Adapted from the original text, The Invisible Boy, written by Trudy Ludwig, illustrated by Patrice Barton.

Brian feels invisible.
Brian is quiet, he isn't chosen to play team games at recess and is never invited to parties.
At school, Brian likes to draw, the other children do not draw with Brian.

Adapted from the original text, The Invisible Boy, written by Trudy Ludwig, illustrated by Patrice Barton.
A new student, Justin, comes to Brian's class.
The other children think Justin's food is gross and laugh at him, but Brian likes Justin's food.
Adapted from the original text, The Invisible Boy, written by Trudy Ludwig, illustrated by Patrice Barton.
Justin is happy and says thank you.
Adapted from the original text, The Invisible Boy, written by Trudy Ludwig, illustrated by Patrice Barton.

Brian, Justin, and Emilio work together on a class project and create a story.
Justin and Emilio ask Brian to eat lunch with them.
Adapted from the original text, The Invisible Boy, written by Trudy Ludwig, illustrated by Patrice Barton.
Adapted from the original text, The Invisible Boy, written by Trudy Ludwig, illustrated by Patrice Barton.

Brian has made friends.
Adapted from the original text, The Invisible Boy, written by Trudy Ludwig, illustrated by Patrice Barton.