

Work Incentives Public Information Sessions

For Youth and Adult SSI and/or SSDI recipients (Family, Guardian, Rep-Payee, etc.)

You will want to attend if...

- You want to work and need the facts about SSA Work Incentives related to cash benefits and health insurance.
- You are working and have questions or concerns about reporting requirements, over payments or simply interested in increasing your hours/wages.
- You want to learn more about health insurance incentives.
- You work and pay a high cost share.

"This a session helped me realize that work is possible."
-Recent Attendee

Sessions are open to SSI and/or SSDI recipients, including family members, guardians, rep-payees, etc.
There is no cost to attend.

Social Security Administration and the State of RI offers a variety of work incentives and support services to help individuals go to work.

A Certified Work Incentive Benefits Counselor will review available Social Security work incentives for SSI and SSDI Beneficiaries.

These sessions are for individuals already receiving SSI or SSDI benefits or those supporting them.

This is not a job fair or a session on "how to apply for benefits".
