This Adapted Literature resource is available through the Sherlock Center Resource Library.

The text and graphics are adapted from the original source. These resources are provided for teachers to help students with severe disabilities participate in the general curriculum. Please limit the use and distribution of these materials accordingly.
Once a Mouse
One day a wizard thought about big and little.

He saw a mouse about to get eaten by a crow.

He ran after the crow and mouse.

Adapted from the original text, Once a Mouse, by Marcia Brown
The wizard helped the scared, little mouse from the crow's beak.

Then he fed and took care of the mouse.
A cat then came to the wizard's house.

The wizard was good at magic.
Once a Mouse

He saw danger threatening his mouse and changed the mouse into a cat.

Adapted from the original text, Once a Mouse, by Marcia Brown
A dog barked and scared the cat.

The wizard changed the cat into a big dog.

A hungry tiger walked through the forest and attacked the dog.

Adapted from the original text, Once a Mouse, by Marcia Brown
The wizard quickly changed the dog into a handsome, royal tiger.
The wizard yelled at the tiger for acting so prideful.

He said "without me you would be a mouse if you'd even be alive".

Adapted from the original text, Once a Mouse, by Marcia Brown
The tiger felt embarrassed.

The tiger said "I will kill the wizard."
The wizard read his mind and changed the tiger back into a scared, little mouse.
And again the wizard thought about big and little.