This Adapted Literature resource is available through the Sherlock Center Resource Library.

The text and graphics are adapted from the original source. These resources are provided for teachers to help students with severe disabilities participate in the general curriculum. Please limit the use and distribution of these materials accordingly.
A house in Paris was covered in vines.

Adapted from the original text, Madeline, by Ludwig Bemelmans.
12 little girls lived inside.

Adapted from the original text, Madeline, by Ludwig Bemelmans.
They brushed their teeth and went to bed.

Adapted from the original text, Madeline, by Ludwig Bemelmans.
They left the house at half past 9.

in rain or shine.

Adapted from the original text, Madeline, by Ludwig Bemelmans.
The smallest girl was Madeline. She was not afraid of anything.
One night Miss Clavel thought something was not right.

Adapted from the original text, Madeline, by Ludwig Bemelmans.
Madeline was crying in her bed.

Adapted from the original text, Madeline, by Ludwig Bemelmans.
The nurse said it was her appendix.
They drove during the night in a car with red lights.

Adapted from the original text, Madeline, by Ludwig Bemelmans.
Madeline woke up 2 hours later in a hospital room with flowers.

Adapted from the original text, Madeline, by Ludwig Bemelmans.
Miss Clavel brought the other girls to visit Madeline.
The room was filled with candy and toys.

Adapted from the original text, Madeline, by Ludwig Bemelmans.
They were surprised by the scar on her stomach.

Adapted from the original text, Madeline, by Ludwig Bemelmans.
The girls said "goodbye" and "We will come again".

Adapted from the original text, Madeline, by Ludwig Bemelmans.
The girls got home and went to bed.
Miss Clavel woke up and thought something was not right.

Adapted from the original text, Madeline, by Ludwig Bemelmans.
She ran faster and faster to check on the girls.

Adapted from the original text, Madeline, by Ludwig Bemelmans.
She asked what was wrong.

The girls replied they want their appendix out.

Adapted from the original text, Madeline, by Ludwig Bemelmans.
"Good night little girls, now go to sleep" said Miss Clavel.

Adapted from the original text, Madeline, by Ludwig Bemelmans.