution; ECED 305; ECED 322; ECED 326; ECED 328; (minimum B-) or consent of department chair; taken concurrently with ECED 324.
Offered: Fall.

ECED 322 - English Language Arts: Methods and Assessment I (4)
ECED candidates learn evidence-based and equitable practices enhancing early language and literacy development of children, birth to 5. Students implement observation and assessment protocols to inform curriculum development during a practicum experience.
Prerequisite: ECED 305; ECED 326 (minimum grade of B-) or consent of department chair; taken concurrently with ECED 328.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 323 - English Language Arts: Methods and Assessment II (4)
Students explore evidence-based curriculum, instruction and assessment that promote literacy and language skills for all children through an in-depth practicum experience that utilizes observation, reflection and co-teaching.
Prerequisite: ECED 305; ECED 322; ECED 326; ECED 328 (minimum B-) or consent of department chair; taken concurrently with ECED 321.
Offered: Fall.

ECED 324 - Social Studies and Social/Emotional Methods (4)
ECED candidates will understand the importance of social competence; and the connectedness of being socially competent to social studies through an in-depth practicum experience that utilizes observation, reflection and co-teaching.
Prerequisite: Admission to the FSEHD EC Program; or consent of department chair; taken concurrently with ECED 305.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 326 - Science and Technology Methods (4)
ECED Candidates develop an understanding of essential content and effective teaching approaches for science & technology in early childhood (K-2) through in-depth practicum experience that utilizes observation, reflection and co-teaching.
Prerequisite: ECED 305; ECED 326 (minimum grade of B-), or consent of department chair; taken concurrently with ECED 322.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 410 - Infant Toddler Field Experience I (4)
In this course candidates will engage in a competency-based field experience designed to support the application and practice of content within the Birth to Three Concentration.
Prerequisite: Completion of ECED 310, ECED 314, and SPED 305 (B- or higher) or by permission of Department Chair.
Offered: Fall.

ECED 412 - Infant Toddler Field Experience II (4)
In this course candidates will engage in a competency-based field experience designed to support the application and practice of content within the Birth to Three Concentration.
Prerequisite: Completion of ECED 202, ECED 232, ECED 310, ECED 312, ECED 314, ECED 410, and SPED 305 (B- or higher).
Offered: Fall.

ECED 416 - Infant Toddler Language Development and Learning (5)
Students explore language development for infants/toddlers including theoretical perspectives, the role of caregiving relationships and environmental, cultural and socioeconomic influences.
Prerequisite: Completion of ECED 202, ECED 232, ECED 310, ECED 312, ECED 314, ECED 410, and SPED 305 (B- or higher).
Offered: Fall.

ECED 419 - Early Care and Education, Birth to Three Years (5)
Students create and maintain positive learning activities for infant-toddler group care. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Prior or concurrent enrollment in ECED 301, with minimum grade of B-; admission to the early childhood education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

ECED 420 - Mathematics, Prekindergarten through Second Grade (3)
Mathematics education in prekindergarten through second grade is examined. Also explored are the development of appropriate teaching/learning strategies, content, and materials related to teaching all young children. Practicum required. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ECED 301 or equivalent and ECED 419, each with minimum grade of B-; MATH 143 and MATH 144, each with minimum grade of C; admission to the early childhood education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.
ECED 425 - Developmental Literacy and the Language Arts I (4)
Developmentally appropriate methods and materials for promoting literacy and language skills, strategies, and dispositions for young children are explored, including children's literature. Practicum: kindergarten and grade one. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ECED 301; ECED 419, with minimum grade of B-; prior or concurrent enrollment in ECED 420, with minimum grade of B-; admission to the early childhood education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 426 - Developmental Literacy and the Language Arts II (4)
Teacher candidates work with infants, toddlers, and preschoolers from diverse populations. Study includes managing classroom literacy programs through grade two. Practicum: infants through grade two. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ECED 301; ECED 419, ECED 420, ECED 423, each with minimum grade of B-; concurrent enrollment in ECED 429; admission to the early childhood education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

ECED 429 - Early Childhood Social Studies and Science (4)
Students use developmentally appropriate methods, content, and materials to establish positive learning environments. Practicum: prekindergarten and grade one. 7 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ECED 301 or equivalent, with minimum grade of B-; ECED 419, ECED 420, ECED 423; prior or concurrent enrollment in ECED 425; admission to the early childhood education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

ECED 430 - Student Teaching: Early Childhood Settings I (9)
Teacher candidates focus on refining effective teaching practices within an early childhood setting; developing deep understanding of context, planning, preparation, and professionalism.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in ECED 439 and satisfactory completion of all major and professional courses.
Offered: Fall.

ECED 431 - Building Collaborative Relationships Through Coaching (3)
Application of the coaching model to build capacity and support children, families, and practitioners in a variety of early childhood settings will be explored; along with principles of adult learning.
Prerequisite: Admission to the FSEHD ECED Program/Concentration in Community Programs. Completion of ECED 202 and ECED 232.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 432 - Student Teaching: Early Childhood Settings II (9)
Teacher candidates further refine effective teaching practices within an early childhood setting; developing deep understanding of educational environment, instruction, and delivery.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in ECED 470 and satisfactory completion of all major and professional courses.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 449 - Early Childhood Community Program Internship (6)
In this culminating experience, candidates complete in an infant-toddler program, preschool program, or community-based program under the supervision of a cooperating teacher/mentor and college supervisor. Graded S/U.
Prerequisite: Completion of all program major requirements.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 469 - Best Practices: Early Childhood Settings I (3)
Teacher candidates analyze district and school level policies and data, collaborations among school personnel, families, community agencies and specific school curriculum in order to develop profession-ready early childhood teaching skills. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: Concurrent Enrollment in ECED 441.
Offered: Fall.

ECED 470 - Best Practices: Early Childhood Settings II (3)
Teacher candidates analyze the teaching profession, and examine current national, state and local issues and practices in early childhood teaching in order to contextualize their place in the larger field.
Prerequisite: Concurrent Enrollment in ECED 441.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 479 - Best Practices in Infant Toddler Settings (3)
Issues and practices of care and education of infants/toddlers are analyzed to understand how collaborations among programs, families, community agencies and assessment, in high quality infant/toddler care and education operate.
Prerequisite: Admission to the FSEHD ECED Program/Concentration, Birth to Three. Completion of ECED 310, ECED 312, ECED 314, ECED 410, ECED 412, ECED 416, and SPED 305.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 490 - Directed Study (3)
Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

ECED 491 - Independent Study I (3)
Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, program director and dean, and admission to the early childhood education honors program.
Offered: As needed.

ECED 492 - Independent Study II (3)
This course continues the development of research or activity begun in ECED 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment from the department.
Prerequisite: ECED 491 and consent of instructor, program director and dean.
Offered: As needed.
ECED 502 - Curriculum, Developmental Play, and Programs (3)
Development and content of curriculum and trends in research for early care and education through primary grades are examined.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of instructor.
Offered: Fall.

ECED 503 - Infants and Toddlers in Early Care and Education Programs (3)
Components of quality group-care situations for infants and toddlers are analyzed. Topics include professional responsibilities and health and safety routines.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of instructor.
Offered: Fall.

ECED 505 - Early Childhood Education and Development Issues (3)
This course fosters an understanding of various theoretical perspectives, issues of young children's educational, physical, social, emotional, and cognitive development, focusing on typical and atypical growth, multicultural contexts and characteristics.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of instructor.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 509 - Emergent Literacy—Infants through Grade Two (3)
Students learn how to help young children acquire an interest in reading and learn the necessary concepts concerning print and books.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of instructor.
Offered: As needed.

ECED 512 - Working with Families: Building Home-School Partnerships (3)
Students develop an understanding of parenting, of working with families within diverse contexts, and of building school, community, and family partnerships. Relevant National Board for Professional Teaching standards are reviewed.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of instructor.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 661 - Directing Early Care and Education Programs (3)
Quality day care and preschool programs are analyzed and the administrative functions necessary to maintain them.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of instructor.
Offered: Spring.

ECED 662 - Seminar in Early Childhood Education Research (3)
Students gain increased professional knowledge and competencies in finding, assessing, applying, and presenting data related to selected major topics in the field of early childhood education.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of instructor.
Offered: Fall.

ECON - Economics

ECON 200 - Introduction to Economics (4)
This course fosters an understanding of the market economy and contemporary economic problems, such as economic growth and inflation, unemployment, income distribution, and the role of government. Students cannot receive credit for ECON 200 if they have successfully completed or are currently enrolled in ECON 214.
General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ECON 214 - Principles of Microeconomics (3)
Microeconomics is introduced, including such areas of decision making as individual demand theory, cost theory, production theory, and the structure of markets.
Prerequisite: Completion of College Mathematics Competency.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ECON 215 - Principles of Macroeconomics (3)
The U.S. economy as a whole is considered and problems of inflation and recession are explored by examining aggregate demand, aggregate supply, national product and income, and the influence of money and interest rates on the economy.
Prerequisite: Completion of College Mathematics Competency.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ECON 314 - Intermediate Microeconomic Theory and Applications (4)
Theoretical foundations covered in ECON 214 are expanded upon and myriad applications of these theories are developed, using graphical and mathematical techniques. The role of microeconomics in managerial decision making is also explored.
Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215 and MATH 177.
Offered: Fall.

ECON 315 - Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory and Analysis (4)
Macroeconomic models are used to analyze economic growth, unemployment, and inflation. Also examined are the effectiveness of fiscal and monetary policies, using models depicting the interactions of product, resource, and financial markets.
Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 177.
Offered: Spring.

ECON 331 - Topics in Global Economics (4)
The course will introduce students to the basic operation of various economies while presenting facts of development and trade policies that are relevant for the study of the world economy.
Prerequisite: ECON 200 and Completion of College Math Competency, or ECON 214, or ECON 215.
Offered: Annually (even years).

ECON 335 - Economics of Race and Gender (4)
This course emphasizes study of both non-labor and labor market outcomes, and analysis of government policies, regulations, race and gender equality, and international comparisons on racial-ethnic and gender.
ECON 337 - Economics of Climate Change and Sustainability (4)
Students are introduced to the economic causes of climate change. A global perspective combined with emphasis on the role of uncertainty and sustainable development is used to explore policy responses.
Prerequisite: ECON 200 and Completion of College Math Competency, or ECON 214.
Offered: Annually (even years).

ECON 390 - Directed Study (4)
Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

ECON 421 - International Economics (4)
The theory of international trade is analyzed. Topics include the benefits of trade and the effects of tariffs, quotas, and customs unions. Also covered are the theories of international monetary relations, capital flows, and exchange rates.
Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 177.
Offered: As needed.

ECON 422 - Economics of Developing Countries (4)
The characteristics of developing countries and the process of economic development are examined. Topics include poverty, inequality, unemployment, capital formation in industry and agriculture, and the effects of foreign trade and aid.
Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 177.
Offered: As needed.

ECON 431 - Labor Economics (4)
The structures and operations of human resource markets are analyzed, including pricing and allocation of labor resources, wage differentials, income distribution, discrimination, and unemployment.
Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 177.
Offered: As needed.

ECON 433 - Economics of Government (4)
The role of the public sector in the United States and its effect on the economy are studied. Discussion includes the impact of federal, state, and local government expenditure and revenue.
Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 177.

Economic analysis is applied to the development and problems of urban areas. Urban issues, such as poverty, housing, and transportation, are examined and the market forces that determine why and where urban areas develop.
Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 177.
Offered: As needed.

ECON 436 - Industrial Organization and Market Structure (4)
The economics of industrial organization and the organization of firms and industries are analyzed using microeconomic theories and empirical data. Public policy issues are assessed, including antitrust and regulatory mechanisms.
Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 177.
Offered: As needed.

ECON 437 - Environmental Economics (4)
Focus is on current environmental problems and policies. Topics include valuing the environment, approaches to controlling local and regional air pollution, energy policy, climate change, global warming, and sustainable economic growth.
Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215; MATH 177.
Offered: As needed.

ECON 438 - History of Economic Thought (4)
The development of economic thought is examined from the prescholastics through the middle of the twentieth century.
Prerequisite: ECON 214, ECON 215 and at least one additional economics course at the 300-level or above.
Offered: As needed.

ECON 449W - Introduction to Econometrics (4)
Quantitative methods used in testing theoretical propositions in economics and business are presented. Emphasis is on the use of regression, time-series models, and other econometric methods. Lecture and computer laboratory. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: ECON 314, ECON 449 or ECON 449W, and one additional economics course at the 400-level.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ECON 462W - Seminar in Economic Research (4)
Students integrate economic literature, theory, data and empirical methodologies, write, and present a research paper in the style of a journal article. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: ECON 314, ECON 449 or ECON 449W, and one additional economics course at the 400-level.
Offered: Spring.

ECON 467 - Directed Internship in Economics (4)
Students are assigned to a business, government, industrial, or a not-for-profit organization and supervised by a mentor. A two-hour biweekly seminar is included.
Prerequisite: Junior standing, a major or minor in a School of Management program and consent of internship director and appropriate faculty member.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ECON 490 - Independent Study in Economics (4)
Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research under the supervision of a faculty advisor.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.
ECON 491 - Independent Study I (4)
This course emphasizes the development of research for students admitted to the economics honors program. The research topic is selected and conducted under the supervision of a faculty advisor.
Prerequisite: Admission to the economics honors program and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

ECON 492 - Independent Study II (4)
This course continues the development of research begun in ECON 491. The honors research is completed under the consultation of a faculty advisor. A research paper and presentation are required.
Prerequisite: ECON 491 and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

EDC - Education

EDC 540 - Teaching of Writing: Practice and Inquiry (3)
Students will renew their identities as writers and teachers of writing by learning and implementing progressive and critical theories and practices of teaching writing.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, acceptance in the Rhode Island Writing Project (RIWP) Summer Institute and consent of the RIC site director for the RIWP.
Offered: Summer.

EDC 661 - Language and Thinking in Schools (3)
Topics of language and thinking are considered broadly as they relate both theoretically and practically to curriculum in schools.
Prerequisite: Admission to joint URI/RIC Ph.D. in Education Program or graduate status with permission of instructor.
Offered: As needed.

EDC 662 - Writing for Presentations and Publications (3)
With peers, students will develop an academic writing practice through writing, reading and constructively critiquing academic texts. Final project options include an academic manuscript, presentation or reflective portfolio.
Prerequisite: Admission to joint URI/RIC Ph.D. in Education Program or graduate status and permission of instructor.
Offered: As needed.

EDC 664 - Social Justice in Higher Education (3)
This course provides a broad overview of historical and contemporary issues of social justice in higher education.
Prerequisite: Admission to joint URI/RIC Ph.D. in Education Program or graduate status with permission of instructor.
Offered: As needed.

EDC 670 - Theory Construction in the Social Sciences (3)
Students will construct an original theoretical framework in their area of specialization, informed by contemporary issues and trends in educational and social science theory.
Prerequisite: Admission to joint URI/RIC Ph.D. in Education Program or graduate status with permission of instructor.
Offered: As needed.

EDC 681 - Culture and Discourse in Education (3)
Learning and teaching are examined in terms of culture and discourse in social activity. Consideration is given to formal and informal activity settings and to theories and methods of research.
Prerequisite: Admission to joint URI/RIC Ph.D. in Education Program or graduate status with permission of instructor.
Offered: As needed.

EDC 682 - Discourse Analysis in Education Research (3)
The analysis of discourse in education research is examined and practiced in this course. Students conduct various analyses of discourse samples and explore a variety of analytic research frameworks.
Prerequisite: Admission to joint URI/RIC Ph.D. in Education Program or graduate status with permission of instructor.
Offered: As needed.

EDC 685 - Survey Design (3)
Principles, theories, techniques and applications for developing survey questionnaires and conducting survey research in education; developing questions; constructing instruments; implementing surveys; and reducing coverage and sampling errors.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, research methods (EDP 613 or equivalent), research design (EDP 623 or equivalent) and permission of instructor.
Offered: As needed.

EDP - Education Doctoral Program

EDP 600 - Reading and Writing for Doctoral Studies (3)
Students develop and practice academic reading, writing, and thinking skills involved in professional practices of education research and publishing communities. Course emphasizes scholarly identity and writing cogent literature reviews.
Offered: Fall.

EDP 601 - First Year ProSeminar for Ph.D. in Education (3)
Students are introduced to educational research paradigms and related areas of program faculty expertise. Course focuses on engaging in academic conversations and multiple ways to address research problems in education.
Offered: Fall.
EDP 610 - Core Seminar I: Issues and Problems in Educational Inquiry and Foundations (3)
Issues and problems are presented related to the philosophical and historical aspects of educational thought and the role of the school in society. Emphasis is on empirical analysis of classroom settings.
Prerequisite: Admission to the Ph.D. in Education program.
Offered: Fall.
EDP 611 - Core Seminar I: Issues and Problems in Educational Inquiry and Foundations (3)
Issues and problems are presented related to the philosophical and historical aspects of educational thought and the role of the school in society. Emphasis is on empirical analysis of classroom settings.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and EDP 610.
Offered: Spring.
EDP 612 - Introduction to Qualitative Research (3)
Qualitative methods of educational research, including terminology, historical development, assumptions, and models of inquiry, are examined.
Prerequisite: Admission to the Ph.D. in education program.
Offered: Fall.
EDP 613 - Introduction to Quantitative Research (4)
The quantitative analysis of educational research data is examined. Emphasis is on applications of the general linear model to a variety of research designs (i.e., ANOVA, Regression). Lecture and computer laboratory.
Prerequisite: Admission to the Ph.D. in education program.
Offered: Spring.
EDP 620 - Core Seminar II: Issues and Problems in Human Development, Learning, and Teaching (3)
Issues and problems related to human development, curriculum, teaching, and learning are examined, with emphasis on the ways of gathering and evaluating evidence about school and curricula effectiveness.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, EDP 610, EDP 611. EDP 620 is prerequisite to EDP 621.
Offered: Fall.
EDP 621 - Core Seminar II: Issues and Problems in Human Development, Learning, and Teaching (3)
Issues and problems related to human development, curriculum, teaching, and learning are examined, with emphasis on the ways of gathering and evaluating evidence about school and curricula effectiveness.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, EDP 610, EDP 611. EDP 620 is prerequisite to EDP 621.
Offered: Spring.
EDP 622 - Community Service Learning (2)
Focusing on the school, students examine theory and define problems related to community service and service learning.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, EDP 610 and EDP 611.
Offered: Spring.
EDP 623 - Research Design (3)
Students develop problem statements, research questions, hypotheses, and literature reviews, and identify appropriate methodology (qualitative, quantitative, mixed methods).
Prerequisite: Graduate status, EDP 610, EDP 611, EDP 612, EDP 613, or consent of codirector.
Offered: Fall.
EDP 630 - Core Seminar III: Issues and Problems in Organizational Theory, Leadership, and Policy Analysis (3)
Issues and problems are presented concerning the educational applications of organizational theory, leadership theory, and policy analysis as they relate to district, statewide, and/or regional educational offices and agencies.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, EDP 620, EDP 621. EDP 630 is prerequisite to EDP 631.
Offered: Fall.
EDP 631 - Core Seminar III: Issues and Problems in Organizational Theory, Leadership, and Policy Analysis (3)
Issues and problems are presented concerning the educational applications of organizational theory, leadership theory, and policy analysis as they relate to district, statewide, and/or regional educational offices and agencies.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, EDP 620, EDP 621. EDP 630 is prerequisite to EDP 631.
Offered: Spring.
EDP 641 - Field Research Seminar (1)
Second and third year students research questions and empirical designs and present them in biweekly forums. Discussion and feedback refine their research plans. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: Admission to the Ph.D. in education program.
Offered: Fall, Spring.
EDP 692-693 - Directed Readings and Research Problems (1-3)
Students undertake directed readings and advanced research work under the supervision of their major instructor.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, EDP 623 and consent of instructor.
Offered: As needed.
EDP 699 - Doctoral Dissertation Research (12)
Students conduct a major research project and write a dissertation under the direction of the instructor. A minimum of 12 credit hours in this course is required. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: Admission to the Ph.D. in education program and consent of major instructor and RIC co-director.
Offered: As needed.

LEAD - Educational Leadership

LEAD 500 - Developing Leaders for Learning (3)
Effective leadership skills and dispositions are examined. Emphasis is on understanding human learning processes, developing an educational vision, and becoming a reflective leader. The role of values in leadership is also introduced.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

LEAD 501 - Developing Inquiry for Reflective Leadership (1)
The roles of critical inquiry, research, and evaluation in reflective leadership are explored. A field research project that focuses on school system structures and processes is required.
Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. in educational leadership program and concurrent enrollment in both LEAD 505 and LEAD 511, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

LEAD 502 - Building Connections: External Contexts of Leadership (3)
Students explore methods of communicating with and influencing decision makers outside the school community to promote equitable access in learning. Emphasis is on building sociopolitical and fiscal resources to support learning.
Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. in educational leadership program, LEAD 500, and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 503.
Offered: Spring.

