

What is SharePoint?

By Megan DiBonaventura

SharePoint is a Microsoft product that is used for collaboration, file sharing, and web sites on the fly. For a committee or department, SharePoint is a great place to share and store documents and display announcements. Only team members have access to the site so everything is private and protected.

What does the site look like?