This Adapted Literature resource is available through the Sherlock Center Resource Library.

The text and graphics are adapted from the original source. These resources are provided for teachers to help students with severe disabilities participate in the general curriculum. Please limit the use and distribution of these materials accordingly.
by Ezra Jack Keats
Peter made a tall block building.
Crash the dog knocked it over.

Peter’s mom said, “Be quiet we have a new baby in the house.”

Adapted from the original text, Peter’s Chair, by Ezra Jack Keats
Peter saw the baby in his old cradle.

Adapted from the original text, Peter’s Chair, by Ezra Jack Keats
Peter’s father asked him to help paint his old highchair pink.

Adapted from the original text, Peter’s Chair, by Ezra Jack Keats
Peter saw his old crib.

It was painted pink too!

Adapted from the original text, Peter’s Chair, by Ezra Jack Keats
He saw his old blue chair.

"They did not paint that!" He shouted.

He took the chair and ran to his room.

Adapted from the original text, Peter’s Chair, by Ezra Jack Keats
Peter said to his dog, "Let's run away. I'll bring my old blue chair."
Adapted from the original text, Peter’s Chair, by Ezra Jack Keats.

Peter and his dog went outside.

Peter thought about sitting in his chair.
He tried to sit in the chair. He was too big!

Peter had an idea.
Adapted from the original text, Peter's Chair, by Ezra Jack Keats.

Peter went inside for lunch. He sat in a big chair.

Peter said to his father, "I want to paint my old chair pink for the baby."
Adapted from the original text, Peter’s Chair, by Ezra Jack Keats.

Peter and his father painted the chair pink.