

Useful information if you submitted an Application

Thank you for submitting your application to our MSW Program, here is some general information that you might find useful.

- 1) Admissions Committee Decisions:
 - Applications are only reviewed once they are completed (including all transcripts and recommendations)
 - Applicants should expect to hear of their application decision on or around April 15th.
 - Please do not call the School of Social Work to find out the disposition of your application. All decisions will be provided in writing.
 - Admissions decisions are final. We do not have an appeals process.

- 2) Letters of Reference:
 - You can check online to see if your letter of reference writers have submitted your letter. If they have not, you can send them reminders via your online account
 - Letters of reference can only be submitted online (mailed, faxed or emailed letters of reference will not be accepted)
 - If your letter of reference writer is having issues with the CollegeNET link and/or if you need to make any changes to the writer's information (ie, new email address); please contact CollegeNET directly for assistance via your online application or at lor_help@collegenet.com

- 3) Incomplete Applications:
 - Incomplete applications will not be reviewed.

Paula C. Coutinho, MSW, LICSW
Director of Admissions
Rhode Island College
School of Social Work
pcoutinho@ric.edu
(401) 456-9830