

RIWP 2018 Open Air Institute

CULTIVATING LOCALLY GROWN PD: EXPLORING FARMING IN RHODE ISLAND

Join the Rhode Island Writing Project for our sixth annual Open Air Institute on August 7th, 8th, & 9th!

The OAI is three days of fresh air and rejuvenation, a place-based institute designed to integrate content area literacy strategies while exploring local history, culture, and geography as the RIWP writes its way around Rhode Island.

Come explore farming in this interactive and thought-provoking place-based learning experience with Providence/Cranston, North Kingstown, and Glocester as our entry points.

Register at riwp.org today!

I  MY FARMER
the farms and flavors of Rhode Island and Massachusetts at FarmFresh.org