RECESSIONAL

GRADUATION WITH ACADEMIC DISTINCTION

Academic distinction is conferred on graduates who have earned a baccalaureate degree at Rhode Island College while maintaining the highest scholastic standings with a G.P.A. of 3.25 or higher:

Summa Cum Laude: G.P.A. of 3.85 or higher is recognized with gold cords

Magna Cum Laude: G.P.A. of 3.60 to 3.84 is recognized with burgundy cords

Cum Laude: G.P.A. of 3.25 to 3.59 is recognized with white cords

Once graduates receive their diploma covers, they may meet their guests in the lobby or outside of the Dunkin' Donuts Center.

Honorary Degree Recipient

Simone P. Joyaux

Doctor of Public Service

Simone P. Joyaux was a Rhode Island treasure.

She was a renowned fundraiser, author, mentor, teacher, and activist who passed away unexpectedly in May of 2021.

Internationally recognized as an expert in fund development, board and organizational development, strategic planning, and management, Joyaux has had an incalculable impact on nonprofits both in Rhode Island and around the world.

In Rhode Island she worked with the Center for Justice, Leadership Rhode Island, College Unbound, the Rhode Island Foundation, the Rhode Island Urban Debate League, the Steel Yard, the Rhode Island Coalition for the Homeless, the Gamm Theatre, Festival Ballet, Save the Bay, the Rhode Island State Council on the Arts, and many others.

She founded Rhode Island Arts Advocates, the first statewide arts advocacy organization, and the Women's Fund of RI, a social justice organization committed to equity for women and girls.

Joyaux served on dozens of boards, presented at conferences all over the world, and taught in the master's program for philanthropy and development at Saint Mary's University of Minnesota for 21 years. She also served as faculty in the nonprofit studies program at Rhode Island College since 2006.

Her career in the nonprofit sector began in 1975 as the executive director of an arts organization in Lansing, Michigan. She then served as chief development officer for Rhode Island's Trinity Repertory Company from 1981-88. In 1988 she became a full-time consultant, working with hundreds of organizations of all types and sizes.

Until her untimely passing Joyaux served as an active volunteer on the professional development committee for the Association of Fundraising Professionals Rhode Island (AFPRI), focusing her energies on building a pipeline for the next generation of Rhode Island's nonprofit professionals – in particular, those like herself who attended state institutions of higher education.

Honorary Degree Recipient

Louis A. Marciano, M.Ed. '60

Doctor of Public Service

Louis A. Marciano has been a proud member and supporter of the Rhode Island College community for more than 60 years. The son of Italian immigrants, he was born in Providence in 1924 and attended Mt. Pleasant High School, just down the road from the current RIC campus. After serving his country in the Navy during World War II, he attended Arnold College in Connecticut on the G.I. Bill, earning a bachelor's degree in science and physical education and becoming the first in his family to graduate from college. He earned a master of education in school administration from RIC in 1960.

Marciano's long career supporting the health and education of Providence students began, fittingly, back at Mt. Pleasant High School, where he served as science department chair. He later ascended to director of health and physical education for the Providence Public School Department and chief of health promotion for the Rhode Island Department of Health.

As a coach at Mt. Pleasant, he led the school to five state wrestling championships and it became the first public school to win the New England championship. He was also assistant varsity football coach for eight championship teams in the 1950s and '60s. Marciano is an inductee to both the Rhode Island Wrestling (1979) and Football (2012) Halls of Fame.

Marciano's service to Rhode Island College includes 49 years and counting on the board of directors of the Rhode Island College Foundation, including three terms as secretary and two as vice president. He received the college's Man of the Year Award in 1995 and the Alumni Association Service Award in 2005. In November of 2021, he was selected by a delegation from the college to lay a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery. The Marciano family has earned a total of six degrees at RIC, including Lou's own and five among his two daughters.

Commencement Speaker

Maria Ducharme '87 DNP, RN, NEA-BC

President of The Miriam Hospital

Maria Ducharme '87, DNP, RN, NEA-BC, is president of The Miriam Hospital. Dr. Ducharme has spent her entire professional career at The Miriam Hospital, where she began as a cardiovascular medical/surgical nurse. Her impressive breadth of experiences has included leadership roles in inpatient nursing, respiratory therapy, and rehabilitation services.

In 2010, Maria was named senior vice president for patient care services and chief nursing officer of The Miriam. Maria has led some of The Miriam's most ambitious and successful efforts to achieve excellence in the quality of patient care at the hospital. She helped lead the hospital's response to COVID-19, directly overseeing the refinement and deployment of new safety protocols developed in response to the coronavirus pandemic.

