This Adapted Literature resource is available through the Sherlock Center Resource Library.

The text and graphics are adapted from the original source. These resources are provided for teachers to help students with severe disabilities participate in the general curriculum. Please limit the use and distribution of these materials accordingly.
The Wind Blew
The wind blew.
It took the umbrella from Mr. White and quickly turned it inside out.
It snatched the balloon from little Priscilla and swept it up to join the umbrella.

Adapted from the original text, The Wind Blew, by Pat Hutchins
& X

And not content, it took a hat, and still not satisfied with that,

Adapted from the original text, The Wind Blew, by Pat Hutchins
it whirled a kite into the air and kept it spinning round up there.
It grabbed a shirt left out to dry and tossed it upward to the sky.
It plucked a hanky from a nose and up and up and up it rose.

Adapted from the original text, The Wind Blew, by Pat Hutchins
It lifted the wig from the judge's head and didn't drop it back.

Adapted from the original text, The Wind Blew, by Pat Hutchins
Instead it whirled the postman's letters up, as if it hadn't done enough.
It blew so hard it quickly stole a striped flag fluttering on a pole.

Adapted from the original text, The Wind Blew, by Pat Hutchins
It pulled the new scarves from the twins and tossed them to the other things.

Adapted from the original text, The Wind Blew, by Pat Hutchins
It sent the newspapers fluttering round, then tired of the things it found, it mixed them up and threw them down

Adapted from the original text, The Wind Blew, by Pat Hutchins
and blew them away to sea.

Adapted from the original text, The Wind Blew, by Pat Hutchins