This Adapted Literature resource is available through the Sherlock Center Resource Library.

The text and graphics are adapted from the original source. These resources are provided for teachers to help students with severe disabilities participate in the general curriculum. Please limit the use and distribution of these materials accordingly.
The Fall of the House of Usher

By,

Edgar Allen Poe

Adapted from the original text, Fall of the House of Usher by Edgar Allen Poe
One day I received a letter. The letter was from my friend. My friend's name is Roderick Usher. Roderick Usher was very sick.
The letter said that I was Usher's best friend. Usher wanted me to come to his house for a few weeks. I was afraid. Usher's family was strange.

Adapted from the original text, "Fall of the House of Usher" by Edgar Allan Poe.
Adapted from the original text, Fall of the House of Usher by Edgar Allen Poe

I left for Usher's house.

It was a cloudy day.

I saw Usher's old house.

A bridge went to his house.

A moat went around the house.

I was scared.
Adapted from the original text, Fall of the House of Usher by Edgar Allen Poe

I knocked on the door.

A servant brought me to see Usher.

The room was old and dirty.

Usher looked white and his hair was messy.
Adapted from the original text, Fall of the House of Usher by Edgar Allen Poe
Adapted from the original text, "The Fall of the House of Usher" by Edgar Allen Poe.
I thought I saw something.

It was a woman named Madeline.

Madeline walked through the room.

Madeline disappeared.

I felt afraid.

Adapted from the original text, "Fall of the House of Usher" by Edgar Allen Poe.
Adapted from the original text, "Fall of the House of Usher" by Edgar Allan Poe

I tried to keep Usher busy.

We painted.

We read books.

We played guitar.

Usher was getting more crazy.
Usher said Madeline had died.

Usher wanted me to help bury Madeline.

Madeline would be buried in the basement.
Adapted from the original text, Fall of the House of Usher by Edgar Allen Poe

In a week, Usher was more crazy.

Usher sad a stared at nothing.

At night, there was a thunder storm.

It was windy.
I didn't sleep. The wind was noisy.

I felt scared.

Usher brought me a lantern.

Usher opened the window.

Usher pointed at something. I saw
Adapted from the original text, Fall of the House of Usher by Edgar Allen Poe

Usher & I read.

We were scared.

I heard a noise.

The noise was in the basement.

I heard a scream.
I was worried.

Was Madeline really dead?

Usher heard the scream before.

I heard a coffin open.

Adapted from the original text, Fall of the House of Usher by Edgar Allen Poe
The wind made the door open.

I saw a ghost of Madeline.

Madeline jumped on Usher.

Usher fell on the floor.

Usher was dead.
I was very scared.

I ran away from the house.

I saw lightning.

The sky was red.

I saw the house sink.

Only the moat was there.

Adapted from the original text, Fall of the House of Usher by Edgar Allen Poe