This Adapted Literature resource is available through the Sherlock Center Resource Library.

The text and graphics are adapted from the original source. These resources are provided for teachers to help students with severe disabilities participate in the general curriculum. Please limit the use and distribution of these materials accordingly.
Adapted from the original text Robert the Rocket, by Leesa Waldron
A lot of noise was coming from Robert's garage.
Robert was making a rocket.

Adapted from the original text Robert the Rocket, by Leesa Waldron
At last the banging stopped. Robert was ready to blast off to the moon in his new red rocket.
Higher and higher went the rocket with Robert inside.

Adapted from the original text Robert the Rocket, by Leesa Waldron
The Earth became smaller and smaller. Outside it became darker and darker.
Robert looked out of his window and he saw...
A falling star

Adapted from the original text Robert the Rocket, by Leesa Waldron
He was on the moon.
Robert looked out of the window and to his surprise he saw...
A moon monster – a very big moon monster with one very big eye. It looked angry.
Robert was so scared that he quickly took off in his red rocket.
He left the moon and the ugly moon monster far behind him.

Adapted from the original text Robert the Rocket, by Leesa Waldron
Before you could say ‘Monster,’ he was back home again...

Adapted from the original text Robert the Rocket, by Leesa Waldron
Already planning his next adventure.

Adapted from the original text Robert the Rocket, by Leesa Waldron