Miss Kitty is my teacher.

Miss Kitty is the best teacher ever!
Miss Kitty reads stories to us. Sometimes she puts on a silly costume.
Miss Kitty teaches math and makes it exciting.

Sometimes Miss Kitty brings special treats just for us.
When we go on field trips, we sing on the bus.
I want to give a gift to Miss Kitty.

Maybe I can use Daddy's tools? NO.
Mom took me to the store.

I didn't find the right present for Miss Kitty.
Mom said, "We can her bake something special?"

I liked that idea.
Mom made my favorite cake for Miss Kitty. I helped.
I put the cake on the table.

I didn't want to forget the cake in the morning.
I came downstairs in the morning.

The cake was on the floor.

The dog had eaten the cake. I was very mad.
"Miss Kitty loves flowers," said Mom.

Mom cut flowers from the garden and wrapped a bow around them.
On the bus, my present looked bad.

I hid the flowers under my seat.
I forgot my flowers on the bus.

The bus was leaving. What can I do?
I ran to the classroom.

I drew the best picture ever.
I walked up to the front of the class.

I gave my picture to Miss Kitty.
Miss Kitty smiled and put my picture on the chalkboard.
What a great present... for the best teacher ever!
The End
