The Paul V. Sherlock Center on Disabilities is working on its next five-year plan. We would like your input regarding the needs of Rhode Islanders with disabilities and their families.

Topical forums are scheduled for both the afternoon and evening. Pick the sessions that meet your interests. Each session is being held at the Sherlock Center on the Rhode Island College Campus. Light refreshments will be provided.

November 16, 1:30—3:00 PM
Topics: Self-determination, Community Membership, and Workforce Development

November 16, 5:30—7:00 PM
Topics: Early Childhood & Education, Transition to Adult Life, and Low Incidence Disabilities (vision impairment, hearing loss, autism, etc.)