LEAD 503 - Building Connections in Diverse Contexts (1)
Students develop skill in communication, organization, and collaboration in diverse contexts. A fifty-hour field experience in an urban agency, or in a family- or youth-serving agency or school, is required. Performance-based assessments are expected.
Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. in educational leadership program and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 502.
Offered: Spring.

LEAD 504 - Leading Learning I: Planning, Instruction, Assessment (4)
Students develop skills and dispositions needed for instructional and transformational leadership. Emphasis is on articulating an equitable vision for learning through critical reflection and on advocating data-based decision making and accountability.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 500.
Offered: Fall.

LEAD 505 - Leading Learning II: Collaboration, Supervision, Technology (2)
Students enact an equitable educational platform for learning characterized by collaborative instructional teams, effective supervision, and systematic monitoring of learning outcomes. The role of information technology is examined.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, LEAD 504 and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 511.
Offered: Spring.

LEAD 506 - Creating Learning Structures: Equity, Law, Practice (4)
Policy making and legislation at the local, state, and federal levels to advance learning are reviewed. Emphasis is on creating and managing structures for safe, equitable, and effective learning organizations.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and LEAD 505.
Offered: Summer.

LEAD 507 - Leading Change I: Challenges, Capacity, Transformation (4)
Models, strategies, and research on change and conflict resolution to improve school culture are examined. Emphasis is on the use of problem-framing, outcome monitoring, and data analysis in building capacity.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and LEAD 506.
Offered: Fall.

LEAD 508 - Leading Change II: Research, Accountability, Ethics (2)
This course synthesizes the research, examines ethical practice, and promotes individual and group reflective practice for leading change. Accountability through critical inquiry and evidence-based decision making is emphasized.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, LEAD 507 and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 512.
Offered: Spring.

LEAD 511 - Leadership Internship I (2)
This initial 150-hour, school-based experience nurtures entry-level competencies in promoting positive school culture and best practice for leading learning. Competency-focused work samples and dispositional assessments are expected.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 505.
Offered: Spring.

LEAD 512 - Leadership Internship II (2)
This final 150-hour, school-based experience focuses on consolidating entry-level competencies in promoting positive school culture and leading change. Submission of a competency-focused performance-based portfolio is required.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 508.
Offered: Spring.

LEAD 522 - Classroom to Courtroom (3)
Educators develop a mock trial to highlight the consequences for youth charged with serious legal offenses.
Prerequisite: Graduate status.
Offered: Summer.

LEAD 530 - Instructional Leadership Foundation Seminar (2)
An overview is given of instructional leadership theories and research. Students participate in self-assessment activities, using information for setting strategic goals for their own development while pursuing the LEAD-IL goals.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and concurrent enrollment in both LEAD 504 and LEAD 531.
Offered: Fall.

LEAD 531 - Instructional Leaders as Coaches (2)
Core beliefs and guiding principles are reviewed concerning instructional coaching, providing content, modeling segments, and tools to assist instructional leaders as they support the professional growth of teachers.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and concurrent enrollment in both LEAD 504 and LEAD 530.
Offered: Fall.

LEAD 532 - Instructional Leader Internship I (2)
Students participate in a supervised 150-hour teacher leader internship focused on coaching.
Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. in instructional leadership program; completion of LEAD 504, LEAD 530, and LEAD 531.
Offered: Spring.

LEAD 533 - Instructional Leader Seminar I: Leading Change (2)
Students participate in an integrating leadership experience to link theoretical concepts, models, and process of leadership with the purpose of creating change and analyzing its resulting outcomes.
Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. in instructional leadership program and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 532.
Offered: Spring.

LEAD 534 - Instructional Leader Internship II (2)
Students participate in a supervised 150-hour instructional leader internship.
Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. in instructional leadership program, completion of LEAD 532 and LEAD 533, and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 535.
Offered: Fall.

LEAD 535 - Instructional Leader Seminar II: Data Driven Decision Making (2)
Students focus on integrating entry-level competencies on data-driven decision making, instructional leadership, and action research.
Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. in instructional leadership program and concurrent enrollment in LEAD 534.
Offered: Spring.

ELED - Elementary Education

ELED 202 - Teaching All Learners: Foundations and Strategies (4)
Teaching skills and strategies effective for diverse learners are presented and practiced; principles and practices addressing intellectual, physical, behavioral and cultural differences among children are discussed. Assigned practicum required. Students cannot receive credit for both ELED 202 and SPED 202.
Prerequisite: FNED 101 and FNED 246, with a minimum grade of B-, and admission into the elementary and special education B.S. programs, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

ELED 222 - Foundations of Literacy I: Grades 1-3 (3)
In this course, students will learn and reflect critically on effective high quality core literacy curriculum for grades K-3. Students design standards-aligned literacy instruction and reading assessments.
Prerequisite: ELED 202 with a minimum grade of B-; admission to the Elementary Education program or consent of the Department Chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 228 - Teaching Functions and Algebra (2)
Students examine concepts central to teaching and learning algebra in elementary and middle school. Generalization, symbols, patterns, functional relationships and representations are investigated in an inquiry-based teaching and learning model.
Prerequisite: Admission to the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development and MATH 144.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 248 - Teaching Data and Statistics (2)
Students examine concepts central to teaching and learning data and statistics in elementary and middle school. Data collection, representation, analysis, probability and measures of central tendency are investigated.
Prerequisite: Admission to the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development and MATH 144.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 300 - Concepts of Teaching Diverse Learners (3)
The technical skills of teaching and classroom organization in diversity responsive classrooms are presented and practiced. Observations and multicultural field experience are required. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: FNED 246, with minimum grade of B-; minimum GPA of 2.50 in all previous courses; and admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program; or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 324 - Foundations of Literacy II: Grades 3-6 (3)
Students examine concepts central to teaching and learning effective high quality core literacy curriculum for grades 3-6. Students design standards-aligned literacy instruction and reading assessments.
Prerequisite: ELED 222 with a minimum grade of B-.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 326 - Assessment and Intervention in Literacy-Tier 2 (4)
Teacher Candidates will determine the need for Tier 2 support. They will identify and implement reading interventions and monitor student growth using aligned progress monitoring tools and normed growth criteria.
Prerequisite: ELED 222 with a minimum grade of B-.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 330 - Physical Sciences for Elementary School Teachers (4)
Students in this course examine content pedagogical knowledge for elementary school learners in the physical sciences through interactive investigations.
Prerequisite: Admission to FSEHD, or permission of the Department Chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ELED 400 - Curriculum and Assessment with Instructional Technology (3)
Theory and strategies for designing curriculum and assessing student learning are examined, along with other factors affecting teaching and learning. A variety of texts will be analyzed and discussed including: elementary student work, elementary textbooks, and digital media.
ELED 420 - Children's Literature and the Integrated Arts (3)
The development of various patterns of literature instruction integrated with the arts of music, drama and art in the elementary school are studied.
Prerequisite: ELED 300, with minimum grade of B-; admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program or consent of the department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 422 - Developmental Reading (3)
This field-based experience is concerned with reading instruction from a developmental perspective. Instructional implications for teaching special populations are covered. Focus is on the elements of a balanced program in reading and writing. Laboratory/conference required. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ELED 300, with minimum grade of B-; admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program or consent of the department chair. Concurrent with ELED 435.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 426 - Teaching Social Studies to Diverse Learners (3)
The role of social studies in elementary schools and the development of teaching/learning strategies to include all children are examined, including English language learners and special populations. Laboratory/conference required. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ELED 300, with minimum grade of B-; admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program or consent of the department chair. Concurrent with ELED 440.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 427 - Elementary School Science and Health Education (3)
The role of science and health in elementary schools and the development of teaching/learning strategies are examined, including teaching science and health to special populations.
Laboratory/conference required. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: BIOL 100 and PSCI 204, each with a minimum grade of C, except for students electing a content major in general science; ELED 202 or SPED 202; ELED 222 and ELED 324.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 429 - Student Teaching in the Elementary School (9)
Candidates complete a teaching experience in an elementary school under the supervision of a cooperating teacher and college supervisor. This is a full-semester assignment. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in ELED 469; satisfactory completion of all major and professional courses required prior to student teaching; a positive recommendation from the professor of each elementary education course; a cumulative GPA of 2.30; a full semester prior to student teaching; passing score(s) on the Praxis II approved Preparing to Teach Portfolio; and completion of the community service requirement.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 433 - Teaching Elementary School Mathematics (3)
The role of mathematics in elementary schools and the development of teaching/learning strategies are examined, including teaching mathematics to special populations. Laboratory/conference required. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ELED 202 or SPED 202, with a minimum grade of B-; ELED 222 and ELED 324, each with a minimum grade of B-; MATH 143 and MATH 144 each with a minimum grade of C, and admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program or consent of the department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 436 - Teaching Social Studies to Diverse Learners (3)
The role of social studies in elementary schools and the development of teaching/learning strategies are examined, including teaching social studies to diverse learners.
Laboratory/conference required. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ELED 300, with minimum grade of B-; admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program or consent of the department chair. Concurrent with ELED 440.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 437 - Language Arts and ELL Instruction (3)
The role of language arts in elementary schools and the development of teaching/learning strategies to include all children are examined, including English language learners and special populations. Laboratory/conference required. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ELED 300, with minimum grade of B-; admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program or consent of the department chair. Concurrent with ELED 440.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 438 - Teaching Elementary School Mathematics (3)
The role of mathematics in elementary schools and the development of teaching/learning strategies are examined, including teaching mathematics to special populations. Laboratory/conference required. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: ELED 202 or SPED 202, with a minimum grade of B-; ELED 222 and ELED 324, each with a minimum grade of B-; MATH 143 and MATH 144 each with a minimum grade of C, and admission to the elementary education teacher preparation program or consent of the department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 439 - Student Teaching in the Elementary School (9)
Candidates complete a teaching experience in an elementary school under the supervision of a cooperating teacher and college supervisor. This is a full-semester assignment. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in ELED 469; satisfactory completion of all major and professional courses required prior to student teaching; a positive recommendation from the professor of each elementary education course; a cumulative GPA of 2.30; a full semester prior to student teaching; passing score(s) on the Praxis II approved Preparing to Teach Portfolio; and completion of the community service requirement.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 440 - Capstone: STEAM/Project-Based Learning (2)
Teacher candidates are offered an opportunity to explore integrated Project-Based Learning (PBL) experiences that reflect an understanding of the essential concepts and methodologies of STEAM in the elementary classroom.
Prerequisite: ELED 437 and ELED 438 with a grade of B- or better; or permission of the department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 450 - Directed Study (1)
Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

ELED 451 - Independent Study I (3)
Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, program director and dean, and admission to the elementary education honors program.
Offered: As needed.
ELED 492 - Independent Study II (3)
This course continues the development of research or activity begun in ELED 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment by the department.
Prerequisite: ELED 491; and consent of instructor, program director and dean.
Offered: As needed.

ELED 504 - Mathematics in the Elementary School (3)
Focus is on the content and approach to modern mathematics programs, particularly current research and curriculum trends.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and elementary school teaching experience, or consent of instructor.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 506 - Elementary Mathematics: Geometry, Measurement, Data, Statistics (3)
Elementary mathematics curriculum, content knowledge, standards-based instruction, and research in pedagogy are linked to the teaching of geometry, measurement, and data in the elementary classroom.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and elementary school teaching experience, or consent of instructor.
Offered: As needed.

ELED 508 - Language Arts in the Elementary School (3)
Research and theory as it applies to oral and written language learning, classroom talk, sociocultural diversity in communication styles, and the teacher's role in a child-centered classroom are examined.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of instructor.
Offered: Summer.

ELED 510 - Research Methods, Analysis, and Applications (3)
Practitioners and consumers of research literature examine the process, products, and application of educational inquiry. Topics include research design, data collection, and analysis.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and prior work in research methods or applied research, or tests and measurements, or statistics; or consent of instructor.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

ELED 512 - Theoretical Perspectives on How Students Learn (3)
The research on learning and theory are explored that have informed teaching in the United States. Study includes the foundations of traditional and constructivist education.
Prerequisite: Graduate status.
Offered: Annually.

ELED 518 - Science in the Elementary School (3)
Emphasis is on recent research and curriculum trends in science education. Individual and group laboratory experiences employ various science processes.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and one year of college-level science or consent of instructor.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

ELED 519 - Professional Development for Cooperating Teachers (3)
Cooperating teachers gain knowledge, tools, and experience that help them prepare teacher candidates to meet professional requirements in elementary and early childhood education. This course may be repeated after four years. Hybrid course.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and currently serving as a cooperating teacher, or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

ELED 522 - M.A.T. Teaching Reading Practicum (3)
In this field-based course teacher candidates explore what is involved in teaching reading and how to support and instruct readers, pre-emergent through fluent readers K-6. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Admission to the M.A.T. program, CEP 552, ELED 500, FNED 546, minimum GPA of 3.0, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

ELED 527 - M.A.T. Teaching Writing Practicum (3)
In this field-based course, teacher candidates learn the art and craft of writing, how it develops in elementary school children and how to teach craft and conventions of writing.
Prerequisite: Admission to the M.A.T. program, CEP 552, ELED 500, FNED 546, minimum G.P.A. of 3.0, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

ELED 528 - M.A.T. Teaching Social Studies Practicum (3)
Students examine and evaluate objectives, content and organization of social studies curriculum, resource materials and selected instructional models in light of current recommendations and research data. Practicum course.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and elementary school teaching experience or consent of instructor.
Offered: Summer.

ELED 537 - M.A.T. Teaching Science Practicum (3)
Research and theory as it applies to science and associated teaching methods are examined. Emphasis is on application and authentic assessment in practicum settings with diverse populations. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Admission to the M.A.T. program, CEP 552, ELED 500, FNED 546, minimum GPA of 3.0, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.
ELED 558 - M.A.T. Teaching Mathematics Practicum (3)
Research and theory as it applies to mathematics and associated teaching methods are examined. Emphasis is on application and authentic assessment in practicum settings with diverse populations. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Admission to the M.A.T. program, CEP 552, ELED 500, FNED 546, minimum GPA of 3.0, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

ELED 540 - Curriculum and Assessment (3)
Theory and strategies for designing curriculum and assessing student learning are examined, along with other factors affecting teaching and learning. An online component is included.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and a Teach For America corps member, or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

ELED 541 - Teaching Literacy across the Curriculum (3)
This course examines how literacy theory and children’s language and literacy development drive effective literacy assessment and instructional practice. An online component is included.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and a Teach For America corps member, or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

ELED 542 - Educating All Students (3)
Focus is on the influence of culture and language on teaching and learning. Students develop skills to educate diverse learners. An online component is included.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and a Teach For America corps member, or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

ELED 543 - Integrating Theory and Methods (3)
This interdisciplinary course focuses on applying theory in practice across content taught in elementary schools. Emphasis is on mathematics, science, and social studies. An online component is included.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and a Teach For America corps member, or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

ELED 554 - Learning and Teaching Seminar II (2)
Teacher candidates observe in their student teaching setting, gather data about classroom, school, community and district contexts, and reflect on classroom culture and developing teacher-student relationships during seminar classes.
Prerequisite: Satisfactory completion of all courses in the M.A.T. in elementary education program required prior to student teaching; a positive recommendation from the professor of each elementary education course; a minimum grade of B- in all professional education courses; a cumulative G.P.A. of 3.0 a full semester prior to student teaching; passing score(s) on the Praxis II, and an approved Preparing to Teach Portfolio.
Offered: Early Spring.

MRI - Magnetic Resonance Imaging

MRI 301 - Introduction to Magnetic Resonance Imaging (3)

This course covers basic MRI history, instrumentation, safety, positioning, equipment, coils and an overview of the department. Also included are basic pharmacology, venipuncture and intravenous contrast media administration.

Prerequisite: MEDI 201 or RADT 201, and acceptance into the MRI clinical program.

Offered: Spring.

MRI 302 - Foundations of Medical Resonance Imaging (3)

Students will learn MRI history, instrumentation, safety, positioning, equipment, coils and mechanisms of image formation. Also included are basic pharmacology, venipuncture and intravenous contrast media administration.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging clinical program.

Offered: Spring.

MRI 303 - Procedures I (3)

Students will learn human anatomy and pathology as seen in multiple orthogonal planes. Bone, muscle, vascular structures, organs and soft tissues are studied.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging clinical program.

Offered: Spring.

MRI 304 - Physical Principles I (4)

Students learn about MR signal production, tissue characteristics, widely used pulse sequences, image formation, and image contrast. In addition, the physics of MRI and image formation and safety are presented.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging clinical program.

Offered: Spring.

MRI 305 - Clinical Education I (3)

Students are introduced to the clinical practice of MRI with emphasis on departmental procedures, MRI safety and patient care. They will gain practical experience observing and applying imaging principles. 24 contact hours.

Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging clinical program.

Offered: Spring.
MRI 306 - Procedures II (3)
Students will learn the cross-sectional anatomy and related pathologies of the abdomen, pelvis, upper and lower extremities.
Prerequisite: MRI 303.
Offered: Summer.

MRI 307 - Clinical Education II (5)
Students are further introduced to the clinical practice of MRI with emphasis on departmental procedures, MRI safety and patient care. They will gain practical experience observing and applying imaging principles. 30 contact hours.
Prerequisite: MRI 305.
Offered: Summer.

MRI 309 - Clinical Observation (3.5)
This course provides an introduction to the clinical practice of MRI, with emphasis on departmental procedures, MRI safety, and patient care. This course offers practical experience observing and applying health care principles. 10.5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the MRI clinical program.
Offered: Spring.

MRI 310 - Clinical Practice I (8)
Students gain skills required to achieve clinical competencies in a variety of MRI procedures. This course allows practice of MRI skills and leads to proficiency in MRI and patient care. 24 contact hours.
Prerequisite: MRI 301
Offered: Summer.

MRI 311 - Cross Sectional Anatomy and Imaging Procedures I (5)
This course covers anatomy in multiple orthogonal planes, including head, spine, neck and thorax. Bone, muscles, vascular structures and organs are examined. Includes discussion of imaging techniques and procedures.
Prerequisite: MRI 301
Offered: Summer.

MRI 321 - Physical Principles I (3)
This course covers a comprehensive overview of MRI principles to include: MRI signal production, tissue characteristics, widely used pulse sequences, image formation and image contrast.
Prerequisite: MRI 301
Offered: Summer.

MRI 390 - Procedures III (8)
This course continues the experiences learned in MRI 310, including routine MRI procedures in various clinical settings on all patient types. Emphasis is placed on gaining confidence and manipulating parameters. 24 contact hours.
Prerequisite: MRI 310.
Offered: Fall.

MRI 410 - Clinical Practice III (6)
This course continues experiences learned in MRI 410, including advanced MRI procedures in various clinical settings on all patient types. This course prepares students to become independent functioning MRI technologists. 18 contact hours.
Prerequisite: MRI 410.
Offered: Spring.

MRI 421 - Physical Principles II (3)
This course is a continuation of MRI 321, providing an overview of encoding, data collection, image formation, K-space, acquisitions, advanced pulse sequence, flow phenomenon, MRA, cardiac MRI, and quality assurance.
Prerequisite: MRI 321.
Offered: Fall.

MRI 430 - Registry Review (3)
Students will review the specifications of the ARRT MRI examination, which include the guidelines for application, study strategies, and content included in the exam.
Prerequisite: MRI 410.
Offered: Spring.

MRI 431 - Physical Principles II (4)
Students learn about encoding, data collection, image formation, K-space, acquisitions, advanced pulse sequences, flow phenomenon, MRA, cardiac MRI, and quality assurance.
Prerequisite: MRI 304.
Offered: Fall.

MRI 432 - Clinical Education III (5)
Students learn about routine MRI procedures in various clinical settings on all patient types. Emphasis is placed on gaining confidence and manipulating parameters. 30 contact hours.
Prerequisite: MRI 307.
Offered: Fall.

MRI 433 - Advanced Procedures in Magnetic Resonance Imaging (3)
Students learn about advanced procedures, in MRI including: cardiac, functional MRI, MR spectroscopy, biopsies, research, whole body imaging, MR microscopy, interventional MRI and the importance of Magnetic Resonance Safety Officers (MRSO).
Prerequisite: MRI 432.
Offered: Spring.

MRI 434 - MRI Registry Review (3)
Students will review the specifications of the ARRT MRI examination, the guidelines for application, study strategies and content included in the exam.
Prerequisite: MRI 432.
Offered: Spring.
MRI 435 - Clinical Education IV (4)
Students will learn advanced MRI procedures in various clinical settings on all patient types. This course prepares students to become independent functioning MRI technologists. 24 contact hours.
Prerequisite: MRI 432.
Offered: Spring

MRI 455 - MRI Pathology (1.5)
This course covers common pathologies found in MRI, and the appearance of these pathologies in various imaging protocols. Emphasis is placed on commonly imaged body systems and areas.
Prerequisite: MRI 410.
Offered: Spring.

MGT - Management

MGT 100 - Introduction to Business (4)
Business concepts are introduced and the practices of management in both the business sector and nonprofit organizations. Topics focus on all of the management disciplines.

