

The Doris Mathewson Award

Beneficent Congregational Church has established the Doris Mathewson Award within the Rhode Island College Foundation as an annual award to be used to benefit students of nursing at Rhode Island College. The award honors Doris Mathewson upon her retirement from parish nursing.

Doris Mathewson was a registered nurse who received her nursing diploma from Rhode Island Hospital School of Nursing, a bachelor's degree in nursing from Rhode Island College and a master's degree in nursing education from Salve Regina University. Doris is well known to the nursing community in Rhode Island. Her vision of parish nursing came to fruition when she became the founding parish nurse at Beneficent Congregational Church and she contributed greatly to the well-being of the church and the community. Devotion, perseverance, compassion, and an insightful ability for strong interpersonal relations characterized her work. This award was established to recognize those nursing students who have demonstrated these qualities and plan on practicing nursing in the State of RI.

Monetary awards are offered annually, according to the wishes of the Beneficent Congregational Church, to students enrolled in the Zvart Onanian School of Nursing. Selection is based on academic performance, service to the department and /or community, and the students must have great financial need as determined by the Office of Financial Aid (FAFSA required).

Selection Criteria

1. Applicants may be either part-time or full-time undergraduate students who have been accepted into the nursing major at Rhode Island College.
2. Applicants must have great financial need as determined by the Office of Financial Aid (FAFSA required).
3. Applicants must possess an overall cumulative GPA index of at least 3.0.
4. Applicants must attain at least a 3.0 in each required nursing course.
5. Applicants must receive satisfactory clinical evaluations.
6. Although the primary emphasis is on scholarly achievement, each applicant should present evidence of school activities and service to the college and community.
7. A signed, typewritten statement (no more than 500 words) about the student's personal philosophy of nursing must be submitted with the application form by email.
