will ride the bus tomorrow.

Junie B. is not scared anymore.
Objects to be used in the Story:

Chapter 1: We would have the students hold a paper bow up to their forehead to represent Junie B. Jones.

Chapter 2: When the students hear about the bus, they have to push a small toy bus on the table in front of them.

Chapter 3: When the students hear about the bus, they have to push a small toy bus on the table in front of them.

For Jim, the students will hold up a paper cutout of a hat up to their heads. (avoid lice)

Chapter 4: When Lucille is introduced, the students will hold up a name tag that says Lucille. This will match up with the picture in the book.

Chapter 5: Have the students pick up an empty milk carton when they read about it being poured over people’s head on the bus.

Chapter 6: Since Junie B. hid in a closet, the students will hold up a plastic coat hanger when her hiding spot is mentioned.

Chapter 7: Students will open and close a book when they hear Junie B. goes to the library.

Chapter 8: The students will pick up a band aid from the table when they hear the word band aid.

Chapter 9: When Junie B. calls 911, the student will pick up a play phone and hold it to their ear.

Chapter 10: The student will push a small toy fire truck on the table when it is mentioned in the story.