Prerequisite: Graduate status, program admission or consent of instructor.
Offered: Fall, Spring.
MGT 520 - Developing High-Performance Teams (3)
This course examines skills necessary to manage organizational relationships. Particular attention is given to relationship management issues, such as team building, negotiation and conflict and development of emotional intelligence skills.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, program admission or consent of instructor.
Offered: Fall, Spring.
MGT 530 - Analytics, Data Analysis and Decision Making (4)
This course examines a variety of data analysis methods. Particular attention is given to regression modeling, time series modeling and analytics using simulations.
Prerequisite: Graduate status.
Offered: Annually.
MGT 535 - Project Management (3)
Students explore concepts and solutions that support the selection, planning, execution, control, management, performance responsibility, and measurement activities required for successful project completion.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, program admission or consent of instructor.
Offered: Fall, Spring.
MGT 536 - Creating and Leading High-Performance Teams (4)
This course will give students an understanding of work design principles that lead to productive workplaces, effective change management and enhanced team collaboration and innovation.
Prerequisite: Graduate status.
Offered: Annually.
MGT 537 - High Performance Project Management (4)
Students learn project planning, execution, management and measurement techniques, with an emphasis on the completion of projects on-time and within budget.
Prerequisite: Graduate status.
Offered: Annually.
MGT 542 - Project Risk and Cost Management (4)
Students learn to identify and analyze project risk and to select an effective response strategy. Topics include cost management, cost estimation and cost control.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, MGT 537.
Offered: Annually
MGT 543 - Project Communications Management (4)
Students learn project planning, execution, management and measurement techniques, with an emphasis on the completion of projects on-time and within budget.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, MGT 537.
Offered: Annually.
MGT 544 - Program Management (4)
Students learn how managers support successful project-level activity with a focus on decision-making capacity and understanding requisite systems.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, MGT 537.
Offered: Annually.
MGT 545 - Production and Inventory Management (4)
Students learn the design and management of manufacturing, service and distribution processes, including the interrelationship of demand, planning and an introduction to the transportation of goods.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, MGT 536.
Offered: Annually.
MGT 546 - Logistics (4)
Students examine the process of moving raw materials and finished products in an optimal way. Topics include distribution, transportation, global issues and inventory controls.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, MGT 536.
Offered: Annually.
MGT 547 - Supply Chain Management (4)
Students examine the role of supply chain managers in manufacturing, retail, transportation, government agencies and service firms.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, MGT 536.
Offered: Annually.
MGT 591 - Directed Research Capstone (4)
Students identify an applied/action research project that provides a culminating experience and applies principles learned to a business process. The project is conducted in a local manufacturing and service company.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, permission of instructor, completion of a minimum of 22 credit hours in M.S. Operations Management Program.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.
MKT - Marketing

MKT 201W - Introduction to Marketing (4)
This is an examination of the role of marketing in society, consumer behavior, product management, pricing, distribution and promotion. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course. (Formerly MKT 301)
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 45 college credits.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MKT 215W - Marketing Creativity (4)
Focusing on the theories and models that enable students to develop perspectives upon creativity and its potential impacts on organizational life. Effective management of creativity within marketing organizations is emphasized. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course. (Formerly MKT 315).
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

MKT 310 - Product Design and Development (4)
The development process of new products, from idea generation to launch, is explored.
Prerequisite: MKT 201 or MKT 201W, or MKT 301.
Offered: As needed.

MKT 322 - Services Marketing (4)
Focus is on the difference between service industries and manufacturing industries. Topics include the development of marketing strategies in service industries.
Prerequisite: MKT 201 or MKT 201W, or MKT 301.
Offered: As needed.

MKT 323 - Digital Marketing (4)
Students are introduced to digital marketing strategy and techniques. Topics include the digital marketing funnel, web-based campaigns and current best practices in digital marketing.
Prerequisite: MKT 201 or MKT 201W, or MKT 301.
Offered: As needed.

MKT 329 - Global Marketing (4)
Global issues that confront today's international marketers are addressed. Concepts relevant to all international marketers are presented, regardless of the extent of their international involvement.
Prerequisite: MKT 201 or MKT 201W, or MKT 301.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

MKT 333 - Market Research (4)
The role of marketing information as the basis for decision making is studied, including the cost and value of information, research design and instrumentation, data analysis, and forecasting. Problem-solving exercises are included.
Prerequisite: MGT 249 and MKT 201 or MKT 201W, or MKT 301.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

MKT 334W - Consumer Behavior (4)
The marketing environment, consumer behavior, and market segmentation is studied. Emphasis is on understanding the turbulent environment surrounding the marketing decision maker. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: MKT 201 or MKT 201W, or MKT 301.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

MKT 335 - Marketing Communications and Promotion (4)
Basic promotional tools available to the marketing manager are studied: advertising, sales promotion, personal selling, and publicity.
Prerequisite: MKT 201 or MKT 201W, or MKT 301.
Offered: As needed.

MKT 337 - Retail Management (4)
Emphasis is on retail strategies and the managerial planning required to meet objectives.
Prerequisite: MKT 201 or MKT 201W, or MKT 301.
Offered: Fall.

MKT 338 - Advertising (4)
Topics include production of effective advertising and media. Students cannot receive credit for both COMM 334 and MKT 338.
Prerequisite: MKT 201 or MKT 201W, or MKT 301.
Offered: As needed.

MKT 340 - Personal Selling and Sales Management (4)
Focus is on personal selling, a subset of the promotional element of marketing strategy, which involves face-to-face relationships, personal influence, and complex communication processes.
Prerequisite: MKT 201 or MKT 201W, or MKT 301.
Offered: As needed.

MKT 347 - Supply Chain Management (4)
Emphasis is on design and management of activities along the supply chain, from purchasing and materials management to distribution and transportation systems. Students cannot receive credit for both MGT 347 and MKT 347.
Prerequisite: MGT 201 or MGT 201W, or MGT 301 and MKT 201 or MKT 201W, or MKT 301.
Offered: Annually.

MKT 462W - Strategic Marketing Management (4)
This seminar course integrates the marketing functions of product, price, channels, and promotion with the concepts of strategic planning. Emphasis is on the relevance of this integration to marketing. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: MKT 201 or MKT 201W, or MKT 301, and TWO from MKT 215 or MKT 315, MKT 333, or MKT 334.
Offered: As needed.

MKT 467 - Directed Internship (4)
Students are assigned to a business or nonprofit organization and earn three credits for topical course work, a two-hour biweekly seminar, and 120 hours of organization work, supervised by a mentor.
Prerequisite: MKT 201 or MKT 201W, or MKT 301, completion of at least 60 college credits, a major or minor in a School of Business program, and consent of internship director and appropriate faculty member.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MKT 490 - Directed Study (4)
Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

MKT 491 - Independent Study I (4)
The student will select a research topic and under the mentorship of a faculty advisor, will conduct comprehensive research on the selected and approved topic.
Prerequisite: Admission into marketing honors program and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

MKT 492 - Independent Study II (4)
This course continues the development of research begun in MKT 491. The honors research is completed under the consultation of a faculty advisor. A research paper and presentation are required.
Prerequisite: MKT 491 and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

MATH - Mathematics

MATH 010 - Basic Mathematics Competency (4)
Satisfactory completion of this course fulfills the College Mathematics Competency. Topics include problem solving, beginning algebra, geometry, measurement, introductory probability and statistics, and graphs and charts. Graded S, U.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 117 - Calculus: A Short Course (3)
Topics include differentiation and integration, including an introduction to partial differentiation.
Offered: As needed.

MATH 120 - Intermediate Algebra (4)
Intended for students needing intermediate algebra skills, especially for MATH 177 and 209. Topics include linear and quadratic equations, inequalities, exponents, radicals, algebraic fractions, and quadratic, logarithmic and exponential functions.
Prerequisite: MATH 010 or appropriate score on the placement exam.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 139 - Contemporary Topics in Mathematics (4)
Areas of modern mathematics that have application in contemporary society are introduced. Topics include the mathematics of social science, graph theory, consumer mathematics, and statistics.
General Education Category: Mathematics.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency or appropriate score on the mathematics placement exam.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 143 - Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers I (4)
Emphasis is on problem solving, model building, and algorithm development appropriate for the mathematics curriculum in the elementary/middle school. Topics include numeration and the development of number systems. Lecture and laboratory.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency or appropriate score on the mathematics placement exam.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 144 - Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers II (4)
A continuation of MATH 143, this course includes geometry and measurement, counting problems, probability, and statistics. Lecture and laboratory.
General Education Category: Mathematics for elementary education students only.
Prerequisite: MATH 143, with a minimum grade of C, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 177 - Quantitative Business Analysis I (4)
Topics include linear and selected nonlinear functions, linear systems, matrix methods, linear programming, average rate of change, derivatives and marginal analysis. Applications to management and economics are stressed throughout.
General Education Category: Mathematics.
Prerequisite: MATH 120 or appropriate score on placement exam.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 209 - Precalculus Mathematics (4)
The functions, concepts, and techniques of algebra and trigonometry considered essential in the study and applications of calculus are introduced and/or reinforced.
General Education Category: Mathematics.
Prerequisite: MATH 120 or appropriate score on placement exam.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 210 - College Trigonometry (3)
This is an in-depth study of trigonometry. Topics include a comprehensive analysis of trigonometric and inverse trigonometric functions and solutions of triangles, vectors, and polar coordinates.
Prerequisite: Three units of college preparatory mathematics and MATH 120 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

MATH 212 - Calculus I (4)
This course covers the fundamental concepts, techniques, and applications of the differential calculus of one variable and begins the study of integration.
General Education Category: Mathematics.
Prerequisite: MATH 209 or appropriate score on placement exam.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.
MATH 213 - Calculus II (4)
A continuation of MATH 212, topics include derivatives and integrals of logarithmic, exponential, and inverse trigonometric functions; techniques of integration; infinite series; and related applications.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.
Prerequisite: MATH 212
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 220 - Formalizing Mathematical Thought (4)
This course is an introduction to abstract and generalized thinking including formal mathematical proof. Students cannot receive credit for MATH 220 if credit was received for MATH 300.
Prerequisite: MATH 143, MATH 144, and MATH 209.
Offered: Fall.

MATH 238 - Quantitative Business Analysis II (3)
Elementary differential calculus and partial differentiation are studied, with applications to management. Students cannot receive credit for both MATH 238 and MATH 212.
Prerequisite: MATH 213, MATH 144, and MATH 209.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 239 - Contemporary Topics in Mathematics II (4)
Topics studied include, and are not limited to: applications to management, electoral politics and fair and equitable conflict resolution.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.
Prerequisite: MATH 139 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 240 - Statistical Methods I (4)
Descriptive statistics; confidence intervals and hypothesis testing; random variables; estimations and tests of significance; and correlation and regression are studied. Students cannot receive credit for both MATH 240 and MATH 248.
General Education Category: Mathematics.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency or appropriate score on the mathematics placement exam.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 241 - Statistical Methods II (4)
Continuation of MATH 240 at elementary level. Covers analysis of variance, multiple regression, and non-parametric statistics. Emphasis on large data sets being analyzed through computer software, and interpretation of results. Students cannot receive credit for both MATH 241 and MGT 249, nor for MATH 241 if credit was received for MATH 445.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.
Prerequisite: MATH 240
Offered: As needed.

MATH 245 - Principles of Data Science (4)
Students will be introduced to statistical computing using an appropriate software package. Topics include techniques for visualizing and managing data, statistical modeling including regression, and ANOVA.
Prerequisite: MATH 240 or MATH 248
Offered: Fall, Spring.

MATH 248 - Business Statistics I (4)
Topics include descriptive statistics, probability distributions, expected values, sampling distributions, and an introduction to estimation and hypothesis testing. Students cannot receive credit for both MATH 240 and MATH 248.
Prerequisite: MATH 177 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MATH 300W - Bridge to Advanced Mathematics (4)
The standard techniques of deductive proof in mathematics are applied to basic results regarding sets, relations, functions, and other topics. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: MATH 213 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

MATH 314 - Calculus III (4)
A continuation of MATH 213, this course covers three-dimensional analytic geometry, elementary vector analysis, functions of several variables, partial differentiation, and multiple integration.
Prerequisite: MATH 213.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

MATH 315 - Linear Algebra (4)
Matrices, linear systems, vector spaces, vector geometry, linear transformations, and appropriate applications are covered.
Prerequisite: MATH 300, with a minimum grade of C.
Offered: Fall.

MATH 324 - College Geometry (4)
Advanced topics in Euclidean geometry are considered using synthetic, analytic, vector, and transformational formats. Included are axiomatics and non-Euclidean geometry, topics in logic, and methods of proof appropriate for geometry.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.
Prerequisite: MATH 212.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

MATH 345 - Linear Models for Data Science (4)
Students will apply matrix theory to the study and implementation of linear models to problems in data science. Topics include basic matrix theory with applications to optimization, and machine learning.
Prerequisite: MATH 315 or both MATH 245 and MATH 212.
Offered: Fall.

MATH 409 - Mathematical Problem Analysis (4)
Problem-solving strategies in mathematics are identified. The level of problems and their analyses is designed to give students confidence in their ability to handle problems and a basis for the teaching of problem analysis.
Prerequisite: MATH 143, MATH 144, and either MATH 209 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.
MATH 411 - Calculus IV (4)
A continuation of MATH 314, study includes Lagrange multipliers, line integrals, Green's Theorem, transformations and the Jacobian, and an introduction to analysis involving limits and the derivative.
Prerequisite: MATH 314.
Offered: Fall (odd years).

MATH 416 - Ordinary Differential Equations (4)
The fundamentals of differential equations are studied in the context of applications. Topics include analytical and numerical solutions of first- and second-order equations, systems of equations, and modeling.
Prerequisite: Prior or concurrent enrollment in MATH 314.
Offered: Spring (as needed).

MATH 417 - Introduction to Numerical Analysis (4)
Algorithms and computer programs are used/developed to solve various mathematical problems. Topics include numerical solutions of equations, numerical differentiation and integration, and interpolation and approximation of functions.
Prerequisite: MATH 213 and one computer science course, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring (as needed).

MATH 418 - Introduction to Operations Research (3)
Operations research is the systematic application of mathematical techniques for generating better decisions for real-world problems. Besides linear programming, topics may include queuing and network analysis.
Prerequisite: MATH 212 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring (even years).

MATH 431 - Number Theory (3)
Topics include number systems, divisibility, primes and factorization, Diophantine problems, congruences, and Euler's and Fermat's Theorems.
Prerequisite: MATH 212.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

MATH 432 - Introduction to Abstract Algebra (4)
The definitions and properties of groups, rings, and fields are studied. Properties of familiar number systems are exhibited as special cases of these more general and abstract systems.
Prerequisite: MATH 315.
Offered: Spring.

MATH 436 - Discrete Mathematics (3)
Several important areas in noncontinuous mathematics are introduced, including graph theory and its applications, difference equations, and finite-state machines.
Prerequisite: MATH 212.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

MATH 441 - Introduction to Probability (4)
Topics include the development of both discrete and continuous probability theory, combinatorics, mathematical expectation, joint distributions, and sampling distributions.
Prerequisite: MATH 314.
Offered: Fall.

MATH 445 - Advanced Statistical Methods (4)
Students will be introduced to methods that are necessary to analyze large data sets commonly encountered in data science and statistics.
Prerequisite: MATH 345, or MATH 315, or both MATH 436 and prior or concurrent enrollment in CSCI 423.
Offered: Spring.

MATH 458 - History of Mathematics (4)
The history of mathematical thought and the development of mathematics from ancient to modern times are studied.
Prerequisite: MATH 300 or MATH 300W, with a minimum grade of C.
Offered: Fall.

MATH 461W - Seminar in Mathematics (3)
Students analyze, synthesize and expand on mathematics learned in preceding courses, culminating in a substantial project and presentation. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: MATH 441 and prior or concurrent enrollment in MATH 432.
Offered: Spring.

MATH 490 - Directed Study in Mathematics (3)
This course is open to students who have demonstrated superior ability in mathematics. Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member. This course may be repeated for credit once with a change in content.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

MATH 491 - Independent Study in Mathematics (1)
This course is open to students who have demonstrated superior ability in mathematics. Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity mentored by a faculty member. This course may be repeated for credit once with a change in content.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

MATH 512 - Foundations of Higher Analysis (3)
Fundamental concepts in the theory of calculus are presented. Topics include limits, continuity and uniform continuity, differentiation, the Riemann integral, sequences and series, and convergence criteria.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, MATH 300 or MATH 300W, and MATH 314.
Offered: As needed.

MATH 515 - Introduction to Complex Variables (3)
Techniques and concepts of the algebra and calculus of functions of one complex variable are studied, including trigonometric, exponential, and logarithmic functions.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, prior or concurrent enrollment in MATH 314.
Offered: As needed.

MATH 519 - Set Theory (3)
The foundations of set theory and logic are studied in the context of their application in the construction of number systems, from the natural numbers through the reals.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, MATH 300 or MATH 300W, MATH 314, MATH 432, or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

MATH 528 - Topology (3)
Study is made of sets and sequences, various topological spaces, including metric, compactness, connectedness, curves, and mappings.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, MATH 300 or MATH 300W, and MATH 314.
Offered: As needed.

MATH 532 - Algebraic Structures (3)
Selected topics in the development of groups, rings, modules, and fields are covered, including homomorphisms, permutation groups, basic Galois Theory, ring extension problems, and ideals.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, MATH 300 or MATH 300W, and MATH 314.
Offered: As needed.

MATH 551 - Topics in Proof (3)
Varying topics in mathematical proof are examined, from number systems and functions to abstract spaces.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

MATH 552 - Topics in Applied Mathematics (3)
Varying topics in applied mathematics are examined, from numerical and analytical investigations to modeling.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

MATH 553 - Topics in Pure Mathematics (3)
Varying topics in pure mathematics are examined, from number theory and advanced geometries to abstract algebra.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

MTET - Mathematics for Elementary Teachers

MTET 511 - Delving Deeper: Number and Operations (3)
Students analyze the structure of number and operations in grades K-6 mathematics. Students learn to make connections beyond the elementary level. Topics include place, value, operations, and number systems. Hybrid course.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, elementary-level teacher certification and at least two years of teaching experience.
Offered: As needed.

MTET 512 - Delving Deeper: Functions and Algebra (3)
Students analyze the structure of functions and algebra in grades K-6 mathematics. Students learn to make connections beyond the elementary level. Topics include variables, patterns, and equations. Hybrid course.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, elementary-level teacher certification and at least two years of teaching experience.
Offered: As needed.

MTET 513 - Delving Deeper: Geometry and Measurement (3)
Students analyze the structure of geometry and measurement in grades K-6 mathematics. Students learn to make connections beyond the elementary level. Topics include equivalence, shape, and reasoning. Hybrid course.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, elementary-level teacher certification and at least two years of teaching experience.
Offered: As needed.

MTET 514 - Delving Deeper: Data Analysis and Statistics (3)
Students examine the structure of data analysis and statistics in grades K-6 mathematics. Students learn to make connections beyond the elementary level. Topics include question formation, data analysis, and inference. Hybrid course.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, elementary-level teacher certification and at least two years of teaching experience.
Offered: As needed.

MTET 515 - Delving Deeper: Problem Analysis (3)
Students examine the structure of problem analysis in grades K-6 mathematics. Students learn to make connections beyond the elementary level. Topics include problem selection, problem strategies, and problem posing. Hybrid course.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, elementary-level teacher certification and at least two years of teaching experience.
Offered: As needed.

MEDI - Medical Imaging

MEDI 201 - Orientation to Medical Imaging (1)
Topics include the history of medical imaging, the technologist's role on the health care team, equipment, clinical settings and the various modalities in diagnostic imaging. (Formerly RADT 201 Orientation to Medical Imaging.)
Prerequisite: BIOL 231 and MATH 209.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

MEDI 202 - Introduction to Medical Imaging (1.5)
Presents the history of various specialties in medical imaging, and the technologist's role in the health care team. Safety and ethics, accreditation, certification and professional organizations will also be discussed.
Prerequisite: MEDI 201 or RADT 201, and acceptance into a medical imaging clinical program.
Offered: Fall.

MEDI 203 - Complete Introduction to Medical Imaging (3)
Students learn about the history of imaging; discovery of X-rays, and the specialties. Student's time-management, safety and professional ethics will be emphasized.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging Clinical Program
MEDI 205 - Medical Terminology in Medical Imaging (1)
Students will become proficient in the basic medical terminology utilized in medical imaging.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging Clinical Program.
Offered: Fall.

MEDI 255 - Patient Care in Medical Imaging (3)
Students will learn the patient care skills needed for safe practice in the healthcare environment.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging Clinical Program
Offered: Fall.

MEDI 308 - Professional Behavior in Medical Imaging (3)
Through role play and scenarios, students will learn and practice essential verbal and nonverbal communication skills necessary for the healthcare environment.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging Clinical Program.
Offered: Fall.

MEDI 309 - Sectional Anatomy in Medical Imaging (3)
Students will learn the anatomical structures of the human body. Topics include relationship of structures to surrounding tissues and location of structures on multiple imaging planes.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging Clinical Program.
Offered: Fall.

