A BICYCLE FOR ROSAURA
Daniel Barbot
Illustrated by Morella Fuenmayor
Kane/Miller Book Publishers
Amelia loves animals.

Amelia has a dog, kitten, turtle, and hen.

The hen's name is Rosaura.
It is Rosaura's birthday.

Rosaura asks Amelia for a bicycle.

Amelia says hens don't ride bicycles.

Rosaura wants to be the first.
Amelia takes the bus to every bicycle shop.

Everyone tells Amelia they don't make bicycles for a hen.

They say sorry.
Amelia goes home very sad.

As days pass, Amelia starts to think it is hopeless.
Then, a man comes to town.

He is singing that he can make anything.

Even skates for a dog.
Amelia calls the man over.

Amelia asks him for help.

Amelia says she needs a bicycle for her hen.

The man writes down numbers.

He works on difficult formulas.
The man says the bicycle may be ready for Rosaura's birthday.
The days go by slowly.

Every day, Amelia sits by the door.

But be careful!

The man who made the bicycle forgot the brakes.
It doesn't matter who you are, grab a bicycle and ride it far!
THE END.
