

2022 CACREP Vital Statistics

Rhode Island College

Masters of Science Clinical Mental Health Counseling

Rhode Island College is a public institution in the North Atlantic Region. We have one program accredited under the 2009 CACREP standards – MS Clinical Mental Health Counseling (60 semester hours). CACREP national accreditation for the program extends to 2024. This report of vital statistics is required of all CACREP-accredited programs and must be publicly reported in a program outcomes report for the program website.

Current students enrolled in 3-year program = 116 matriculated in MS CMHC program

Graduates from program in 2022= 17

Completion rate of students in program = 100%

% of admitted students who graduate from the program in the expected time period (full and part-time student in 3- 5yrs)

Licensure examination pass rate of students graduating from program= N/A

Students completing program must complete 2000 hour post Masters in 2 years before sitting for exam.

Job Placement rate of graduates seeking employment = 100%

100% of 2022 MS graduates reported that if they were seeking employment in mental health post- graduation they are working in mental health locations. Sixty percent of interns continued as employees at their sites after graduation.

Number of applications for program in February 2022: 72

Applications received in 2021: 85

2020: 44

Submitted by

*Monica G. Darcy, PhD, LMHC, NCC, ACS
Counseling Programs Director, CACREP liaison
mdarcy@ric.edu*

November 12, 2022