MEDI 410 - Pathology in Medical Imaging (3)
Students will be shown how disease processes are diagnosed using medical imaging. They will learn how disease processes work and recognize the appearance of diseases through different modalities.
Prerequisite: MEDI 309.
Offered: Fall.

MEDI 463W - Senior Seminar in Medical Imaging (3)
In their final year, medical imaging students will complete an approved project and present their results in a public seminar. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: DMS 433 or MEDI 410.
Offered: Spring.

MEDT - Medical Technology

MEDT 301 - Clinical Microbiology (8)
The relationship of bacteria to human bacterial diseases is discussed, with emphasis on the application of procedures to medical diagnosis. Also studied are fungi, viruses, the rickettsias, and human parasites.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in health sciences with concentration in medical laboratory sciences program.
Offered: Fall.

MEDT 302 - Clinical Chemistry (8)
The chemistry of body constituents and its relationship to the diagnosis of human disease is presented, with emphasis on principles and methods of analysis.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in health sciences with concentration in medical laboratory sciences program.
Offered: Spring.

MEDT 303 - Immunohematology (4)
Instruction is given in drawing and processing blood and in how to ascertain compatibility. Donor-recipient blood and tissue reactions are studied in detail.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in health sciences with concentration in medical laboratory sciences program.
Offered: Fall.

MEDT 304 - Hematology (6)
The morphology of blood and blood-forming organs are studied, along with the abnormalities associated with disease. The dynamics of and diagnostic tests for hemostasis are also examined.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in health sciences with concentration in medical laboratory sciences program.
Offered: Spring.

MEDT 305 - Pathophysiology (2)
This is an introduction to pathology. Topics include the correlation between pathological processes and clinical symptoms and the course of disease.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in health sciences with concentration in medical laboratory sciences program.
Offered: Fall.

MEDT 306 - Clinical Immunology (2)
The formation, structure, and action of antigens and antibodies are described. Topics also include methods of immunization. Laboratory emphasis is on serological procedures in the diagnosis of disease.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in health sciences with concentration in medical laboratory sciences program.
Offered: Spring.

MEDT 307 - Clinical Microscopy (2)
Focus is on the analysis of body fluids. Lecture and laboratory.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in health sciences with concentration in medical laboratory sciences program.
Offered: Fall.
MLED - Middle Level Education

MLED 230 - Young Adolescent Development in Social Contexts (4)
Students examine adolescent identity development as a time of exploration and co-construction within the context of middle level structures and policies, families and communities.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MLED 310 - Teaching Early Adolescents (3)
Students examine the developmental characteristics of early adolescence and implications for teaching.
Prerequisite: CEP 215 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MLED 320 - Middle School Organization and Integrated Curriculum (4)
Students examine the emergence of the modern middle school and its components: teaming, advisory, flexible scheduling, and differentiated instruction.
Prerequisite: MLED 310; and for elementary education students, ELED 300; and for secondary education students, prior or concurrent enrollment in SED 407; or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MLED 330 - Interdisciplinary Reading and Writing in Middle Schools (3)
Students develop content area lessons that enable middle level students to read, write, and think critically in the content area.
Prerequisite: MLED 320; and for elementary education students, prior or concurrent enrollment in a methods course; and for secondary education students, SED 407; or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MLED 331 - Disciplinary Literacies with Young Adolescents (4)
Students examine traditional, critical and digital literacy practices at the middle level. Students also develop, implement, and reflect on lessons grounded in disciplinary literacies and content area standards, including CCSS.
Prerequisite: MLED 230.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

MLED 332 - Curriculum and Assessment for Young Adolescents (4)
Students explore curriculum and assessment at the middle level. Students are also challenged to critically examine curriculum and assessment choices they make, and to cultivate their learners’ agency.
Prerequisite: MLED 230, MLED 331, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

MLED 340 - Differentiated Elements in Middle School Instruction (3)
Preservice teachers focus on methods of selecting strategies to meet the needs of diverse learners and the relationship between assessments and planning for instruction in the differentiated classroom.
Prerequisite: MLED 330.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

MLED 510 - Teaching and Learning at the Middle-Level (3)
Students examine the physical, emotional, social, and intellectual characteristics of early adolescents and the impact of society on early adolescents. A practicum of fifteen hours is required.
Prerequisite: Admission to the Middle-Level CGS.
Offered: As needed.

MLED 520 - Curriculum and Organization of Middle-Level Schools (3)
Students examine the emergence of middle-level schools and its components: teaming, advisory, flexible scheduling, common core, instruction, and assessment. A practicum of eight hours is required.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and MLED 510 or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

MLED 530 - Applications of Middle-Level Instructional Models (3)
Students develop lessons for all content areas, using reading and writing strategies to promote literacy and critical thinking in middle-level teaching and learning. Students participate in a fifteen-hour practicum.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and MLED 520 or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

MLED 531 - Critical Inquiry in Middle Level Education (2)

Offered: Spring (even years).

MUSE 502 - Perception, Assessment, and Evaluation in Music (3)
The nature of musical perception, discrimination, and talent are studied, with emphasis on music aptitude and the theories on which they are based, such as learning theories. Included are standard evaluation techniques.
Prerequisite: Graduate status.
Offered: Summer (odd years).

MUSE 503 - School Music Administration and Supervision (3)
The factors involved in administering and supervising school music programs are examined.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of instructor.
Offered: Summer (odd years).

MUSE 525 - Advanced Studies in Music Education (3)
Basic concepts in the philosophy of music education, aesthetics, the history of music education, sociology, and psychology are presented.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and consent of instructor.
Offered: Summer (even years).

MUSE 526 - Student Teaching in Music Education (10)
In this culminating field experience, candidates complete a teaching experience in an elementary and secondary school under the supervision of cooperating teachers and a college supervisor. This is a full-semester assignment. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, MUSE 412, 413, and all major and professional courses required prior to student teaching; concurrent enrollment in MUSE 560; a cumulative GPA of 3.00; a full semester prior to student teaching; passing score(s) on the Praxis II, approved Preparing to Teach Portfolio; completion of the community service requirement; and a negative result from the required tuberculin test.
Offered: Fall.

MUSE 560 - Student Teaching Seminar in Music Education (2)
Teacher behaviors appropriate to effective teaching are developed. Topics include classroom and time management, effective communication, learning styles, and teaching strategies. This seminar meets weekly.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, concurrent enrollment in MUSE 526.
Offered: Fall.

MUSE 566 - Seminar in Music Education (3)
Selected problems are investigated.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and consent of instructor.
Offered: Fall (odd years).

MUSE 592 - Graduate Thesis (3)
A formal research problem is investigated by the student. An advisor from the Department of Music, Theatre, and Dance is assigned to the student.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and consent of departmental graduate committee.
Offered: As needed.

NPST - Nonprofit Studies

NPST 300 - Institute in Nonprofit Studies (4)
Students participate in an introductory course to develop skills and competencies appropriate to careers in nonprofit organizations. Course topics include nonprofit organization structure, leadership, strategic planning, budgeting, human resources, fundraising, philanthropy, and legal principles. Hybrid course.
Prerequisite: Successful completion of 42 credits; FNED 246 or SWRK 200.
Offered: Fall.

NPST 301 - Financial Management for Nonprofits (3)
This course presents basic information about budgeting and financial management systems in nonprofit organizations, including the alignment between budgets, reporting, and organizational mission. Hybrid course.
Prerequisite: NPST 300 or consent of the director of the Certificate Program in Nonprofit Studies.
Offered: Spring.

NPST 402 - Staff and Volunteer Management for Nonprofits (3)
Students will develop knowledge and skills in areas of human capital management systems, processes, and philosophies that ensure nonprofit organizational success. Hybrid course.
Prerequisite: NPST 300 or consent of the director of the Certificate Program in Nonprofit Studies.
Offered: Fall.

NPST 404 - Communications and Resource Development for Nonprofits (3)
Students will develop knowledge and skills in areas of communication, marketing and public relations strategies, philanthropy, preparing grant proposals, and other fund development efforts. Hybrid course.
Prerequisite: NPST 300 or consent of the director of the Certificate Program in Nonprofit Studies.
Offered: Spring.

NPST 500 - Advanced Leadership Institute in Nonprofit Studies (3)
This course focuses on the origins and composition of the nonprofit sector, operational issues in management, and development of strategic solutions to manage and move the sector forward.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and consent of the director of the certificate program in nonprofit studies.
Offered: Summer.

NPST 685 - Advanced Grant Development and Fundraising (3)
This course provides an overview of the grants process and fundraising. Emphasis on developing competitive proposals, budgets, systems of administration, and innovative strategies for cultivation of stakeholder support.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and NPST 500 or consent of the director of the certificate program in nonprofit studies.
Offered: Spring.

NMT - Nuclear Medicine Technology

NMT 231 - Clinical Observation (3.5)
The clinical practice of nuclear medicine is introduced, with emphasis on hospital policies and procedures, radiation safety, and patient care. Practical experience is given in observing and applying health care principles. 10.5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: MEDI 201 or RADT 201, and acceptance into the medical imaging with concentration in nuclear medicine technology program.
Offered: Spring.

NMT 301 - Introduction to Nuclear Medicine Technology (3)
This is an introduction to the science and practice of nuclear medicine technology. Topics include the organization of diagnostic departments and the responsibilities of the professional nuclear medicine technologist.
Prerequisite: MEDI 201 or RADT 201, and acceptance into the medical imaging with concentration in nuclear medicine technology program.
Offered: Spring.

NMT 302 - Foundations of Nuclear Medicine Technology (3)
Students learn a variety of Nuclear Medicine topics, including math, clinical procedures, introduction to instrumentation and venipuncture.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging Clinical program.
Offered: Spring.

NMT 303 - Nuclear Medicine Procedures I (3)
Students are provided with an understanding of nuclear medicine and molecular imaging procedures, including appropriate protocol selection, instrumentation, basic pathology, patient care skills, and interpretation of images.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging Clinical program.
Offered: Spring.

NMT 304 - Radiation Safety and Radiobiology (3)
Students will learn concepts and physical principles that govern radioactivity and interactions of ionizing radiation with matter, principles and applications of radiation safety and protection.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging Clinical program.
Offered: Spring.

NMT 306 - Nuclear Medicine Procedures II and Therapeutics (3)
Students are provided with an understanding of nuclear medicine and molecular imaging procedures and therapeutics. Content covered includes protocol selection, instrumentation, pathology, patient care skills, and interpretation of images.
Prerequisite: NMT 303.
Offered: Summer.

NMT 311 - Radiation Safety (1)
This course covers principles and applications of radiation safety and protection. Specific topics include personal monitoring, regulations, waste disposal and radiotherapy.
Prerequisite: MEDI 201 or RADT 201, and acceptance into the medical imaging program with concentration in nuclear medicine technology program.
Offered: Spring.

NMT 321 - Diagnostic Nuclear Medicine Procedures I (3)
Topics covered are anatomy and physiology, pathophysiology, radiopharmacy, imaging techniques and the interpretation of images. The course is taught using an integrated systems approach as applied to nuclear medicine.
Prerequisite: MEDI 201 or RADT 201, and acceptance into the medical imaging with concentration in nuclear medicine technology program.
Offered: Spring.

NMT 325 - Radiation Physics (1)
This course covers concepts and physical principles that govern radioactivity and interactions of ionizing radiation with matter. Students will learn the law of radioactive decay and biological effects of radiation.
Prerequisite: NMT 301.
Offered: Summer.

NMT 332 - Clinical Diagnostic Procedures I (8)
Students learn the skills required to achieve clinical competencies in a variety of nuclear medicine procedures. Emphasis is on the integration of clinical and didactic education. 24 contact hours.
Prerequisite: RADT 201 and acceptance into the medical imaging with concentration in nuclear medicine technology.
Offered: Summer.

NMT 336 - Clinical Education I (3)
Students are introduced to clinical practice of nuclear medicine with emphasis on departmental policies and procedures, radiation safety and patient care. Offers practical experience observing and applying health care principles. 18 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging clinical program.
Offered: Summer.

NMT 337 - Clinical Education II (5)
Placed under direct and indirect supervision, students will learn clinical skills through observation and participation in NMT procedures. Emphasis is placed on the integration of clinical and didactic education. 30 contact hours.
Prerequisite: NMT 336.
Offered: Summer.

NMT 302 - Instrumentation and Radiobiology (1.5)
The principles of operation and quality control are defined for all nonimaging and imaging instruments in nuclear medicine.
Prerequisite: NMT 311.
Offered: Fall.
NMT 405 - Radiopharmacy (1)
The theory and practice of radiopharmacy and radiochemistry are defined and discussed, including preparation, calculation of doses, quality control, radiation safety, and applicable regulations.
Prerequisite: NMT 301.
Offered: Summer.

NMT 421 - Diagnostic Nuclear Medicine Procedures II (3)
This is a continuation of NMT 321.
Prerequisite: NMT 321.
Offered: Summer.

NMT 425 - Diagnostic Nuclear Medicine Procedures III (3)
This is a continuation of NMT 421.
Prerequisite: NMT 421.
Offered: Fall.

NMT 430 - Registry Review (2)
Students prepare for the national certification exam offered by the Nuclear Medicine Technology Certification Board.
Prerequisite: NMT 311.
Offered: Spring.

NMT 431 - Clinical Diagnostic Procedures II (8)
This is a continuation of NMT 332. 24 contact hours.
Prerequisite: NMT 331.
Offered: Fall.

NMT 432 - Clinical Diagnostic Procedures III (6)
This course is a continuation of NMT 431. 18 contact hours.
Prerequisite: NMT 431.
Offered: Spring.

NMT 433 - Radiopharmaceuticals in Nuclear Medicine ()
Students will explore the theory and practice of radiopharmacy and radiochemistry, including preparation, calculation of doses, quality control, radiation safety and applicable regulations.
Offered: Fall

NMT 434 - Radiation Physics and Advanced Instrumentation ()
Students learn design, operation, and quality control of different detectors used in nuclear medicine. Concepts and physical principles that govern radioactivity and interactions of ionizing radiation with matter.
Offered: Fall

NMT 435 - Registry Review ()
Students are asked to make connections between the introductory lectures and clinical practice. This course prepares students for the national certification exams.
Offered: Spring

NMT 436 - Clinical Education III ()
Students, under supervision, clinical skills through observation and participation in Nuclear Medicine procedures. Emphasis is placed on the integration of clinical and didactic education leading to proficiency. 30
contact hours.
Offered: Fall

NMT 437 - Clinical Education IV ()
Students learn, under supervision, clinical skills through observation and participation in Nuclear Medicine procedures. Emphasis is placed on the integration of clinical and didactic education leading to proficiency. 24
contact hours
Offered: Spring

NURS - Nursing

NURS 101 - The Nursing Education Experience I (1)
Topics promoting success in the nursing program are covered, including issues in the learning and practice of nursing, study skills, personal growth, and involvement in the college and department.
Prerequisite: COLL 101 and consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 102 - The Nursing Education Experience II (1)
Students examine the social, cultural, and economic contexts of nursing through readings, discussion, guest lecturers, field trips, and participation in college activities.
Prerequisite: NURS 101 and consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 175 - Nursing Drug Calculations (1)
Using dimensional analysis, students learn how to calculate drug dosages. (For nursing majors only.)
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 207 - Baccalaureate Education for Nursing (4)
This is the formal transition for the RN student into the baccalaureate program in nursing. Emphasis is on the nursing process as the scientific methodology for nursing practice.
Prerequisite: Licensed R.N. students and Nursing RN-BSN IM, or consent of the program director.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 220 - Foundations of Therapeutic Interventions (3)
Concepts of nutrition, pharmacology, and pathophysiology are introduced as foundations for therapeutic intervention in nursing practice.
Prerequisite: BIOL 231, CHEM 106, PSYC 230, prior or concurrent
enrollment in BIOL 335, and acceptance to the nursing program.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 222 - Professional Nursing I (3)
The profession of nursing is introduced, including the history and practice of nursing, the health illness continuum, the health care system, the nursing process, and the demographic and economic changes that affect nursing practice.
Prerequisite: BIOL 231, CHEM 106, PSYC 230, prior or concurrent
enrollment in BIOL 335, and acceptance to the nursing program.
Offered: Fall, Spring.
NURS 223 - Fundamentals of Nursing Practice (4)
Cognitive and psychomotor skills are applied through guided experiences in simulated and clinical situations. Emphasis is on skills essential for the nursing practice.
Prerequisite: NURS 220, NURS 222, NURS 225 or NURS 225W; concurrent enrollment in NURS 224; and prior or concurrent enrollment in BIOL 348.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 224 - Health Assessment (3)
Basic health assessment skills are introduced. Emphasis is on normal findings.
Prerequisite: NURS 220, NURS 222, NURS 225 or NURS 225W; concurrent enrollment in NURS 223; and prior or concurrent enrollment in BIOL 348.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 225W - Introduction to Writing and Research in Nursing (2)
Students are introduced to the conventions of writing in nursing and the role of research in evidence-based nursing practice. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: Acceptance to the nursing program.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 225 - Substance Abuse as a Global Issue (4)
The global issue of substance abuse is analyzed through the lens of multicultural factors influencing human behavior. Students explore concepts related to dynamic processes operating when substances are abused.
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 226 - Status of the World's Children (4)
The impact of cultural identity and heritage of children around the world is analyzed. Global issues of child exploitation and the global effort to halt that exploitation are examined.
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

NURS 226 - Health and Cultural Diversity (4)
Health beliefs and practices are examined across cultures. Focus is on the cultural components of health and illness, pain, childbearing, child health, mental illness, disability, aging and death.
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 312 - Death and Dying (3)
Students explore their own feelings about death and dying from historical, ethical, and legal perspectives.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 314 - Health and Aging (4)
An interdisciplinary approach is taken to the health/mental health of older adults. Normal aging is compared to disease/disorders. Students cannot receive credit for both GRTL 314 and NURS 314.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 45 credit hours.
Cross-Listed as: GRTL 314.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

NURS 316 - Physical Assessment of the Adult and Child (4)
Diagnostic skills are used to assess clients of all age groups. Assessment of health and developmental status is done through interview, inspection, palpation, percussion, and auscultation.
Prerequisite: Acceptance to the RN-BSN Program; completion of NURS 207 and NURS 225 or NURS 225W.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 340 - Psychiatric/Mental Health Nursing (6)
Psychiatric/mental health theory, practice, and the professional role are introduced, with emphasis on the adult client. Common psychiatric disorders across the lifespan are included. 12 contact hours.
Prerequisite: NURS 220, NURS 222, NURS 223, NURS 224 and NURS 225 or NURS 225W.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 342 - Adult Health Nursing I (6)
Focus is on the promotion of health and the management of illness in the adult client. Students learn to manage client care in various settings and to develop professional behaviors through learning activities and practice situations. 12 contact hours.
Prerequisite: NURS 220, NURS 222, NURS 223, NURS 224, NURS 225 or NURS 225W.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 344 - Maternal Newborn Nursing (6)
Nursing theory and application are introduced in the practicum setting, with focus on the comprehensive and continuing care of expectant and newly expanded family systems. 12 contact hours.
Prerequisite: NURS 220, NURS 222, NURS 223, NURS 224 and NURS 225 or NURS 225W.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 346 - Nursing of Children and Families (6)
The nursing care of children is examined within the context of the individual, family, and community. Principles of growth and development, health promotion, and therapeutic interventions are analyzed and applied. 12 contact hours.
Prerequisite: NURS 220, NURS 222, NURS 223, NURS 224 and NURS 225 or NURS 225W.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 370 - Public and Community Health Nursing (6)
Principles of public health and nursing are synthesized and applied to the care of families and populations in theory and in practice. Ethnographic, epidemiological, and public policy approaches are used to understand public health issues. 12 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Prerequisite for general students: NURS 340, NURS 342, NURS 344, NURS 346. Prerequisite for licensed R.N. students: acceptance by School of Nursing for senior level.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 372 - Adult Health Nursing II (6)
Focus continues on the promotion of health and the management of illness in adult clients. Students expand their knowledge and nursing practice in various settings. Professional behaviors are also developed. 12 contact hours.
Prerequisite: NURS 340, NURS 342, NURS 344, NURS 346.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 374 - Contemporary Professional Nursing (3)
Major topics pertinent to professional development and practice are analyzed in depth. Leadership and management theories, contemporary nursing issues, and factors facilitating professional achievements are also presented.
Prerequisite: NURS 340, NURS 342, NURS 344, NURS 346.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 375 - Transition to Professional Nursing Practice (6)
Professional values, roles, and issues, as well as client population-focused issues are discussed in seminar and applied in practicum. Students select a clinical setting in which the transition from student to professional nurse is fostered. 12 contact hours.
Prerequisite: NURS 372 and NURS 374.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 376 - Contemporary Nursing Practices: Issues and Challenges (6)
Professional values, roles, and issues pertinent to the contemporary health care environment are examined. 12 contact hours.
Prerequisite: RN-BSN student; completion of NURS 370 or consent of the program director.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 390 - Directed Study (3)
Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member. This course may be repeated with a change in topic.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

NURS 391 - Independent Study in Nursing (3)
Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

NURS 471 - Practicum in Chemical Dependency/Addiction Studies (4)
Students practice intervention strategies, with emphasis on self-awareness and self-assessment. Observation and evaluation is conducted by the practicum supervisor. Students cannot receive credit for both NURS 471 and PSYC 471. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the B.S. in chemical dependency/addiction studies program and PSYC 351 and PSYC 452.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

NURS 474 - Internship in Chemical Dependency/Addiction Studies (4)
Students gain field experience in an agency providing substance abuse services. Included are weekly seminar sessions, on-site visits, and field consultation. Students cannot receive credit for both NURS 474 and PSYC 472. 13 contact hours.
Prerequisite: PSYC 425, PSYC 471, and approval of practicum and internship instructors.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

NURS 491 - Independent Study I (3)
Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean, and admission to the nursing honors program.
Offered: As needed.

