

COLLEGE WITHDRAWAL FORM (For withdrawals up to and including the last day to withdraw)

If you have financial aid, please speak with your financial aid advisor to discuss the impact your withdrawal will have on current and future charges and financial aid. Withdrawing does not release you from any financial obligations. The Withdrawal Date is used for calculating billing, financial aid, and/or refunds and is subject to verification. Residents must contact Residential Life & Housing to terminate their Housing Contract.

Name: Student Id: Phone: Street: City, State, Zip: RIC E-Mail: Other E-Mail:

Withdrawal Term: Year 20 [] Fall [] Spring [] Summer College (Check One): [] Arts and Sciences [] Education and Human Development [] Business [] Nursing [] Social Work Withdrawal Type: [] Official [] Drop All Classes Expected Return Date: Not Returning [] Returning Reason(s) for Withdrawal: [] Financial [] Medical [] Personal [] Military [] Academics [] Employment [] Transfer - Transferring to: [] Other - Comments: Was this your first semester at RIC? [] Yes [] No Are you a PEP Student? [] Yes [] No Do you have the RIC Health Insurance? [] Yes [] No Are you a RIC Student Employee? [] Yes [] No Are you receiving VA Benefits through RIC Enrollment? [] Yes [] No

Student Signature

Resources: Table with 6 columns: Office Name, Phone, Service Name, Phone, Service Name, Phone. Rows include Bursars' Office, Counselling Center, Disability Services, Financial Aid, Health Services, Learning for Life, OASIS, Records, Resident Life & Housing, Student Life, Veteran Resource Center.

For Student Life Office use only:

Processed by: _____ Date: _____ Filed: [] Emailed to Student: []

Notifications: [] Records • Financial Aid • Housing • PEP • Career Development • Health Services • Disability Services • Counselling Center • Academic Dean of College