Chapter 2: Being Flat

Stanley liked being flat. Stanley could fit under doors. He was able to help people because he was flat.

This made mom happy.
Stanley got a letter from Thomas in California. He went to California in an envelope to visit Thomas because he was flat.
Chapter 3: Stanley the Kite.

Dad took Arthur and Stanley to the park. Dad rolled Stanley up to carry him to the park. Stanley got lots of attention. Arthur was jealous. He wanted to be flat like Stanley.
On Sunday, Arthur and Stanley went to the park together. Stanley flew in the sky like a kite. Arthur held on to him with a string. Boys asked Arthur if he wanted a hot dog and soda. Arthur left Stanley in a tree and went with the kids. Mom and dad were mad at Arthur.

Chapter 5: Arthur's Good Idea

Stanley was famous for all the good things he did. But some people made fun of him. This made Stanley sad. Stanley did not want to be flat anymore. Arthur had an idea. He used an air pump to make Stanley round again.

It worked! Stanley was not flat anymore.
Higher functioning students will be able to use the adapted text to experience the story Flat Stanley. However students who require photos and/or objects to make meaning from reading will need additional resources. Please see the table below for additional resources for each chapter.