NURS 492 - Independent Study II (3)
This course continues the development of research or activity begun in NURS 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment form the department.
Prerequisite: NURS 491, and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

NURS 501 - Research Methods for Advanced Nursing Practice (3)
Overview of research methods which are used for clinical inquiry in nursing practice. Focus is on the formulation of a question that can be developed into a clinical inquiry project.
Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of M.S.N. graduate program director.
Offered: Fall, Summer.

NURS 502 - Health Care Systems (3)
Topics covered are organizational structure, resources, current technology, informational systems, outcome measures, safety initiatives, health care policy, and ethics. The central role of the patient in health care decision making is also examined.
Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of M.S.N. graduate program director.
Cross-Listed as: HCA 502
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 503 - Professional Role Development (3)
Behaviors that promote change and collaboration in practice environments are examined, including concepts of leadership, communication, power, and problem solving.
Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of M.S.N. graduate program director.
NURS 504 - Advanced Pathophysiology (3)
Students explore the interrelationships of human systems and the effects of illness on the individual as a whole. Concepts and patterns of alterations in physiological mechanisms and functions are identified.
Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of M.S.N. graduate program director.
Offered: Spring, Summer.

NURS 505 - Advanced Pharmacology (3)
Pharmacologic agents and their clinical applications are examined. Pharmacologic, therapeutic uses, and the side effects and drug interactions of a broad variety of classes of drugs are explored as treatment modalities.
Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of M.S.N. graduate program director.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 506 - Advanced Health Assessment (3)
This course assists the learner in the acquisition of advanced health assessment skills. The status of clients is determined by using the health history interview and advanced diagnostic skills. 5 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of M.S.N. graduate program director.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 508 - Public Health Science (3)
Study is made of environmental and occupational health, bioterrorism and disaster preparedness, communicable diseases, chronic diseases, and vulnerable populations.
Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of M.S.N. graduate program director.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 509 - Professional Project Seminar (1)
Students develop plans for a comprehensive project in the form of research, program design, or grant preparation. Planning includes literature review and exploration of resources.
Prerequisite: NURS 501, NURS 502, NURS 503, and graduate status in nursing.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

NURS 510 - Adult/Older Adult Health/Illness I (3)
Students develop advanced practice nurse competencies specific to health promotion and disease prevention of adults across the lifespan. Emphasis is on the patient sphere. 9 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, NURS 505 and NURS 506; and prior or concurrent enrollment in NURS 501, NURS 502, and NURS 504; and NURS 530 (CNS) or NURS 540 (NP).
Offered: Spring.

NURS 511 - Population/Public Health Nursing (6)
Variables relevant to public health problems are investigated through field experience. Students demonstrate knowledge of analytic assessment and public health science skills. 15 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, NURS 508; and prior or concurrent enrollment in HPE 507, NURS 501, NURS 502 and NURS 503.

NURS 512 - Genetics and Genomics in Health Care (3)
The scientific, ethical, legal, social, technological, and policy implications of genetics and genomics are explored, with application to interdisciplinary health care professionals.
Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of program director.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 513 - Teaching Nursing (3)
This elective course introduces students to the knowledge, skills, and attitudes required of a nurse educator. Through classroom and clinically oriented learning activities, students gain basic competencies.
Prerequisite: Graduate status.
Offered: Summer Session I.

NURS 514 - Advanced Pharmacology for Nurse Anesthesia (2)
This course builds upon the foundation established in NURS 505, and pharmacologic agents for anesthesia practice are examined.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, NURS 505, CHEM 519 and BIOL 535.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 515 - Simulation in Interprofessional Healthcare Education (3)
Students learn simulation theory, models, evidence-based practice, and safety as a framework for using simulation in practice and education. Groups of nursing, social work and health education students develop, implement and revise a simulation in this course.
Prerequisite: Graduate student in nursing, social work or health education, or consent of instructor.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 516 - Advanced Principles of Nurse Anesthesia Practice I (3)
Advanced principles of anesthesia administration and management, including general and regional techniques for surgery are examined.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, NURS 514 and NURS 515.
Offered: Summer.

NURS 517 - Foundational Principles of Nurse Anesthesia (3)
The history and scope of nurse anesthesia practice, physics as applied to anesthesia administration and practice, anesthesia equipment, preoperative evaluation and basic management are examined.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, NURS 505, NURS 506 and NURS 504 prerequisite or concurrent.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 518 - Nursing Care/Case Management (3)
Students examine evidence-based approaches to the coordination of services for populations across health care systems to enhance client-centered, interdisciplinary care, outcomes-based quality improvement and cost containment.
Prerequisite: Graduate status in nursing or consent of program director.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 519 - Quality/Safety in Advanced Practice Nursing (3)
Students develop advanced practice nurse competencies specific to quality and safety measurement and management in nursing.
NURS 521 - Global Health and Advanced Practice Nursing (3)
Students explore concepts of global health and examine the impact of disease burden on global populations through lecture, readings and immersion. The clinical international learning experience involves collaboration with an intra-professional team at an international village clinical.
Prerequisite: NURS 501, NURS 502, NURS 503
Offered: Spring, Summer.

NURS 522 - Concepts and Practice of Palliative Care (3)
Students develop advanced practice nurse competencies in the specialty of palliative care to be applied to adults, older adults and families dealing with a life threatening illness.
Prerequisite: M.S.N. program enrollment or approval of M.S.N. program director.
Offered: Annually.

NURS 523 - Surgical First Assist Theory (3)
The course will provide the foundation of knowledge necessary for the APRN to assume and function safely in the role of the first assistant during operative and other invasive procedures.
Prerequisite: M.S.N. program enrollment and prior completion of NURS 506, NURS 510, NURS 530/NURS 540 and concurrent enrollment in NURS 610; or permission of the M.S.N. program director.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 524 - Healthcare Statistics (3)
Statistical concepts of sampling, levels of measurement, inferential statistical tests, regression, and nonparametric methods are studied. Emphasis is on application of statistics in nursing research reports.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or DNP Director approval.
Offered: Summer Session I

NURS 530 - Synergy Model for C.N.S. Practice (3)
Students develop knowledge of the Synergy Model required for the clinical nurse specialist practice. Model assumptions, development, and applicability to C.N.S. practice are discussed, analyzed, and applied. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, NURS 505 and NURS 506; and prior or concurrent enrollment in NURS 501, NURS 502, NURS 503, NURS 504, and NURS 510.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 540 - Differential Diagnosis for Nurse Practitioners (3)
Students are introduced to the diagnostic framework, clinical decision making, and evidence-based resources. Focus is on developing skills in diagnostic reasoning and differential diagnosis. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, NURS 505 and NURS 506; and prior or concurrent enrollment in NURS 501, NURS 502, NURS 503, NURS 504, and NURS 510.
Offered: Spring.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 625 - Adult Health/Illness III for NPs (6)
Students develop advanced practice nurse competencies specific to caring for adults with select acute health alterations. Emphasis is on the systems/organizational sphere. 15 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and NURS 615.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 626 - Advanced Principles in Nurse Anesthesia III (3)
Advanced principles of anesthesia and management of endocrine, liver, neuromuscular, and burn surgeries, and surgery in obesity, with chronic pain and in remote settings, are examined.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and NURS 616.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 630 - Nurse Anesthesia Clinical Practicum II (1)
Application of theory and development of skills for the advanced beginner under the close supervision of clinical preceptors.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and NURS 570; NURS 616 concurrent.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 636 - Transition into Nurse Anesthesia Practice (2)
Topics for entry into professional practice are examined and explored.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and NURS 670; NURS 690 concurrent.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 640 - Nurse Anesthesia Clinical Practicum III (1)
The competent student will continue to apply advanced principles and improve skills under the guidance of clinical preceptors.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and NURS 630; NURS 626 concurrent.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 670 - Nurse Anesthesia Clinical Practicum IV (1)
The proficient student will expand and enhance knowledge and skills with minimal direct guidance of clinical preceptors.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and NURS 640.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 691 - Nurse Anesthesia Clinical Practicum V (1)
The novice practitioner will prepare to transition from the student role with consultation and minimal guidance of clinical preceptors.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and NURS 670; NURS 636 concurrent.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 692 - Directed Readings I (1)
Under the direction of the faculty first reader, students finalize the Master’s project proposal and begin to implement the project.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

NURS 693 - Directed Readings II (1)
Under the direction of the faculty first reader, students complete the Master’s major project, the project write-up and project presentation.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

NURS 701 - Scientific Underpinnings for Clinical Scholarship (3)
Theoretical knowledge from nursing and related disciplines is explored. Emphasis is placed on integration and application of scientific knowledge to clinical practice and to practice scholarship.
Prerequisite: D.N.P. program matriculation or consent of program director.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 702 - Systems Leadership/Quality Improvement (3)
Core concepts of organizational and systems leadership and quality improvement are explored, with emphasis on application to diverse clinical practice settings.
Prerequisite: D.N.P. program matriculation or consent of program director.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 703 - Advanced Epidemiology and Biostatistics (3)
Epidemiological principles and methods are presented and applied to clinical and population-based health. Epidemiological, biostatistical, and other scientific approaches are used to analyze population data.
Prerequisite: D.N.P. program matriculation or consent of program director.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 704 - Clinical Research/Analytic Methods (3)
Methodological concepts and principles required for evidence-based clinical practice are examined. Emphasis is placed on analysis and application of research findings to clinical practice.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and NURS 703.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 705 - Health Care Policy and Advocacy (3)
Frameworks for developing and analyzing health policy issues are presented and discussed in the context of prominent health policy debates. Analytic skills will be applied to examine health policy issues.
Prerequisite: D.N.P. program matriculation or consent of program director.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 706 - Economics, Finance, Business Management (3)
Advanced economic, financial, and business knowledge and skills required to assume a D.N.P. leadership role are investigated. Emphasis is placed on application of knowledge to diverse healthcare settings and systems.
Prerequisite: D.N.P. program matriculation or consent of program director.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 707 - Information Technology/Decision Support (3)
The intersection of informatics, computer science, cognitive science and nursing science are explored. Current issues, evaluation of information technology, and application to practice are emphasized.
Prerequisite: D.N.P. program matriculation or consent of program director.
Offered: Fall.
NURS 708 - Interprofessional Collaborative Practice (3)
Core concepts of inter-professional collaborative practice are explored. Contemporary issues and strategies to promote inter-professional collaboration are examined.
Prerequisite: D.N.P. program matriculation or consent of program director.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 709 - Population Health (3)
Population-based approaches and initiatives to improve population-focused health care are presented, analyzed, and evaluated. Assessment, implementation, and evaluation of evidence based interventions will be emphasized.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and NURS 703 prerequisite or concurrent.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 720 - D.N.P. Project Planning Seminar (1)
The focus of this seminar is on D.N.P. project mapping and the proposal development process.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and NURS 701, NURS 702, NURS 703, NURS 704
Offered: Spring.

NURS 730 - D.N.P. Proposal Development (3)
Students develop the D.N.P. project proposal.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and NURS 720.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 740 - D.N.P. Project Implementation (2)
Students implement the D.N.P. project in consultation with their D.N.P. project advisor. Emphasis will be placed on data collection and analysis procedures.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and NURS 730.
Offered: Fall.

NURS 750 - D.N.P. Project Evaluation and Dissemination (1)
Students evaluate project findings and prepare the final written paper in consultation with their D.N.P. project advisor. Project findings are defended at a culminating oral presentation.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and NURS 740.
Offered: Spring.

NURS 791 - Directed Readings I (1)
Students develop a statement of the problem, purpose statement and project framework through intensive readings as they begin preparation of the D.N.P. project proposal. Graded S/U.
Prerequisite: D.N.P. matriculation
Offered: Spring.

NURS 792 - Directed Readings II (1)
Students complete the preliminary literature review through intensive readings and draft their project method as they continue to prepare the D.N.P. project proposal. Graded S/U.
Prerequisite: D.N.P. matriculation
Offered: Fall.

PFA - Performing Arts

PFA 461 - Senior Seminar (3)
Senior candidates for the B.A. in music complete a project appropriate to their interests and field within the performing arts. This project includes a written component and possibly a performance element.
Prerequisite: Senior standing in the B.A. in music program.
Offered: Spring.

PHIL - Philosophy

PHIL 200 - Introduction to Philosophy (3)
Basic philosophic issues, such as the existence of God, free will, minds, the nature of reality, knowledge, and truth, are examined. Emphasis is on reasoning and justification.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 201 - Introduction to Eastern Philosophy (3)
Theories of reality, knowledge, and the meaning of human existence in Eastern philosophical traditions are investigated. Included are the metaphysical speculations of the Indian schools and the ethical theories of East Asian schools.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 205W - Introduction to Logic (4)
This course covers principles of valid reasoning. Formal methods of propositional and quantificational logic are introduced to evaluate the validity of reasoning in arguments. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 206 - Ethics (3)
An examination and explanation of ethical judgments are made. Clarification and analysis of ethical terms and the validity of norms of conduct from the standpoint of formalistic, intuitional, hedonistic, and naturalistic ethical theories are considered.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 207 - Technology and the Future of Humanity (3)
Philosophical issues concerning recent and near term technological advances. Topics may include uploading personhood, robot consciousness, machine life or death decision making, human enhancement and life extension, or simulated violence.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

PHIL 209 - Logic and Probability in Scientific Reasoning (4)
Natural and social sciences require probabilistic reasoning, with special logical features. This course studies general principles of logic, special principles of probabilistic reasoning, their scientific applications, and common probabilistic fallacies.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.
Prerequisite: Completion of any Mathematics or Natural Science general education distribution.
Offered: Fall, Spring.
PHIL 230 - Aesthetics (4)
This course examines issues in the philosophy of art, such as: the nature of art, art and emotion, artistic intentions, aesthetic value, art and knowledge, and art and morality.
General Education Category: Arts - Visual and Performing.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 261 - Ethical Issues in Health Care (4)
This is a critical inquiry into ethical issues in health care. Moral theories from both Western and non-Western traditions are discussed and applied to issues in health care.
General Education Category: Core 4.
Prerequisite: Gen. Ed. Core 1, 2, and 3.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 262 - Freedom and Responsibility (4)
This class examines the nature of free will. What is it? Is it necessary for moral responsibility? Do we have it? And if not, what should we do about it?
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: Connections courses may not be used as part of a major or minor. FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 263 - The Idea of God (4)
Concepts of Divinity are critically examined. Issues include polytheism, monotheism, atheism, gender and the God(ess). Students are challenged to critically examine their own ideas through various philosophical and religious traditions.
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: Connections courses may not be used as part of a major or minor. FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHIL 265 - Philosophical Issues of Gender and Sex (4)
Philosophical questions concerning the concepts of sex and gender are explored. Readings will be drawn from philosophical texts and from a number of related disciplines.
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: Connections courses may not be used as part of a major or minor. FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

PHIL 266 - Asian Philosophies: Theory and Practice (4)
Study of philosophical themes and practical implications (personal and communal) in Asian cultures. Issues include concepts of life and death, origins and nature of reality, and standards of ethical relations.
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: Connections courses may not be used as part of a major or minor. FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

PHIL 300 - American Philosophy (3)
In this survey from the American colonial period to the present, some of the major works of significant American philosophers are read and discussed. Among the philosophers considered are Charles Peirce, William James, and John Dewey.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.
Offered: As needed.

PHIL 305 - Intermediate Logic (4)
This course covers some extensions of elementary logic with applications. Topics may include propositional modal logic, quantified modal logic, inductive logic, and meta-logic. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.
Offered: Spring (even years).

PHIL 306 - Contemporary Ethical Theory (3)
Theories about the nature and possibility of ethics are discussed. Topics may include relativism, egoism, intuitionism, moral realism, the nature of the moral person, moral development, feminist ethics, and the significance of evolution.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.
Offered: Fall.

PHIL 311 - Knowledge and Truth (3)
The concept of knowledge and its relationship to the world of experience is investigated. Various theories of the nature of truth are presented and analyzed. Students are introduced to epistemology.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.
Offered: Spring (even years).

PHIL 315 - Evidence, Reasoning, and Proof (3)
The concept of evidence, types of reasoning, and standards of proof are examined. Topics include types of evidence, evaluating evidence, eyewitness claims, expert testimony and memory, appraising reasoning, and standards of proof.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.
Offered: Annually.

PHIL 320 - Philosophy of Science (3)
Induction and probability, causality and the laws of nature, as well as the nature of explanation and justification, are covered.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.
Offered: Spring (odd years).

PHIL 321 - Social and Political Philosophy (3)
Students examine social and political theories and the philosophical issues they raise concerning the origin of society and man's nature as a "political being" and "social being."
Prerequisite: Completion of 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

PHIL 322 - Philosophy of Law (3)
Conceptual problems regarding law and legal systems are examined. Topics may include the nature of law, law and morality, civil disobedience, positivism, naturalism, personhood under the law, rights, punishment, and criminal responsibility.

Prerequisite: Completion of completion of 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.

Offered: Spring.

PHIL 325 - Environmental Ethics (3)
Theories and reality, ideology and action, and values and facts are examined. Focus is on rational policy decision making.
Prerequisite: Completion of 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.
Offered: Spring.

PHIL 330 - Metaphysics (3)
This is a problem-oriented introduction to some of the central issues of contemporary metaphysics. Topics may include ontology (what exists), necessity, causation, free will/determinism, space and time, and identity-over-time.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100 - or 200-level philosophy course.
Offered: Fall (even years).

PHIL 333 - Philosophy of Mind (3)
The status and role of mind in relation to body is studied. Diverse theories, such as mind/body dualism, identity theory, behaviorism, functionalism, and emergence, are discussed.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100 - or 200-level philosophy course.
Offered: Fall (odd years).

PHIL 351 - Plato, Aristotle, and Greek Philosophy (4)
The origins of philosophy in Greek thought are explored. Works of philosophers such as Plato and Aristotle are read. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.
Offered: Fall.

PHIL 353 - Philosophy of Mind (3)
The status of mind in relation to body is studied. Diverse theories, such as mind/body dualism, identity theory, behaviorism, functionalism, and emergence, are discussed.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.
Offered: Spring.

PHIL 355 - Epicureans, Stoics, Skeptics and Hellenistic Philosophy (3)
Greek and Roman philosophy after Aristotle and before the Medieval period is studied.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.
Offered: Spring (odd years).

PHIL 358 - Existentialism and Phenomenological Philosophy (3)
The main themes of existentialist philosophy and its successors are investigated through the study of such authors as Kierkegaard, Heidegger, Sartre, and Camus.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.
Offered: Spring (odd years).

PHIL 359 - Frege, Russell, Wittgenstein and Analytic Philosophy (3)
Late nineteenth- and twentieth-century philosophers of language, such as Frege, Russell, Moore, Wittgenstein, Austin, Quine, and Kripke, are studied.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits or any 100- or 200-level philosophy course.
Offered: Fall (odd years).

PHIL 390 - Directed Study (3-4)
Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member. This course may be repeated with a change in topic.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

PHIL 460W - Seminar in Philosophy (4)
Intensive study of a specific topic or author, including a term paper that engages recent scholarship and follows disciplinary conventions. May be repeated for credit with a change in topic. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: Completion of at least 30 college credits and any 300-level philosophy course, or consent of the department chair.
Offered: Annually.

PHIL 479 - Philosophy Internship (1-4)
Students experience the environment of institutions and firms where the work demand includes a substantial philosophical dimension.
Prerequisite: Open to philosophy majors who have completed at least 60 credit hours of undergraduate courses, 18 of which are philosophy courses, with consent of department chair.
Offered: Summer as needed.
PHIL 490 - Independent Study in Philosophy (1-4)
Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member. May be repeated with a different topic or continuation of a non-honors project.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

PHIL 491 - Independent Study I (3-4)
Students select a topic and undertake concentrated research or creative activity under the mentorship of a faculty member.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean, and admission to the philosophy honors program.
Offered: As needed.