Under her stewardship, The Miriam attained four-year Magnet recognition — considered the gold standard for nursing excellence — six consecutive times, which is a feat accomplished by only three other hospitals in the United States. Maria earned a doctor of nursing practice from Massachusetts General Hospital Institute of Health Professions, a master of science degree in nursing from the University of Rhode Island, and a bachelor of science degree in nursing from Rhode Island College in 1987.

HISTORY OF RHODE ISLAND COLLEGE

Rhode Island College is the state's first public institution of higher education. Established in 1854 by the Rhode Island General Assembly as the Rhode Island State Normal School, the school was founded to address the increasing demand for formally educated teachers in the state. First classes were held at the Second Universalist Church in Providence before moving in 1857 to free accommodations at the former Congregational meetinghouse in Bristol. Normal School operations were suspended in 1865, but the school reopened in 1871 in a building near Hoyle Square in Providence. In 1879 larger quarters were secured in a former Providence High School building, and in 1893 the first Observation and Training School was opened in a former grammar school a number of blocks away from the Normal School.

In 1898 a new and much grander home was completed on Providence's Capitol Hill. The first floor was occupied by the Observation and Training School, named in honor of Henry Barnard in 1920. That same year the Normal School was rechartered as the Rhode Island College of Education (R.I.C.E.), gaining the authority to grant baccalaureate degrees and earning distinction as the first New England normal school to become a college of education. In 1925 the college offered its first graduate degree program – the Master of Education. Increased growth led to the opening of a separate building on the same campus to house the Henry Barnard School in 1928.

By the early 1950s the college was again in need of larger quarters. In the fall of 1958 a new 48-acre campus opened in the Mt. Pleasant section of Providence, with six buildings, 800 students and 65 faculty members. In 1959 the Rhode Island General Assembly assigned the institution a new mission; in addition to its teacher education programs, the college was to offer a comprehensive curriculum in the arts and sciences and to add a program in the industrial arts. To reflect its new mission, in 1960 the institution's name was changed to Rhode Island College.

Over the past 60 years, the campus has grown to 180 acres and enrollment has expanded to over 6,000 students. The campus consists of 43 buildings, including six residence halls that can now accommodate 1,200 students. Academic offerings are provided in five schools: the Feinstein School of Education and Human Development, the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, the School of Business, the Onanian School of Nursing and the School of Social Work.

THE RHODE ISLAND COLLEGE SEAL

The official Rhode Island College seal (adopted in 1960) incorporates the anchor, a symbol of hope and of the state of Rhode Island, with the founding of the institution in 1854. The seal was designed by Edith C. Becker, professor emerita of art, who adapted the central flame symbol from the Holbrook Murals in the foyer of Roberts Hall. The flame is used in the murals to depict the energy that has, over the ages, supported the development of all living things and has led civilization to its highest intellectual achievements. In like manner, the flame in the Rhode Island College seal stands for the life of the body and the life of the mind, symbolizing the human and intellectual goals and achievements of Rhode Island College.

THE DEL SESTO MACE

At the 1959 commencement exercises, the first held on the present Mount Pleasant campus, Governor Christopher Del Sesto presented to Rhode Island College a bronze replica of the statue of the Independent Man so that the college, which since 1898 had been located near the State House, might continue its tradition of holding commencements and other academic convocations in the presence of the Independent Man. The Del Sesto Mace, designed by the noted Rhode Island sculptor Aristide Cianfarani and crafted by the Gorham Company, has been in use since 1962 in all academic processions as a symbol of tradition and authority, as well as commitment to the search for truth, knowledge, beauty, values and learning.

THE PRESIDENTIAL MEDALLION

The Presidential Medallion is a symbol of the office of the president. The medallion is appended to a chain that bears the names of the college and the chief executive officers who have led the institution. The medallion bears the names of all the presidents to date; as well as the official names of the institution over time; the Rhode Island Normal School (1854-1920), Rhode Island College of Education (1920-1960) and Rhode Island College (1960-present).

ALMA MATER

Dear Alma Mater wise and kind,
To thy fair name shall e'er belong our grateful praises and our love,
The tribute of our song.
Thou guardian of the sacred shrine of truth that makes us free.
We cherish thy beloved fame and pledge our loyalty.
Rhode Island College hail to thee!
All hail to Alma Mater!
Enshrined thou art within the heart of ev'ry son and daughter.

RHODE ISLAND COLLEGE COLORS

Rhode Island College's colors are gold and white, taken from the Rhode Island state flag. In 1986 burgundy was added as an accent color.
