Adapted from the original text, The Adventures of Beekle, by Dan Santat, Little, Brown and Company

Beekle was born on an island far away.
Every night Beekle waited for his special friend.

He waited for many nights.
Then Beekle decided to think.
Beekle sailed through waters and saw many scary things.
Then Beekle saw the real world.

The real world was a strange place.
Beekle saw something familiar.

Beekle followed it.

But Beekle still could not find his friend. Beekle climbed to the top of a tree.
Beekle heard a noise below. Her face was friendly.
Beekle and Alice had many fun adventures.
The world seemed to feel less strange.
Beekle and Alice were happy.