PHIL 492 - Independent Study II (3-4)
This course continues the development of research or activity begun in PHIL 491. For departmental honors, the project requires final assessment from the department.
Prerequisite: PHIL 491 and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

PSCI - Physical Science

PSCI 103 - Physical Science (4)
The processes and natural laws that control our physical environment are investigated. Emphasis is on laboratory experiment. Lecture and laboratory. Students cannot receive credit for both PSCI 103 and PHYS 101-PHYS 102. 6 contact hours.
General Education Category: Natural Science.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency or appropriate score on the math placement exam.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PSCI 204 - Understanding the Physical Universe (4)
Fundamental principles in physical science such as force, energy, cycles and the structure of matter are introduced and used to investigate varied applications and current issues in the physical sciences. 5 contact hours.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.
Prerequisite: BIOL 100 and MATH 144 or consent of instructor.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PSCI 207 - Introduction to Environmental Chemistry (3)
The flow of material and energy through the Earth system is introduced. Principles of element cycles, climate science, and coastal processes are also investigated.
Offered: Annually.

PSCI 208 - Forensic Science (4)
Students learn about modern forensic techniques used in crime scene analysis. Emphasis is on the methods used to collect and interpret crime scene data.

General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.
Prerequisite: Any Mathematics or Natural Science.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

PSCI 211 - Introduction to Astronomy (4)
Our solar system, the sun and other stars, galaxies, and the universe are explored. Astronomical phenomena are explained using basic physical principles. Lecture and laboratory.
General Education Category: Natural Science.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency or appropriate score on the math placement exam.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

PSCI 212 - Introduction to Geology (4)
Focus is on the structure and composition of the earth and the processes that have shaped the earth. Topics include minerals, origin of magma, volcanic activity, and weathering and soil formation. Lecture and laboratory.
General Education Category: Natural Science.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency or appropriate score on the math placement exam.
Offered: Fall, Summer.

PSCI 214 - Introduction to Meteorology (4)
This class focuses on the structure, composition and phenomena of the atmosphere. Students examine local and global scale weather patterns, and century to millennial scale climate change.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.
Prerequisite: Completion of any mathematics or natural science general education distribution.
Offered: Fall.

PSCI 217 - Introduction to Oceanography (4)
Topics include mapping the sea floor, formation of the ocean basins, sediments as recorders of ocean history, the composition and physical properties of seawater, ocean circulation, El Ninos, waves, and tides. Lecture and laboratory.
General Education Category: Natural Science.
Prerequisite: Completed college mathematics competency or appropriate score on the math placement exam.
Offered: Spring.

PSCI 262 - Space: The Final Frontier (4)
Students explore the cultural impacts on the imagination of space, the science and technological discoveries for space science, and how space has fueled science fiction literature, film and popular culture.
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PSCI 269 - Space: The Final Frontier (4)
Students explore the cultural impacts on the imagination of space, the science and technological discoveries for space science, and how space has fueled science fiction literature, film and popular culture.
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PSCI 340 - Field Methods in Geology (3)
Mapping and the interpretation of geological structures are introduced. Emphasis is on the geology of local areas. Included are identification of rocks and methods of recording field observations. Laboratory and field trips. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: PSCI 212 or consent of instructor.
Offered: As needed.

PSCI 357 - Historical and Contemporary Contexts of Science (3)
The development of science and technology is explored through case histories from the physical, biological, and environmental sciences. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Any Natural Science course.
Offered: As needed.

PSCI 490 - Directed Study in Physical Science (3)
Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member. A particular area of physical science is studied on the basis of the interest of the student and the instructor.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

PSCI 491–493 - Research in Physical Science (1)
The student conducts original research in an area selected after consultation with the instructor and prepares a report of their work. A maximum of 6 credit hours may be earned in these courses.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

PHYS - Physics

PHYS 101 - Physics for Science and Mathematics I (4)
This mathematically intensive course includes vectors, statics, kinematics, Newton's laws, energy, momentum, thermodynamics and wave motion. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
General Education Category: Natural Science.
Prerequisite: Completed MATH 120 or appropriate score on the mathematics placement exam.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHYS 102 - Physics for Science and Mathematics II (4)
This mathematically intensive course includes electrostatics, DC and AC circuits, magnetism, electromagnetic waves, optics and an introduction to atomic and nuclear physics. Lecture and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.
Prerequisite: PHYS 101.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

PHYS 103 - Calculus Applications in Mechanics (1)
Students explore calculus-based topics in mechanics including kinematics, work and potential energy, momentum, rotational motion and simple harmonic motion.
Prerequisite: MATH 212, PHYS 101.
Offered: Fall.

PHYS 104 - Calculus Applications in Electricity and Magnetism (1)
Students explore calculus-based topics in electricity and magnetism including force from extended charge distributions, calculation of electric potential, Gauss's Law, Ampere's Law, Faraday's Law and electromagnetic waves.
Prerequisite: MATH 212, PHYS 102.
Offered: Spring.

PHYS 110 - Introductory Physics (4)
This algebra-based course includes vectors, statics, Newton's Laws, work and energy, electrostatics, DC circuits, magnetism, electromagnetic waves, nuclear radiation, and topics in modern physics. Lecture and Laboratory. 7 contact hours.
General Education Category: Natural Science.
Prerequisite: MATH 120 or appropriate score on the math placement exam.
Offered: Spring, Fall, Summer.

PHYS 118 - Fundamentals of Physics I (4)
This noncalculus-based course includes vectors, statics, kinematics, Newton's laws, energy, momentum, fluids, thermodynamics and wave motion. Lecture and laboratory.
Offered: As needed.

PHYS 119 - Fundamentals of Physics II (4)
This noncalculus-based course includes electrostatics, DC and AC circuits, magnetism, electromagnetic waves, optics, and an introduction to atomic and nuclear physics. Lecture and laboratory.
Prerequisite: PHYS 118.
Offered: As needed.

PHYS 120 - The Extraordinary Physics of Ordinary Things (4)
Students will learn about physical principles governing everyday applications and phenomena such as sports, musical instruments, computers, etc. Students will see how various physical principles work together in these technologies.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning (AQR)
Prerequisite: Completion of any mathematics general education distribution.
Offered: Spring.

PHYS 307 - Quantum Mechanics I (4)
Topics include relativistic mechanics, the failures of classical physics, the structure of the atom, and the wave description of matter, including the Schrödinger Equation, the hydrogen atom, angular momentum and spin. Lecture
Prerequisite: PHYS 102.
Offered: Spring (odd years).

PHYS 309 - Nanoscience and Nanotechnology (4)
This course will introduce the basic physics of nanoscience, describe how properties change at the nanoscale and relate this basic science to new nanotechnologies.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning
Prerequisite: Any Natural Science General Education course.
Offered: Fall (even years).

PHYS 311 - Thermodynamics (4)
This is an introduction to the laws of thermodynamics and its application to equilibrium systems, such as ideal gases, phase transformations, solutions and chemical reactions, and elementary statistical mechanics. Lecture.
Prerequisite: PHYS 101 and successful completion of or concurrent enrollment in MATH 213, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring (even years).

PHYS 312 - Mathematical Methods in Physics (3)
Topics include curvilinear coordinates, complex variables, integral transforms, vectors and matrices, special functions, differential equations, and numerical methods as applied to physics. Lecture.
Prerequisite: MATH 314.
Offered: Fall.

PHYS 313 - Junior Laboratory (3)
Intermediate-level experiments are performed in all areas of physics. Students also learn research skills, such as data analysis, literature review, and communication skills. Laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: PHYS 102 and PHYS 307.
Offered: Fall.

PHYS 315 - Optics (4)
This course covers electromagnetic waves, geometric optics, and physical optics. Topics include: mirrors, lenses, optical systems, thick lenses, aberrations, interference, diffraction, polarization, coherence, and lasers. Laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: PHYS 102 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring (odd years).

PHYS 320 - Analog Electronics (4)
Students examine discrete components, including resistors, capacitors, diodes, and transistors, and their applications. Oscilloscopes and other standard laboratory test equipment are used extensively. Integrated circuits are also introduced. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: PHYS 102 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall (odd years).

PHYS 321 - Digital Electronics (4)
Students explore basic logic chips and combine them to build digital devices including a microcomputer. Devices include multiplexers, counters, adders, flip-flops, and memory buses. Laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: PHYS 102 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall (odd years).

PHYS 401 - Advanced Electricity and Magnetism I (4)
This is an examination of the theory and application of electrostatic fields, charge, potential, magnetic fields, steady currents, magnetic flux, inductance, transient current, radiation, magnetic energy and Maxwell's Equations. Lecture.
Prerequisite: MATH 314 and PHYS 102.
Offered: Spring (even years).

PHYS 402 - Advanced Electricity and Magnetism II (3)
This course covers the principles of electrodynamics, conservation laws, electromagnetic radiation, and the application of Special Relativity to electrodynamics. Lecture.
Prerequisite: PHYS 401.
Offered: As needed.

PHYS 403 - Classical Mechanics (4)
This course covers, at an advanced level, the classical theory of linear and rotational dynamics of particles and continuous media. An introduction to Lagrangian mechanics and special relativity is included. Lecture.
Prerequisite: MATH 314, PHYS 102.
Offered: Spring (odd years).

PHYS 407 - Quantum Mechanics II (3)
Topics include the structure of solids, approximation techniques, nuclear physics, and particle physics. Lecture.
Prerequisite: PHYS 102 and PHYS 307.
Offered: As needed.

PHYS 409 - Solid State Physics (3)
Topics include crystallography, common crystal structures, the reciprocal lattice, band theory, phonons, metals, and semiconductors. Lecture.
Prerequisite: PHYS 307.
Offered: As needed.

PHYS 413 - Senior Laboratory (3)
Advanced experiments in mechanics, waves, thermodynamics, optics, electromagnetism, and other topics are conducted. Laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: PHYS 102 and PHYS 313.
Offered: Fall.

PHYS 467 - Honors Colloquium in Physics ()
Current topics in science at an advanced level are presented through department colloquia with outside speakers and through a series of seminars led by resident experts. This course may be repeated for credit with a change in content. 1 contact hour. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: PHYS 102 and consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

PHYS 490 - Directed Study in Physics (3)
Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member. An area of physics is studied on the basis of the interest of the student and the instructor.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

PHYS 491-493 - Research in Physics (1)
The student conducts original research in an area selected after consulting with the instructor and prepares a report on the work. A maximum of 6 credit hours may be earned in these courses.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.
POL - Political Science

POL 202 - American Government (4)
The institutions and principles of American national government are examined. Topics include the constitutional foundation, federalism, political parties, Congress, the presidency, the Supreme Court, and civil rights.
General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

POL 203 - Global Politics (4)
This is an introduction to the governance of other contemporary national political systems and to the forces, principles, and transnational arrangements of international politics.
General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

POL 204 - Introduction to Political Thought (4)
Fundamental concepts and issues of philosophy and political theory are investigated. Basic precepts about authority, law, government, and the terms of obligation are examined in light of contemporary concerns.
General Education Category: Social and Behavioral Sciences.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

POL 208 - Introduction to the Law (4)
Students are introduced to the legal system, the nature of legal reasoning and the roles of judges, juries, legislatures and others in shaping the law.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

POL 262 - Power and Community (4)
Students study normative and empirical aspects of the concepts of “power” and “community.” Examples of power relations in a variety of contexts and settings will be compared.
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

POL 265 - Politics and Popular Culture: Global Perspectives (4)
Students investigate the intersection of politics and popular culture in Western and non-Western societies by examining entertainment values, their relationship to political culture and behavior, and the debate over globalization.
General Education Category: Core 4.
Prerequisite: Gen. Ed. Core 1, 2, and 3.
Offered: Annually.

POL 266 - Investing in the Global Economy (4)
Students study nations around the world pursuing success in global economic competition. The course will compare economic development and investment opportunities of nations and their businesses.
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: Connections courses may not be used as part of a major or minor. FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

POL 267 - Immigration, Citizenship, and National Identity (4)
Students investigate how different societies have dealt with citizenship and immigration issues and how conceptions of nationhood influence citizenship and immigration debates.
General Education Category: Connections.
Prerequisite: FYS 100, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.
Offered: Annually.

POL 300 - Methodology in Political Science (4)
The approaches and methods of empirical political science research are surveyed. Emphasis is on research design, data collection, and interpretation.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning.
Prerequisite: POL 202 and any Gen. Ed. Mathematics course, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

POL 301W - Foundations of Public Administration (4)
The art and science of public administration is introduced. Focus is on the administrative leadership necessary to manage government agencies within the American political system. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: POL 202 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

POL 303 - International Law and Organization (4)
Both twentieth-century international organization and the place of evolving international law are considered with respect to the settlement of disputes and the maintenance of peace.
Prerequisite: POL 203 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

POL 306 - State and Local Government (4)
Students examine the political structures, processes, policies, and power distributions in state and local governments in the United States. Topics include intergovernmental relations, executive leadership, and legislative policy making.
Prerequisite: POL 202 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Every third semester.

POL 307 - Political Behavior (4)
Students examine how individuals interact with the American political system. Topics include political socialization, political psychology, public opinion, voting behavior, and other forms of mass political participation.
Prerequisite: POL 202.
Offered: Fall (even years).

POL 308W - Current Political Controversy (4)
Students learn the art and science of political analysis by critically reading and writing about political controversies currently in the news while learning to use the tools and data available to political scientists. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: POL 202 and completion of 30 credits.
Offered: Fall, Spring.
POL 309 - Gender and Politics in the U.S. (4)

PSYC 594 - Directed Research (3)
Students undertake a qualitative or quantitative empirical research project under the supervision of a faculty advisor.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and PSYC 500 and PSYC 501 or equivalents, good standing (see Graduate Manual), and consent of department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

PSYC 599 - Master’s Thesis (3-6)
Students conduct a quantitative or qualitative empirical study. May be repeated once for a maximum of 6 credits
Prerequisite: Graduate status and PSYC 500 and PSYC 501 or equivalents, completion of 9 additional credits in the program, thesis committee approval, good standing (see Graduate Manual), and consent of department chair and dean.
Offered: As needed.

PBAD - Public Administration

PBAD 325W - Politics of Public Management (4)
Budgeting and Personnel Administration, Emphasis is on the central role of public budgets in policy formation and on the search for balance among a representative public work force, neutral competence, and political responsiveness. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: POL 301 or POL 301W, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

PBAD 326W - Public Sector Information Systems (4)
Students are introduced to the use of public sector information systems, their impact on the relationship between citizens and government, and the career opportunities they present. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course.
Prerequisite: POL 202 or by consent of the program director.
Offered: Fall.

RAD - Radiography

RAD 331 - Foundations of Radiography
Students are introduced to radiography, imaging equipment, and the radiography clinical environment. Topics include terminology, positioning and imaging principles, and radiation safety.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging Clinical program
Offered: Spring

RAD 332 - Radiographic Procedures I
Students will learn positioning skills for chest, abdomen, and upper and lower extremities. Students will be introduced to basic pathologies related to anatomy included in this course.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging Clinical program
Offered: Spring

RAD 333 - Radiographic Procedures II
Students will learn positioning skills for spine, bony thorax, cranium, facial bones, sinuses and contrast examinations.
Offered: Summer

RAD 334 - Principles of Radiography
Students are asked to make connections between the introductory lectures and clinical practice. This course prepares students for the national certification exams.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging Clinical program
Offered: Spring

RAD 335 - Radiation Physics
Students will learn about x-ray circuit components, methods of rectification, and construction of the x-ray tube. Topics include X-ray interactions and the absorption of radiation and effects upon tissue and tissue recovery.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging Clinical program
Offered: Summer

RAD 336 - Clinical Education I
18 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into a Medical Imaging Clinical program
Offered: Spring

RAD 337 - Clinical Education II
30 contact hours.
Offered: Summer

RAD 432 - Radiobiology
Students learn the concepts of creating and capturing digital images including preprocessing, processing, and postprocessing. Students will also learn principles of radiobiology and radiation protection.
Offered: Fall

RAD 433 - Clinical Education III
30 contact hours
Offered: Fall

RAD 434 - Advanced Procedures in Radiography
Students will learn about advanced procedures in radiography, including trauma, mobile, and surgical radiography, pediatrics, arthrography, hysterosalpingography, myelography, orthorhontentography, and biliary duct procedures. Emphasis will be on case studies.
Offered: Spring

RAD 435 - Registry Review
Offered: Spring

RAD 436 - Clinical Education IV
Students 24 contact hours.
Offered: Spring
RADT - Radiologic Technology

RADT 301 - Introduction to Radiographic Procedures (2)
This course introduces positioning terminology, X-RAY equipment, safety and shielding. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: MEDI 201 and admission into the MEDI-RT Clinical Program.
Offered: Fall.

RADT 305 - Skeletal Anatomy (3)
Students learn the anatomy of the skeletal system, including identification of bony processes and specific anatomical features. Students identify and describe the articulations of different bones.
Prerequisite: MEDI 201 or RADT 201.
Offered: Spring.

RADT 306 - Radiographic Procedures I (4)
Basic patient positioning, exposure factors, shielding, trauma, surgery, pediatric and mobile procedures will be explored. Topics include upper and lower extremity, shoulder girdle, pelvic girdle, bony thorax and vertebral column.
Prerequisite: RADT 301 and admission into the MEDI-RT clinical program.
Offered: Spring.

RADT 307 - Radiographic Procedures II (3)
A continuation of RADT 306, this course includes positioning principles of bony thorax, skull, and contrast agent studies of the digestive, biliary, and urinary systems.
Prerequisite: RADT 306.
Offered: Summer.

RADT 309 - Clinical Education I (4)
In various clinical settings, students learn to produce appropriate radiographic images on all patient types. Technical factors are introduced. 16 contact hours.
Prerequisite: RADT 301.
Offered: Spring.

RADT 310 - Clinical Education II (8)
A continuation of RADT 309, this course includes routine radiographic procedures and technical factors. 32 contact hours.
Prerequisite: RADT 309.
Offered: Summer.

RADT 320 - Principles of Radiography I (3)
The discovery and properties of x-rays and the structure and function of x-ray tubes are discussed. The analysis of radiographic film quality is also explored.
Prerequisite: RADT 301.
Offered: Spring.

RADT 321 - Principles of Radiography II (3)
Topics include quality assurance testing, the evaluation of quality control tests, radiation monitoring, latent image formation, the use of intensifying screens, and automatic film processors.
Prerequisite: RADT 320.
Offered: Fall.

RADT 330 - Radiation Physics I (3)
Topics include the construction and function of x-ray tubes, the properties of x-ray emission spectra, photon interactions, and the clinical significance of photoelectric and Compton scattering.
Prerequisite: RADT 301.
Offered: Summer.

RADT 411 - Clinical Education III (8)
While reinforcing skills already learned, this clinical course focuses on advanced imaging procedures, including trauma and fluoroscopy procedures. 32 contact hours.
Prerequisite: RADT 310.
Offered: Fall.

RADT 412 - Clinical Education IV (6)
This final clinical course prepares students to become independent, functioning radiologic technologists. 24 contact hours.
Prerequisite: RADT 411.
Offered: Spring.

RADT 425 - Ethics/Critical Thinking and Problem Solving (2)
Topics include personal and professional values, professional standards, and legal liability in the workplace. Problem-solving techniques are taught to help students make competent, informed decisions.
Prerequisite: RADT 411.
Offered: Fall.

RADT 431 - Radiation Physics II (3)
Students explore electromagnetic and particulate radiation; tomography; radiosensitivity of different cell types; radiation sickness; radiation barriers; and federal, state, and local regulations concerning the use of radiation.
Prerequisite: RADT 330.
Offered: Spring.

RADT 455 - Comprehensive Radiographic Pathology (2)
A detailed, comprehensive pathology of organ systems relevant to radiologic technology is given.
Prerequisite: RADT 330.
Offered: Spring.

RADT 461 - Registry Review (3)
Students review the specifications of the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists exam, the guidelines for application, study strategies, and content included in the exam.
Prerequisite: RADT 411.
Offered: Spring.
READ - Reading

READ 501 - Reading in the Content Areas (3)
Focus is on methods that help K-12 students learn from subject matter materials.
Prerequisite: Graduate status or consent of instructor.
Offered: Spring.

READ 507 - Teaching Reading and Writing to English-as-a-Second-Language Students (3)
Focus is on second-language literacy in reading and writing for limited-English-proficient students. Students cannot receive credit for both READ 507 and TESL 507.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and TESL 539 or TESL 541 or TESL 549.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

READ 534 - Developmental Reading: Prekindergarten through Grade Eight (3)
Included are emergent literacy, reading, the other language arts, word recognition strategies, comprehension processes, study skills, and literacy evaluation. Emphasis is on recent research and curriculum trends in literacy education.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and ELED 422 or equivalent; or elementary school teaching experience; or consent of instructor.
Offered: Fall.

READ 629 - Remedial Reading Clinic (6)
Emphasis is on the diagnosis and treatment of reading difficulties. Students gain proficiency in using strategies for overcoming reading difficulties and practice these techniques in a six-week summer reading clinic.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, READ 501, READ 534, READ 685, READ 686.
Offered: Summer.

READ 641 - Administration of Reading Programs (3)
The role of the reading consultant in improving reading instruction is examined. Included are a study of the concept of literacy, a review of model reading programs, the change process, and curriculum planning.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and READ 663.
Offered: Spring.

READ 663 - Seminar in Reading Research (3)
Focus is on the teacher as researcher. Applications of current instructional research are integrated into a student project.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and READ 629.
Offered: Fall, Summer.

READ 685 - Diagnosis of Reading Difficulties (3)
Through lectures, demonstrations, and experiences, students are introduced to the theory of reading difficulties and develop skill in diagnosis. This course is intended for professionals who work with disabled readers.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and READ 501 or READ 534.
Offered: Fall.

READ 686 - Treatment of Reading Difficulties (3)
Focus is on current theories, practices, and materials concerning students who have reading difficulties. This course is intended for professionals who work with disabled readers.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and READ 685.
Offered: Spring.

RIC - Rhode Island College

RIC 100 - Introduction to RIC (1)
Students learn how to navigate college in general and RIC specifically, including such topics as time management, wellness, college expectations, note-taking, cultural competency and campus resources.
Offered: Fall, Spring

SED - Secondary Education

SED 201 - Introduction to Lesson Planning (2)
Teacher candidates are introduced to the processes and procedures of planning effective, culturally responsive lessons.
Prerequisite: FNED 246; concurrent with SED 202 or by permission of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

SED 202 - Introduction to Assessment (2)
Teacher candidates are introduced to the purposes, processes and procedures of assessment.
Prerequisite: FNED 246; concurrent with SED 201 or by permission of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

SED 301 - Discourses, Literacies and Technologies of Learning (2)
Candidates learn about educational policy discourses, engage in the literacy practices of their discipline and enhance their knowledge of digital literacies for teaching and communication. 5 hours clinical preparation.
Prerequisite: SED 201 and SED 202 (with minimum grade of B-), or permission of department chair; concurrent enrollment in SED 302, and fulfillment of retention requirements.
Offered: Fall.

SED 302 - Teaching and Learning: Humanities in Communities (2)
Candidates will learn to exercise a critical perspective on life and learning in underserved schools/neighborhoods. Candidates will work with local organizations, advocates and/or schools. 20 hours clinical preparation.
Prerequisite: Concurrent with SED 301; or permission of department chair.
Offered: Fall.
SED 303 - Inquiry into STEM (4)
Candidates learn about and engage in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics activities that can be implemented in secondary math and science classrooms or with youth organizations. 20 hours clinical preparation.
Prerequisite: Concurrent with SED 301; or permission of department chair.
Offered: Fall.
SED 313 - Critical Writing and Teaching in Schools (4)
In this practicum course, candidates will learn tools and techniques for writing and teaching writing using the arts and digital literacies. Focus is on teaching non-native speakers of English.
Prerequisite: Successful completion of SED 301 and SED 302; English G.P.A. of 3.0.
Offered: Fall.
SED 314 - Responsive Social Studies Teaching/Learning I (4)
Teacher candidates examine secondary social studies teaching and learning in public schools, and create and deliver age-appropriate culturally responsive social studies lessons. Three weeks or equivalent practicum field experience.
Prerequisite: Admission to FSEHD (Secondary Education Social Studies or Secondary Education History/ Social Studies program). Successful completion of SED 301, SED 302, social studies/history content G.P.A. of 3.0 and overall G.P.A. of 2.75. Concurrent or prior successful completion of GEOG 200 and GEOG 401 or permission of instructor.
Offered: Spring.
SED 315 - Teaching Mathematics in a Diverse Classroom (4)
Students adapt mathematics knowledge into thoughtful, engaging, reform-based mathematics lessons to help all students learn using community-building, dialogic practices. Clinical preparation (3 weeks or equivalent).
Prerequisite: SED 303.
Offered: Spring.
SED 316 - Practicum in Secondary Education: Science (4)
Teacher candidates examine principles, methods, content and curriculum in the content area so that they can plan and implement lessons within middle/secondary clinical settings.
Prerequisite: SED 303, and completed at least 28 credit hours of required and cognate courses in the major or have the consent of the program advisor.
Offered: Spring.
SED 406 - Instructional Methods, Design, and Technology (3)
Students learn the fundamentals of lesson design and methods for integrating instructional technology to enhance content area teaching and learning. Students design and present model lessons in a laboratory setting.
Prerequisite: Admission to a secondary education teacher preparation program or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.
SED 414 - Responsive Social Studies Teaching/Learning II (4)
Emphasis is on inquiry and project-based learning, assessment, critical thinking skills and culturally responsive curricula and pedagogy in secondary classrooms. Three weeks or equivalent practicum field experience.
Prerequisite: Successful completion of SED 314 with a grade of B- or higher. Social studies/content G.P.A. of 3.0, overall G.P.A. of 2.75.
Offered: Fall.
SED 407 - Instructional Methods, Design, and Literacy (3)
Students explore research-based reading and writing strategies for secondary education content teaching and apply these strategies by designing and presenting literacy instruction in a field-based setting.
Prerequisite: SED 406 (with minimum grade of B-) and fulfillment of retention requirements, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.
SED 411 - Content and Pedagogy in Secondary Education (4)
Students examine principles, methods, content, and curriculum in the content area and prepare lessons and units that incorporate the needs of diverse learners and effective assessment strategies.
Prerequisite: SED 407 (with minimum grade of B-), concurrent enrollment in SED 412, and fulfillment of retention requirements.
Offered: Fall.
SED 412 - Field Practicum in Secondary Education (2)
Teacher candidates, under the supervision of college and clinical instructors, plan, develop, and implement lesson plans within middle/secondary clinical settings, drawing on content developed in SED 411. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: SED 407 (with minimum grade of B-), concurrent enrollment in SED 411, and fulfillment of retention requirements.
Offered: Fall.
SED 413 - Social Justice Teaching in English Education (4)
Students connect critical and culturally relevant pedagogies to everyday classroom strategies and techniques. Students will focus on community-building, dialogical methods and the teaching of reading. Clinical preparation (3 weeks or equivalent).
Prerequisite: SED 313.
Offered: Fall.
SED 414 - Rethinking Mathematics Teaching and Learning (4)
Students connect equitable pedagogical approaches to the teaching and learning of mathematics. Focus on mindsets, mathematical problem analysis, visualizing mathematics and incorporating social justice in the mathematics curriculum. Clinical preparation (3 weeks or equivalent).
Prerequisite: SED 315.
Offered: Fall.
SED 416 - Socio-Scientific Issues in the Classroom (4)
Students examine reform in science education and investigate the interactions between science, technology and society.
Prerequisite: SED 303.
Offered: Fall.

SED 420 - Introduction to Student Teaching (4)
Teacher candidates will participate in a three-week clinical preparation in the field. This induction phase will orient secondary education teacher candidates to their student teaching semester. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in SED 421 and SED 422. To be admitted into SED 420, SED 421, and SED 422, the student must have completed all other required courses.
Cross-Listed as: TECH 420, WLED 420.
Offered: Early Spring

SED 421 - Student Teaching in the Secondary School (7)
In this culminating field experience, candidates complete a teaching experience in a PK-12 school under the supervision of cooperating teachers and college supervisors. This is a full-semester assignment.
Students cannot receive credit for more than one of the following: SED 421, TECH 421, and WLED 421. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in SED 420 and SED 422; completion of all program requirements and all required education courses, with a minimum grade of B, prior to student teaching; satisfactory completion of all courses in the major prior to student teaching; a recommendation from the practicum instructor; undergraduate, second degree, and RITE students must have a cumulative GPA of 2.50 a full semester prior to student teaching; graduate students must have a cumulative GPA of 3.00 a full semester prior to student teaching; undergraduate and second degree students must complete the community service requirement; passing score(s) on the Praxis II, approved mini-teacher candidate work sample; and a negative result from the required tuberculin test. To be admitted into SED 421, and SED 422, the student must have completed all other required courses.
Cross-Listed as: TECH 421, WLED 421.
Offered: Spring

SED 422 - Student Teaching Seminar in Secondary Education (3)
This is an integrative and culminating experience in the professional program in secondary education. Students reflect on their initial experience as classroom teachers. Students cannot receive credit for more than one of the following: SED 420, TECH 420, and WLED 420. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in SED 420 and SED 421. To be admitted into SED 420, SED 421, and SED 422, the student must have completed all other required courses.
Cross-Listed as: TECH 422, WLED 422.
Offered: Spring

SED 444 - Teaching Adolescent Literature (3)
This is a blending of the academic appreciation of young adult literature with pedagogical strategies for its classroom use. Students read widely in the field and develop individualized demonstration projects for use in the secondary English class.
Offered: Fall and/or Summer.

SED 445 - The Teaching of Writing in Secondary Schools (4)
Study includes the evaluation of aims and objectives, selection and organization of content, principles and methods of writing instruction, and current research and practice in the teaching of writing.
Prerequisite: Admission to the Secondary Education Teacher Preparation Program.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

SED 490 - Directed Study I (3)
Students develop a proposal that includes a description and rationale for their research project, a literature review, methodologies for data collection and analysis, a time line, and a plan for presenting their findings.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the educational studies honors program.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

SED 491 - Independent Study I (3)
Students develop a proposal that includes a description and rationale for their research project, a literature review, methodologies for data collection and analysis, a time line and a plan for presenting their findings.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the educational studies honors program, and consent of instructor, department chair and dean.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

SED 496 - Survey of Instructional Design (3)
This course provides students with an in-depth overview of the theory and application of various methods of instructional design, including technology, assessment, and use of instructional materials.
Prerequisite: Graduate status.
Offered: Fall, Summer.

SED 501 - Introduction to Lesson Planning ()
Offered: Fall, Summer

502 502 - Introduction to Assessment ()
Offered: Fall, Summer

503 503 - Discourses, Literacies and Technologies of Learning ()
Offered: Spring

505 505 - Inquiry into STEM ()
Offered: Spring

SED 506 - Survey of Instructional Design (3)
This course provides students with an in-depth overview of the theory and application of various methods of instructional design, including technology, assessment, and use of instructional materials.
Prerequisite: Graduate status.
Offered: Fall, Summer.

SED 507 - Instructional Design and Literacy (3)
This course provides students with research-based instructional design integrating reading and writing strategies for secondary education content teaching. A clinical experience is required.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and SED 506, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring Summer.

SED 510 - Mathematics Teaching in a Diverse Classroom (4)
Offered: Spring

SED 511 - Content and Pedagogy in Secondary Education (4)
Students examine principles, methods, content, and curriculum in the content area and prepare lessons and units that incorporate the needs of diverse learners and effective assessment strategies.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and SED 507, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

SED 512 - Field Practicum in Secondary Education (4)
Teacher candidates, under the supervision of college and clinical instructors, plan, develop, and implement lesson plans within middle/secondary clinical settings, drawing on content developed in SED 511.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and concurrent enrollment in SED 511, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

SED 514 - Secondary School Curriculum (3)
The development of a curriculum and the forces that modify it are examined in terms of the problems, needs, and trends involved. Recent curriculum developments are considered.
Prerequisite: Graduate status.
Offered: Spring (even years).

SED 515 - Rethinking Mathematics Teaching and Learning (4)
Offered: Fall

SED 516 - Teaching and Learning: Humanities in Communities ()
Offered: Spring

SED 517 - Critical Writing and Teaching in School ()
Offered: Fall

SED 518 - Social Justice Teaching in English Education ()
Offered: Fall

SED 519 - Professional Development for Cooperating Teachers (3)
Cooperating teachers gain knowledge, tools, and experience that help them prepare teacher candidates to meet professional requirements in K-12 education programs. This course may be repeated after four years. Hybrid course.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and currently serving as a cooperating teacher, or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

SED 520 - Introduction to Student Teaching ()
Offered: Spring

SED 521 - Student Teaching in Secondary Schools (7)
In this culminating field experience, candidates complete a teaching experience in a middle or senior high school under the supervision of cooperating teachers and college supervisors. This is a full-semester assignment.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, concurrent enrollment in SED 522; completion of all program requirements and all required education courses, with a minimum grade of B- prior to student teaching; satisfactory completion of all courses in the major prior to student teaching; a recommendation from the practicum instructor; graduate students must have a cumulative GPA of 3.00 a full semester prior to student teaching; passing score(s) on the Praxis II, approved Preparing to Teach Portfolio; and a negative result from the required tuberculin test.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

SED 522 - Student Teaching Seminar in Secondary Education (4)
This is an integrative and culminating experience in the professional program in secondary education. Students reflect on their initial experience as classroom teachers.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and concurrent enrollment in SED 521.
Offered: Spring.

SED 523 - Teaching Seminar in Secondary Education (3)
This is an integrative and culminating experience in the professional program in secondary education. Students reflect on their initial experiences as classroom teachers.
Prerequisite: Enrollment in R.I.C./TFA Secondary Education C.G.S. program.
Offered: Spring.

SED 527 - Foreign Languages in the Schools (3)
Focus is on more effective foreign language teaching at all levels. Recent research in methodology and educational media is examined, with particular reference to the contributions made by such areas as psychology and linguistics.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and completion of minimum academic requirements for certification in the discipline or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

SED 529 - Mathematics in the Secondary Schools (3)
Emphasis is on the actual teaching of mathematics. Topics include current curriculum recommendations that affect methodology and the teacher's fundamental approach to mathematics.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and completion of minimum academic requirements for certification in the discipline or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

SED 531 - Models of Instruction (3)
A variety of theory-based instructional models are examined and in the context of contemporary secondary school issues and reform efforts.
Prerequisite: Graduate status.
Offered: Spring.

SED 542 - English in Secondary Schools (3)
Study includes the evaluation of aims and objectives, selection and organization of content, principles and methods of English instruction, and current research in English instruction.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and completion of minimum academic requirements for certification in the discipline or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.
SED 543 - Social Studies in Secondary Schools (3)
Study includes the evaluation of aims and objectives, selection and organization of content, principles and methods of social studies instruction, and current research in social studies instruction.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and completion of minimum academic requirements for certification in the discipline or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

SED 548 - Science Methods in Secondary Schools (3)
Focus is on five major areas relative to science instruction in the secondary schools. Discussion of each area is supplemented with library research.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and completion of minimum academic requirements for certification in the discipline or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

SED 561 - Socio-cultural Theory, Education Policy, and Pedagogy (3)
Students examine the social and cultural construction of schooling and the implications of multiculturalism, school structure, and education policy.
Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. program in advanced studies in teaching and learning or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

SED 562 - Inquiry into Classroom Practice (3)
Students engage in systematic inquiry based on original data and standardized assessments of teaching and learning within educational settings.
Prerequisite: Admission to the M.Ed. program in advanced studies in teaching and learning and completion of SED 561 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

SED 563 - Educational Measurement and Assessment (3)
Students study quantitative and qualitative methods of conducting student and teacher assessments, uses of assessment data, role of standards and implications for instruction. Hybrid course.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and SED 562, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Summer.

SED 564 - Learning Theory and Student Engagement (3)
Students use multidisciplinary perspectives to examine individual, social, cultural and historical factors in learning, teaching and assessment practices. A case study is conducted.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and SED 563, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

SED 565 - Disciplinary Literacy and Curriculum Research (3)
Students examine the research, theory, and practice of multi-literacies in academic disciplines. A classroom-based field study is conducted.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and SED 564, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.

SED 591-594 - Directed Research (1-4)
Under the direction of a member of the department faculty, students initiate a formal inquiry into an area of concern associated with their present professional responsibility. A maximum of four credit hours may be earned in this sequence.
Prerequisite: consent of department chair. Open only to students enrolled in the M.Ed. program in secondary education or the educational specialist programs
Offered: As needed.

SSCI - Social Science

SSCI 310 - Africa (3)
The social and political structures and related problems of changing Africa are considered. Social science faculty members and visiting specialists may lecture in their fields of specialization.
Prerequisite: Any 200-level course in a social science.
Offered: As needed.

SSCI 311 - Latin America (3)
Changes in Latin American societies during the twentieth century are examined in terms of their geographic and historic origins and political, social, and economic implications. Social science faculty members and visiting specialists may lecture.
Prerequisite: Any 200-level course in a social science.
Offered: As needed.

SSCI 418 - Cultural Pluralism (3)
The nature and dynamics of cultural pluralism in American society are examined. Issues of identity, race, ethnicity, and class are explored. Students may receive credit for only one of the following: ANTH 418, SSCI 418, or SSCI 518.
Prerequisite: 6 credit hours in any of the social sciences disciplines or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

SSCI 518 - Cultural Pluralism (3)
Students undertake graduate-level research on the nature and dynamics of cultural pluralism in American society. Students may receive credit for only one of the following: ANTH 418, SSCI 418, or SSCI 518.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and 6 credit hours at the 300 and/or 400-level in any of the social sciences disciplines, or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

SWRK - Social Work

SWRK 110 - Introduction to Human Services (3)
Students are introduced to the knowledge, values, and skills needed in human services. Issues of diversity, community resources, and the various arenas of human service practice are presented.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the social and human service assistance certificate program.
Offered: Fall.

SWRK 111 - Basic Interviewing Skills for Human Service Assistance (1)
Students practice relationship building, interviewing and engagement skills. Classroom learning is integrated with practice experience. 2 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the social and human service assistance certificate program.
Offered: Fall.

SWRK 112 - Basic Writing Skills for Human Services (2)
This course provides students with a review of basic writing skills, an introduction to human services vocabulary and opportunities to write about issues related to social and human services. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the social and human service assistance certificate program.
Offered: Fall.

SWRK 120 - Generalist Practice Skills for Human Services (3)
Focus is on generalist skills for human service work, which include assessing, planning, linking, monitoring, recording, and evaluating.
Prerequisite: Acceptance into the social and human service assistance certificate program.
Offered: Fall.

SWRK 200 - Introduction to Social Work (4)
Students learn about the profession of Social Work, focusing on skills, ethics of helping and fields of practice: child welfare, juvenile justice, elder services and mental health.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

SWRK 230 - Advanced Skills for Human Services (3)
Focus is on assessment and intervention practices in working with individuals, families, and groups.
Prerequisite: SWRK 110, SWRK 111, and SWRK 120.
Offered: Spring.

SWRK 260 - Integrative Seminar and Field Experience (4)
In this seminar, students share their fieldwork experiences. Emphasis is on the integration of theory and practice. Students also learn agency based writing skills. Graded S, U.
Prerequisite: SWRK 110, SWRK 111, and SWRK 120.
Offered: Spring.

SWRK 301 - Policy Analysis and Practice (4)
Students examine social welfare policies that shape professional practice and client oppression; they work on strategies that create policy change for vulnerable and marginalized populations.
Prerequisite: POL 202, SWRK 200, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

SWRK 302 - Social Work Research Methods I (4)
Students learn about research process and methods in social work practice-related research. Students develop a research proposal including a problem statement, literature review and methods to be used.
Prerequisite: Completion of any mathematics or natural science general education distribution, and SWRK 200.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

SWRK 303 - Social Work Research Methods II (4)
Students develop data collection and analysis skills. Students conduct qualitative (single-subject case study) and quantitative (aggregate) data analyses, and learn strategies for using analytic software. General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning (AQRS)
Prerequisite: Completion of any mathematics general education distribution, and SWRK 302 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

SWRK 306 - Biopsychosocial Perspectives for Social Workers (2)
Students explore biopsychosocial aspects of human behavior for social work practice. Includes the role of genetics, the brain and physiology in discussing disability, trauma, mental illness and substance abuse.
Prerequisite: Prior or concurrent enrollment in SWRK 200.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

SWRK 324 - Diversity and Oppression I (4)
Students discover interpersonal and systemic influences on human behavior, especially the impact of oppression on individuals’ opportunities and outcomes. The effects of sexism, heterosexism, transphobia, ageism and ableism are examined.

SPED 564 - Building Social and Communication Skills (3)
The core social and communication deficits of autism are explored. Students learn to conduct specific assessments and to create individualized social and communication supports using evidence-based practices.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, SPED 561, SPED 562, and concurrent enrollment in SPED 563 and SPED 565; or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring (as needed).

SPED 565 - Practicum II in Autism (1)
Concepts and skills are applied to students with autism in their classrooms. Student supports in communication, social skills, and curriculum adaptation are evaluated through on-site classroom observation.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, SPED 561, SPED 562, and concurrent enrollment in SPED 563 and SPED 564; or consent of department chair.
Offered: Summer (as needed).

SPED 566 - Autism and Positive Behavior Supports (3)
Participants use functional behavioral analysis to understand the unique behaviors of students with autism and the use of effective intervention.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, SPED 563, SPED 564, and SPED 565, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall (as needed).

SPED 606 - Leading Special Education I: Administration (3)
Emphasis is placed on school and community planning for children with disabilities and their families.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

SPED 607 - Leading Special Education II: Legal and Financial Aspects (3)
Emphasis is placed on federal/state laws, policies, procedures, and funding that govern/support special education programs/provisions for students with disabilities and their families. Field-based work is required.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and SPED 606, or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

SPED 608 - Leading Special Education III: Program Development and Organization (4)
Emphasis is placed on the development of programs that promote access, opportunity, and positive outcomes for students with disabilities and their families. (Practicum required.)
Prerequisite: Graduate status and SPED 606, or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

SPED 609 - Leading Special Education IV: Program Evaluation (4)
Emphasis is on the efficacy and impact of programs developed to best support the academic, social, and emotional needs of students with disabilities. (Practicum required.)
Prerequisite: Graduate status and SPED 606, or consent of the department chair.
Offered: As needed.

SPED 615 - Assessment Practicum: Early Childhood Special Education (1)
Students evaluate the development, strengths and needs of young students with exceptionalities. Students select, administer and interpret assessments and write individual educational plans. Thirty-hour practicum required.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, SPED 513, concurrent enrollment with SPED 515, or consent of program advisor.
Offered: Spring.

SPED 616 - Intervention Practicum: Early Childhood Special Education (1)
Students utilize assessment to guide intervention and monitor progress for young students with disabilities. Evidence-based intervention techniques are applied in classroom settings. Thirty-hour practicum required.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, SPED 513, concurrent enrollment with SPED 516, or consent of program advisor.
Offered: Fall.

SPED 648 - Interpreting and Developing Research in Special Education (3)
Emphasis is placed on research and evaluation studies and design as they relate to methodology in various special education programs. This course assists the student in the formulation of an original research and evaluation project.
Prerequisite: Matriculation into a graduate program.
Offered: Fall.

SPED 651 - Language Development Practicum-Exceptional Bilingual Students (1)
Students practice assessment procedures for distinguishing speech and language differences from delays/disorders. Language intervention techniques are applied in classroom settings. 17 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, certification in special education and concurrent enrollment in SPED 552, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Annually.
SPED 652 - Literacy Practicum-Exceptional Bilingual Students (1)
Students put into practice the methods used for teaching literacy to English language learners with disabilities. Literacy intervention techniques are applied in classroom settings. 17 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, certification in special education; SPED 451 or SPED 551, SPED 552; concurrent enrollment in SPED 555; or consent of department chair.
Offered: Annually.

SPED 653 - Assessment Practicum-Exceptional Bilingual Students (1)
Students evaluate the linguistic, academic, and behavioral abilities of selected English language learners with disabilities. Students select, administer, and interpret multifaceted assessments and write individual educational plans. 17 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, certification in special education; SPED 555, SPED 652; and concurrent enrollment in SPED 557; or consent of department chair.
Offered: Annually.

SPED 654 - Internship in Urban Multicultural Special Education (3)
Students are supervised to provide instruction and services to English/multilingual learners with exceptionalities. They conduct assessments, design and implement curriculum, provide interventions, and collaborate with professionals and parents.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, certification in special education; SPED 451 or SPED 551, SPED 552, SPED 453 and SPED 454 or SPED 553, SPED 554, SPED 555, SPED 557 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

SPED 655 - Capstone Study in Urban/Multicultural Special Education (2)
Under faculty supervision, students apply knowledge, skills and dispositions acquired through the program study to conduct a capstone portfolio. They present their capstone portfolios to faculty and peers for feedback.
Prerequisite: Graduate Status, SPED 451 or SPED 551, SPED 552, SPED 453 and SPED 454 or SPED 553, SPED 554, SPED 555, SPED 557 or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

SPED 662 - Internship in Elementary Special Education (6)
Graduate interns complete their culminating field experience in special education. Interns evaluate, plan, and teach to best meet the learning/behavioral needs of elementary students. Professional collaboration is strongly emphasized.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 664 - Internship in Secondary Special Education (6)
Graduate interns complete their culminating field experience in special education. Interns evaluate, plan and teach to best meet the learning/behavioral needs of adolescents. Professional collaboration is strongly emphasized.
Prerequisite: Consent of graduate program advisor or department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 665 - Graduate Internship: Students with SID (6)
The intern is required to evaluate, plan for, and teach students with severe intellectual and complex needs in a school environment. The internship is a full-time, 12 week experience.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and consent of program advisor.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

SPED 668 - Internship in Inclusive Early Childhood (3)
Interns participate in assessment, planning, program implementation, and collaboration with professionals and families in an inclusive early childhood class for 200 hours.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, concurrent enrollment in SPED 516, SPED 513 and consent of program advisor.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

SPED 669 - Internship in Early Intervention (3)
Interns participate in assessment, planning, program implementation, and collaboration with professionals and families in an early intervention program for 200 hours.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, SPED 513, concurrent enrollment in SPED 544, and consent of program advisor.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

SUST - Sustainability Studies

SUST 200 - Introduction to Sustainability (4)
Students examine linkages among environmental protection, economic growth, and social progress in order to develop a fundamental understanding of interdisciplinary skills needed to assess and solve problems related to sustainability.
Offered: Annually.

SUST 251 - Sustainable Systems and Deep Ecology (3)
This course presents holistic, experiential view of ecological systems as they interact with human experience, local food systems, green buildings, and sustainable energy systems, integrating guest lectures by green economy practitioners.
Prerequisite: Completion of FYS, FYW, and at least 24 credits, or permission of instructor.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

SUST 261 - Exploring Nature Through Art, Science, Technology (4)
Students develop environmental awareness of local ecology, cultivating a deepened sense of personal connection with the natural world, through art, writing, technology, and scientific exploration. No prior artistic experience is required.
General Education Category: Connections
Prerequisite: FYS, FYW 100/FYW 100P/FYW 100H and 45 credit hours.
Offered: Fall, Spring.
TESL - Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages

TESL 300 - Promoting Early Childhood Dual Language Development (3)
Candidates acquire research-based strategies for promoting English and supporting the native language in early childhood settings. Approaches are also given for working with parents and caregivers who speak languages other than English.
Prerequisite: ECED 290 and admission to the early childhood education teacher preparation program.
Offered: Fall.

TESL 401 - Introduction to Teaching Emergent Bilinguals (4)
Students learn methods and techniques for supporting Emergent Bilingual students in regular education classrooms. Students experience observation and practice through early clinical preparation. Concurrent enrollment in a practicum is recommended.
Prerequisite: FNED 246/FNED 346.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

TESL 402 - Applications of Second Language Acquisition (3)
Students examine theories and research relating to second-language acquisition, which are examined from a pedagogical perspective. Emphasis is on variables affecting language learning and language teaching.
Prerequisite: TESL 401.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

TESL 507 - Literacy Instruction for Emergent Bilingual Learners (3)
Current theories of bilingualism and biliteracy are examined and connected to pedagogies for developing bilingual readers and writers in ESL settings.
Prerequisite: TESL 541; admission to the program or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

TESL 539 - Second Language Acquisition Theory and Practice (3)
Current theories of first and second language acquisition are examined from a pedagogical perspective. Emphasis is given to creating inclusive linguistic ecologies in schools.
Prerequisite: Graduate status.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

TESL 541 - Applied Linguistics in TESOL (3)
Phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics and pragmatics are explored and applied to language development of emergent bilingual learners. Students also examine the connections between home languages and English.
Prerequisite: TESL 539; TESL 549 or BLBC 515; admission to the program or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

TESL 546 - TESOL Pedagogies for Grades PK-6 (3)
This course reviews current pedagogy and practice through a critical lens in ESL and general education settings for teachers in grades pk-6.
Prerequisite: TESL 541; admission to the program or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

TESL 548 - TESOL Pedagogies for Grades 5-Adult (3)
This course reviews current pedagogy and practice through a critical lens in ESL and general education settings for teachers in grades 5-Adult.
Prerequisite: TESL 541; admission to the program or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

TESL 549 - Sociocultural Contexts: Education in Bilingual Communities (3)
Students use critical theoretical frameworks to explore and reflect on identity formation. Students examine sociocultural contexts and issues affecting bilingual communities, and the essential role of families and communities.
Prerequisite: Graduate status.
Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

TESL 551 - Assessment of Emergent Bilinguals (3)
Students explore theory and practice of assessment for emergent bilinguals, including conducting formal and informal assessments and using data to inform instruction. Students also explore assessment policy and its implications.
Prerequisite: TESL 541; admission to the program or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

TESL 553 - Internship in TESOL and Bilingual Education (3)
Students create and implement lessons, conduct assessments, reflect on practice and collaborate with professionals and families in supervised ESL and/or bilingual settings. The internship schedule includes weekly seminars.
Prerequisite: TESL 539; TESL 549 or BLBC 515; TESL 541; TESL 546 or TESL 548 or BLBC 516; TESL 551; TESL 507 or BLBC 518; admission to the program
Offered: Fall, Spring.

TESL 559 - Graduate Essay in TESOL (1)
Under faculty supervision, students select, critique, and construct portfolio narratives as the comprehensive assessment for the TESL program. The project culminates in a faculty interview and student defense.
Prerequisite: TESL 539; TESL 549 or BLBC 515; TESL 541; TESL 546 or TESL 548 or BLBC 516; TESL 551; TESL 507 or BLBC 518; admission to the program
Offered: Fall, Spring.

TESL 600 - ESL Program Supervision (3)
ESL program supervision, coaching and curriculum design are explored in weekly seminars as well as field experiences. This post-graduate course partially fulfills the requirements for the ESL Specialist/Consultant certification.
Prerequisite: Graduate degree in TESOL, Bilingual Education, or related field. Minimum of three years’ experience teaching emergent bilingual students. ESL Certification required.
Offered: Spring.

TECH - Technology Education

TECH 200W - Introduction to Technological Systems and Processes (3)
This is an introduction to technological development, technological literacy, the use of technological systems, and tools for fundamental production processes to solve social technical problems. 4 contact hours.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

TECH 202 - Design Processes (3)
This class introduces design processes necessary for problem solving and production in a technological society. Emphasis is placed on the design sequence, processes, and techniques for sketching, modeling, prototyping, and CAD. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course. 4 contact hours.
Offered: Fall.

TECH 204 - Energy and Control Systems (3)
Energy sources and common energy processing techniques are introduced. Study includes control devices, energy transmission technology, and the operation of energy conservation systems. 4 contact hours.
Offered: Annually.

TECH 216 - Computer-Aided Design (3)
International drafting-language protocol is explored and used to solve design problems in orthographic and pictorial presentation. Study includes basic computer-aided drafting. 6 contact hours.
Offered: As needed.

TECH 305W - Teaching and Learning in Technology Education (4)
Students are introduced to the materials and skills that will assist them with the development of the formative abilities necessary to deliver effective instruction in (K-12) technology education programs.
Prerequisite: TECH 200 and TECH 202 or TECH 202W; 12 credits of TECH must be completed with a minimum G.P.A. of 2.75; and a minimum cumulative G.P.A. of 2.75.
Offered: Annually.

TECH 306 - Automation and Control Systems (4)
Students study automation and control systems to create efficient technological systems. Activities include CNC, 3D printing, laser cutting/etching and pneumatics to support appropriate technological problem solving and decision-making opportunities.
General Education Category: Advanced Quantitative/Scientific Reasoning (AQR)
Prerequisite: Completion of any mathematics or natural science general education distribution.
Offered: Annually.

TECH 318 - Practicum I: Teaching K-6 Technology Education (4)
Students begin to develop essential skills required to plan and organize lessons for the elementary technology education environment. They observe, assist, then teach in the elementary classroom and laboratory. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: Admission to FSEHD; TECH 305 or TECH 305W and TECH 406 or TECH 406W, with minimum grade of B- and positive recommendation from the instructor; completion of at least 18 credit hours of required and cognate courses in the major, or consent of department chair; minimum cumulative G.P.A. of 2.75; and minimum G.P.A. of 2.75 in content area.
Offered: Annually.

TECH 326 - Communication Systems (3)
Communication processes, systems, and their applications are examined. Study includes the technological processes used in developing, producing, delivering, and storing ideas and information in a technological society. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: TECH 200 or TECH 202 or TECH 202W.
Offered: Annually.

TECH 327 - Construction Systems (3)
This is an introduction to the skills, knowledge, environments, and people in the construction industry. A laboratory component is required for students to plan, design, and build a structure. 6 contact hours.
Prerequisite: TECH 200 or TECH 202 or TECH 202W.
Offered: Annually.

TECH 328 - Manufacturing Systems (3)
This is an exploration of contemporary manufacturing systems, design considerations, production techniques, and automated systems and control devices to produce products. Organizational and management structures are also practiced. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: TECH 200 or TECH 202 or TECH 202W.
Offered: Annually.

TECH 329 - Transportation Systems (3)
Focus is on transportation technology, modes, vehicular systems, and support systems for moving people and cargo in various environments. Study includes the effects of transportation on individuals, society, and the environment. 4 contact hours.
Prerequisite: TECH 200 or TECH 202 or TECH 202W.
Offered: Annually.

TECH 406W - Methods for Teaching Technical Subjects (4)
Students are introduced to teaching methods and clinical experiences in the technical classroom. They learn the craft of teaching by developing micro-lessons delivered and assessed in public school labs.
Prerequisite: TECH 305 or TECH 305W, with minimum grade of B-; completion of at least 18 credit hours of content area courses, with minimum GPA of 2.75 in these courses; admission to the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development and to the technology education teacher preparation program; CTE students will require the consent of program coordinator.
Cross-Listed as: CTE 300.
Offered: Annually.
TECH 418 - Practicum II: Teaching Secondary Technology Education (4)

Students study various principles, methods, content, and curriculum necessary to deliver appropriate lessons. They explore various professional responsibilities under the direction of a cooperating teacher and a college supervisor.

Prerequisite: Admission to FSEHD; TECH 318 with minimum grade of B- and positive recommendation from the instructor; completion of at least 55 credit hours of required and cognate courses in the major, or consent of department chair; minimum cumulative G.P.A. of 2.75; and minimum G.P.A. of 2.75 in content area.

Offered: Annually.

TECH 420 - Introduction to Student Teaching (4)

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in TECH 421 and TECH 422. To be admitted into TECH 420, TECH 421, and TECH 422, the student must have completed all other required courses.

Cross-Listed as: SED 420, WLED 420.

Offered: Early Spring.

TECH 421 - Student Teaching in the Secondary School (7)

In this culminating field experience, candidates complete a teaching experience in a PK-12 school under the supervision of cooperating teachers and college supervisors. This is a full-semester assignment. This course will involve student teaching in PK-12 settings. Students cannot receive credit for more than one of the following: SED 421, TECH 421 and WLED 421. Graded S, U.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in TECH 420 and TECH 422; completion of all program requirements and all required education courses, with a minimum grade of B, prior to student teaching; satisfactory completion of all courses in the major prior to student teaching; a recommendation from the practicum instructor; undergraduate, second degree, and RITE students must have a cumulative GPA of 2.75 a full semester prior to student teaching; graduate students must have a cumulative GPA of 3.00 a full semester prior to student teaching; undergraduate and second degree students must complete the community service requirement; all candidates must have passing score(s) on the Praxis II, approved mini-teacher candidate work sample; and a negative result from the required tuberculin test. To be admitted into TECH 421, and TECH 422, the student must have completed all other required courses.

Cross-Listed as: SED 421, WLED 421.

Offered: Spring.

TECH 422 - Student Teaching Seminar in Secondary Education (4)

This is an integrative and culminating experience in the professional program in world languages education. Students reflect on their initial experience as classroom teachers. This course will involve discussion of student teaching in PK-12 settings. Students cannot receive credit for more than one of the following: SED 422, TECH 422 and WLED 422. Graded S, U.

Prerequisite: Concurrent enrollment in TECH 420 and TECH 421. To be admitted into TECH 421, and TECH 422, the student must have completed all other required courses.

Offered: Spring.

TECH 430 - Internship in Applied Technology (6)

Exploratory internships offered for the purpose of professional development and advancing career goals. Learning experiences in work environments help students transition from the role of student to the professional. 12 contact hours.

Prerequisite: Senior standing; All content courses must be completed; 27 credits in content area; 2.75 GPA in content area.

Offered: As needed.

TECH 431 - Capstone Design Project (4)

This is a project completed under the direction of a faculty member. Students will design, model, test, and report results of their project. This is a Writing in the Discipline (WID) course. 6 contact hours.

Prerequisite: Senior standing; all content courses must be completed; 27 credits in content area; 2.75 GPA in content area.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

TECH 490 - Directed Study (3)

Designed to be a substitute for a traditional course under the instruction of a faculty member.

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor, department chair and dean.

Offered: As needed.

TECH 511 - Implementing Technology Education (3)

Teaching strategies are provided, with focus on implementing programs, integrating with STEM areas, and developing activities.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and certification in technology education, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

TECH 512 - Program Development and Funding (3)

Focus is on developing funding plans and grants to sustain technology education programs.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and certification in technology education, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

TECH 520 - Curriculum Models in Technology Education (3)

New curriculum models used in technology education programs at the national level are presented. Career education and prevocational curriculum thrusts are identified and analyzed for implementation in technology education programs.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and certification in technology education, or consent of department chair.

Offered: As needed.

TECH 531 - Issues in the Workplace (3)

Economic, social, and political issues affecting work and education are identified. Forces accelerating the rate of change in peoples' working lives and their expectations for education and training are studied.

Prerequisite: Graduate status and certification in technology education, or consent of department chair.

Offered: Spring.
TECH 562 - Research in Technology Education (3)
Basic forms of research and evaluation are introduced. Students are required to develop a research proposal in the field of technology education or in another area of technology.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, completion of four courses in the Professional Education Component and/or consent of department chair.
Offered: As needed.

TECH 565 - Problem Solving and Critical Thinking (3)
Students apply techniques for analyzing problems, framing decisions, and stimulating critical analysis and creative thought.
Prerequisite: Graduate status and certification in technology education, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

TECH 590 - Directed Study (1-6)
Students identify a relevant STEM research project. The student prepares the project proposal, conducts the research and presents artifacts developed from the research.
Prerequisite: Graduate status, completion of 18 credits in the program, or permission of the instructor.
Offered: As needed.

THTR - Theatre

THTR 091 - Portfolio Review (0)
At the conclusion of each semester, students present their course work to a panel of professors for critique. The critique focuses on the student's progress and on preparing the student for future job interviews and employment. Grading is S or U.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

THTR 105 - Introduction to Theatre (3)
The basic principles of playwriting, acting, and directing are examined.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

THTR 110 - Fundamentals of Theatrical Design and Production (3)
The basic principles and practices of design and production are examined.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

THTR 120 - Acting I: Improvisation (3)
The actor is introduced to self-discovery in performance. Improvisational techniques free the beginning actor physically, vocally, and emotionally.
(Formerly THTR 222 The Actor's Self: Improvisation and Technique)
Offered: Fall, Spring.

The performer is trained in controlling, shaping, and moving the body. Attention is given to the development of physical characterization.
(Formerly THTR 221 Movement for the Actor)
Offered: Fall, Spring.

THTR 178 - Theatre Production I (1)
Students work on RIC theatre productions under faculty supervision (in performance, technical theatre, costumes/makeup, or stage/theatre management). This course must be taken twice. Grading is S or U.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

THTR 200 - Musical Theatre Company (.5)
Musical theatre students are taught physical and vocal conditioning and are exposed to workshops in music, theatre and dance. Needs to be repeated for credit a minimum of six times for RIC students, and four times for transfer students.
Prerequisite: Admission to musical theatre program.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

THTR 217 - Fundamentals of Stage Management (3)
The basic principles of stage management are covered.
Prerequisite: THTR 105 and THTR 110, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

THTR 223 - Acting III: Technique and Scene Study (3)
Through the study, analysis and performance of scenes and monologues, the actor is introduced to Constantin Stanislavski's system of actor training.
Prerequisite: THTR 120, or by consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

THTR 224 - Script Analysis (3)
Students learn how to analyze scripts and search for playable dramatic values that reveal central unifying patterns, which shape plays from the inside and coordinate all of their parts.
Prerequisite: THTR 223
Offered: Spring.

THTR 226 - Acting IV: Voice and Articulation (3)
The fundamentals of voice production and articulation are studied from the physiological and phonetic bases of speech.
(Formerly THTR 220 Voice and Articulation for the Performer)
Offered: Spring.

THTR 227 - Advanced Movement (3)
Using inspiration from a deep observation of the world, the elements, materials, colours, light, music, animals and humans will be used to create characters in performance.
Prerequisite: THTR 121.
Offered: Fall.

THTR 228 - Basic Design Principles for Theatre (3)
Students are introduced to the language of design. The elements and principles of design and basic drawing techniques are also examined.
Prerequisite: THTR 105 and THTR 110, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Fall.

THTR 229 - Playwriting (3)
Students will learn to craft short playwrighting exercises resulting in the writing of a ten minute play.
Prerequisite: THTR 223 and THTR 224.
Offered: Fall, Spring.

THTR 230 - Stagecraft (3)
The basics of drafting, theatrical building practices, electrical, and sound pathways are introduced. Research and shop projects are required.
Prerequisite: THTR 105 and THTR 110, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

THTR 231 - Scenography (3)
Theatrical rendering techniques and the fundamentals of the theatrical scenic model are studied.
Prerequisite: THTR 105 and THTR 110, or consent of department chair.
Offered: Spring.

THTR 232 - Technical Theatre Principles (3)
Advanced technical concepts and systems are examined. Focus is on how different systems are interrelated on stage.
Prerequisite: THTR 230.
Offered: Spring.

THTR 233 - Architecture and Décor (3)
The history of visual style is explored. Clothing, art, and architecture are examined through various key periods of history.
